4) Issuer's Business, Products and Services

The purpose of this section is to provide a clear description of the issuer's current operations.
(Please ensure that these descriptions are updated on the Company's Profile on www.otcmarkets.com).

A. Summarize the issuer's business operations (If the issuer does not have current operations, state "no operations")

We are an Internet technology company specializing in online reputation management services, which we refer to as ORM. Elixir Privacy Services Ltd, our predecessor, was founded in Ireland in 2018, harvesting the collective expertise of a number of professionals some of whom had been operating in the web reputation segment since 2010. We believe our philosophy is underpinned in law in the European Union by Directive 95/46/EC of October 24, 1995, which regulates the processing of personal data within the European Union, as well as other regulations.

We utilize our technological platform to provide ORM services and digital privacy solutions to individuals, professional organizations, and small, medium businesses, or "SMBs". By providing our clients with an ability to control, remove and edit information posted and available on the internet, individuals, professional organizations, and SMBs can choose what lawful and verified content about them that will appear on websites and search engines. Our extensive removal experience and proprietary removal technology, allows us we believe to offer one of the best services available in the content removal industry. Our objective is to provide protection for the reputation of our clients on the websites and search engines by drafting and correcting inaccurate information, filtering harmful or negative information and misinformation from social engines, and by managing the online status of individuals, brands and companies. Furthermore, we aim to enhance the image, legacy and the web-reputation of our customers by creating positive links and original tailor-made content, which is then disseminated online through a vast network of newspapers, agencies and websites with whom we work.

Our objective as a company is to advocate our philosophy of the "right to be forgotten" in order to help individuals, SMBs and others fight back against outdated negative information and harmful spurious content online, and we strive at being subject matter professionals at what we do.

The internet and its various platforms have become in our opinion the new media battlefield which can be used to destroy brand and reputation. Our purpose as a company is to provide protection against these unwarranted and often spurious attacks, while offering a possible risk free, technical approach to permanent content removal. We have witnessed the repercussions that negative online content can bring to both businesses and individuals and fight to give our clients back control over their online presence.

We have developed, and aim to continuously improve, proprietary technological tools to enhance the effectiveness of our services, including an algorithm capable of analyzing 90 million pieces of information in a tenth of a second in order to quickly monitor all sources of news related to the inquiries requested.

We aim to achieve this goal by providing seven distinct but synergic services: WebID, Elixir Removal, Elixir Story, NewsDelete, Elixir Analytics, Elixir Event Launch, and ReputScore:

B. List any subsidiaries, parent company, or affiliated companies.

Following is a list of the Company's subsidiary companies:
Elixir Hispania S.L.

C. Describe the issuers' principal products or services.

WebID is a detailed report of all online content relating to individuals, brands and companies. Based on such report, the client receives an immediate and accurate portrait of the dominant "sentiment" which is associated with the specific content — whether positive, neutral or negative. We uncover harmful information; we geo-localize online conversations related to the subject and analyze their demographic composition. At the end of this, we then prepare a report which summarizes the strengths and weaknesses, which is delivered to the customer's home or headquarters.

- Elixir Removal – Leveraging and enforcing the public's rights under privacy laws, this service aims to protect the online reputation of clients (individuals or corporations) utilizing the Company's innovative technological platform to achieve the removal, de-indexation or the anonymization of negative or unwanted information.

Elixir Story – Through this service, we aim to assist our clients in developing and spreading on the internet a new or revived story about themselves. Frequently following the completion of our Elixir Removal work, it becomes apparent the need to replace the content which was removed with new and positive content. We thus offer our customers a customized editorial plan, with the aim of developing a new "story" through a number of articles and features to be published by several online news outlets.

NewsDelete – The service caters to customers concerned about their reputation in financial affairs, as it is portrayed by privately-managed lists, such as the main international Black-Lists, or government lists, such as the OFAC sanction list. Except in the case of politically exposed persons (PEPs), we are normally able to procure the removal of the client's name from the Black-List or at least a modification of the information on such client contained therein..

