Note 1. Basis of Presentation and Nature of Business

The accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements have been prepared by Winland Holdings Corporation (“Winland” or the “Company”) in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America for the preparation of interim financial information. Accordingly, they do not include all of the information and notes required by accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America for complete financial statements. In the opinion of management, all adjustments (consisting of normal recurring adjustments) considered necessary for a fair presentation have been included. Financial results for the three months ended March 31, 2026 are not necessarily indicative of the results that may be expected for the year ending December 31, 2026.

The condensed consolidated balance sheet at December 31, 2025 has been derived from the audited financial statements as of that date but does not include all of the information and footnotes required by accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America for complete financial statement presentation.

This financial information should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements and notes included in the Company’s Annual Report for the year ended December 31, 2025.

Management is required to make certain estimates and assumptions which affect the amounts of assets, liabilities, revenue, and expenses reported. Actual results could differ materially from these estimates and assumptions.

The Company evaluates events through the date the consolidated financial statements are filed for events requiring adjustment to or disclosure in the consolidated financial statements.

Nature of Business:

Winland Holdings Corporation (“Winland” or the “Company”) is the holding company for Winland Electronics, Inc. (“Winland Electronics”), Winland Capital Corporation (“Winland Capital Corp.”), and Winland Mining LLC (“Winland Mining”), all wholly-owned subsidiaries of the Company.

Winland Electronics is an industry leader in critical condition monitoring devices. Products including EnviroAlert Professional, EnviroAlert, WaterBug, TempAlert, and Power-Out Alert are designed in-house to monitor critical conditions and protect against loss of assets due to damage from water, excess humidity, extremes of temperature, and loss of power, among others, across industries including agriculture, construction, food service and storage, healthcare, manufacturing, real estate, technology, veterinary, and warehousing. Winland Electronics markets and sells its line of proprietary critical condition monitoring hardware and subscription service products primarily through a global network of distributors, dealers, security installers and integrators. Winland Electronics’ products are compatible with most hardwired or wireless alarm system. Winland Electronics also offers a critical environment monitoring solution called INSIGHT, an automated, cloud-based platform that provides early alerting, reporting, and logging services designed to ensure regulatory compliance.

Winland Capital Corp. is the holding company for the Company’s investment operations and includes wholly-owned subsidiaries Winland Credit Partners LLC (“Winland Credit”) and Winland Capital Management LLC (“Winland Capital”).

Winland Mining is the Company’s cryptocurrency mining business and currently operates approximately 15 Bitmain Antminer S21 200 TH/S, 45 Bitmain Antminer L9 16G, 6 Bitmain Antminer L9 17G, 20 Bitmain Antminer S21 Pro 234 TH/S, and 26 Bitmain Antminer L9 16.5G cryptocurrency miners. Winland Mining has entered into a services agreement with Horizon Kinetics LLC to engage with cryptocurrency mining hosting facilities on Winland Mining’s behalf and to support its cryptocurrency mining operations by performing certain services from time to time.

The Company continues to explore various alternatives to enhance shareholder value that utilize the expertise of management and the Board of Directors. Such alternatives may include establishing new ventures, acquiring existing businesses, and other investment opportunities, including investments in private credit, various rights to payment (including bankruptcy claims), marketable securities, and cryptocurrency-related assets.

The footnotes related to dollars are in thousands unless noted.

Note 2. Major Customers

The Company has three customers that accounted for 10 percent (10%) or more of net sales for the three months ended March 31, 2026 and two customers as of March 31, 2025 as follows:

| Sales percentage: | For the Three Months Ended March 31, | |
|-------------------|--------------------------------------|-------------|
| | 2026 | 2025 |
| Customer A | 34% | 42% |
| Customer B | 11% | 10% |
| Customer C | 16% | 8% |

The Company had net receivables (as a percentage of total receivables) from the above customers as follows:

| Accounts receivable percentage: | March 31, | |
|---------------------------------|-------------|-------------|
| | 2026 | 2025 |
| Customer A | 42% | 60% |
| Customer B | 32% | 25% |
| Customer C | 8% | 9% |

Note 3. Income (loss) per Common Share

Income (loss) per common share: Basic income (loss) per common share is computed by dividing the net income (loss) by the weighted-average number of common shares outstanding during the period. Diluted income (loss) per common share is computed by dividing the net income (loss) by the weighted-average number of common shares outstanding during the period, including potentially dilutive shares such as the options to purchase shares of common stock at various amounts per share.

