<sup>5</sup> Prior disclosures incorrectly indicated that the issuance of the Company's preferred stock fully settled the Company's related-party liabilities. Upon further review, management determined that the preferred stock issuance represented only a partial settlement of amounts owed for services rendered by a related party. Accordingly, prior disclosures understated the Company's total liabilities. The unpaid balances have been properly reflected as accrued liabilities in these financial statements. NOTE 1 – ORGANIZATION AND NATURE OF OPERATIONS

Encompass Compliance Corp. (the “Company,” “we,” “us” or “our”), a Florida corporation, has a fiscal year end of December 31<sup>6</sup> and is listed on OTCID under the trading symbol “ENCC.” The Company had abandoned its business and failed to take steps to dissolve, liquidate, and distribute its assets. It had also failed to meet the required reporting requirements with the Florida Secretary of State, hold an annual meeting of stockholders, and pay its annual franchise tax from 2018 to 2024, which resulted in its Florida charter being revoked. The Company also failed to provide adequate current public information as defined in Rule 144, promulgated under the Securities Act of 1933, and was thus subject to revocation by the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to Section 12(k) of the Exchange Act. In June 2024, a shareholder filed a petition for custodianship, with the CIRCUIT COURT OF THE 17TH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT IN AND FOR BROWARD COUNTY, FLORIDA, and was appointed as the custodian of the Company in July 2024. The Company’s Florida charter was reinstated on August 1, 2024, and all required reports were filed with the State of Florida soon after. The custodian was not able to recover any of the Company’s accounting records from previous management, but was able to get the shareholder information, hence the Company’s outstanding common shares were reflected in the equity section of the accompanying unaudited financial statements.

The company was incorporated in the State of Florida on June 8, 2000, as “American Uranium Florida, Inc.” The issuer’s name and incorporation history is below:

NOTE 2 – SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Presentation

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("U.S. GAAP"). The Company's fiscal year-end is December 31. The Company qualifies as a shell company and an alternative reporting company under OTC Markets disclosure standards.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with U.S. GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities as of the balance sheet date and the reported amounts of expenses during the reporting periods. Management evaluates its estimates on an ongoing basis. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Stock-Based Compensation

The Company accounts for stock-based compensation in accordance with ASC 718, Compensation—Stock Compensation. Stock-based compensation expense is measured at the fair value of the equity instruments issued on the grant date and recognized as expense over the period during which the related services are rendered. Stock-based compensation issued to non-employees is accounted for in the same manner as awards issued to employees.

Related-Party Transactions

In accordance with ASC 850, Related Party Transactions, related parties include entities and individuals that have control, significant influence, or are key members of management, as well as affiliates of the Company. Related-party transactions include transfers of resources or obligations between the Company and related parties, regardless of whether consideration is exchanged. The Company discloses material related-party transactions and outstanding balances with related parties in the accompanying notes to the financial statements.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The Company applies ASC 820, Fair Value Measurement, for the measurement and disclosure of fair value. Fair value is defined as the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date.

ASC 820 establishes a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value into the following levels:

Level 1: Quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.

Level 2: Observable inputs other than quoted prices included in Level 1.

Level 3: Unobservable inputs reflecting the Company's own assumptions.

The carrying amounts of the Company's financial instruments, including cash and accrued liabilities, approximate fair value due to their short-term nature.

Income Taxes

The Company accounts for income taxes in accordance with ASC 740, Income Taxes. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for temporary differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases, as well as net operating loss carryforwards.

As of December 31, 2025, and 2024, the Company had not generated taxable income and did not record any current income tax expense. Management determined that it is more likely than not that any deferred tax assets will not be realized; accordingly, a full valuation allowance has been recorded against deferred tax assets.

The Company recognizes tax benefits only for tax positions that are more likely than not to be sustained upon examination by taxing authorities. As of December 31, 2025, and 2024, no liability for unrecognized tax benefits was recorded.

Earnings Per Share

The Company is an alternative reporting issuer and has not presented earnings per share information in the accompanying financial statements.

Recently Issued Accounting Pronouncements

Management has evaluated recently issued accounting pronouncements and determined that none have had, or are expected to have, a material impact on the Company's financial position, results of operations, or cash flows.

NOTE 3 – GOING CONCERN

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared on a going-concern basis, which contemplates the realization of assets and the satisfaction of liabilities in the normal course of business.

As of December 31, 2025, the Company has not generated revenues, has an accumulated deficit of approximately $238,053, and has limited liquidity. These conditions raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that the financial statements are issued.

The financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from the outcome of this uncertainty. Management intends to seek additional capital through equity issuances, debt financing, or other strategic transactions; however, there can be no assurance that such financing will be available on terms acceptable to the Company, or at all.

NOTE 4 – RELATED-PARTY TRANSACTIONS AND ACCRUED LIABILITIES

During the years ended December 31, 2025, and 2024, the Company incurred general and administrative expenses for services rendered by a shareholder. During 2025, the Company issued one share of preferred stock in partial settlement of amounts owed for such services. The fair value of the equity issued was recognized as stock-based compensation, with a corresponding increase to additional paid-in capital.

As of December 31, 2025, and 2024, unpaid balances of $22,627 and $7,775, respectively, remained outstanding and are included in accrued liabilities – related party in the accompanying balance sheets.

NOTE 4 – SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

The Company follows the guidance in Section 855-10-50 of the FASB Accounting Standards Codification for the disclosure of subsequent events. The Company will evaluate subsequent events through the date when the financial statements were issued.

Subsequent to the balance sheet date, the Company entered into discussions with a third party regarding a potential change of control transaction. As of the date of this disclosure, such discussions are ongoing, are non-binding, and no definitive agreement has been executed.

Subsequent to the balance sheet date, the Company authorized the designation of a new series of preferred stock, a portion of which was issued in partial settlement of amounts owed for services rendered by a related party. As of the date of this disclosure, the related amendment is in the process of being submitted to the Florida Secretary of State and is pending processing.
