Total Outstanding Balance: $97,194 Total Shares: Nil 102,236,070

Any additional material details, including footnotes to the table are below:

The Company issued a $55,555 secured convertible promissory note to Quick Capital, LLC on April 22, 2024. The interest on the Note was 12% per annum until it matured on February 28, 2025. The note is currently in default and accrues interest at 24% per annum. As of March 31, 2026, the total amount due, including accrued interest, was approximately $75,043. The note is convertible at the holder's option into common stock at the lesser of $0.002 per share or 70% of the average of the two lowest trading prices in the 20 days preceding conversion. The note is secured by Series A Preferred stock held by the CEO.

The Company has entered into Promissory Note Agreements for amounts shown in the table above. The notes bear interest at a rate of 15% per annum and have a term of twelve (12) months from inception. At maturity, the outstanding principal and accrued interest are mandatorily convertible into shares of the Company's common stock at a fixed conversion price of $0.001 per share and $0.002 per share. The noteholder may elect to convert all or any portion of the outstanding principal and accrued interest into common stock prior to maturity at the same fixed conversion price. The notes provide that settlement shall occur solely in shares of the Company's common stock and no cash repayment is permitted. The conversion price is subject only to customary adjustments for stock splits or similar recapitalization events.

4) Issuer's Business, Products and Services

The purpose of this section is to provide a clear description of the issuer's current operations. Ensure that these descriptions are updated on the Company's Profile on www.OTCMarkets.com.

A. Summarize the issuer's business operations (If the issuer does not have current operations, state "no operations")

Synbio International Inc. is a company focused on advancing artificial intelligence-based medical technologies for the screening of mental health conditions. During the reporting period, the Company's primary operational focus has been the clinical validation of proprietary facial analysis software developed by FacialDx Inc. for the early detection of Post Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD) and Major Depressive Disorder ("MDD"). Pursuant to a Clinical Trial License Agreement dated January 28, 2025, Synbio was granted a non-exclusive license to utilize FacialDx's proprietary software solely for the purpose of conducting a structured clinical trial. Under this agreement, the Company is responsible for conducting a feasibility study followed by a validation study, designed to compare the software's screening output against diagnoses made by licensed behavioral health clinicians. The proposed feasibility trial participation size is designed to provide sufficient data to inform a subsequent adequately powered prospective validation trial and support early commercialization activities.

In September 2025, Synbio also entered into a Stock Purchase Agreement with FacialDx under which Synbio has agreed to invest $200,000 in FacialDx in four tranches over 12 months, at $2.00 per share. Furthermore, the agreement provides Synbio the right to convert clinical trial expenditures into additional equity of FacialDx at the same $2.00 per share price, subject to FDA approval. In connection with this investment, Synbio issued FacialDx a 5-year warrant to acquire shares of Synbio common stock, exercisable upon FDA approval.

The Company remains pre-revenue and is currently focused on funding and executing its clinical validation program. Upon successful completion of the feasibility phase, the parties intend to negotiate a separate commercialization license agreement. The Company's strategy is to establish clinical credibility and regulatory positioning prior to commercial rollout.

The Company's vision extends beyond AI to encompass innovative nutraceutical solutions. The market for nutraceuticals in the USA has been experiencing robust growth, driven by increasing consumer awareness of the link between diet, health, and wellness. With a growing emphasis on preventive healthcare, the demand for dietary supplements and functional foods that offer potential health benefits beyond basic nutrition continues to expand, creating a dynamic landscape for the Company's nutraceutical businesses to flourish.

The company is poised to launch an anti-anxiety product - the first of its nutritional supplements that can aid the long-term management of anxiety. The formula was scientifically designed as an active dietary supplement to nutritionally support the body's inherent abilities to positively respond to stressful conditions. It will address the needs of the great many people who are searching for natural supplements that may help address symptoms associated with their anxiety.

Refer to Section C for further details.

B. List any subsidiaries, parent company, or affiliated companies.

N/A

C. Describe the issuers' principal products or services.

As summarized in Section 4A above, the Company's focus is on an innovative facial analysis mental health medical technology developed by FacialDx, known as NIMS™. NIMS™ employs AI and machine learning algorithms integrated into a mobile application that analyzes facial features from images captured by smartphones or other devices to generate instant results, providing objective biological data intended to supplement — not replace — clinical judgment. Synbio's commercial strategy for NIMS™ aims to engage health professionals and forge corporate partnerships to maximize its impact. Key focus areas will include but not be limited to:

- Medical Practitioners: By collaborating with family physicians, general practitioners and mental health professionals such as psychologists, therapists and counsellors, NIMS™ will be integrated into clinical settings, providing professionals with a rapid, objective tool to enhance diagnostic accuracy and patient care.
- Corporate Partnerships: NIMS™ will support employee wellness in sectors such as aviation, law enforcement, emergency services and veterans' affairs.

This support may include routine, non-invasive screenings for airline staff and first responders who are often exposed to high-stress environments, helping to identify early signs of PTSD or depression and improve mental health outcomes, safety and productivity. Additionally, insurance companies may utilize NIMS™ as an objective tool to confirm or rule out the presence of mental illness, enhancing the accuracy of underwriting and claims evaluations.