For the three months ended March 31, 2026, the basic loss per share was ($0.29) based on 5,077,460 shares outstanding. For the three months ended March 31, 2026, there were no actual or potential dilutive option shares outstanding. For the three months ended March 31, 2025, the basic loss per share was ($0.16) based on 4,921,899 shares outstanding. For the three months ended March 31, 2025, there were no dilutive option shares outstanding.

Note 4. Inventories

The components of inventories were as follows, net of reserves:

| | March 31, 2026 | March 31, 2025 |
|----------------|-----------------------|-----------------------|
| Raw materials | $ 7 | $ 17 |
| Finished goods | 1,417 | 669 |
| Total, net | $ 1,424 | $ 686 |

Note 5. Allowance for Rework and Warranty Costs

The Company provides a limited warranty for its products for a period of one year, which requires the Company to repair or replace defective product at no cost to the customer or refund the purchase price. The reserve reflecting historical experience and potential warranty issues is determined based on specific experience factors, including rate of return by item, average weeks outstanding from sale to return, average cost of repair, and relation of repair cost to original sales price. Any specific known warranty issues are considered individually. These are analyzed to determine the probability and the amount of financial exposure, and a specific reserve is established. The allowance for rework and warranty costs was $25 as of March 31, 2026 and December 31, 2025, respectively.

9) Disclosure & Financial Information (Continued)

Note 6. Income Taxes

Income taxes are accounted for under the asset and liability method. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. The Company records a tax valuation allowance when it is more likely than not that it will not be able to recover the value of its deferred tax assets.

The years 2022 through 2025 remain open for examination by the IRS and other state agencies.

At December 31, 2025, the Company had net operating loss carryforwards of $3,283 for federal income tax purposes and $1,380 for state income tax purposes that are available to offset future taxable income and begin to expire in the year 2031 and 2026, respectively. Effective January 1, 2018, the Company restructured into a holding company, with the operations of Winland Electronics being dropped down into a subsidiary of Winland. Additional subsidiaries were created to operate new areas of business. With the restructuring, the tax attributes related to the net operating loss carryforwards and credit carryforwards remained at the parent level with Winland. Various other tax attributes directly related to the operations of the subsidiaries were dropped down to the subsidiaries at the time of restructuring. The Company will continue utilizing the net operating loss carryforwards and credit carryforwards and will evaluate the realization of the corresponding deferred tax asset at the consolidated company level.

The Company's ability to utilize its net operating losses ("NOLs") to reduce taxable income in future years may be limited for various reasons, including if projected future taxable income is insufficient to recognize the full benefit of such NOLs prior to their expiration. Additionally, the ability to fully utilize these tax assets could also be adversely affected if the Company is deemed to have had an "ownership change" within the meaning of Section 382 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"). An ownership change is generally defined as a greater than 50% increase in equity ownership by "5-percent shareholders" (as that term is defined for purposes of Section 382 of the Code) in any three-year testing period.

The Company does not anticipate any significant changes to the total amount of unrecognized tax benefits in the next 12 months.

Note 7. Revenue Recognition

Revenues are recognized when control of the promised goods or services are transferred to our customers, in an amount that reflects the consideration we expect to be entitled to in exchange for those goods or services. The Company accounts for a contract when it has approval and commitment from both parties, the rights of the parties are identified, payment terms are identified, the contract has commercial substance and collectability of consideration is probable.

