Footnote A: Conversion Terms

The Convertible Promissory Notes issued to David Zevetchin and Joseph Zizzadoro include multiple optional conversion mechanisms that depend on future financing or transaction events, including: (i) conversion at an 80 percent discount to the price paid by investors in a Qualified Equity Financing; (ii) conversion upon a Change of Control at the lower of (a) the prior-day closing price or (b) the price implied by transaction consideration; (iii) conversion into PIPE/uplisting securities at a 20 percent discount; and (iv) conversion at maturity at the 20-day VWAP prior to the maturity date. These terms are defined in the Convertible Promissory Notes executed August 20, 2025, and July 15, 2025.

Footnote B: Indeterminable Conversion Shares

Because the conversion price depends on future equity financings, market pricing, PIPE pricing, Change-of-Control valuations, or future VWAP calculations, the total number of shares that could be issued upon conversion cannot be determined as of the filing date. Accordingly, the potential share amount is reported as "Indeterminable."

Go Green Global Technologies Corp.
Notes to the Unaudited Financial Statements
For the Nine Months Ended September 30, 2025 and September 30, 2024

NOTE 1 - ORGANIZATION AND OPERATIONS

Go Green Global Technologies Corp. (OTC: GOGR) is a Nevada corporation originally incorporated in February 2006 under the name Photomatica, Inc.

Go Green Global Technologies Corp. (“the Company”) is an innovative publicly traded U.S. company that provides proprietary disruptive technology for use in the water and fuel industries of both commercial and consumer segments of these markets. Solutions are provided worldwide utilizing the proprietary Sonical™ process for both non-chemical water treatment and fuel combustion applications which including industrial, automotive, transportation, maritime and railway industries. The Company is a pioneer and leader in the emerging Pulsed Power technology sector. Since inception, the Company has focused on technologies that lead to a cleaner and more efficient planet.

Management Changes During Period

On August 15, 2025, the Company appointed Eric Mosser as its Chief Corporate Development Officer (CCDO). In this role, Mr. Mosser is responsible for overseeing corporate strategy, mergers and acquisitions, investor relations, and capital markets initiatives. His appointment occurred during the reporting period and is now reflected in the Company’s management structure.

Going Concern Basis of Accounting

The Company’s financial statements are prepared using accounting principles generally accepted in the United States (“U.S. GAAP”) applicable to a going concern, which contemplates the realization of assets and liquidation of liabilities in the normal course of business. As reflected in the financial statements, the Company has an accumulated deficit balance of $12,256,507 as of September 30, 2025, has suffered significant net losses and negative cash flows from operations and has limited working capital. The Company expects to incur substantial expenses for the foreseeable future relating to research, development and commercialization of its potential future technologies. The ability of the Company to continue as a going concern is dependent on the Company obtaining adequate capital to fund operating losses until it establishes a revenue stream and becomes profitable. Management’s plans to continue as a going concern include raising additional capital through sales of equity securities and borrowing. However, management cannot provide any assurances that the Company will be successful in accomplishing any of its plans. If the Company is not able to obtain the necessary additional financing on a timely basis, the Company will be required to delay, reduce the scope of, or eliminate one or more of the Company’s research and development activities or commercialization efforts or perhaps even cease the operation of its business. These factors raise substantial doubt about the Company’s ability to continue as a going concern for one year from the date the financials were issued.

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared assuming that the Company will continue as a going concern, which contemplates the realization of assets and the settlement of liabilities and commitments in the normal course of business. The financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from this uncertainty.

Uncertainty Due to Geopolitical Events

The ongoing Israel-Hamas war which began in October 2023 has precipitated ongoing conflict between the two parties and has enveloped the Middle East region in unrest. This conflict has extended to the Persian Gulf where increasing attacks on international shipping have caused worldwide concern due to its potential economic impact due to supply chain concerns. These recent events coupled with Russia’s invasion of Ukraine, which began in February 2022, resulting in sanctions and other actions against Russia and Belarus, have created uncertainty and disruption in the global economy. Although neither of the aforementioned conflicts have had a material adverse impact on the Company’s financial results for the nine months ended September 30, 2025, and none for the year ended December 31, 2024, at this time the Company is unable to fully assess the aggregate impact that both conflicts will have on its business due to various uncertainties, which include, but are not limited to, the duration of the wars, their effect on the economy, their impact to the business of the Company’s, and actions that may be taken by governmental authorities related to these conflicts.

NOTE 2 - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Presentation

The accompanying financial statements are prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (“U.S. GAAP”). Certain balances have been reclassified to conform with the current year’s presentation.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with U.S. GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash

The Company considers all highly liquid investments with an original maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents. The Company had no cash equivalents as of September 30, 2025 and December 31, 2024.

