1. NATURE OF OPERATIONS AND PURCHASE OF TECHNOLOGY

a) Nature of operations

First National Energy Corporation (the "Company") was incorporated in the State of Delaware on November 16, 2000.

The Company's business purpose is the provision of wind-driven solutions for power generation. Current projects for the Company are the completion of power generation projects from supplemental wind generation technologies.

The Company is close to commencing the marketing of its product and has been trying to establish the use of its technology in various applications.

b) Purchase of Technology License

On May 25, 2009 (the "Closing"), a Technology License and Stock Purchase Agreement (the "Agreement") was signed between the Company and Boreas, at which time the Company issued to the stockholders of Boreas 98,800,000 new restricted and unregistered common shares of the Company and agreed to pay certain future royalties to Boreas from net revenues realized by the Company from the technology license. The consideration issued in the transaction was determined as a result of arm's-length negotiations between the parties.

The Company obtained written consent to the Agreement and the transaction from the holders of 55.82% of its issued and outstanding shares of common stock in lieu of a meeting of stockholders.

Accordingly, the Boreas Stockholders now own 95.95% of the Company's 103,080,228 outstanding common shares. No finder's fees were paid or consulting agreements entered into by the Company in connection with the transaction.

Prior to the transaction, there were no material relationships between the Company and Boreas, between Boreas and the Company's affiliates, directors or officers, or between any associates of Boreas and the Company's officers or directors. All of the Company's transaction liabilities were settled on or immediately following the Closing.

1. NATURE OF OPERATIONS AND PURCHASE OF TECHNOLOGY (cont'd)

b) Purchase of Technology License (cont'd)

Upon the Closing on May 25, 2009, the Company was no longer deemed to be a "shell company" as defined in Rule 12b-2 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the "Exchange Act"). Accordingly, the Company filed an amended current report on Form 8-K/A with the SEC on May 26, 2009, setting forth the information that would be required if the Company were filing a general form for the registration of securities on Form 10 under the Exchange Act.

On April 18, 2011, First National Energy Corporation (the "Company") entered into a Novation Agreement (the "Novation") with all of the stockholders of Boreas revising the structure of the May 25, 2009 transaction by which the Company acquired a territorial license to certain rights in alternative energy technology of Boreas, in exchange for a quantity of newly issued common shares of the Company. The Novation amended the Technology License and Stock Purchase Agreement (the "Original Agreement") to substitute the stockholders of Boreas as the licensor under the Original Agreement.

The Company has imported two units into Canada. One of the units has been erected on a potential client's site in an urbanized setting. The unit was monitored for over 9 months and was found to be functioning exactly as described. The second unit has been installed at an industrial complex and the power being generated is used both as an auxiliary power unit (APU), and as a feed into the grid, reducing the condominium's electric bill.

Discussions on funding the operations, as well as for any debt arrangements for floor plan sales to clients, are ongoing.

2. GOING CONCERN

The Company's financial statements are prepared using accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America and applicable to a going concern, which contemplates the realization of assets and liquidation of liabilities in the normal course of business. However, the Company has not generated any revenues from its planned principal operations through December 31, 2025 and has recorded losses since inception, has negative working capital, has yet to achieve profitable operations and expects further losses in the development of its business. There can be no assurance that the Company will have adequate capital resources to fund planned operations or that any additional funds will be available to the Company when needed, or if available, will be available on favorable terms in the amounts required by the Company. These conditions raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. The financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from the outcome of this uncertainty.

Management plans to raise cash through debt offerings once the sales of the technologies begin. The facilities and equipment required for successfully completing the business model have been identified but until the resources are available, have not been acquired or engaged. In the period prior to the onset of operations, the Company will undertake to raise further cash through capital offerings. There is no assurance that the Company will be successful in raising additional capital.

3. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

a) Basis of presentation and Consolidation

The accompanying unaudited financial statements of the Company have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America for financial information and with the instructions to Form 10-Q and Article 8-03 of Regulation S-X related to smaller reporting companies.

