ASIA BROADBAND, INC.
Notes to the Financial Statements
For the Year Ended December 31, 2025

1. Nature of Business

Asia Broadband, Inc. was incorporated under the laws of the State of Nevada on January 24, 1996 as Gemini Marketing, Inc. The name was changed to Merendon International, Inc. on March 19, 1999 and then to Asia Broadband, Inc. on December 20, 2000. The Company was evaluating a number of different business interests for acquisition during the period from January 24, 1996 to March 19, 1999. The Company's common stock is currently quoted on the OTC Pink operated by OTC Markets Group, Inc. In 2000, the Company initially owned a 75% interest in Shanghai Broadband Network, Inc. ("SBN"), a company formed under the laws of the People's Republic of China by the Company and two independent business partners. The Company increased its interest in SBN to 90% and then to 93% in September 2003, and finally to 96% in May 2004. In 2005, the Company discontinued its involvement with SBN and began evaluating many different business interests for acquisition. In 2015, the Company entered the mining business with operations focused on the production, supply and sale of precious and base metals, primarily to Asian markets. By the end of the fiscal year of 2016, the Company began small-scale mining production in Guerro, Mexico and completed its first mineral sales. The Company has steadily expanded its mining production and property development over the last several years with increasing mineral sales and the securing of a significant funding source in 2018. After considerable development and expense, the Company deemed it a competitive advantage to sell its mining assets and shift its focus to other gold properties acquisitions in Mexico that have high potential mineralization that will lead to gold production and offer substantial value added opportunities rapidly to expand asset values. The Company acquired a number of new mining properties in 2021 and 2022 and had small-scale production in 2022, while executing expansion plans to significantly increase production in 2023 and going forward. Additionally, the Company has also created a gold-backed cryptocurrency token that was launched in March 2021 and also launched a proprietary cryptocurrency exchange on a live development basis in December 2021 to add to its digital asset business segment and diversify and integrate its mining business. In 2022, the Company also began creating a proprietary Non-Fungible Token ("NFT") digital art collection, titled "Golden Baboons Mining Club" (GBMC) as a branding and awareness strategy launched into the market place in the first quarter of 2023. The GBMC collection sold out in the 3rd quarter of 2023 and the Company began working on a second NFT collection. At the end of 2022, the Company entered into a long-term processing agreement for a large-scale ore stockpile in Mexico and purchased a land parcel near the stockpile. At the end of 2023 and throughout 2024, the Company was continuing to build a processing plant on the property with equipment deliveries and installations. Additionally in 2024, the Company's digital assets division has been developing and will be releasing a new next generation version of its AABB Wallet in 2025 and the Company did launch its second proprietary Non-Fungible Token ("NFT") digital art collection the "Golden Rascals". There were also further mining business developments and an additional property concession acquisition the Picachos IV in Mexico. In 2025, the Company has been primarily focusing on working towards opening its new ore processing facility in Etzatlan, Mexico, which occurred in the second quarter and are ongoing. The Company made a major acquisition of a gold recovery technology system called rGO that is expected to improve gold and silver recovery rates from low-grade ores and tailings stockpiles in the Company's current and future processing facilities.

Going Concern

Although the Company has significant capital available, obtained debt financing in previous years and had a small-scale mining production and mineral sales during the previous fiscal year to continue as a going concern, it has suffered losses in the current quarter and in the past and has no assurance of future profitability. The Company may require financing from external sources to finance the expansion of its operating and investing activities despite cash flows from operations in the current fiscal quarter. There is no assurance that financing or profitability will be sustainable, accordingly, there is some concern about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern.

These financial statements have been prepared on the basis that the Company will be able to continue as a going concern and realize its assets and satisfy its liabilities and commitments in the normal course of business and do not reflect any adjustments which would be necessary if the Company is unable to continue as a going concern.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Presentation

These financial statements are prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States requires the Company's management to make estimates and assumptions which affect the amounts reported in these consolidated financial statements, the notes thereto, and the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statement. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The fair value of the Company's financial instruments, which consist of cash, receivables, accounts payable and accrued liabilities, due to related parties and convertible notes payable, approximate their carrying values due to their short term or demand nature with the exception of the convertible notes payable. The fair value of the convertible notes payable was calculated using discounted cash flow analysis and approximates the carrying value as the interest rate implicit in the notes payable is similar to current market rates.

Revenue Recognition

The Company follows the provisions outlined in Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) 606, for accounting and recognizing revenue. The ASC provisions are generally applicable across industries to ensure accuracy and consistency, but specifics of its application vary by product, delivery, collectability and other circumstances across reporting periods. Generally, revenue is recognized when goods are delivered, not just when payment is received.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment is recorded at cost less accumulated depreciation. Depreciation is provided on a straight-line basis over the estimated useful life of the assets. Leasehold improvements are depreciated over the lesser of the lease term and the expected useful life of the improvements.