Concentration of Credit Risk

Financial instruments that potentially subject the Company to concentration of credit risk consist primarily of cash. The Company maintains its cash in bank deposits accounts, which, at times, may exceed federally insured limits. The Company has not experienced any losses in such accounts. The Company believes it is not exposed to any significant credit risk in cash.

Prepaid Expenses

Prepaid expenses consist primarily of short-term prepaid expenditures or deposits that will be amortized within one year.

Leases

The Company reviews all arrangements for potential leases and at inception, determines whether a lease is an operating lease or finance lease. Lease assets and liabilities, which generally represent the present value of future minimum lease payments over the term of the lease, are recognized as of the commencement date. Leases with an initial lease term of twelve months or less are classified as short term leases and are not recognized in the balance sheets unless the lease contains a purchase option that is reasonably certain to be exercised. Lease term, discount rate, variable lease costs and future minimum lease payment determinations require the use of judgment and are based on the facts and circumstances related to the specific lease. Lease terms are generally based on their initial non-cancelable terms, unless there is a renewal option that is reasonably certain to be exercised. Various factors, including economic incentives, intent, past history and business needs are considered to determine if a renewal option is reasonably certain to be exercised. The implicit rate in a lease agreement is used when it can be determined to value the lease obligation. Otherwise, the Company’s incremental borrowing rate, which is based on information available as of the lease commencement date, including applicable lease terms and the current economic environment, is used to determine the value of the lease obligation.

Income Taxes

In accordance with FASB ASC Topic 740, Income Taxes (“ASC 740”), the Company recognizes deferred tax assets and liabilities for the expected future tax consequences or events that have been included in our financial statements and/or tax returns. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are based upon the differences between the financial statement carrying amounts and the tax bases of existing assets and liabilities and for loss and credit carryforwards using enacted tax rates expected to be in effect in the years in which the differences are expected to reverse. Deferred tax assets are reduced by a valuation allowance if it is more likely than not that some portion or all of the deferred tax asset will not be realized.

The Company provides reserves for potential payments of tax to various tax authorities related to uncertain tax positions when management determines that it is more likely than not that a loss will be incurred related to these matters and the amount of the loss is reasonably determinable. No tax liability was recorded as of December 31, 2024, and 2023.

Segment Information

Operating segments are identified as components of an enterprise about which separate discrete financial information is available for evaluation by the chief operating decision maker (“CODM”), or decision-making group, in making decisions on how to allocate resources and assess performance. The Company has one operating segment.

Advertising Costs

Advertising and promotion costs are expensed incurred. The Company has no material advertising expenses as of September 30, 2025 and December 31, 2024.

Stock-Based Compensation

The Company accounts for stock-based compensation in accordance with the guidance of FASB ASC Topic 718, Compensation-Stock Compensation (“ASC 718”), which requires all share-based payments be recognized in the consolidated financial statements based on their fair values. In accordance with ASC 718, the Company has elected to use the Black-Scholes option pricing model to determine the fair value of options granted and recognizes the compensation cost of share-based awards on a straight-line basis over the vesting period of the award.

Warrants

The Company accounts for stock warrants as either equity instruments or derivative liabilities depending on the specific terms of the warrant agreement. As of September 30, 2025 and December 31, 2024, all outstanding warrants granted were classified as equity being the fixed exercise price.

Net loss per Common Share

Basic earnings per share are calculated by dividing income available to common stockholders by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding. Diluted earnings per share are based on the assumption that all dilutive convertible shares and stock options and warrants were converted or exercised. Dilution is computed by applying the treasury stock method. Under this method, warrants and options are assumed to be exercised at the beginning of the period (or at the time of issuance, if later), and as if funds obtained thereby were used to purchase common stock at the average market price during the period. Common stock equivalents of 39,108,273 and 39,108,273 shares were excluded from the computation of diluted earnings per share for the periods ending September 30, 2025 and December 31, 2024, respectively, because their effects would have been anti-dilutive.

	September 30, 2025	December 31, 2024
Series A Convertible preferred stock	4,200,000	4,200,000
Warrants	39,108,273	30,508,273
Total	43,308,273	34,708,273

Related Party Transactions

Parties are considered to be related to the Company if the parties that, directly or indirectly, through one or more intermediaries, control, are controlled by, or are under common control with the Company. Related parties also include principal owners of the Company, its management, members of the immediate families of principal owners of the Company and its management and other parties with which the Company may deal if one party controls or can significantly influence the management or operating policies of the other to an extent that one of the transacting parties might be prevented from fully pursuing its own separate interests. The Company discloses all related party transactions. All transactions shall be recorded at fair value of the goods or services exchanged. Property purchased from a related party is recorded at the cost to the related party and any payment to or on behalf of the related party in excess of the cost is reflected as a distribution to the related party.