The unaudited financial statements should be read in conjunction with the financial statements and Notes thereto together with management's discussion and analysis of financial condition and results of operations contained in the Company's annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2024. In the opinion of management, the accompanying unaudited financial statements reflect all adjustments of a normal recurring nature considered necessary to fairly state the financial position of the Company at December 31, 2024, the results of its operations for the twelve months and quarters ended December 31, 2024 and 2023, and its cash flows for the twelve months and quarters ended December 31, 2024 and 2023. In addition, some of the Company's statements in its annual report on Form 10-K may be considered forward-looking and involve risks and uncertainties that could significantly impact expected results.

b) Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements for any period involves the use of estimates as the precise determination of assets and liabilities, and revenues and expenses, depends on future events. Actual amounts may differ from these estimates. Significant estimates include the valuation of allowances for deferred tax assets.

c) Financial Instruments

The Company's financial instruments consist of cash, accounts receivable, accounts payable and accrued liabilities, and loans payable to director. Unless otherwise noted, it is management's opinion that the Company is not exposed to significant interest, or credit risks arising from these financial instruments. The fair values of these financial instruments approximate their carrying values due to the relatively short period to maturity for these instruments.

The Company follows ASC 820-10, "Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures" (ASC 820-10), which among other things, defines fair value, establishes a consistent framework for measuring fair value and expands disclosure for each major asset and liability category measured at fair value on either a recurring or a nonrecurring basis. Fair value is an exit price, representing the amount that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants. As such, fair value is a market-based measurement that should be determined based on the assumptions that market participants would use in pricing an asset or a liability. As a basis for considering such assumptions, a three-tier fair value hierarchy has been established, which prioritizes the inputs used in measuring fair value as follows:

- Level 1—Inputs are unadjusted, quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities at the measurement date.
- Level 2—Inputs (other than quoted prices included in Level 1) are either directly or indirectly observable for the asset or liability through correlation with market data at the measurement date and for the duration of the instrument's anticipated life.

3. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (cont'd)

c) Financial Instruments (cont'd)

- Level 3—Unobservable inputs reflect management’s best estimate of what market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability at the measurement date. Consideration is given to the risk inherent in the valuation technique and the risk inherent in the inputs to the model.

Assets and liabilities measured at fair value as of December 31, 2025 and December 31, 2024 are classified below based on the three fair value hierarchy tiers described above:

	2025		2024
	Carrying Value	Fair Value	Carrying Value	Fair Value
Cash	-	-	851	851
Accounts Payable	14,001	14,001	-	-
Loan Payable to Director	227,873	227,873	219,970	219,970

Cash has been measured using Level 1 of the fair value hierarchy. Accounts payable and accrued liabilities, loans payable to related party and director have been measured using Level 3 of the fair value hierarchy.

d) Income Taxes

On December 22, 2017 the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act (“TCJA”) was signed into law. Pursuant to Staff Accounting Bulletin No 118, a reasonable estimate of the specific income tax effects for the TCJA can be determined and the Company is reporting these provisional amounts. Accordingly, the Company may revise these estimates in the upcoming year.

The TCJA reduces the corporate income tax rate from 34% to 21% effective January 1, 2018.

The TCJA reduces the amount of losses carried forward to 80% of taxable income in the taxable year. As the Company has not generated taxable income in the quarter ended December 31 2025, its losses carried forward are $nil.

e) Comprehensive loss

Comprehensive loss includes all changes in equity during a period from non-owner sources.

3. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (cont'd)

f) Intangible Assets

Intangible assets include the technology licenses which are amortized over the estimated useful life of 10 years on a straight-line basis. However, since these licenses were previously written down to a nominal value, no amortization was recognized during the quarter for accounting purposes.

g) Loss per share

Basic loss per share is computed by dividing net loss by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding for the year. Diluted loss per share is computed by dividing net loss by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding plus common stock equivalents (if dilutive). As of December 31 2025, there were no common stock equivalents.

h) Stock-Based Compensation

The Company accounts for equity instruments issued in exchange for the receipt of goods or services from parties other than employees using the estimated fair market value of the consideration received or estimated fair value of the equity instruments issued, whichever is more reliably measurable. The value of equity instruments issued for consideration other than employee services is determined on the earlier of a performance commitment or completion of performance by the provider of goods or services. The unrecognized expense related to stock-based compensation, and stock-based compensation expense relating to all employees and non-employees were $nil and $nil for the quarters ended December 31 2025 and 2024, respectively.