Impairment of Long-Lived Assets and Goodwill

The Company applies the recommendations of the SFAS 144, “Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets”. SFAS 144 requires that companies (1) recognize an impairment loss only if the carrying amount of a long-lived asset is not recoverable based on its undiscounted future cash flows and (2) measure an impairment loss as the difference between the carrying amount and fair value of the asset. In accordance with the provisions of SFAS No. 142, management reviews the carrying value of its goodwill annually for indicators of impairment in value. The fair value of the reporting unit is compared to the carrying value in order to determine if impairment exists. Adjustments to reflect impairment in value, if necessary, are recorded to the extent the carrying value of the goodwill exceeds the implied fair value of the reporting unit goodwill.

Stock-Based Compensation

The Company accounts for stock-based employee compensation arrangements in accordance with the provisions of Accounting Principles Board opinion No. 25, “Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees”, (“APB No. 25”) and complies with the disclosure provisions of SFAS No. 123 “Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation”. Under APB No. 25, compensation expense for employee options is recognized based on the difference, if any, on the date of grant between the fair market value of the Company’s stock and the amount an employee must pay to exercise the options and acquire the Company’s stock. Compensation expense is recognized immediately for past services and pro-rata for future services over the option-vesting period. No compensation expense was recorded under the intrinsic method of accounting in the reporting periods as the exercise price deems it irrelevant. The Company applies SFAS No. 123, “Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation” (“SFAS 123”) to account for stock options granted to non-employees using the fair value based method prescribed in SFAS 123. Stock-based compensation for non-employees is re-measured on each balance sheet date until such options vest. Compensation expense is recognized immediately for past services and pro-rata for future services over the option-vesting period.

In December 2002, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (“FASB”) issued SFAS No. 148, “Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation – Transition and Disclosure, an amendment to SFAS No. 123”. This statement amends SFAS No. 123 to provide alternative methods of transition for a voluntary change to the fair value-based method of accounting for stock-based employees’ compensation. In addition, this statement amends the disclosure requirements of SFAS No. 123 to require prominent disclosures of pro-forma information in both annual and interim financial statements.

Research and Development

Research and development costs are charged to operations as incurred.

Loss Per Share

Loss per share is computed in accordance with SFAS No. 128, “Earnings Per Share”. Basic loss per share is calculated by dividing the net loss available to common shareholders by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding for the period. Diluted earnings per share reflects the potential dilution of securities that could share in earnings of an entity. In loss periods, dilutive common equivalent shares are excluded as the effect would be anti-dilutive. Basic and diluted loss per share are the same for the periods presented in these consolidated financial statements.

Comprehensive Income

SFAS No. 130, "Reporting Comprehensive Income", establishes standards for reporting and presentation of comprehensive income (loss). This standard defines comprehensive income as the changes in equity of an enterprise except those resulting from stockholder transactions.

Income Taxes

Income taxes are accounted for using the liability method which requires the recognition of income taxes payable or refundable for the current year and deferred tax liabilities and assets for the future consequences of events that have been recognized in the Company's financial statements or tax returns. Under this method, tax liabilities and assets are determined based on the temporary differences between the financial statement carrying amounts and tax bases of assets and liabilities using enacted tax rates in effect in the years in which the differences are expected to reverse. A valuation allowance is recorded to reduce deferred income tax assets recognized by the amount of any deferred income tax benefits that, based on available evidence, could be realized in future tax years.

3. Mineral Properties and Mining Operations

In December of 2015, the Company acquired its initial mineral concessions and licenses encompassing an area of 486 hectares in the Guerrero region of Mexico. Guerrero is known for its production of gold, silver and base metals. The property was acquired as a first step in the evaluation and feasibility process for the Company to commit to expand and develop mineral interests in the area. In March of 2016, the Company acquired an artisan mine and the surrounding property consisting of 2,328 hectares, which are adjacent to the initial property acquisition. The properties are within the group of mining concessions called La Coloradas and were formerly known as Santa Clara 1. They are located in the southeast Guerrero Gold Belt (GGB), south of Mezcaltepec and east of Colotepec. The historic mine and properties have had underground and surface production processing, on a small-scale basis, since 1953. The initial Guerrero property acquisition combined with the artisan mine property was sold in January 2021. In October of 2020, the Company acquired a high potential mineral property in the state of Colima, Mexico. The terms of the property purchase were a lump-sum payment of $1.1 million for a 100% interest in the 100 hectare parcel with the ability to purchase additional adjacent property areas in the future. However, the Colima property was deemed to be not feasible in 2021 comparatively to other high-grade mineral potential properties available for acquisition. In the 4th quarter of 2021, the Company entered into a joint venture for a 75% interest in the Tequila Gold Mine Project in Tequila, Jalisco, Mexico, that has a processing mill on the property. There was on-going expansion of the facilities on the Tequila project in 2022 and production increased throughout the year is currently ongoing. The Company also purchased a 100% interest in the Bonanza Gold Mine Project in the 4th quarter of 2021 in Nayarit, Mexico. Additionally, the Company acquired a 100% interest in the Zodiac Gold Mine Project in Buen Pais ("Good Country"), Jalisco, Mexico, in February of 2022 and a 100% interest in the La Paz Gold Mine Project in Etzatlan, Jalisco, Mexico in May of 2022.