- Elixir Analytics collects real-time big data about states, institutions, political parties, candidates and personalities working in these structures. Through the web listening platform, we are able to monitor millions of online sources and, with the use of algorithms in-house developed, we are able to cross words and sentences in order to identify trends in audience reading in order to propose contents and information of interest. Through a detailed analysis of sentiment related to specific targets, we identify strategic and business opportunities in target countries and propose communication plans of effectiveness.
- Elixir Event Launch gives companies the unique opportunity to promote their event on an international scale, providing visibility in online periodicals in multiple countries around the world. It works with accredited journalists and PR experts who will develop the most effective editorial plan to promote an event (e.g., the launch of a new product, an important anniversary or the grand opening of a new office) and draft articles and press releases for distribution in the target countries in authoritative periodicals.
- ReputScore is our latest offering currently under development. This service is designed to offer an immediate and broad overview of a person's or company's web reputation. We scan the internet to analyze the sentiment which is mostly associated with the client, and we then assign a score from 1 to 100 (where a higher number denotes a more positive sentiment).
- Monitoring is offered as a subscription service, where we provide continuous monitoring of the client's online presence for a duration of one year. The primary objective is to identify and address potential threats to personal and professional reputation. This service is available in bundles, which also include the removal of certain negative links detected during the subscription period, with the extent of removal based on the package size chosen by the client.

5) Issuer's Facilities

The goal of this section is to provide investors with a clear understanding of all assets, properties or facilities owned, used or leased by the issuer and the extent in which the facilities are utilized.

In responding to this item, please clearly describe the assets, properties or facilities of the issuer. Describe the location of office space, data centers, principal plants, and other property of the issuer and describe the condition of the properties. Specify if the assets, properties, or facilities are owned or leased and the terms of their leases. If the issuer does not have complete ownership or control of the property, describe the limitations on the ownership.

Our principal place of business is located at 1395 Brickell Avenue, Suite 800, Miami FL 33131.

Since April 25, 2018, our principal office in Europe is located at Plaza Universidad 3, 08007, Barcelona, Spain.. In addition, we currently utilize services of representative offices throughout Europe and the US. The rent and other expenses for these representative offices are paid by our sales contractors and are not a Company obligation, because these local representatives are independent contractors.

Notes to Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements

Note 1 – Nature of the Organization and Business and Significant Accounting Policies

Elixir, Inc. (the “Company”) was incorporated in the State of Nevada on June 7, 2019 under the name Bull Run Capital Holdings, Inc. On January 8, 2020, the Company changed its name from “Bull Run Capital Holdings, Inc.” to “Budding Times Inc.” On May 21, 2020, the Company engaged in the 2020 Merger with Elixir Privacy Services, Ltd, Dublin, Ireland, and as part of the 2020 Merger changed its name to Elixir, Inc.

The Company is an Internet technology company specializing in the management and protection of digital identity and computertechnology rights. The Company utilizes their technological platform to provide online reputation management and digital privacy solutions for individuals and businesses.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

The Company has evaluated whether there are any conditions and events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about its ability to continue as a going concern within one year beyond the issuance date of these consolidated financial statements. Based on such evaluation and the Company’s current plans, which are subject to change, and the Company’s existing liquidity, there is substantial doubt regarding the Company’s ability to continue as a going concern for the next twelve months from the date these consolidated financial statements were issued. For the nine months ending September 30, 2025, the Company reported net income of $34,549 and had an accumulated deficit of $58,210,821 at September 30, 2025.

During these nine months the Company has completed its efforts in reducing the operational costs in order to become profitable also with a lower turnover. After the first three months that showed a significant decrease, revenues are showing a good growth both in the second quarter and in the third quarter.

The accompanying condensed consolidated financial statements have been prepared assuming the Company will continue to operate as a going concern, which contemplates the realization of assets and settlement of liabilities in the normal course of business, and do not include any adjustments to reflect the possible future effects on the recoverability and classification of assets or the amounts and classifications of liabilities that may result from uncertainty related to its ability to continue as a going concern.

The Company remains optimistic about its ability to address these uncertainties. We have several strategic initiatives underway, including the intended public filing and aggressive marketing of our products, which we believe will significantly improve our financial position. Additionally, we are exploring multiple avenues for obtaining necessary funding, including various financing activities and operational efficiencies.