i) Foreign Currency

The parent Company maintains its books and records in U.S. dollars which is its functional and reporting currency. One of the Company's operating subsidiaries is a foreign private company and maintains its books in Canadian dollars (the functional currency). The subsidiary's financial statements are converted to US dollars for consolidation purposes. The translation method used is the current rate method, where the functional currency of the subsidiary is the foreign currency. Under the current rate method all assets and liabilities are translated at the current rate, stockholders' equity is translated at historical rates and revenues and expenses are translated at average rates for the year. Due to the dormant status of the wholly owned subsidiary, there have been no adjustments for the past years.

j) Recent Accounting Pronouncements

The Company has reviewed all recently issued, but not yet effective, accounting pronouncements and does not expect the future adoption of any such pronouncements to have a significant impact on its results of operations, financial condition or cash flow.

3. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (cont'd)

k) Non-controlling Interest

Non-controlling interests in the Company's subsidiaries are recorded in accordance with the provisions of ASC 810 and are reported as a component of equity, separate from the Company's equity.

4. LICENSES FOR TECHNOLOGY

Licenses are recorded at the carrying amount. No amortization was recorded during the quarter.

	2025 Cost	2025 Net Book Value	2024 Net Book Value
North American	$	$	$
Technology License	100	100	100
License	100	100	100

5. CAPITAL STOCK

a) Authorized

300,000,000 Common shares, $0.001 par value

b) Issued

103,080,228 Common shares (2024: 103,080,228 Common shares) valued at $103,080 (2024: $103,080).

6. LOAN PAYABLE TO DIRECTOR

Transactions with related parties are conducted in the normal course of business and are measured at the exchange amount which is the amount of consideration established by and agreed to by the related parties.

A director of the Company has advanced monies to the Company to pay certain expenses. The advances have no interest rate and are due on demand. The amount owing to the director was $227,873 (2024: $219,970).

7. SEGMENT DISCLOSURE

The Company, after reviewing its reporting systems, has determined that it has one reportable segment and geographic segment. The Company's operations are all related to the provision of wind-driven solutions for power generation. All assets of the business are located in the United States of America.

8. CAPITAL MANAGEMENT

The Company's capital management objective is to secure the ability to continue as a going concern and to optimize the cost of capital in order to enhance value to shareholders. As part of this objective, the Company seeks to maintain access to loan and capital markets at all times. The Board of Directors reviews the capital structure of the Group on a regular basis.

Capital structure and debt capacity are taken into account when deciding new investments and the Company may consider share buybacks and share issuances as other strategies. No share buybacks have occurred or are currently contemplated. Debt capital is managed considering the requirement to secure liquidity and the capability to refinance maturing debt. As of December 31 2025, the Company had no interest-bearing loans.

9. FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

The Company is exposed to risks that arise from its use of financial instruments. This note describes the Company's objectives, policies and processes for managing those risks and the methods used to measure them.

Foreign exchange risk:

The Company's subsidiary conducts its activities in Canadian dollars. The Company is therefore subject to gains or losses due to fluctuations in Canadian currency relative to the US dollar. The Company has no exposure to this given its limited activity and assets through the year.

Liquidity risk:

The Company monitors its liquidity position regularly to assess whether it has the funds necessary to fulfill planned commitments on its alternative energy technology or viable options available to fund such commitments from new equity issuance or alternative sources, such as debt financing. However, without significant internally generated cash flow, there are inherent liquidity risks, including the possibility that additional financing may not be available to the Company, or that actual development expenditures may exceed those planned. The current uncertainty in global markets could have an impact on the Company's future ability to access capital on terms that are acceptable to the Company. The Company has so far been able to raise the required financing to meet its obligations on time. The Company continues to pursue potential investees.

10. THE 2018 OMNIBUS EQUITY COMPENSATION PLAN

In February 2018, the Company adopted the 2018 Omnibus Equity Compensation Plan. A total of 5,000,000 shares of common stock were reserved pursuant to the Omnibus Equity Compensation Plan. As at December 31 2025, the Company has issued 70,000 shares of common stock under this plan.

11. INVESTMENTS IN SUBSIDIARIES

On December 31, 2022, the Company issued 2,500,000 shares of common stock to complete the purchase of certain licenses and patents for a total of $5,000,000.
