Plandai Biotechnology, Inc
Notes To Financial Statements (Unaudited)
As Of And For The Years Ended June 30, 2025 and 2024

NOTE 1 - ORGANIZATION AND OPERATIONS

Corporate History, Current Operations, and Business Plan

Plandai Biotechnology, Inc. ("Plandai", "PLPL" or the "Company"), incorporated in the State of Nevada on February 24, 2004 and moved to State of Wyoming on August 1, 2025, is a publicly quoted company. The Company operated as a shell company until March 9, 2023, when the Company changed to non-shell status via a pending share exchange agreement.

A Supplemental Information Report was filed as of March 9, 2023, and discloses a change in the shell status of the Company. Previously, Plandai disclosed that it was a shell company in its Alternative Reporting Disclosures with OTC Markets. As of the effective date of March 9, 2023, Plandai was no longer a shell company (see discussion below).

Changes of Control

In 2023, by virtue of a Binding Memorandum of Understanding with Good Salt, LLC, a Florida limited liability company ("Good Salt"). Plandai and Good Salt agreed to formalize a share exchange agreement whereby (i) Plandai would exchange restricted unregistered common shares, and separately, (ii) Plandai's majority shareholder would exchange Series "A" Preferred Common Stock with Good Salt, in exchange for (iii) all of the authorized and issued limited liability company interests of Good Salt.

On August 1, 2023, there was a rescission of the material definitive agreement with ByoPlant. The material definitive agreement, which was initially entered into on May 16, 2023, outlined the terms and conditions for the acquisition of the Company by Good Salt. However, despite diligent efforts and ongoing communications, conditions subsequent to the closing were unmet, and essential considerations were not settled. As a result, Plandai had no choice but to initiate the rescission process. The rescission will render the material definitive agreement null and void, and both parties will revert to their pre-agreement status.

On April 1, 2024, the Company's former controlling shareholders (the "Seller") closed the share purchase agreement with San Global and its controlling shareholders (collectively, the "Buyer"), pursuant the seller cancelled all the Company's debts (except for the convertible notes that is in process of cancellation), fulfilled other pre-close unsettled liabilities to third parties, and then transferred the control of the Company to the Buyer for the consideration of $221,000. The transfer of the control is conducted by transferring the ownership of the Series A preferred stocks to the buyers, issuing 36 billion shares of new common stocks to the Buyer, and then success the board to the Buyer. On June 17, 2025, the transfer of Series A preferred stocks is completed.

The Company's current operations are conducted at offices provided by San Global Dining Co. Ltd. ("San Global") without charge in Taipei, Taiwan. San Global is a holding company with various dining businesses in Taiwan.

PLPL does not have any ownership interest in the offices and there is no lease for the offices.

NOTE 2 - GOING CONCERN

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis which contemplates the realization of assets and the satisfaction of liabilities in the normal course of business. As shown in the financial statements, the Company has incurred recurring net losses since its inception and has raised limited capital. These factors raise substantial doubt regarding the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. The financial statements do not include any adjustment relating to the recoverability and classification of liabilities that might be necessary should the Company be unable to continue as a going concern. The Company is taking certain steps to provide the necessary capital to continue its operations. These steps include but are not limited to: 1) focus on our new business model and 2) raising equity or debt financing. However, there can be no assurance that the Company will be successful in its efforts.

NOTE 3 – SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Presentation

The accompanying financial statements of the Company have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("U.S. GAAP"). The Company's fiscal yearend is June 30, and the Company's financial statements are expressed in U.S. dollars.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the consolidated financial statements and the amount of revenues and expenses during the reporting periods. Actual results could differ materially from those results.

