Security Description:

The goal of this section is to provide a clear understanding of the material rights and privileges of the securities issued by the company. Please provide the below information for each class of the company's equity securities, as applicable:

A. For common equity, describe any dividend, voting and preemption rights.

One voter per share. No other rights.

B. For preferred stock, describe the dividend, voting, conversion, and liquidation rights as well as redemption or sinking fund provisions.

The Company has authorized one share of Series A preferred stock, par value $100. The share of Series A preferred has no conversion rights and is not redeemable. As of each record date for the determination of the Corporation's shareholders entitled to vote on any matter (a "Record Date"), the Series A Voting Preferred shall have voting rights and powers equal to the number of votes that entitle the holder of the share of Series A Voting Preferred to exercise one vote more than one-half of all votes entitled to be cast as of such Record Date by all holders of capital stock of the Corporation so as to ensure that the votes entitled to be cast by the holder of the Series A Voting Preferred share shall be equal to at least fifty-one percent (51%) of all votes entitled to be cast.

The Company has authorized 99 shares of Series B preferred stock, par value $100. The shares of Series B preferred are not redeemable and are convertible into shares of common stock at one preferred for 10,000,000 shares of common stock.

The Company has authorized 300 shares of Series C preferred stock, par value $1.00. The shares of Series C preferred are convertible into shares of common stock at either:

- a) if, at the time of conversion the price of common stock is $0.01 or higher, then each share of Series C converts into 1,000,000 shares of common stock, or
- b) if, at the time of conversion the price of common stock is less than \$0.01, then each share of Series C converts into shares of common stock at $1,000,000 \times (\# \text{ of Series C converted}) \times (.01/\text{market price})$. The Series C have no voting rights. *

*The terms and conditions of the Series C preferred stock have been amended to provide that each share of Series C Preferred stock is convertible into 500,000 shares of common stock. The agreement of the shareholder of record of the Series C preferred stock has executed the necessary documents to amend and the Company resolution so indicating has been sent to the Florida Secretary of State.

C. Describe any other material rights of common or preferred stockholders.

None

D. Describe any material modifications to rights of holders of the company's securities that have occurred over the reporting period covered by this report.

None

NOTE 1: ORGANIZATION

Organization

Bell Buckle Holdings, Inc. (the “Company”), was incorporated under the laws of the State of Florida on June 7, 2000. The Company was formerly known as Digital Color Print, Inc., which was formerly Mediatelevision.tv, Inc., which was formed on October 11, 2000 under the laws of the State of Delaware.

Bell Buckle Holdings, Inc. is a Florida corporation. It is a holding company, primarily focused on investments and business that can be scaled utilizing technology, management and strategic partnerships.

On June 1, 2024, the Company acquired 100% of the interests in Green Mantis LLC, a Michigan limited liability company.

ASSIGNMENT, ASSUMPTION, AND NOVATION AGREEMENT EFFECTIVE APRIL 8, 2025

On April 8, 2025 (the “Effective Date”), Bell Buckle Holdings, Inc. (“Bell Buckle”) entered into an Assignment, Assumption, and Novation Agreement (“Novation”) with several parties: Green Mantis, LLC (“GM LLC”), Reginald B. Kelley Sr. (“Kelley”), Roger Hood (“Hood”), Tobias Felder (“Felder”), RG Barron Funds Ltd. (“RG Barron”), and More Management, LLC (“More”).

This new agreement was created to unwind and dissolve a previous deal — specifically, a Limited Liability Company Interest Purchase and Merger Agreement (along with an amendment) originally signed in March/ April 2024 (together, the “Merger Agreement”). Under that prior agreement, GM LLC, Hood, and Kelley had become controlling shareholders of Bell Buckle by acquiring all of its Series A Preferred Stock and 37.5% each of its Series B Preferred Stock. However, that arrangement was never fully completed, as certain equity issuances did not occur.

The parties mutually agreed to move forward with the Novation in order to pursue different directions. The agreement enables Bell Buckle to launch a new business strategy, with MORE contributing assets to support that effort.

MORE has contributed its MORE brand cryptocurrency business as of the date of the novation. MORE has also added its equity interest in Fanalyzor, LLC and its revenue participation in AI power chat software called Fanalytics.ai that is the primary product of Fanalyzor.

NOTE 2: SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Presentation

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (“U.S. GAAP”). and pursuant to the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) and reflect all adjustments, consisting of normal recurring adjustments, which management believes are necessary to fairly present the financial position, results of operations and cash flows of the Company as of and for current reporting period.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers all highly liquid temporary cash investments with an original maturity of nine months or less to be cash equivalents. At June 30, 2025, and December 31, 2024, the Company had no cash equivalents.