The Company is committed to achieving profitable operations through the commercialization of our products and is actively seeking additional financing opportunities. Our management team is dedicated to ensuring that we maintain sufficient financial resources to support our business, financial condition, and operational goals. While there can be no absolute assurance that we will secure the required financing on acceptable terms or at all, we are confident in our strategic plan and our ability to navigate these challenges successfully.

Basis of Presentation

The accompanying unaudited condensed financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (“GAAP”) for interim financial information and with the instructions to Rule 8-03 of Regulation S-X. Accordingly, they do not include all the information and notes for complete financial statements. In the opinion of management, all adjustments (consistent of normal recurring accruals and adjustments) considered necessary for a fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements have been included. Results for the interim periods should not be considered indicative of results to be expected for a full year. Reference should be made to the consolidated financial statements and related notes thereto contained in our financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2024.

Disposal of Subsidiaries

During 2024, the Company disposed of certain subsidiaries by selling the subsidiaries to third parties in exchange for the assumption of the liabilities of the disposed subsidiaries. On September 17, 2024, the Company sold the Spanish subsidiary, Elab Hispania SL., which resulted in a gain on the sale of the subsidiary in the amount of $2,406. This gain is included in other income (expense) on the consolidated statement of operations and comprehensive loss. The Company does not have continuing interest in this entity and the entity is no longer considered a related party following the disposition. The sale of Elab Hispania SL. had no major effect on the Company's operations and did not meet the requirements to be classified as discontinued operations.

Use of Estimates

Preparing financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the consolidated financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates. Significant estimates made by management include, but are not limited to, assumptions used to calculate stock-based compensation, common stock issued for services, net realizable value of accounts receivables, the useful lives on property and equipment and intangible assets, the estimate of the fair value of the lease liability and related right of use assets, the recognition of revenue and the estimates of the valuation allowance on deferred tax assets and corporate income taxes.

Allowance for Uncollectible Accounts Receivable

The Company follows Accounting Standards Update (“ASU”) No. 2016-13, Financial Instruments — Credit Losses (Topic 326) Measurement of Credit Losses on Financial Instruments (known as the “current expected credit loss model” or “CECL”) that is based on expected losses rather than incurred losses. We estimate losses on receivables based on known troubled accounts and historical experience of losses incurred. Receivables are considered impaired and written-off when it is probable that contractual payments due will not be collected in accordance with the terms of the agreement. The allowance for uncollectible accounts receivable was $143,482 and $109,575 as of September 30, 2025 and December 31, 2024, respectively.

Revenue Recognition

The Company follows the guidance in Accounting Standards Codification (“ASC”) Topic 606 Revenue From Contracts With Customers (“ASC 606”). The core principle of ASC 606 is to recognize revenue upon the transfer of promised goods or services to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration the entity expects to be entitled to in exchange for those goods or services. Accordingly, the Company recognized revenue for ORM services in accordance with the following five steps outlined in ASC 606 as follows:

1. Identification of the contract, or contracts, with a customer,
2. Identification of the performance obligations in the contract, including whether they are distinct within the context of the contract
3. Determination of the transaction price, including the constraint on variable consideration
4. Allocation of the transaction price to the performance obligations in the contract
5. Recognition of revenue when, or as, performance obligations are satisfied

As reported in the consolidated Statements of Operations and Comprehensive Loss the Company reports revenue in two categories: 1) its core removal service and 2) other ancillary services. The Company's contracts with its customers are fee for service contracts under which the Company charges its customers an agreed upfront fee for the service rendered. While the Company does offer a refund if the customer is not satisfied with the service to date, the Company has never issued such a refund and therefore does not have access to information to estimate such refunds for its contracts with customers; accordingly, the Company has not recorded a provision for refunds. The Company's payment terms are 50% upon execution of the contact, 25% thirty days after execution and the final 25% sixty days after execution.

The Company recognizes the consideration due under the contracts with its customers as accounts receivable at the time it enters into the contract because the Company has an unconditional right to the consideration. The Company has identified completion of the agreed upon service as its performance obligation under its contracts with its customers. Accordingly, the Company recognizes revenue at the point in time it completes the agreed upon service. For example, the removal of negative or spurious content. The Company's billings are made in advance of completion of the performance obligation. The Company has recorded deferred revenue of $363,409 and $516,548 at September 30, 2025 and December 31, 2024, <sup>Page 20 of 30</sup> respectively, in the consolidated balance sheets.

Determination of the transaction price: the transaction price is determined based on the consideration to which the Company will be entitled in exchange for transferring goods or services to the customer.

Allocation of the transaction price to the performance obligations in the contract: if the contract contains a single performance obligation, the entire transaction price is allocated to the single performance obligation. Contracts that contain multiple performance obligations require an allocation of the transaction price to each performance obligation based on a relative standalone selling price basis.

For its removal services, the Company identified the analysis and identification of the negative and spurious content to be removed as one of the performance obligations in the removal services contract. The Company completes this analysis prior to contracting with its customers for the actual removal of content. The Company allocates 50% of the total contract price to the preliminary analysis and a price for the removal of each link or deindexation performed based on the stand-alone price for the service. The Company recognizes revenue for the analysis portion of the contract upon completion of the analysis as a customer has received standalone value for the identification of the negative or spurious content. The Company recognizes revenue upon the removal of the link or completion of deindexation.

Cost of Sales

Cost of sales consist primarily of wages and related expenses for personnel directly involved in the delivery of services, sales commissions, and journalists' fees. All commissions become due and are recorded as the relevant sales invoices are collected. The aggregate cost of sales is $542,205 and $797,167 for the nine months ended September 30, 2025 and 2024, respectively. The aggregate cost of sales is $176,292 and $28,976 for the three months ended September 30, 2025 and 2024, respectively.

General and Administrative Expenses

General and administrative expenses are charged to the statement of operations and comprehensive loss as incurred. General and administrative expenses include such items as stock-based compensation, legal cost, office supplies, non-income taxes, insurance, office rental and allowance for credit losses.

Stock-Based Compensation

The Company accounts for stock awards to consultants by measuring the cost of services received in exchange for the award of equity instruments based upon the fair value of the award on the date of grant. The fair value of that award is then ratably recognized as expense over the period during which the recipient is required to provide services in exchange for that award. Stock Based compensation expense for the nine months ended September 30, 2025 and 2024 was $0 for both periods.

Advertising and Marketing Expense

Advertising expenditures are expensed when incurred and are included in advertising and marketing expenses in the period incurred. Advertising and marketing expenses were $6,535 and $19,774 for the nine months ended September 30, 2025 and 2024, respectively.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are stated at historical value or cost. Depreciation is computed using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets. The cost of maintenance and repairs is expensed as incurred. When assets are retired or otherwise disposed of, the cost and related accumulated depreciation and amortization are removed from their respective accounts, and any gain or loss on such sale or disposal is reflected in income from operations. Estimated useful lives are as follows:

Equipment	3 - 5 years
Furniture and fixtures	7 - 10 years

Income Taxes

We account for income taxes using the asset and liability method, which requires the recognition of deferred tax assets and liabilities for the expected future tax consequences of events that have been recognized in our consolidated financial statements or tax returns. In addition, deferred tax assets are recorded for the future benefit of utilizing net operating losses and research and development credit carryforwards. Valuation allowances are provided when necessary to reduce deferred tax assets to the amount expected to be realized.

Significant judgment is required in determining any valuation allowance recorded against deferred tax assets. In assessing the need for a valuation allowance, we consider all available evidence, including past operating results, estimates of future taxable income, and the feasibility of tax planning strategies. In the event that we change our determination as to the amount of deferred tax assets that can be realized, we will adjust our valuation allowance with a corresponding impact to the provision for income taxes in the period in which such determination is made.

We apply the authoritative accounting guidance prescribing a threshold and measurement attribute for the financial recognition and measurement of a tax position taken or expected to be taken in a tax return. We recognize liabilities for uncertain tax positions based on a two-step process. The first step is to evaluate the tax position for recognition by determining if the weight of available evidence indicates that it is more likely than not that the position will be sustained on audit, including resolution of related appeals or litigation processes, if any. The second step requires us to estimate and measure the tax benefit as the largest amount that is more likely than not to be realized upon ultimate settlement.

