Ryan & Jacobs vs. Freedom Well Testing LLC

Ryan & Jacobs were contracted by US Energy & Supply, K. Allred Oilfield Services, and 31 Quad-C to collect unsecured vendor debts that were owed and incurred by Freedom Well Testing. In total, the amounts equate to $2,060,728, and were structured into a long term note payable to be paid back as a percentage of revenue at a rate of approximately 3% of gross sales revenue.

On January 6, 2025, the Midland County Court awarded US Energy a Default Judgement due to a temporary lapse in payment under the initial payment plan. This lapse in payment led to the renegotiation of the Note Payable in a same day and amicable settlement together with US Energy, Ryan & Jacobs, and Magana & Van Dyke, PLLC as trustee for U.S. Energy Supply. The settlement terms included $2,000,000.00 or 10,600,000 common shares escrowed to the benefit of Magana & Van Dyke, PLLC as trustee for U.S. Energy Supply in the form of Rule 144 Restricted Shares, under the notion that the Company will continue to pay $30,000.00 a month as recognized under Current Notes Payable, and with all long term portions being considered settled as collateralized by the companies issuance and registration of the shares held in escrow. The Creditor has been granted the ability to accept the shares (in an amount equal to but not to exceed $2,000,000.00 in shareholder value, less any payments received) at any time, with all shares in excess of the principal amount cancelable at the date of conversion if OR as applicable.

On April 9, 2025, the company entered into a settlement agreement in exchange for dismissal of a lawsuit filed by Magana & Van Dyke, PLLC as a trustee and on behalf of Golden Ranch, to resolve a debt in the amount of $1,995,270.06. The settlement terms included $2,000,000.00 or 10,600,000 common shares escrowed to the benefit of Magana & Van Dyke, PLLC as trustee for U.S. Energy Supply in the form of Rule 144 Restricted Shares.

On May 22nd, the company determined together with Magana & Van Dyke, PLLC that both matters between Freedom Well Testing and United Energy and Golden Ranch (individually) were considered settled as a result of the stock issuances, as the company began winding down it's operations of Freedom Well Testing as a result of the Tariffs and the impact on the Company's Customers with no further cash payments to be made as a result.

On May 31, 2025, after a further evaluation had occurred over Freedom Well Testing LLC's capital requirements under the company's current operational circumstances to continue as a going concern, the Board of Directors unanimously agreed and concluded that it is in the shareholder's and company's best interest to reorganize Freedom Well Testing, by executing a strategy that allows the company to discontinue to the operations of the existing corporation, dissolve full ownership of Freedom Well Testing. We have determined that the financial benefit to the company will relieve Azure Holding Group Corp of any and all liability and limiting constraint imposed by the circumstance which at the time of report for the period ending May 31, 2025. We believe that this strategy will not provide any detriment to the Azure Holding Group's revenue or growth projections for 2025 and go forward, and believe we have maximized the value extracted from the transfer and assignment of Freedom Well Testing's customer contracts and relationships. Additionally, this decision was made as a result of a material undisclosed liability that was not disclosed or detectable at the time that the acquisition was completed.

On August 31st, 2025 the company the company communicated to Magna Van Dyke that it would be cancelling 8.1M common shares issued to U.S. Energy, and 7.5 Million common shares issued to Golden Ranch as a result of the cancellation of the merger with Freedom. The share release agreements were executed on September 5, 2025.

On October 1st, 2025, Magna Van Dyke and U.S. Energy sued Azure Holding Group and Freedom Well Testing for misrepresentation and Fraud, seeking monetary relief of $250,000.00. The company deemed this lawsuit to be frivolous, as the relationship with Freedom Well Testing had been cancelled as a result of material misrepresentation of the financials presented through Azure Holding Group's acquisition, as this liability had been incurred by Freedom Well Testing prior to the acquisition by Azure Holding Group, and as Freedom Well Testing is a Limited Liability Corporation, and there is no reasonable explanation as to why the shareholders of Azure Holding Group Corp should be impacted by the liabilities that were borne by a company prior to it's acquisition thereof, and that it ceased relationships with. The company filed a counterclaim on October 10, 2025.

