DLT RESOLUTION, INC.

Notes to Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements

March 31, 2025

Note 1 – Organization and Description of Business

The Company was organized on January 17, 2007 (Date of Inception) under the laws of the State of Nevada, as DBL Senior Care, Inc. and subsequently changed its name to DLT Resolution Inc. on December 4, 2017.

DLT Resolution Inc. (“DLT, the “Company”, “we” and “our”) operates in three high-tech industry including telecommunications and data services which includes Image Capture, Data Collection, Data Phone Center Services, and Payment Processing. The Company offers secure data management, Information Technology (IT) and other telecommunications services in Canada and the United States. The Company operates a Health Information Exchange providing the ability to request and retrieve medical information and records while meeting all of today’s Security & Compliance demands for HIPAA, PIPEDA and PHIPA.

The accompanying consolidated financial statements have been prepared assuming that the Company will continue as a going concern, which contemplates the realization of assets and the satisfaction of liabilities in the normal course of business. The Company has suffered recurring losses from operations and has a significant accumulated deficit. In addition, the Company continues to experience negative cash flow from operations. These factors raise substantial doubt about the Company’s ability to continue as a going concern for one year after the date these financial statements are issued. The consolidated financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from the outcome of this uncertainty. Management’s plans in regard to this matter include raising additional equity financing and borrowing funds under a private credit facility and/or other credit sources. There can be no assurance that additional financing will be available when needed or on acceptable terms. If the Company is not able to secure adequate additional funding, the Company may be forced to make reductions in spending, extend payment terms with suppliers, and/or suspend or curtail commercialization activities. Any of these actions could materially harm the Company’s business, results of operations, financial condition and future prospects.

Note 2 – Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Estimates

The preparation of the consolidated financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the consolidated financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash

Cash includes deposits in the bank accounts of DLT Resolution Inc. and its subsidiaries with accounts denominated in Canadian dollars and U.S. dollars. Cash payments and receipts are routed through the Company’s subsidiaries and certain related parties. As of March 31, 2025 and December 31, 2024, our cash held in banks was $2,594 and $66,034, respectively.

Accounts Receivable

Accounts receivable balances are established for amounts owed to the Company from its customers from the sales of services and products. The Company closely monitors the collectability of outstanding accounts receivable and provide an allowance for doubtful accounts based on estimated collections of outstanding amounts.

Revenue Recognition

The Company follows ASC 606 of the FASB Accounting Standards Codification for revenue recognition. The Company recognizes revenue upon the transfer of promised services to customers in amounts that reflect the consideration to which the Company expects to be entitled the transfer of services. The Company considers revenue earned when all the following criteria are met: (i) the contract with the customer has been identified, (ii) the performance obligations have been identified, (iii) the transaction price has been determined, (iv) the transaction price has been allocated to the performance obligations, and (v) the performance obligations have been satisfied. The Company primarily generates revenue through the sale of products through its website and at industry tradeshow.

Income taxes

Income taxes are provided for using the liability method of accounting in accordance with FASB ASC Topic 740 (formally SFAS No. 109 "Accounting for Income Taxes"). A deferred tax asset or liability is recorded for all temporary differences between financial and tax reporting. Temporary differences are the differences between the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and their tax basis. Deferred tax assets are reduced by a valuation allowance when, in the opinion of management, it is more likely than not that some portion or all of the deferred tax assets will not be realized. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are adjusted for the effect of changes in tax laws and rates on the date of enactment.

At March 31, 2025 and December 31, 2024, there were no uncertain tax positions that require accrual.

Earnings (Loss) Per Share

Earnings (Loss) per share is calculated in accordance with FASB ASC topic 260. Basic earnings (loss) per share is computed by dividing net income, or loss, by the weighted average number of shares of common stock outstanding for the period. Diluted earnings (loss) per share is computed by dividing net income, or loss, by the weighted average number of shares of common stock outstanding for the period, assuming conversion or exercise of all potentially dilutive securities outstanding during each reporting period presented. Potentially dilutive securities are not presented or used in the computation of diluted loss per share on the statement of operations for periods when the Company incurs net losses, as their effect would be anti-dilutive.

Principals of Consolidation

The consolidated financial statements represent the results of DLT Resolution, Inc. and its subsidiaries, DLT Telecom Inc. and DLT International Inc., as continuing operations and DLT Resolution Corp., its subsidiary, as discontinued operations. All intercompany transactions and balances have been eliminated.