Revenue Recognition

Revenue is recognized when services are performed and is recognized in an amount that reflects the consideration that an entity expects to receive in exchange for those services. In addition, the standard requires disclosure of the nature, amount, timing, and uncertainty of revenue and cash flows arising from contracts with customers. The amount of revenue that is recorded reflects the consideration that the Company expects to receive in exchange for those services. The Company applies the following five-step model to determine this amount:

- 1) identification of the promised services in the contract;
- 2) determination of whether the promised services are performance obligations, including whether they are distinct in the context of the contract;
- 3) measurement of the transaction price, including the constraint on variable consideration;
- 4) allocation of the transaction price to the performance obligations; and
- 5) recognition of revenue when (or as) the Company satisfies each performance obligation.

Loss Per Share

Basic and diluted net loss per common share is computed based upon the weighted average common shares outstanding as defined by FASB ASC No. 260, "Earnings Per Share." Diluted loss per share is computed by dividing net loss by the weighted average number of shares of common stock, common stock equivalents and potentially dilutive securities outstanding during the period.

Income Taxes

The Company recognizes deferred tax assets and liabilities for the expected future tax consequences of items that have been included or excluded in the financial statements or tax returns. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are determined on the basis of the difference between the tax basis of assets and liabilities and their respective financial reporting amounts ("temporary differences") at enacted tax rates in effect for the years in which the temporary differences are expected to reverse.

The Company adopted the provisions of Accounting Standards Codification ("ASC") Topic 740-10, which prescribes a recognition threshold and measurement process for financial statement recognition and measurement of a tax position taken or expected to be taken in a tax return.

Management has evaluated and concluded that there are no material tax positions requiring recognition in the Company's unaudited condensed consolidated unaudited financial statements as of June 30, 2025. The Company does not expect any significant changes in its unrecognized tax benefits within twelve months of the reporting date.

The Company's policy is to classify assessments, if any, for tax related interest as interest expense and penalties as general and administrative expenses in the statement of operations.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment is recorded at cost and depreciated or amortized using the straight-line method over the estimated useful life of the asset or the underlying lease term for leasehold improvements, whichever is shorter onset the property and equipment is put into service.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The Company measures its financial assets and liabilities in accordance with GAAP. For certain of our financial instruments, including cash, accounts payable, and the short-term portion of long-term debt, the carrying amounts approximate fair value due to their short maturities.

We adopted accounting guidance for financial and non-financial assets and liabilities (ASC 820). The adoption did not have a material impact on our results of operations, financial position, or liquidity. This standard defines fair value, provides guidance for measuring fair value and requires certain disclosures. This standard does not require any new fair value measurements, but rather applies to all other accounting pronouncements that require or permit fair value measurements. This guidance does not apply to measurements related to share-based payments. This guidance discusses valuation techniques, such as the market approach (comparable market prices), the income approach (present value of future income or cash flow), and the cost approach (cost to replace the service capacity of an asset or replacement cost). The guidance utilizes a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value into three broad levels. The following is a brief description of those three levels:

- Level 1: Observable inputs such as quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.
- Level 2: Inputs other than quoted prices that are observable, either directly or indirectly. These include quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets and quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in markets that are not active.
- Level 3: Unobservable inputs in which little or no market data exists, therefore developed using estimates and assumptions developed by us, which reflect those that a market participant would use.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

The Company has implemented all new applicable accounting pronouncements that are in effect. These pronouncements did not have any material impact on the financial statements unless otherwise disclosed, and the Company does not believe that there are any other new accounting pronouncements that have been issued that might have a material impact on its financial position or results of operations.

Stock-Based Compensation

In December 2004, the FASB issued FASB ASC No. 718, Compensation – Stock Compensation. Under FASB ASC No. 718, companies are required to measure the compensation costs of share-based compensation arrangements based on the grant-date fair value and recognize the costs in the financial statements over the period during which employees are required to provide services. Share-based compensation arrangements include stock options, restricted share plans, performance-based awards, share appreciation rights and employee share purchase plans. As such, compensation cost is measured on the date of grant at their fair value. Such compensation amounts, if any, are amortized over the respective vesting periods of the option grant. The Company applies this statement prospectively.

Equity instruments (“instruments”) issued to other than employees are recorded on the basis of the fair value of the instruments, as required by FASB ASC No. 718. FASB ASC No. 505, Equity Based Payments to Non-Employees defines the measurement date and recognition period for such instruments. In general, the measurement date is when either a (a) performance commitment, as defined, is reached or (b) the earlier of (i) the non-employee performance is complete or (ii) the instruments are vested. The measured value related to the instruments is recognized over a period based on the facts and circumstances of each particular grant as defined in the FASB ASC.

Business Segments

The Company operates in one segment and therefore segment information is not presented.

Accounts Receivable

The Company provides an allowance for uncollectible accounts based upon a periodic review and analysis of outstanding accounts receivable balances. Uncollectible receivables are charged to the allowance when deemed uncollectible. Recoveries of accounts previously written off are used to credit the allowance account in the periods in which the recoveries are made.

The Company provided $0 and $0 allowances for doubtful accounts as of June 30, 2025 and December 31, 2024, respectively.