The Company considers all officers, directors, senior management personnel, and senior level consultants to be related parties to the Company.

Recently Adopted Accounting Pronouncements

From time to time, new accounting pronouncements are issued by the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") and are adopted by us as of the specified effective date. We believe that the impact of recently adopted and recently issued accounting pronouncements will not have a material impact on our balance sheets, results of operations and cash flows.

Accounting Pronouncements Issued but not yet Adopted

All applicable new accounting standards issued and in effect as of January 1, 2025 have been applied in accordance with FASB requirements.

Any new accounting standards that have been issued or proposed by FASB that do not require adoption until a future date are not expected to have a material impact on the financial statements upon adoption.

NOTE 3 – FAIR VALUE OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

ASC 825-10 defines fair value as the price that would be received from selling an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. When determining the fair value measurements for assets and liabilities required or permitted to be recorded at fair value, the Company considers the principal or most advantageous market in which it would transact and considers assumptions that market participants would use when pricing the asset or liability, such as inherent risk, transfer restrictions, and risk of nonperformance. ASC 825-10 establishes a fair value hierarchy that requires an entity to maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs when measuring fair value. ASC 825-10 establishes three levels of inputs that may be used to measure fair value:

Level 1 - Quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.

Level 2 - Observable inputs other than Level 1 prices such as quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities; quoted prices in markets with insufficient volume or infrequent transactions (less-active markets); or model-derived valuations in which all significant inputs are observable or can be derived principally from or corroborated by observable market data for substantially the full term of the assets or liabilities.

Level 3 - Unobservable inputs to the valuation methodology that are significant to the measurement of fair value of assets or liabilities.

To the extent that valuation is based on models or inputs that are less observable or unobservable in the market, the determination of fair value requires more judgment. In certain cases, the inputs used to measure fair value may fall into different levels of the fair value hierarchy. In such cases, for disclosure purposes, the level in the fair value hierarchy within which the fair value measurement is disclosed is determined based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement.

All principal and interest owing hereunder, along with any and all other amounts, shall be due and owing on August 18, 2022. The note maturity term was further extended to February 18, 2023. Any amount of principal or Interest on this AJB 2022 Note which is not paid when due shall bear interest at the rate of the lesser of (i) eighteen percent (18%) per annum and (ii) the maximum amount permitted under law from the due date thereof until the same is paid. As of date, there were no events default and therefore the note classified as debt. The note is secured by substantially all of the Company’s property and assets, including all machinery, equipment, and inventory as a guarantee of performance under the AJB 2022 Note.

The allocated value of the AJB Commitment Shares and the AJB 2022 Warrants were $134,384 and $42,675, respectively, and are being accounted for as debt issuance costs and are classified within stockholders' deficit in the accompanying financial statements. The allocated value of the AJB 2022 Note of $96,018 was allocated as notes payable in the accompanying financial statements. The related debt issuance costs $177,059 in aggregate were amortized over the initial term of the 2022 AJB Note and included within the interest expense in the accompanying statement of operation. As of December 31, 2022, the net carrying amount of the 2022 AJB Note was $300,000 and accrued interest of $3,750.

On March 1, 2023, the Company entered into an agreement with AJB to amend the AJB Note extending the maturity date to March 13, 2023. The related debt issuance costs of $225,000 in aggregate were amortized over the remaining term of the 2022 AJB Note and included within the interest expense of the accompanying statement of operations for the year ended December 31, 2023. The AJB 2022 Note and related accrued interest totaling $314,500 was repaid in full on March 9, 2023.

On May 5, 2023, the Company entered into a Securities Agreement (the "2023 SA") with AJB Capital Investments, LLC providing for the issuance and sale by the Company of (i) Promissory Note in the aggregate principal amount of $300,000 ("AJB 2023 Note"), which includes an aggregate $30,000 original issue discount in respect of the Note; (ii) Warrants to purchase an aggregate of 9,000,000 shares of Common Stock ("AJB 2023 Warrants). The aggregate gross proceeds for the sale of the AJB 2023 Note and AJB 2023 Warrants was $270,000.

The AJB 2023 Note bears interest on the unpaid principal balance at a rate equal to twelve percent (12%) per annum accruing from the closing date until the AJB 2022 Note becomes due and payable at maturity. All principal and interest owing hereunder, along with any and all other amounts, shall be due and owing on November 5, 2023. The note maturity term was further extended numerous times and the AJB 2023 Note will now mature on November 8, 2024, with an increased interest rate up to 15% upon the extension date. Interest shall accrue on a monthly basis and is payable on the first of each month following the issue date or upon acceleration or by prepayment or otherwise.