Foreign Currency Translation

The functional currency of the Company's subsidiaries in Canada is the Canadian Dollar. The subsidiaries' assets and liabilities have been translated to U.S. dollars using exchange rates of 0.69 and 0.69 in effect at the balance sheet dates of March 31, 2025 and December 31, 2024, respectively. Statements of operations amounts have been translated using the quarterly weighted average exchange rates of 0.69 and 0.74 for the three months ended March 31, 2025 and 2024, respectively. Resulting gains or losses from translating foreign currency financial statements are recorded as other comprehensive income (loss). Foreign currency transaction gains and losses resulting from exchange rate fluctuations on transactions denominated in a currency other than the local currency are included in accumulated other income (expense).

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

Fair value of certain of the Company's financial instruments including cash, account receivable, other receivable, accounts payable and accrued liabilities, notes payable to related parties, notes payable, approximate cost because of their short maturities or bear floating rate of interest. The Company measures and reports fair value in accordance with ASC 820, "Fair Value Measurements and Disclosure" defines fair value, establishes a framework for measuring fair value in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and expands disclosures about fair value investments. Fair value, as defined in ASC 820, is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. The fair value of an asset should reflect its highest and best use by market participants, principal (or most advantageous) markets, and an in-use or an in-exchange valuation premise. The fair value of a liability should reflect the risk of nonperformance, which includes, among other things, the Company's credit risk.

Valuation techniques are generally classified into three categories: the market approach; the income approach; and the cost approach. The selection and application of one or more of the techniques may require significant judgment and are primarily dependent upon the characteristics of the asset or liability, and the quality and availability of inputs. Valuation techniques used to measure fair value under ASC 820 must maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs. ASC 820 also provides fair value hierarchy for inputs and resulting measurement as follows:

Level 1: Quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets that are accessible at the measurement date for identical assets or liabilities.

Level 2: Quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets; quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in markets that are not active; inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability; and inputs that are derived principally from or corroborated by observable market data for substantially the full term of the assets or liabilities; and

Level 3: Unobservable inputs for the asset or liability that are supported by little or no market activity, and that are significant to the fair values.

Fair value measurements are required to be disclosed by the Level within the fair value hierarchy in which the fair value measurements in their entirety fall. Fair value measurements using significant unobservable inputs (in Level 3 measurements) are subject to expanded disclosure requirements including a reconciliation of the beginning and ending balances, separately presenting changes during the period attributable to the following: (i) total gains or losses for the period (realized and unrealized), segregating those gains or losses included in earnings, and a description of where those gains or losses included in earnings are reported in the statement of income.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

Accounting guidance recently adopted

In November 2023, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (“FASB”) issued ASU 2023-07, Segment Reporting (Topic 280): Improvements to Reportable Segment Disclosures (“ASU 2023-07”) to improve the disclosures regarding a public entity’s reportable segments and address requests from investors for additional, more detailed information about a reportable segment’s expenses. The Company is required to adopt the guidance in the fourth quarter of fiscal 2025, though early adoption is permitted. The Company adopted quarterly requirements of this guidance beginning in the first quarter of 2025 and the adoption has no material impact on the unaudited condensed interim consolidated financial statements.

New accounting guidance not yet adopted

In December 2023, the FASB issued ASU 2023-09, Income Taxes (Topic 740): Improvement to Income Tax Disclosures (“ASU 2023-09”) to provide disaggregated income tax disclosures on rate reconciliation and income taxes paid. The Company is required to adopt the guidance in the fourth quarter of fiscal 2026, though early adoption is permitted. The Company is currently evaluating the impact of this amendment on its consolidated financial statements.

In January 2025, the FASB issued a clarification by ASU 2025-01 Income Statement - Expense Disaggregation Disclosures (Topic 220): A new guidance related to expense disaggregation disclosures. This guidance requires additional disclosure of certain amounts included in the expense captions presented in the Statement of Income as well as disclosures about selling expenses. The new guidance will be effective for us beginning in 2027 on an annual basis and in the first quarter of 2028 on a quarterly basis and may be applied on either a prospective or retrospective basis. Early adoption of the guidance is permitted. The Company is currently evaluating the effect this new guidance will have on our disclosures.

