²⁶ The total number of shares that can be issued upon full conversion of the Outstanding Balance. The number should not factor any "blockers" or limitations on the percentage of outstanding shares that can be owned by the Noteholder at a particular time. For purposes of this calculation, please use the current market pricing (e.g. most recent closing price, bid, etc.) of the security if conversion is based on a variable market rate.

The purpose of this section is to provide a clear description of the issuer's current operations. Ensure that these descriptions are updated on the issuer's Profile on www.OTCMarkets.com.

A. Summarize the issuer's business operations (If the issuer does not have current operations, state "no operations")

The issuer does not have any active business operations at this time, but did enter into a binding Asset Purchase Agreement on or about June 11, 2025, with a seller of an existing e-commerce domain name including the seller's associated assets, intellectual property, trademarks, and goodwill, etc., for the sum of USD $2,800,000 payable over a 24 month term. As of the date of this Reporting Period, the transaction had not yet closed nor had any consideration been paid.

B. List any subsidiaries, parent company, or affiliated companies.

The issuer is under common control by its affiliate, NB Tech Acquisitions, Inc., a Nevada corporation ("NB Tech").

C. Describe the issuers' principal products or services.

The issuer does not have any products or services at this time.

5) Issuer's Facilities

The goal of this section is to provide investors with a clear understanding of all assets, properties or facilities owned, used or leased by the issuer and the extent in which the facilities are utilized.

In responding to this item, please clearly describe the assets, properties or facilities of the issuer. Describe the location of office space, data centers, principal plants, and other property of the issuer and describe the condition of the properties. Specify if the assets, properties, or facilities are owned or leased and the terms of their leases. If the issuer does not have complete ownership or control of the property, describe the limitations on the ownership.

The issuer has no material assets, properties, or facilities at the present time.

6) All Officers, Directors, and 5% Beneficial Owners of the issuer

Using the table below, please provide information, as of the period end date of this report, regarding all officers and directors of the company, or any person that performs a similar function, regardless of the number of shares they own.

In addition, list all individuals or entities controlling 5% or more of any class of the issuer's securities.

If any insiders listed are corporate shareholders or entities, provide the name and address of the person(s) beneficially owning or controlling such corporate shareholders, or the name and contact information (City, State) of an individual representing the corporation or entity. Include Company Insiders who own any outstanding units or shares of any class of any equity security of the issuer.

The goal of this section is to provide investors with a clear understanding of the identity of all the persons or entities that are involved in managing, controlling or advising the operations, business development and disclosure of the issuer, as well as the identity of any significant or beneficial owners.

Next Generation Management Corp.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

For the Quarter Ended June 30, 2025

Note 1 — Organization and Nature of Operations

NGMC was incorporated in Nevada in 1980. The Company was revived from dormancy in 2022 through custodianship. David Duarte was appointed CEO in October 2022. In September 2024, the Company increased its authorized shares to 4.0 billion. The Company is currently non-operating and continues to assess new business opportunities.

Note 2 — Basis of Presentation and Accounting Policies

All prior operations ceased before 2018, and historical bookkeeping records were lost. The 2023 and 2024 financial statements were prepared with GAAP adjustments to reset the balance sheet. Significant adjustments included: - Accounts Receivable (2023) of $87,780 written off in 2024 as bad debt expense. - Aged-out historical liabilities totaling $1.58 million were reversed in 2024 and recorded as other income. The Company follows U.S. GAAP policies, including: use of estimates, stock-based compensation, related party transactions, derivative valuation (Black-Scholes), and fair value hierarchy.

Note 3 — Prior Period Financial Statement Presentation

Management identified discrepancies in the presentation of the balance sheet for 2023 and 2024: - 2023: Reported total assets of $87,780 did not reconcile with the sum of total liabilities and stockholders' deficit of $141,710, resulting in an imbalance of $53,930. - 2024: While consolidated totals balanced (assets equaled liabilities plus stockholders' deficit), the reported total stockholders' deficit of ($48,211) did not reconcile with the sum of equity line items, which totaled $61,787. This created an internal inconsistency of $109,998. These variances are attributable to incomplete historical bookkeeping, equity classification errors, and adjustments made when reviving the Company from dormancy. Management has determined that these imbalances: 1. Do not represent unrecorded assets, liabilities, revenues, or expenses. 2. Have no impact on the Company's operations, cash flows, or current financial position. 3. Will be corrected in future consolidated financial reports to ensure alignment with GAAP presentation requirements.

Note 4 — Subsequent Events

Management has evaluated subsequent events through August 28, 2025, the date these financial statements were issued, and determined that no subsequent events require disclosure.