Concentration of Credit Risk

The Company currently maintains cash balances at one FDIC-insured banking institutions. Deposits held in noninterest-bearing transaction accounts are insured up to a maximum of $250,000 at all FDIC-insured institutions. At June 30, 2025 and December 31, 2024, the Company had no cash balances above the FDIC-insured limit, respectively.

Reclassification

Certain amounts from prior periods could be reclassified to conform to the current period presentation. These reclassifications had no impact on the Company's net loss or cash flows.

NOTE 3 – MERGER AND SUBSEQUENT AGREEMENT TO UNWIND

In June 2024, Green Mantis ("Green Mantis") merged into Bell Buckle (the "Company"). As part of the merger, Green Mantis contributed software with an estimated value of $25,000,000 to the combined entity. During the quarter ended June 30, 2025, on May 9, 2025, the Company's Board of Directors approved a plan to unwind the merger with Green Mantis. Pursuant to this agreement, the software contributed by Green Mantis in the merger was returned to Green Mantis and software was derecognized on the balance sheet.

NOTE 4 – COMMON STOCK TRANSACTIONS

(A) Common Stock

The Company is authorized to issue 5,000,000,000 shares of common stock with a par value of $0.0001 per share.

During the quarter ended June 30, 2025, the Company has agreed to issue a total of 35,900,000 common shares to the former officers of the Company at the par cost of $3,590. The Company has recorded these shares as Common stock issuable

NOTE 5 – PREFERRED STOCK

The Company has authorized one (1) share of Series A preferred stock, par value $100. The share of Series A preferred has no conversion rights and is not redeemable. As of each record date for the determination of the Corporation's shareholders entitled to vote on any matter (a "Record Date"), the Series A Voting Preferred shall have voting rights and powers equal to the number of votes that entitle the holder of the share of Series A Voting Preferred to exercise one vote more than one-half of all votes entitled to be cast as of such Record Date by all holders of capital stock of the Corporation so as to ensure that the votes entitled to be cast by the holder of the Series A Voting Preferred share shall be equal to at least fifty-one percent (51%) of all votes entitled to be cast.

The Company has authorized ninety-nine (99) shares of Series B preferred stock, par value $100. The shares of Series B preferred are not redeemable and are convertible into shares of common stock at one preferred for 10,000,000 shares of common stock.

The Company has authorized three hundred (300) shares of Series C preferred stock, par value \$1.00. The shares of Series C preferred are convertible into shares of common stock at either 1) if, at the time of conversion the price of common stock is \$0.01 or higher, then each share of Series C converts into 1,000,000 shares of common stock, or 2) if, at the time of conversion the price of common stock is less than \$0.01, then each share of Series C converts into shares of common stock at $1,000,000 \times (\# \text{ of Series C converted}) \times (.01 / \text{market price})$. The Series C have no voting rights. The amendment related to the Jump Start Sports divestiture will revise conversion rights of the Series C to provide each share shall be convertible into 500,000 shares of common stock.

NOTE 6: LIQUIDITY, GOING CONCERN AND MANAGEMENT'S PLANS

These unaudited financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis, which contemplates the realization of assets and the settlement of liabilities and commitments in the normal course of business.

As reflected in the accompanying unaudited financial statements, for the six months ended June 30, 2025, the Company had:

- Net loss of $13,120; and
- Net cash used in operations was $27.

Additionally, as of June 30, 2025, the Company had:

- Accumulated deficit of $339,267;
- Stockholders' deficit of $3,520; and
- Working capital deficit of $3,520.

The Company has cash on hand of $27 at June 30, 2025. Although the Company intends to raise additional debt (third party and related party lenders) or equity capital, the Company expects to incur losses from operations and have negative cash flows from operating activities for the near-term. These losses could be significant as the Company executes its business plan.

These factors create substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern within the twelve-month period subsequent to the date that these financial statements are issued. The financial statements do not include any adjustments that might be necessary if the Company is unable to continue as a going concern. Accordingly, the financial statements have been prepared on a basis that assumes the Company will continue as a going concern and which contemplates the realization of assets and satisfaction of liabilities and commitments in the ordinary course of business.

Management's strategic plans include the following:

- Pursuing additional capital raising opportunities;
- Executing and commercializing its business operations;
- Continuing to explore and execute prospective partnering or distribution opportunities; and
- Identifying unique market opportunities that represent potential positive short-term cash flow.

NOTE 7 – STATEMENT REGARDING PREVIOUS MANAGEMENT'S ASSETS

The Company hereby states that the new management team, which assumed control following the recent merger, is not responsible for and has no custody of any assets, including cash, cash equivalents, any liabilities or other financial instruments, that may have been held by the previous management team prior to the merger.

Any such assets/liabilities/other financial instruments, if they exist, remain the property of the previous entity or any relevant legal successor. The Company is not aware of any such assets/liabilities/other financial instruments and has not received any information suggesting their existence.

The Company is committed to conducting its financial affairs in a transparent and ethical manner and will provide any necessary disclosures or updates regarding its assets/liabilities/other financial instruments in accordance with applicable laws and regulations.