In December of 2022, the Company signed a historic and long-term processing and production agreement for a large-scale gold and silver ore stockpile located in Las Jimenez, Etzatlan, Jalisco, Mexico that allows AABB exclusivity to purchase the 4 million ton ore stockpile at an economically feasible price point. An evaluation report on the Company website has estimated the stockpile to represent over $ 800 million in total gold and silver value. The stockpile processing project is the largest high-yield asset addition for the Company to date. Several weeks later, AABB completed a land purchase for the site of the new processing facility to be constructed with respect to the processing project. The 4.94 hectare processing plant land parcel, that includes a water concession, is located in close proximity to the ore stockpile in Etzatlan, Mexico. The new facility build-out is budgeted for a $3 million cost and is initially planned to have a 200 ton per day (tpd) processing capacity with a planned expansion to 1,000 ton per day (tpd). The Company is in the process of building the processing plant and mineral analysis laboratory on the property. In the first quarter of 2024, the Company acquired a 4,081 hectare high-grade acquisition concession the Picachos IV for a $1 million purchase price in Jalisco, Mexico. In 2025, the Company has been primarily focusing on working towards opening its new ore processing facility in Etzatlan, Mexico, which occurred in the second quarter. In Q2 as well, the Company sold its Bonanza mineral property to focus on its other properties development and production and the processing plant.

All of the Company's precious mineral projects are prospective high yield asset additions in prolific mineral production regions of Mexico and add to the Company's strategic expansion initiative to acquire and develop gold production and increase the AABB's physical gold and silver holdings as production expands. As of December 31, 2025, the Company has capitalized a total of $11,275,744 in exploration and development costs associated with all the properties.

4. Mining Processing Recovery Technology System

In the second quarter of 2025, the Company acquired the intellectual property of a proprietary reduced graphene oxide gold recovery technology system called rGO from a private consortium of mining and technical professionals. The acquisition included all rights, trade secrets, and proprietary processes related to the high-yield rGO membrane system. The integration of the rGO membrane systems at all the Company's current and future processing facilities is expected to dramatically improve gold and silver recovery rates, particularly from low-grade or refractory ores and from tailings stockpiles and the utilization process is ongoing, along with licensing opportunities.

5. Digital Assets

In March 2021, the Company launched a digital token cryptocurrency after several months of coordination and collaboration with a digital asset developer. The Company's cryptocurrency token is backed 100% by gold holdings at the minimum spot price of 0.1 grams of gold. The Company also continues to develop its cryptocurrency PayAABB project. In the 4th quarter of 2022, In the 1st quarter 2023, AABB released its proprietary Non-Fungible Token ("NFT") collection, titled "Golden Baboons Mining Club" (GBMC). It is the initial NFT collection from AABB and it is gold-backed like the Company's AABBG token. In the first quarter of 2024, the Company released a proprietary new version of its AABB Wallet and its second proprietary Non-Fungible Token ("NFT") digital art collection the "Shorts Rascal Club or Golden Rascals". In the third quarter of 2024, the Company began the development of a new next generation version of its AABB Wallet to leverage associations to reach mass markets and the launch of the latest version of the wallet is expected in early 2026. As of December 31, 2025, the Company has capitalized a total of $3,043,314 in development costs associated with the cryptocurrency token, NFT collection, digital wallet and infrastructure.

6. Convertible Notes Payable

On January 15, 2016, the Company received $311,000 from Whitecastle Capital Corp. for a convertible note with an interest rate of 8% per annum and had a conversion price of $0.05, after a 2 year period, and a 4 year term to maturity. At the option of the holder, the note was negotiated and increased by $600,000 in 2020. As of September 30, 2025, the total amount of the debt outstanding with accrued interest was $ 0. The convertible note was settled with the debt holder in the second quarter of 2025.

7. Share Buyback Program

The Company began its share buyback program in the first quarter of 2025 and it is ongoing. Subject to various limitations and restrictions, the Company has purchased $10,244,000 of AABB common shares as of December 31, 2025.

8. Capital Stock
