Director's Responsibilities and Approval

The directors are required in terms of the laws of the Local legislation over companies to maintain adequate accounting records and is responsible for the content and integrity of the consolidated financial statements and related financial information included in this report. It is their responsibility to ensure that the consolidated financial statements fairly present the state of affairs of the company as at the end of the financial year and the results of its operations and cash flows for the period then ended, in conformity with IFRS® ("IFRS") as issued by the International Accounting Standards Board ("IASB").

The consolidated financial statements are prepared in accordance with IFRS® and are based upon appropriate accounting policies consistently applied and supported by reasonable and prudent judgements and estimates.

The directors acknowledge that they are ultimately responsible for the system of internal financial control established by the company and places considerable importance on maintaining a strong control environment. To enable the directors to meet these responsibilities, the directors set standards for internal control aimed at reducing the risk of error or loss in a cost-effective manner. The standards include the proper delegation of responsibilities within a clearly defined framework, effective accounting procedures and adequate segregation of duties to ensure an acceptable level of risk. These controls are monitored throughout the company and all employees are required to maintain the highest ethical standards in ensuring the company's business is conducted in a manner that in all reasonable circumstances is above reproach. The focus of risk management in the company is on identifying, assessing, managing and monitoring all known forms of risk across the company. While operating risk cannot be fully eliminated, the company endeavours to minimise it by ensuring that appropriate infrastructure, controls, systems and ethical behaviour are applied and managed within predetermined procedures and constraints.

The directors are of the opinion, based on the information and explanations given by management, that the system of internal control provides reasonable assurance that the financial records may be relied on for the preparation of the consolidated financial statements. However, any system of internal financial control can provide only reasonable, and not absolute, assurance against material misstatement or loss.

The director has reviewed the company's cash flow forecast for the year to August 31, 2026 and, in light of this review and the current financial position, he is satisfied that the company has or had access to adequate resources to continue in operational existence for the foreseeable future.

The independent reviewer is responsible for independently reviewing and reporting on the company's consolidated financial statements. The consolidated financial statements have been examined by the company's independent reviewers.

The unaudited interim condensed consolidated financial statements set out on page 3, which have been prepared on the going concern basis, were approved by the board of directors on April 28, 2026 and were signed on their behalf by:

1.1 Significant judgements and sources of estimation uncertainty

The preparation of unaudited interim condensed consolidated financial statements in conformity with IFRS requires management, from time to time, to make judgements, estimates and assumptions that affect the application of policies and reported amounts of assets, liabilities, income and expenses. These estimates and associated assumptions are based on experience and various other factors that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances. Actual results may differ from these estimates. The estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognised in the period in which the estimates are revised and in any future periods affected.

The estimation of share-based payments includes estimating the inputs used in calculating the fair value for share-based payments expense included in profit or loss and share-based share issuance costs included in equity. Share-based payments expense and share-based share issuance costs are estimated using the Black- Scholes options-pricing model as measured on the grant date to estimate the fair value of stock options. This model involves the input of highly subjective assumptions, including the expected price volatility of the Company's common shares, the expected life of the options, and the estimated forfeiture rate.

Material Accounting Policies

Critical judgements in applying accounting policies

The critical judgements made by management in applying accounting policies, apart from those involving estimations, that have the most significant effect on the amounts recognised in the financial statements, are outlined as follows:

- Assessing whether an acquired set of activities/assets is a "business" in accordance with IFRS 3
- Determining the smallest group of assets that generates independent cash inflows (CGUs under IAS 36)
- The interpretation and application of tax laws
- The determination of functional currency for the Company and its subsidiaries
- The assumption that the Company will continue as a going concern

1.2 New accounting standards adopted during the year

Lack of exchangeability - amendments to IAS 21

Effective January 1, 2025, the IASB issued amendments to IAS 21 The Effects of Changes in Foreign Exchange Rates to address situations where a currency is not exchangeable into another currency. The amendments provide guidance on assessing when exchangeability is lacking, require entities to estimate a spot exchange rate when an observable rate is unavailable, and introduce related disclosure requirements.

1.3 Accounting standards issued but not yet effective

IFRS 18 Presentation and Disclosure in Financial Statements

Amendment introduces three sets of new requirements to give investors more transparent and comparable information about companies' financial performance for better investment decisions.

Amendments to IFRS 9 and IFRS 7: Amendments to the Classification and Measurement of Financial Instruments.

The IASB issued amendments to IFRS 9 and IFRS 7 clarifying the assessment of contractual cash flow characteristics (SPPI test), guidance on modification and derecognition of financial instruments, and introducing related disclosure requirements. These amendments are effective for annual periods beginning on or after January 1, 2026.

Amendments to IAS 10 Statement of Cash flows

The amendment aim to improve the consistency and clarity of cash flow presentation, including enhanced guidance on the classification of cash flows arising from financing activities and non-cash changes in liabilities arising from financing activities. These amendments are effective for annual reporting periods beginning on or after January 1, 2027.

The Company has chosen not to early adopt the above standards and interpretations, which have been published and are mandatory for the company's accounting periods beginning on or after September 1, 2025 or later periods. The amendments are not expected to have a material effect on these unaudited interim condensed consolidated financial statements.

1.4 Other accounting policies

The accounting policies adopted in the preparation of these unaudited interim condensed consolidated financial statements are consistent with those followed in the preparation of the Company's consolidated financial statements for the year ended August 31, 2025.

The renewal of the Exclusive Prospecting License 3140 (the "License") covering the Haib Copper Project had been refused by the Minister of Mines and Energy of Namibia (the "Ministry") in 2021. The Company vigorously contested this decision, using all legal means available to the Company under the Minerals (Prospecting and Mining) Act and other applicable laws international and Namibian.

On March 10, 2023, the High Court of Namibia rendered its judgment and reviewed and set aside the decision of the Minister not to renew the Haib Copper licence EPL 3140. As per the court verdict, the Ministry re-opened the application renewal procedure for the Haib Copper licence.

On September 1, 2025, the Company was granted the renewal of EPL 3140 for a further 2 years from the expiration of the previous permit. This validates the EPL until July 6, 2027 with standard requirements relating to the proposed work program and budget.

13. Capital management

The Company defines capital that it manages as cash and equity, comprising issued common shares and reserves.

The Company manages its capital structure and makes adjustments to it, based on the funds available to the Company, in order to support the acquisition, exploration and development of exploration and evaluation assets. The Board of Directors does not establish quantitative return on capital criteria for management, but rather relies on the expertise of the Company's management to sustain future development of the business.

The properties in which the Company currently has an interest are in the exploration stage. As such, the Company has historically relied on the equity markets to fund its activities. The Company will continue to assess new properties and seek to acquire an interest in additional properties if it feels there is sufficient economic potential and if it has adequate financial resources to do so.

Management reviews its capital management approach on an ongoing basis and believes that this approach, given the relative size of the Company, is reasonable. The Company is not subject to externally imposed capital restrictions. There was no change to the Company's capital management approach during the current period under review.

The Company is not subject to any externally imposed capital requirements.