The Company continues to evaluate the impact of the new accounting pronouncement, including enhanced disclosure requirements, on our business processes, controls and systems.

Note 3 – Notes Payable

We issued note payable as settlement for consulting services. The note carries interest of 9% compounded annually, is due on demand and has an outstanding balance of $Nil and $27,734 as of March 31, 2025 and December 31, 2024, respectively.

We issued a $10,000 note payable in 2017 that carries interest of 3% compounded annually, is due on demand and has an outstanding balance of $Nil and $6,247 as of March 31, 2025 and December 31, 2024, respectively.

Note 4 – Stockholders’ Equity

Series A Convertible Preferred Stock

The Company is authorized to issue up to 5,000,000 shares of Series A Convertible Preferred Stock. The Series A Convertible Preferred Stock can be converted to common shares at the option of the holder at a rate of $1 per share.

The Company had no shares of Series A convertible preferred stock issued and outstanding as of March 31, 2025 and December 31, 2024.

Series B Convertible Preferred Stock

The Company is authorized to issue up to 500,000 shares of Series B Convertible Preferred Stock. As of March 31, 2025 and December 31, 2024, the Company had no shares of issued and outstanding Series B Convertible Preferred Stock.

Common Stock

During the three months ended March 31, 2025, the Company sold 6,731,620 shares of its restricted common stock for cash proceeds of $547,526

On March 11, 2024, the Company entered into a Share Purchase Agreement with Global Motor Trade LLC, Global Motor Trade International LLC, SJ Auto Trade LLC, WEC International LLC. and the beneficial owners of each entity, collectively referred to as GMTI. The Company paid the purchase price by issuing 6,013,980 shares of Company Common Stock. On April 14, 2025, the Company entered into a Termination and Rescission Agreement with GMTI to terminate and rescind the Share Purchase Agreement, pursuant to which GMTI agreed to return all 6,013,980 shares that are subject to a stop transfer order that renders the shares non-tradable and are not included in the Company's issued and outstanding common share count. As of February, 2026, GMTI is in process of returning the share certificates to the Company's stock transfer agent at which time the shares will be removed from their outstanding share count records.

On May 3, 2024, the Company entered into an unwinding agreement of its previously announced share exchange transactions (the "Share Exchanges") with certain shareholders of Toronto-based Ciscom Corp. (CSE: CISC) ("Ciscom"). In the original share exchange agreements, on February 14, 2024, the Company acquired 19.9% of the issued and outstanding capital of Ciscom Corp. ("Ciscom"), an Ontario Canada based holding company, in exchange for 10,261,214 newly issued shares of Company Common Stock. On March 2, 2024, the Company issued 11,421,401 shares of Common Stock to acquire an additional 22.15% of Ciscom and became its largest shareholder. Following a series of discussions with Ciscom's principal regulator, the Ontario Securities Commission, relating to applicable Canadian securities law requirements in connection with the Share Exchanges, DLT elected to unwind in full the Share Exchanges with the Concerned Shareholders, with the effect that, as May 3, 2024, and subject to the new share exchanges set out below, DLT no longer owns any shares of Ciscom. An early warning "exit report" and updated insider reporting was filed by DLT in accordance with the requirements of Canadian securities laws. As consideration for the unwinding of the Share Exchanges, DLT will issue 2,500 common shares of DLT (being an aggregate of up to 290,000 DLT common shares) to each of the participating shareholders who do not enter into new agreements with DLT, pursuant to applicable US and Canadian prospectus exemptions, which shares shall be subject to the standard trade restrictions under the provisions of Regulation S of the U.S. Securities Act of 1933. The Company recognized $3,045 in expense and liability for the 290,000 shares based on the $0.0105 closing share price of the Company's Common Stock on May 3, 2024 and will extinguish the liability upon issuance of the 290,000 shares.

In August 2024, the Company issued 4,000,000 shares of restricted Common Stock to its Chief Executive Officer and 1,350,000 shares of restricted Common Stock to a board member, and 1,000,000 to a consultant for their services that were valued at $22,224 based on the closing price of the Company's Common Stock on the date that the shares were granted.

In November 2024, the Company issued a total of 2,550,000 shares of restricted Common Stock to three board members that were valued at $11,475 based on the closing price of the Company's Common Stock on the date that the shares were granted.