Disaggregation of Revenue: The following table presents our revenues disaggregated by revenue sources of hardware, software subscription contracts, and cryptocurrency.

| | For the Three Months Ended March 31, | |
|----------------------|---|-----------------|
| | 2026 | 2025 |
| Hardware | $ 1,001 | $ 1,178 |
| Subscription service | 84 | 81 |
| Cryptocurrency | 79 | 185 |
| | $ 1,164 | $ 1,444 |

Hardware Contracts: For hardware contracts, the Company's customers submit binding purchase orders stating the items to purchase, standard price, shipping method and payment terms. The Company sets standard pricing for its hardware items and communicates them to a majority of customers. For customers who receive nonstandard pricing, pricing is determined based on customer annual sales volumes and or geographic region, typically outside of North America.

The Company recognizes revenue at a point in time as hardware is delivered to common carrier for shipment and title transfers.

Software Subscription Contracts: The Company recognizes revenue from software subscription contracts over time as the services are rendered to the customer on a daily basis. Contracts are billed at the beginning of each calendar quarter for a quarterly period with standard payment terms of 30 days from the date of invoice.

Significant Judgements: The Company estimates any variable consideration at the outset of the contract (such as credits or incentives to its customers). The Company constrains (reduces) the estimates of variable consideration such that it is probable that a significant revenue reversal of previously recognized revenue will not occur over the life of a contract.

Transaction Price Allocated to Future Performance Obligations: The Company determines the allocation of the transaction price and amounts allocated to remaining performance obligations based on the standalone selling price for each distinct performance obligation in the contract. The Company generally determines standalone selling prices based on the actual prices charged to customers.

Contract Balances: Unearned revenues arise when revenues are invoiced but cannot be recognized until the completion of service over time.

The Company generally expenses sales commissions when incurred because the amortization period would have been one year or less. These costs are recorded within sales and marketing expenses for the three months ended March 31, 2026 and 2025, respectively.

All of the Company's software subscription contracts are short-term in nature with a contract term of one year. For those contracts, the Company utilized the practical expedient in ASC 606-10-50-14 exempting the Company from disclosure of the transaction price allocated to remaining performance obligations if the performance obligation is part of a contract that has an original expected duration of one year or less.

Additionally, the Company's payment terms are short-term in nature with settlements of one year or less, generally net 30 days. The Company, therefore, utilized the practical expedient in ASC 606-10-32-18 exempting the Company from adjusting the promised amount of consideration for the effects of a significant financing component given that the period between when the entity transfers a promised good or service to a customer and when the customer pays for that good or service will be one year or less.

Sales taxes and use taxes are reported on a net basis, excluding them from sales and cost of sales. The Company has elected the practical expedient to exclude such amounts from the determination of the transaction price of contracts.

The Company has elected an accounting policy to account for shipping and handling activities that occur after the customer has obtained control of a good as an activity to fulfill the promise to transfer the good. Therefore, shipping and handling charges are excluded from the determination of the transaction price of contracts. Shipping and handling charges billed to customers are included in net sales, and shipping and handling costs incurred by the Company are included in cost of sales.

The Company has elected the accounting policy to exclude immaterial goods or services from assessment as separate performance obligations.

Cryptocurrency: The Company recognizes revenue at the time of the cryptocurrency creation (see Note 13).

9) Disclosure & Financial Information (Continued)

Note 8. Financial Instruments

Marketable securities: The Company's marketable equity securities are carried at fair value. Realized and unrealized gains (losses) are reported in other income. The cost of securities sold is based upon the specific identification method.

Fair value measurements: The Company applies fair value accounting for all financial assets and liabilities and non-financial assets and liabilities that are recognized or disclosed at fair value in the consolidated financial statements on a recurring basis. The Company defines fair value as the price that would be received from selling an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. When determining the fair value measurements for assets and liabilities, which are required to be recorded at fair value, the Company considers the principal or most advantageous market in which the Company would transact and the market-based risk measurements or assumptions that market participants would use to price the asset or liability, such as risks inherent in valuation techniques, transfer restrictions, and credit risk. Fair value is estimated by applying the following hierarchy, which prioritizes the inputs used to measure fair value into three levels and bases the categorization within the hierarchy upon the lowest level of input that is available and significant to the fair value measurement.