On November 4th, 2025, Blaze Sales & Services sued Azure Holding Group and Freedom Well Testing for Fraud and breach of contract seeking monetary relief of $465,537. The company filed a counterclaim on November 10th, 2025. The company is set to respond to the Motion for Summary Judgement that was filed by the plaintiff's lawyer. On March 25, 2026, a judge ruled in Azure Holding Group's favor by issuing a judgment only against Freedom Well Testing LLC. With no further action on this case.

On November 5th, 2025, Magna Van Dyke and Golden Ranch sued Azure Holding Group and Freedom Well Testing for misrepresentation and Fraud seeking monetary relief of $1,000,000. The company deemed this lawsuit to be frivolous, as the relationship with Freedom Well Testing had been cancelled as a result of material misrepresentation of the financials presented through Azure Holding Group's acquisition, as this liability had been incurred by Freedom Well Testing prior to the acquisition by Azure Holding Group, and as Freedom Well Testing is a Limited Liability Corporation, and there is no reasonable explanation as to why the shareholders of Azure Holding Group Corp should be impacted by the liabilities that were borne by a company prior to its acquisition thereof, and that it ceased relationships with. The company filed a counterclaim on November 7th, 2025. The company is set to respond to the Motion for Summary Judgement that was filed by the plaintiff's lawyer.

On November 21, 2025, Cowboy Pump sued Vision Oil And Gas LLC, and on February 2, 2026 they were awarded a default judgment against Vision Oil And Gas LLC in the amount of $6,000.92 plus attorney fees of $3,211.28. The company reached settlement plan and agreement with Cowboy Pump on March 5, 2026.

On January 14, 2026, in a coordinated lawsuit to convert a debt owed by the company as a result of the change of control of Azure Holding Group to Josh Cohen, Belisarian Holdings sued the company in a federal court. The judge ruled in favor of Belisarian Holding Group, which in turn allowed for a 3(a)10 exchange to occur, whereby Belisarian Holding Group was awarded free trading common stock in the amount of $243,483 through a settlement agreement signed on March 2, 2026.

On April 2, 2026, Remsa USA, INC. filed a lawsuit against Vision Oil And Gas LLC, alleging that it owns 25% of the membership interest of Vision Oil And Gas LLC, while failing to remember that it never made the agreed upon payment to formalize their ownership interest. This lawsuit comes after being notified that the Loan Agreement that Rodolfo Tijerina was relieved as a guarantor of Remsa USA, Inc was determined in default with US Bank. The lawsuit is being evaluated now as frivolous.

NOTE 2 – SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Presentation

The Company’s financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (“U.S. GAAP”).

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting periods. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers all highly liquid debt instruments purchased with a maturity period of three months or less to be cash equivalents. The carrying amounts reported in the accompanying consolidated balance sheets for cash and cash equivalents approximate their fair value.

Accounts Receivable

Management periodically assesses the collectability of the Company's accounts receivable and notes receivable. Accounts determined to be uncollectible are charged to operations when that determination is made.

Inventories

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost or market. Cost is determined using the weighted average method.

Cost of inventories comprises all costs of purchases, costs of conversion and other costs incurred in bringing the inventories to their present location and condition. Costs of conversion of inventories include fixed and variable production overheads, taking into account the stage of completion.

Intangible Assets and Amortization

Intangible assets represent software and closing costs acquired or paid by the Company and are stated at cost less amortization and impairment, if any. Amortization of software is calculated on the straight-line method, based on the period over which the software is licensed. Amortization of closing cost are amortized over the length of the mortgage loan starting at closing.

Goodwill

Goodwill represents the excess of cost over fair value of assets acquired. Goodwill is not subject to amortization but is tested for impairment annually or more frequently if events or changes in circumstances indicate that the asset might be impaired, as required by ASC Topic 350, "Intangibles - Goodwill and Other".

Revenue recognition

Revenue from the sale of goods and services is recognized on the transfer of risks and rewards of ownership, which generally coincides with the time when the goods are delivered to customers and the title has passed and services have been rendered.

Long-lived assets

The Company reviews its long-lived assets for impairment whenever changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset may not be recoverable. For purposes of evaluating the recoverability of long-lived assets, the recoverability test is performed using estimated undiscounted net cash flows to be generated by the asset.