In 2024, the Company received services from a third party and committed to issuing 432,000 shares of restricted Common Stock as compensation for the services. The shares have not been issued as of the date of the filing and the Company recognizes a $3,672 and $4,320 liability for the value of the shares to be issued based on the closing price of the Company's Common Stock as of March 31, 2025 and December 31, 2024, respectively, with the change in value recognized as a period expense.

Note 5 – Acquisition of DLT International Inc.

On January 1, 2024, the Company completed the purchase of DLT International Inc., a Canadian corporation that was wholly owned by the Company's CEO. Under the terms of the agreement, the Company acquired all DLT International assets and assumed its liabilities for a nominal purchase price. The Company accounted for this business combination by applying the acquisition method, and accordingly, the purchase price was allocated to the assets and liabilities assumed based upon their fair values at the acquisition date. The results of DLT International Inc.'s operations have been included in the condensed consolidated unaudited financial statements since the acquisition date.

The following table summarizes the purchase price and fair values of the assets acquired and liabilities assumed at the date of acquisition:

	At January 1, 2024
Cash Consideration	$	1
Total purchase price	$	1

	At January 1, 2024
Cash	$	27
Accounts receivable		60,105
Total identifiable assets acquired		60,132
Accounts payable and accrued liabilities		(112,428)
Total identifiable liabilities acquired		(112,428)
Net liabilities acquired	$	(52,296)

In the three-month period ended March 31, 2024, the Company recognized a $52,296 loss from the acquisition.

Note 6 – General and Administrative Expense

General and administrative expenses consisted of the following for the three months ended March 31, 2025:

	March 31, 2025
Consulting	$	8,552
Accounting and auditing		32,072
Personnel		58,191
Director fees		3,017
Legal fees		3,894
Other		70,599
Total	$	176,294

During the three months ended March 31, 2025, in connection with a planned acquisition of GMTI, the Company advanced $43,600 to GMTI, which the Company later determined to be uncollectible and recognized as impairment expense.

Note 7 – Income Taxes

We did not provide any current or deferred U.S. federal income tax provision or benefit for any of the periods presented because we have experienced operating losses since inception. Pursuant to FASB ASC Topic 740, when it is more likely than not that a tax asset cannot be realized through future income, the Company must provide an allowance for this future tax benefit. We provided a full valuation allowance on the net deferred tax asset, consisting of net operating loss carry-forwards, because management has determined that it is more likely than not that we will not earn income sufficient to realize the deferred tax assets during the carry-forward period. The Company records estimated losses from interest and penalties arising from taxes remitted late as well as unrecognized tax benefits as they are incurred as general and administrative expenses. The Company did not have accrued interest or penalties related to income taxes as of December 31, 2024 or 2023. The Company has not filed its 2024 and 2023 U.S. corporate income tax returns as of the date of this filing.

The sources and tax effects of the temporary differences for the periods presented are as follows (rounded to the nearest thousand):

	March 31,	December 31,
	2025	2024
Net operating loss carry forward	$ 6,072,000	$ 5,857,000
Applicable Canadian Federal and Provincial tax rates	26.5%	26.5%
Deferred tax asset related to net operating losses	$ 1,609,000	$ 1,552,000
Deferred tax asset relating to debt discounts and derivative liability (at 26.5%)	—	—

Valuation allowance	(1,609,000)	(1,552,000)
---------------------	-------------	-------------

Net deferred tax asset	$ —	$ —
------------------------	------	------

The Company did not pay any income taxes during the three months ended March 31, 2025, or since inception.

The net federal operating loss carry forward will begin to expire in 2026. This carry forward may be limited upon the consummation of a business combination under IRC Section 381. Tax years commencing at inception remain open for examination by the IRS, where applicable.

Note 9 – Related Party Transactions

As of March 31, 2025 and December 31, 2024, the Company had outstanding amounts payable to related parties of $74,304 and $82,846. The obligations are unsecured, due on demand and payable in Canadian dollars.

Included in amounts payable to related parties is a note payable to a related party as settlement for consulting services. The note carries interest of 9% compounded annually, is due on demand and has an outstanding balance of $Nil and $27,734 as of March 31, 2025 and December 31, 2024, respectively.

Note 10 – Subsequent events

From April 1, 2025 to the date of this filing, the Company issued a total 7,161,787 shares of Common stock, of which 2,650,000 were issued to directors, officers and consultants for their services, 4,511,787 were issued for stock subscriptions sold and services performed, the details of which are as follows:
