Any additional material details, including footnotes to the table are below :

- (1) The $45,000 note, together with all unpaid accrued interest, is automatically convertible in full upon the closing of a qualified financing. A qualified financing is defined as an equity financing resulting in gross proceeds to the Company of at least $750,000 (including the conversion of this note and other debt). Upon a qualified financing, the conversion price would be equal to 100% of the per share price paid by investors in the financing, subject to the following valuation adjustments: (i) if the Company's valuation associated with the qualified financing is less than $15,000,000, the conversion price shall be based on a $15,000,000 valuation; and (ii) if the valuation exceeds $30,000,000, the conversion price shall be based on a $30,000,000 valuation
- (2) The Series 2023 Notes are mandatorily convertible 30 calendar days after the earliest to occur of: (i) the Company's common stock achieving a closing price greater than $1.00 for ten consecutive trading days (a "Market Forced Conversion"), or (ii) the Company completing an offering of common stock resulting in gross proceeds of at least $1,000,000 (an "Offering Forced Conversion"). Upon conversion, the Series 2023 Notes will automatically convert into shares of common stock at a conversion price equal to 75.8% of: (i) the closing price of the Company's common stock on the tenth trading day for a Market Forced Conversion, or (ii) the offering price of the Company's common stock for an Offering Forced Conversion.

- (3) The Series 2025 Notes are identical in all respects to the Series 2023 Notes except they convert at 50% of the offering price, or if the Company's common stock trades at or above $1.00 per share ($0.50 per share for the March 18 Note) for ten consecutive trading days, in which case they convert at 50% of the closing price on the tenth day. Proceeds from the Series 2025 Notes are being used for general corporate purposes.
- (4) The principal amount includes $26,000 of previously accrued liabilities for services rendered. The remaining $35,000 represents new cash proceeds.
- (5) This note was for gross proceeds of $50,000. The Note carries a 10% original issue discount, resulting in a principal balance of $55,555. The Note is convertible, at the election of the investor beginning 180 days after issuance, into shares of the Company's common stock at a conversion price equal to 75% of the 20-day volume-weighted average price, but not less than $0.15 per share. The Company has the right to prepay the Note at 110% of outstanding principal and accrued interest if repaid within 180 days of issuance, or 120% thereafter. In the event of a change of control prior to maturity, the Note becomes immediately due at 120% of the outstanding balance unless the investor elects to convert.
- (6) The Company's convertible notes outstanding have certain events that would trigger, or allow for, conversion. Such event have not yet occurred; therefore there are no potentially dilutive securities.