Oil and natural gas properties

The Company records a long-term capital asset related to the acquisition of oil and natural gas properties as the sum of the stock and cash consideration given, in addition to any debt assumed, with an offsetting asset retirement credit to offset any asset retirement obligations environment liabilities absorbed as a result of an acquisition. The properties are depleted over the life of the wells as a result of oil and gas production through extraction.

Asset Retirement Obligation

The Company records a long-term capital asset related to the acquisition of oil and natural gas properties as an environmental liability as calculated by the Texas Railroad Commission, on a per well basis. Note that the actual costs recorded are estimates, and can exceed the actual costs incurred by the company. Also note, that these are considered long term in nature, as the none of the company's wells pose any environmental risk, and have long useful lives that can be even further extended through refurbishment and replacement of parts by re-engineering and reworking the oil wells.

Property, Plant and Equipment

Equipment is recorded at cost and depreciated on the straight-line basis over the following periods:

Computer equipment	3-5 years
Trucks	5 years
Office equipment	5-7 years
Buildings and improvements	7-39 years

Earnings per share

Basic net income (loss) per common share is computed by dividing net earnings (loss) applicable to common shareholders by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding during the period. Diluted net earnings (loss) per common share is determined using the weighted average number of common shares outstanding during the period, adjusted for the dilutive effect of common stock equivalents, consisting of shares that might be issued upon exercise of common stock options. In periods where losses are reported, the weighted average number of common shares outstanding excludes common stock equivalents, because their exclusion would be anti-dilutive.

Stock-based Compensation

In June 2018, the FASB issued ASU 2018-07, Compensation – Stock Compensation (Topic 718): Improvements to Nonemployee Share-Based Payment Accounting. ASU 2018-07 allows companies to account for non-employee awards in the same manner as employee awards. The guidance is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2018, and interim periods within those annual periods.

Concentration of credit risk

The Company maintains its cash in bank deposit accounts which, at times, may exceed federally insured limits. The Company has not experienced any losses in such accounts and believes it is not exposed to any significant risk. Trade receivables consist of uncollateralized customer obligations due under normal trade terms. Management has established a reserve for doubtful accounts of $0 based on trade receivables that may not be fully collectible at November 30, 2025, and company to-date has never had to write off an accounts receivable.

Related Party Transactions

Under ASC 850 "Related Party Transactions" an entity or person is considered to be a "related party" if it has control, significant influence or is a key member of management personnel or affiliate. A transaction is considered to be a related party transaction when there is a transfer of resources or obligations between related parties. The Company, in accordance with ASC 850 presents disclosures about related party transactions and outstanding balances with related parties.

Derivative Financial Instruments

The Company evaluates its convertible notes to determine if such instruments have derivatives or contain features that qualify as embedded derivatives. For derivative financial instruments that are accounted for as liabilities, the derivative instrument is initially recorded at its fair value and is then re-valued at each reporting date, with changes in the fair value reported in the statements of operations. For stock-based derivative financial instruments, the Company uses a weighted-average Black-Scholes-Merton option pricing model to value the derivative instruments at inception and on subsequent valuation dates. The classification of derivative instruments, including whether such instruments should be recorded as liabilities or as equity, is evaluated at the end of each reporting period.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The Company follows paragraph 825-10-50-10 of the FASB Accounting Standards Codification for disclosures about fair value of its financial instruments and paragraph 820-10-35-37 of the FASB Accounting Standards Codification (“Paragraph 820-10-35-37”) to measure the fair value of its financial instruments. Paragraph 820-10-35-37 establishes a framework for measuring fair value in accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America under U.S. GAAP and expands disclosures about fair value measurements. To increase consistency and comparability in fair value measurements and related disclosures, Paragraph 820-10-35-37 establishes a fair value hierarchy which prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value into three broad levels. The fair value hierarchy gives the highest priority to quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs. The three levels of fair value hierarchy defined by Paragraph 820-10-35-37 are described below:

- Level 1: Quoted market prices available in active markets for identical assets or liabilities as of the reporting date.
- Level 2: Pricing inputs other than quoted prices in active markets included in Level 1, which are either directly or indirectly observable as of the reporting date.
- Level 3: Pricing inputs that are generally unobservable inputs and not corroborated by market data.