Foreign Currency

The Company uses U.S. dollars (“US$”) as its reporting currency. Generally, the functional currency of the Company’s international subsidiaries is the local currency. The financial statements of the Company’s subsidiaries using functional currency other than US$ are translated into U.S. dollars using month-end rates of exchange for assets and liabilities, and average rates of exchange for revenue, costs, and expenses. Translation adjustments arising from these are reported as foreign currency translation adjustments and are shown as accumulated other comprehensive income (loss) on the consolidated financial statements.

Transactions denominated in other than the functional currencies are re-measured into the functional currency of the entity at the exchange rates prevailing on the transaction dates. Financial assets and liabilities denominated in other than the functional currency are re-measured at the balance sheet date exchange rate. The resulting exchange differences are recorded in the consolidated statements of comprehensive income (loss) as foreign exchange related gain or loss.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

For the purpose of the consolidated statements of cash flows, the Company considers all highly liquid instruments purchased with an original maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents. There were no cash equivalents at September 30, 2025 and December 31, 2024. The Company held an aggregate cash balance of $27,610 and $101,970 as of September 30, 2025 and December 31, 2024, respectively.

Basic and Diluted Earnings/Loss per Common Share

Basic and diluted earnings or loss per share (“EPS”) amounts in the consolidated financial statements are computed in accordance with Accounting Standards Codification (“ASC”) 260-10, Earnings per Share, which establishes the requirements for presenting EPS. Basic EPS is based on the weighted average number of shares of common stock outstanding. Diluted EPS is based on the weighted average number of shares of common stock outstanding and dilutive common stock equivalents. Basic EPS is computed by dividing net income or loss available to common stockholders (numerator) by the weighted average number of shares of common stock outstanding (denominator) during the period. Potentially dilutive securities are excluded from the calculation of diluted loss per share, if their effect would be anti-dilutive. For periods in which the Company reports net losses, diluted net loss per share is the same as basic net loss per share because potentially dilutive common shares are not assumed to have been issued if their effect is anti-dilutive.

Fair Value Measurement

ASC Topic 820, Fair Value Measurement, requires that certain financial instruments be recognized at their fair values at the consolidated balance sheet dates. However, other financial instruments, such as debt obligations, are not required be recognized at their fair values, but GAAP provides an option to elect fair value accounting for these instruments. GAAP requires the disclosure of the fair values of all financial instruments, regardless of whether they are recognized at their fair values or carrying amounts in the balance sheets. For financial instruments recognized at fair value, GAAP requires the disclosure of their fair values by type of instrument, along with other information, including changes in the fair values of certain financial instruments recognized in income or other comprehensive income. For financial instruments not recognized at fair value, the disclosure of their fair values is provided below under "Financial Instruments."

Nonfinancial assets, such as property, plant and equipment, and nonfinancial liabilities are recognized at their carrying amounts in the Company's balance sheets. GAAP does not permit nonfinancial assets and liabilities to be remeasured at their fair values. However, GAAP requires the remeasurement of such assets and liabilities to their fair values upon the occurrence of certain events, such as the impairment of property, plant and equipment. In addition, if such an event occurs, GAAP requires the disclosure of the fair value of the asset or liability along with other information, including the gain or loss recognized in income in the period the remeasurement occurred.

Fair value is the exchange price that would be received for an asset or paid to transfer a liability (an exit price) in the principal or most advantageous market for the asset or liability in an orderly transaction between market participants on the measurement date. The Company applies the following fair value hierarchy, which prioritizes the inputs used to measure fair value into three levels and bases the categorization within the hierarchy upon the lowest level of input that is available and significant to the fair value measurement:

- Level 1 inputs: Based on unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.
- Level 2 inputs: Based on observable inputs other than Level 1 prices such as quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities; quoted prices in markets with insufficient volume or infrequent transactions (less active markets); or model-derived valuations in which all significant inputs are observable or can be derived principally from or corroborated by observable market data for substantially the full term of the assets or liabilities.
- Level 3 inputs: Based on unobservable inputs to the valuation methodology that are significant to the measurement of fair value of assets or liabilities, and typically reflect management's estimates of assumptions that market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability.