Fair Value Measurement

Pursuant to ASC Topic 820, Fair Value Measurements, an entity is required to maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs when measuring fair value. ASC 820 establishes a fair value hierarchy based on the level of independent, objective evidence surrounding the inputs used to measure fair value. A financial instrument's categorization within the fair value hierarchy is based upon the lowest level of input that is significant to the fair value measurement. ASC 820 prioritizes the inputs into three levels that may be used to measure fair value:

- Level 1 applies to assets or liabilities for which there are quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.
- Level 2 applies to assets or liabilities for which there are inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability such as quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets; quoted prices for identical assets or liabilities in markets with insufficient volume or infrequent transactions (less active markets); or model- derived valuations in which significant inputs are observable or can be derived principally from, or corroborated by, observable market data.
- Level 3 applies to assets or liabilities for which there are unobservable inputs to the valuation methodology that are significant to the measurement of the fair value of the assets or liabilities.

Derivative Financial Instruments

The fair value of derivative instruments is recorded and shown separately under liabilities. Changes in the fair value of derivatives liability are recorded in the consolidated statement of operations under other (income) expense.

The Company evaluates all of its financial instruments to determine if such instruments are derivatives or contain features that qualify as embedded derivatives. For derivative financial instruments that are accounted for as liabilities, the derivative instrument is initially recorded at its fair value and is then re-valued at each reporting date, with changes in the fair value reported in the consolidated statements of operations. For stock-based derivative financial instruments, the Company uses Black-Scholes Option Pricing model to value the derivative instruments at inception and on subsequent valuation dates. The classification of derivative instruments, including whether such instruments should be recorded as liabilities or as equity, is evaluated at the end of each reporting period. Derivative instrument liabilities are classified in the balance sheet as current or non-current based on whether or not net-cash settlement of the derivative instrument could be required within 12 months of the balance sheet date.

Stock-based Compensation

The Company has share-based compensation plans under which employees, consultants, suppliers, and directors may be granted restricted stock, as well as options and warrants to purchase shares of Company common stock at the fair market value at the time of grant. Stock-based compensation cost to employees is measured by the Company at the grant date, based on the fair value of the award, over the requisite service period under ASC 718. For options issued to employees, the Company recognizes stock compensation costs utilizing the fair value methodology over the related period of benefit. Grants of stock to non-employees and other parties are accounted for in accordance with the ASC 718.

Basic Income (Loss) Per Share

Under the provisions of ASC 260, "Earnings per Share," basic loss per common share is computed by dividing net loss available to common shareholders by the weighted average number of shares of common stock outstanding for the periods presented. Diluted net loss per share reflects the potential dilution that could occur if securities or other contracts to issue common stock were exercised or converted into common stock or resulted in the issuance of common stock that would then share in the income.

Segment Reporting

ASC 280 “Segment Reporting” requires public companies to report financial and descriptive information about their reportable operating segments. The Company identifies the operating segments based on how the chief operating decision maker internally evaluates separate financial information, business activities and management responsibility.

The Company currently has one reportable segment.

Recently Accounting Pronouncements

In August 2023, the FASB issued ASU 2023-05, Business Combinations—Joint Venture Formations (Subtopic 805-60) which requires certain joint ventures to apply a new basis of accounting upon formation by recognizing and initially measuring most of their assets and liabilities at fair value. The guidance does not apply to joint ventures that may be proportionately consolidated and those that are collaborative arrangements. ASU 2023-05 is effective for joint venture with a formation date on or after January 1, 2025. (July 1, 2025 for the Company), early adoption is permitted. The Company is currently evaluating the impact that the standard will have on its financial statements.

In November 2024, the FASB issued ASU No. 2024-03, Expense Disaggregation Disclosures (Subtopic 220-40). The ASU requires disclosure of specified information about certain costs and expenses. This includes purchases of inventory, employee compensation, depreciation, and intangible asset amortization. The ASU is effective on a prospective or retrospective basis for annual reporting period beginning after December 15, 2026, and interim reporting period beginning after December 15, 2027. Early adoption is permitted. This ASU will likely result in the required additional disclosures being included in its financial statements once adopted.

The Company has implemented all new accounting pronouncements that are in effect and that may impact its financial statements and does not believe that there are any other new pronouncements that have been issued that might have a material impact on its financial position or results of operations.