Level 1 – Quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.

Level 2 – Observable inputs other than quoted prices in active markets for identical assets and liabilities, quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in inactive markets, or other inputs that are observable or can be corroborated by observable market data for substantially the full term of the assets or liabilities.

Level 3 – Inputs that are generally unobservable and typically reflect management's estimate of assumptions that market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability.

The Company's valuation techniques used to measure the fair value of certain marketable equity securities were derived from quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.

In accordance with the fair value accounting requirements, companies may choose to measure eligible financial instruments and certain other items at fair value. The Company has not elected the fair value option for any eligible financial instruments.

Recurring measurement of fair value: The following table presents information about the Company's assets measured at fair value on a recurring basis and the Company's estimated level within the fair value hierarchy of those assets as of March 31, 2026 and December 31, 2025, respectively:

Fair values were determined for each individual security in the investment portfolio. When evaluating an investment for other-than-temporary impairment the Company reviews factors such as the length of time and extent to which fair value has been below its cost basis, the financial condition of the issuer and any changes thereto, the Company's intent to sell, or whether it is more likely than not it will be required to sell the investment before recovery of the investment's cost basis. As of March 31, 2026, the Company does not consider any of its investments to be other-than-temporarily impaired. The balance included as a long-term marketable security has been classified as long-term as it is the company's intent to hold the investment for greater than one year, though the actual length of time that the security may be held could be different.

Note 9. Other Income (expense)

Other income (expense) consisted of the following for the three months ended March 31, 2026 and 2025:

| | For the Three Months Ended March 31, | |
|-------------------------------|---|-----------------|
| | 2026 | 2025 |

Note 10. Segment Reporting

Operating segments are defined as components of an enterprise about which separate financial information is available that is evaluated regularly by the chief operating decision maker ("CODM"), or decision-making group, in deciding how to allocate resources and assess performance. The Company's Chief Executive Officer is the CODM.

The Company has three reportable segments: Winland Electronics, Winland Capital Corp., and Winland Mining. The reportable segments are based on the types of services performed. No operating segments have been aggregated to form the reportable segments.

Gross profit and net income are the segment performance measures the CODM uses to assess the Company's reportable segments.

The following tables present segment revenue, segment gross profit and segment income from operations, including significant expense items:

Note 11. Rights to Payment

Rights to payment at fair value, net of any proceeds and net of any recovery sharing obligation, are $1,274 as of March 31, 2026 and $1,565 as of December 31, 2025. All rights to payment are in cryptocurrency-related claims.

Winland Credit received payments of $0 and $0 in the three months ended March 31, 2026 and 2025, respectively. The Company believes all rights to payment are collectible as of March 31, 2026.

Note 12. Related Party Transactions

In June 2020, Winland Mining entered into a services agreement (the “2020 Services Agreement”) with Horizon Kinetics LLC (“HK”). Effective December 1, 2025 a new services agreement (the “2025 Services Agreement”) was entered into with HK. HK is an investment firm owned and operated by Steven Bregman, among others. Mr. Bregman is a member of the Company’s Board of Directors. HK is the employer of Matthew Houk, Co-Chief Manager and Chief Financial Officer of Winland Mining, Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer of the Company, and Chairman of the Company’s Board of Directors. Under the 2020 Services Agreement, HK was entitled to a quarterly management fee of $3. Under the 2025 Services Agreement, HK is entitled to an annual fee equivalent to 1% of the cryptocurrency balances plus the depreciated equipment value, paid quarterly in arrears, with any and all fees above $0.5 per month waived for six months from effective date. The 2025 Services Agreement shall continue unless terminated by either party upon 10 days’ prior written notice. Winland Mining incurred fees of $2 for the three months ended March 31, 2026 and $3 for the three months ended March 31, 2025, of which $2 and $3 were included in accounts payable as of March 31, 2026 and December 31, 2025, respectively.

Note 13. Winland Mining LLC