The Company did not have any Level 2 or Level 3 assets and liabilities as of September 30, 2025 and December 31, 2024.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The Company's financial instruments consist of cash, accounts receivable, accounts payable, notes payable and accrued expenses. The carrying amounts of these financial instruments approximates fair value due to the short-term maturity of these instruments.

Concentration of Credit Risk

The Company maintains cash balances at financial institutions with accounts that are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation ("FDIC") up to $250,000. As of September 30, 2025, and December 31, 2024, the Company's cash balance did not exceed FDIC coverage. The Company has not experienced any losses in such accounts and periodically evaluates the credit worthiness of the financial institutions and has determined the credit exposure to be negligible.

Commitments and Contingencies

Certain conditions may exist as of the date the condensed consolidated financial statements are issued, which may result in a loss to the Company, but which will only be resolved when one or more future events occur or fail to occur. The Company's management and its legal counsel assess such contingent liabilities, and such assessment inherently involves an exercise of judgment. In assessing loss contingencies related to legal proceedings that are pending against the Company or unasserted claims that may result in such proceedings, the Company's legal counsel evaluates the perceived merits of any legal proceedings or unasserted claims as well as the perceived merits of the amount of relief sought or expected to be sought therein.

If the assessment of a contingency indicates that it is probable that a material loss has been incurred and the amount of the liability can be estimated, then the estimated liability would be accrued in the Company's consolidated financial statements. If the assessment indicates that a potentially material loss contingency is not probable, but is reasonably possible, or is probable but cannot be estimated, then the nature of the contingent liability, together with an estimate of the range of possible loss if determinable and material, would be disclosed.

Loss contingencies considered remote are generally not disclosed unless they involve guarantees, in which case the nature of the guarantee would be disclosed.

Segment Reporting

In November 2023, the FASB issued Accounting Standards Update 2023-07 – Segment Reporting (Topic ASC 280) Improvements to Reportable Segment Disclosures. The ASU improves reportable segment disclosure requirements, primarily through enhanced disclosure about significant segment expenses. The enhancements under this update require disclosure of significant segment expenses that are regularly provided to the Chief Operating Decision Maker (“CODM”) and included within each reported measure of segment profit or loss, require disclosure of other segment items by reportable segment and a description of the composition of other segment items, require annual disclosures under ASC 280 to be provided in interim periods, clarify use of more than one measure of segment profit or loss by the CODM, require that the title of the CODM be disclosed with an explanation of how the CODM uses the reported measures of segment profit or loss to make decisions, and require that entities with a single reportable segment provide all disclosures required by this update and required under ASC 280. The Company adopted ASU 2023-07 for the annual period ending December 31, 2024.

ASC 280, Segment Reporting, establishes standards for companies to report in their financial statements information about operating segments – products, services, geographic areas, and major customers. Operating segments are defined as components of an enterprise engaging in businesses activities for which separate financial information is available that is regularly evaluated by the Group’s chief operating decision makers in deciding how to allocate resources and assess performance. The Group’s chief operating decision maker (“CODM”) has been identified as the Chief Executive Officer, who reviews consolidated results including revenue, gross profit and operating profit at a consolidated level only. The Company does not distinguish between markets for the purpose of making decisions about resources allocation and performance assessment. Therefore, the Company has only one operating segment and one reportable segment.

Recently Issued Accounting Standards

In December 2023, the FASB issued ASU No. 2023-09, “Income Taxes (Topic 740): Improvements to Income Tax Disclosures (ASU 2023-09),” which improves the transparency of income tax disclosures by requiring consistent categories and greater disaggregation of information in the effective tax rate reconciliation and income taxes paid disaggregated by jurisdiction. It also includes certain other amendments to improve the effectiveness of income tax disclosures. This guidance will be effective for the annual periods beginning after December 31, 2024. Early adoption is permitted. Upon adoption, the guidance can be applied prospectively or retrospectively. The Company is currently evaluating the guidance to determine its impact on our financial statements and related disclosures.