The carrying amount of the Company’s financial assets and liabilities, such as cash, prepaid expenses and accrued expenses approximate their fair value because of the short maturity of those instruments. The Company’s notes payable approximate the fair value of such instruments as the notes bear interest rates that are consistent with current market rates.

Basic and Diluted Income (Loss) Per Share

The Company computes income (loss) per share in accordance with FASB ASC 260. Basic earnings (loss) per share is computed using the weighted-average number of common shares outstanding during the period. Diluted earnings (loss) per share is computed using the weighted-average number of common shares and the dilutive effect of contingent shares outstanding during the period.

Income Taxes

Income taxes are provided for the tax effects of the transactions reported in the financial statements and consist of taxes currently due plus deferred taxes related primarily to tax net operating loss carryforwards. The deferred tax assets and liabilities represent the future tax return consequences of these differences, which will either be taxable or deductible when assets and liabilities are recovered or settled, as well as operating loss carryforwards. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. The effect on deferred tax assets and liabilities of a change in tax rates is recognized in income in the period that includes the enactment date. A valuation allowance is established against deferred tax assets when in the judgment of management, it is more likely than not that such deferred tax assets will not become available. Because the judgment about the level of future taxable income is dependent to a great extent on matters that may, at least in part, be beyond the Company’s control, it is at least reasonably possible that management’s judgment about the need for a valuation allowance for deferred taxes could change in the near term.

Tax benefits are recognized only for tax positions that are more likely than not to be sustained upon examination by tax authorities. The amount recognized is measured as the largest amount of benefit that is greater than 50 percent likely to be realized upon settlement. A liability for “unrecognized tax benefits” is recorded for any tax benefits claimed in the Company’s tax returns that do not meet these recognition and measurement standards. As of November 30, 2025 and August 31, 2025, no liability for unrecognized tax benefits was required to be reported.

Recently Issued Accounting Pronouncements

The Company has implemented all new applicable accounting pronouncements that are in effect. These pronouncements did not have any material impact on the financial statements unless otherwise disclosed, and the Company does not believe that there are any other new accounting pronouncements that have been issued that might have a material impact on its financial position or results of operations.

NOTE 3 - GOING CONCERN

The Company's financial statements have been prepared assuming that the Company will continue as a going concern, which contemplates continuity of operations, realization of assets, and liquidation of liabilities in the normal course of business.

As of February 28, 2026, the Company has generated $1,597,847 in Gross Revenue, with a net income from operations of $115,964 over the past 6 months. The Company's production is growing very steadily due to its most recent acquisitions and ongoing developments. The company anticipates purchasing more service rigs in the coming months, in an effort to accelerate production uplift.

The company does not require additional funds in the form of outside financing to support its operations and to achieve its business development goals and growth plans. The Company's officer Josh Cohen and past employee Clay Parish both contributed $602,370 in combined capital contributions between June 2025 and October 2025 to help fund the return to production phase of the company's operations in returning the oil wells acquired through Vision Oil And Gas back on to production.

Management intends to seek additional capital from new equity securities offerings, debt financing and vendor payable restructuring to provide funds needed to increase liquidity and accelerate the company's growth, fund internal growth and fully implement its business plan. However, management can give no assurance that these funds will be available in adequate amounts, or if available, on terms that would be satisfactory to the Company.

On June 1, 2025, Azure Holding Group Corp. sold Freedom Well Testing LLC back to Eric Kuritz for $1.00 as a result of the misrepresentation of the financial statements, while excluding disclosure of $1.8 Million in vendor debts owed by Freedom Well Testing to Golden Ranch.

On June 5, 2025, Azure Holding Group merged 100% of VISION Oil And Gas. The merger brings in over 404 wellbores, including 102 actively producing oil & gas wells, 241 shut-in wells (of which at least 120 have been identified as a workover candidate), and 42 injection wells spread primarily across 18,300 Acres on Tier 3 acreage in Cochran County in the Permian Basin. The Company is currently undergoing Good Faith Claim reviews with the Texas Railroad Commission on a material portion of the acquisitions made between October and November 2025.

The company is currently under LOI to acquire multiple Operated Oil & Gas wells in Texas, New Mexico and Oklahoma, Oil Field Services and Construction companies with operations in West Texas and South Texas.