In November 2024, the FASB issued ASU No. 2024-03 “Income Statement - Reporting Comprehensive Income - Expense Disaggregation Disclosures (Subtopic 220-40)” which requires disclosure each reporting period, in the notes to the financial statements, of specified information about certain costs and expenses. For public business entities, the new requirements will be effective for annual periods beginning after December 15, 2026. The guidance will be applied on a prospective basis with the option to apply the standard retrospectively. Early adoption is permitted. The Company is currently evaluating the effect of adopting this ASU.

Note 6 – Operating lease

The Company had an operating lease agreement to rent office space for a four-year term. The Company's weighted average lease remaining term relating to its operating lease was 0.5 years as of December 31, 2024, with a weighted-average discount rate of 6.8%. The Company incurred $87,972 of lease expense for its operating lease for the year ended December 31, 2024.

In January 2025 the Company terminated the lease and recognized a gain on termination of $13,190.

Note 7 – Related Party Transactions

Stockholder Loans Payable

On May 20, 2025, the Company entered into a note payable with Mrs. Danila Pisati for a principal amount of $200,000. The note matures in three years and bears interest at an annual rate of 4.33%. As of September 30, 2025 the balance is $200,000 in stockholder loans payable on the balance sheet. Additionally, the interest accrued related to the stockholder loans payable has a balance of $3,156 as of September 30, 2025, presented in accounts payable – related parties on the balance sheet.

During the third quarter, the Company received 5 loans from Mrs. Danila Pisati for a total amount of $128,000 with an interest rate of 4.33%. These loans mature between January and September 2026. Given that Mrs. Pisati is a related party, these loans are presented in stockholder loans payable – current on the balance sheet; the accrued interest has a balance of $553 and is presented in accounts payable – related parties on the balance sheet.

During the third quarter, the subsidiary Elixir Hispania SL received from Mrs. Danila Pisati Euro 14,620 ($17,155). This amount represents a financial advance, is presented in stockholder loans payable – current and does not bear any interest.

As a consequence, the balance of the Stockholder loans payable – current is $ 145,155.

Accrued Compensation

Elixir has several agreements in place with Mr. Enea Trevisan, the founder and former CEO of Elixir, Inc. The first is a commercial agreement aimed at procuring new clients for the Company, effective from June 1, 2019 to December 2024, with the goal of procuring new clients for the Company. Under this agreement, Mr. Trevisan was entitled to 20% of the gross amount for each new contract signed. This agreement has been amended in 2024 and the commissions were reduced to 0% for October 2024 and 10% for November and December 2024. A new agreement has been signed in January 2025. Under this new agreement Mr. Trevisan is entitled to receive a 15% commission based on the gross amount of each new contract signed. The agreement spans twelve months and automatically renews on an annual basis. As of September 30, 2025 and December 31, 2024, amounts under these agreements due to Mr. Trevisan were $54,952 and $4,185, respectively, and are reflected on the balance sheet in accounts payable – related parties.

On February 1, 2024, the Company entered into an employment agreement with Mr. Trevisan to serve as a Sales Manager of Elixir Hispania. As of September 30, 2025 and December 31, 2024, amounts under this agreement due to Mr. Trevisan were $9,387 and $4,185, respectively, and are reflected on the balance sheet in accounts payable – related parties.

Note 8 – Gain on Forgiveness of Debt

In September 2025 and 2024, the Company recognized a total gain on forgiveness of debt in the amount of $26,651 and $107,024. This amount consisted of outstanding accounts payable forgiven by various suppliers. These amounts were forgiven without any repayment obligation and have been recognized as a gain on the statement of operations and comprehensive loss in accordance with U.S. GAAP.

Note 9 – Commitments and Contingencies

Legal Matter

In the opinion of management, as of September 30, 2025 and December 31, 2024, there was not at least a reasonable possibility that the Company had incurred a material loss, or a material loss in excess of a recorded accrual, with respect to loss contingencies.

Note 10 – Stockholders’ Deficit

Common Stock

The Company is authorized to issue 300,000,000 shares of common stock with a $0.001 par value, of which 60,121,536 and 60,282,036 shares were outstanding as of September 30, 2025 and December 31, 2024, respectively.

On January 2, 2025, the Company retired 160,500 shares of its common stock that had previously been issued to an investor. The retirement permanently reduced the number of issued and outstanding shares but did not impact total equity.

Series Z Preferred Stock

The Company is authorized to issue 10,000,000 shares of Series Z Preferred Stock, with a $0.001 par value. 1,000,000 and 1,000,000 shares of Series Z Preferred Stock were outstanding as of September 30, 2025 and December 31, 2024, respectively.

Upon the occurrence of a liquidation event, whether voluntary or involuntary, the holders of Series Z Preferred Stock are entitled to receive net assets on a pro rata basis. Each holder of Series Z Preferred Stock is entitled to receive ratably any dividends declared by the board, if any, out of funds legally available for the payment of dividends. As used herein, liquidation event means (i) the liquidation, dissolution or winding-up, whether voluntary or involuntary, of the Company, (ii) the purchase or redemption by the Company of shares of any class of stock or the merger or consolidation of the Company with or into any other corporation or corporations, unless (a) the holders of the Series Z Preferred Stock receive securities of the surviving corporation having substantially similar rights as the Series Z Preferred Stock and the stockholders of the Company immediately prior to such transaction are holders of at least a majority of the voting securities of the successor corporation immediately thereafter, unless the holders of the shares of Series Z Preferred Stock elect otherwise or (b) the sale, license or lease of all or substantially all, or any material part of, the Company’s assets, unless the holders of Series Z Preferred Stock elect otherwise. Holders of shares of Series Z Preferred Stock shall have no right to convert those shares into Common Stock or any other class of securities of the Corporation. Each one share of the Series Z Preferred Stock shall have voting rights equal to nine hundred (900) votes of Common Stock.

Note 11 – Notes Payable

In 2023, the Company held two notes with a combined original principal amount of $97,939. In 2024, the Company entered into an additional note with a principal amount of $51,765. The notes mature between 12 and 36 months from their respective issuance dates and bear interest at rates ranging from 3% to 6%. The Company attributes revenue by country based on its customer's location at the time of delivery of service. Substantially all the Company's long-lived assets are located in Europe.

Note 13 – Segment Information

Operating segments are defined as components of an enterprise about which separate discrete information is available for evaluation by the chief operating decision maker ("CODM") in deciding how to allocate resources and in assessing performance. The Company's CODM is the Chief Executive Officer. The Company views its operations and manages its business as one operating segment, which includes all activities related to its clinical development programs. The determination of a single reportable segment is consistent with the financial information provided to the CODM. The CODM views and manages the Company's clinical development programs as a single reportable segment for which all operations are centralized and does not evaluate any other discrete financial information. The accounting policies of the Company's single reportable segment are the same as those for the financial statements.

Segment loss is measured as the Company's net loss as reported on the statement of operations, which includes segment expenses such as research and development and general and administrative expenses and other segment items such as interest expense. As the Company does not currently generate revenues or profit, the CODM evaluates performance, makes decisions, allocates resources, and plans future activities through analysis of segment expense information. The CODM also monitors the Company's cash and cash equivalents and net cash used in operations as reported on the balance sheet and the statement of cash flows, respectively. The measure of total segment assets is reported on the balance sheet as total assets.

Note 14 – Subsequent Events

The Company has completed an evaluation of all subsequent events after the balance sheet date of September 30, 2025 through the date the condensed consolidated financial statements were issued, to ensure that these condensed consolidated financial statements include appropriate disclosure of events both recognized in the condensed consolidated financial statements as of September 30, 2025 and events which have occurred subsequently but were not recognized in the condensed consolidated financial statements. The Company has not identified any events for which subsequent disclosure would be required, except as disclosed below.

In October and November 2025, the Company received three 12-month loans from Mrs. Danila Pisati for a total amount of $160,000 with an interest rate of 4.33%. Given that Mrs. Pisati is a related party, these loans will be presented as stockholder loans payable on the balance sheet.