NOTE 5 – INVENTORY

ASC 330-10-35, “Adjustments to Lower of Cost or Market”, requires the Company to reduce the carrying value of inventory when there is evidence that the utility of goods will be less than cost, whether due to physical deterioration, obsolescence, changes in price levels or other causes. As of February 28, 2026 and February 28, 2025, inventory consisted of the following:

	February 28, 2026	February 28, 2025
At Lower of Cost or Fair Market Value:
Oil Inventory	$ 591,495	-
Coil tubing technology tools inventory	$ 14,323,250	$ 14,323,250
Total inventory	$ 14,323,250	$ 14,323,250

NOTE 6 – Oil and natural gas properties

As of February 28, 2026 and February 28, 2025, Oil and natural gas properties stated at cost plus Asset Retirement Credits less accumulated depreciation, depletion and amortization, was $107, 618,497 and $0.00 for both periods, respectively.

The company incorrectly reported this number in it’s last quarterly filing, dated November 30, 2025 at an amount of $147,888.110.00. The error was due to the company’s lack of use of a discounted cash flow model, and instead recorded the liability at cost.

This number constitutes total consideration in stock or cash paid for properties acquired, as well as the use of estimates to determine what the company’s future asset retirement obligation and offsetting asset retirement credit is based on the use of estimates and formulas provided by the Texas Railroad Commission on a per foot basis, by county, and by well type.

The company has estimated it’s annual spend of a 30 year period, and conservatively has recorded the unamortized portion as fully extinguished in the 30th year of the cash flow model.

NOTE 10 – DISCONTINUED OPERATIONS

On January 17, 2025, after a further evaluation had occurred over CST Drilling Fluid Inc.'s capital requirements under the company's current operational circumstances to continue as a going concern, the Board of Directors unanimously agreed and concluded that it is in the shareholder's and company's best interest to cancel the acquisition of CST Drilling Fluids as a result of undisclosed vendor and bank liabilities at the date of the acquisition agreement.

We have determined that the financial benefit to the company will relieve Azure Holding Group Corp of any and all liability and limiting constraint imposed by the circumstance which at the time of report for the period ending May 31, 2025. We believe that this strategy will not provide any detriment to the Azure Holding Group's revenue or growth projections for 2025. Additionally, this decision was made as a result of a material undisclosed liability that was not disclosed or detectable at the time that the acquisition was completed.

NOTE 11 - DEBT

As of February 28, 2026, the company has no senior secure debt arrangements.

NOTE 12 – SHARE-BASED PAYMENTS

NOTE 13 – EARNINGS PER SHARE

Earnings per common share is computed based on the weighted average number of common shares outstanding and, when appropriate, dilutive potential common stock outstanding during the period. Stock options, convertible preferred stock and warrants are considered to be potential common stock. The computation of diluted earnings per common share does not assume exercise or conversion of securities that would have an anti-dilutive effect.

Basic earnings per common share is the amount of earnings for the period available to each weighted average share of common stock outstanding during the reporting period. Diluted earnings per common share is the amount of earnings for the period available to each weighted average share of common stock outstanding during the reporting period and to each share of potential common stock outstanding during the period, unless inclusion of potential common stock would have an anti-dilutive effect.

All outstanding options, warrants and convertible preferred stock for common shares are not included in the computation of diluted earnings per common share because they are anti-dilutive, which for the three months ended February 28, 2026 and 2025, totaled $0.00 and $0.00 respectively.

NOTE 16 – LEGAL MATTERS & CONTINGENCIES

Ryan & Jacobs vs. Freedom Well Testing LLC

Ryan & Jacobs were contracted by US Energy & Supply, K. Allred Oilfield Services, and 31 Quad-C to collect unsecured vendor debts that were owed and incurred by Freedom Well Testing. In total, the amounts equate to $2,060,728, and were structured into a long term note payable to be paid back as a percentage of revenue at a rate of approximately 3% of gross sales revenue.

On January 6, 2025, the Midland County Court awarded US Energy a Default Judgement due to a temporary lapse in payment under the initial payment plan. This lapse in payment led to the renegotiation of the Note Payable in a same day and amicable settlement together with US Energy, Ryan & Jacobs, and Magana & Van Dyke, PLLC as trustee for U.S. Energy Supply.