Synbio's vision extends beyond AI, encompassing innovative nutraceutical solutions. The market for nutraceuticals in the USA has been experiencing robust growth, driven by increasing consumer awareness of the link between diet, health, and wellness. With a growing emphasis on preventive healthcare, the demand for dietary supplements and functional foods that offer potential health benefits beyond basic nutrition continues to expand, creating a dynamic landscape for the Company's nutraceutical businesses to flourish.

Marketing will be the cornerstone of success, beginning with an aggressive social media campaign, leveraging platforms such as Facebook, Instagram, TikTok, and X (Twitter). Synbio will collaborate with influencers and bloggers in the mental health and wellness space to amplify product reach. Additionally, Synbio will produce engaging video testimonials and educational content, reinforcing Synbio's product credibility. As at March 31, 2026, the Company had completed the formulation of a number of nutraceutical products and the design of its initial product: "Healing Force – Anxiety Relief".

The timing of the commercial launch is dependent on current ongoing funding discussions, which are aimed at ensuring the business unit is appropriately capitalized and positioned for the best possible chance of success.

5) Issuer's Facilities

The goal of this section is to provide investors with a clear understanding of all assets, properties or facilities owned, used or leased by the issuer and the extent in which the facilities are utilized.

In responding to this item, please clearly describe the assets, properties or facilities of the issuer. Describe the location of office space, data centers, principal plants, and other property of the issuer and describe the condition of the properties. Specify if the assets, properties, or facilities are owned or leased and the terms of their leases. If the issuer does not have complete ownership or control of the property, describe the limitations on the ownership.

Synbio has acquired the rights to conduct trials to clinically validate NIMS™ for PTSD and MDD. Under a Clinical Trial License Agreement with FacialDx, Synbio will undertake trials to validate NIMS's accuracy, reliability, and scalability. Upon successful Proof of Concept trial, Synbio has licensing rights to commercialize NIMS™ in clinical and corporate settings.

6) All Officers, Directors, and Control Persons of the Company

Using the table below, please provide information, as of the period end date of this report, regarding all officers and directors of the company, or any person that performs a similar function, regardless of the number of shares they own.

In addition, list all individuals or entities controlling 5% or more of any class of the issuer's securities.

If any insiders listed are corporate shareholders or entities, provide the name and address of the person(s) beneficially owning or controlling such corporate shareholders, or the name and contact information (City, State) of an individual representing the corporation or entity. Include Company Insiders who own any outstanding units or shares of any class of any equity security of the issuer.

The goal of this section is to provide investors with a clear understanding of the identity of all the persons or entities that are involved in managing, controlling or advising the operations, business development and disclosure of the issuer, as well as the identity of any significant or beneficial owners.

Individual Name (First, Last) or Entity Name (Include names of control person(s) if a corporate entity)	Position/Company Affiliation (ex: CEO, 5% Control person)	City and State (Include Country if outside U.S.)	Number of Shares Owned (List common, preferred, warrants and options separately)	Class of Shares Owned	Percentage of Class of Shares Owned (undiluted)

7) Legal/Disciplinary History

A. Identify and provide a brief explanation as to whether any of the persons or entities listed above in Section 6 have, in the past 10 years:

1. Been the subject of an indictment or conviction in a criminal proceeding or plea agreement or named as a defendant in a pending criminal proceeding (excluding minor traffic violations);

N/A

2. Been the subject of the entry of an order, judgment, or decree, not subsequently reversed, suspended or vacated, by a court of competent jurisdiction that permanently or temporarily enjoined, barred, suspended or otherwise limited such person's involvement in any type of business, securities, commodities, financial- or investment-related, insurance or banking activities;

N/A

3. Been the subject of a finding, disciplinary order or judgment by a court of competent jurisdiction (in a civil action), the Securities and Exchange Commission, the Commodity Futures Trading Commission, a state securities regulator of a violation of federal or state securities or commodities law, or a foreign regulatory body or court, which finding or judgment has not been reversed, suspended, or vacated;

N/A

4. Named as a defendant or a respondent in a regulatory complaint or proceeding that could result in a "yes" answer to part 3 above; or

N/A

5. Been the subject of an order by a self-regulatory organization that permanently or temporarily barred, suspended, or otherwise limited such person's involvement in any type of business or securities activities.

N/A

6. Been the subject of a U.S Postal Service false representation order, or a temporary restraining order, or preliminary injunction with respect to conduct alleged to have violated the false representation statute that applies to U.S mail.

N/A

- B. Describe briefly any material pending legal proceedings, other than ordinary routine litigation incidental to the business, to which the issuer or any of its subsidiaries is a party to or of which any of their property is the subject. Include the name of the court or agency in which the proceedings are pending, the date instituted, the principal parties thereto, a description of the factual basis alleged to underlie the proceeding and the relief sought. Include similar information as to any such proceedings known to be contemplated by governmental authorities.

On February 2, 2026, the Company entered into a settlement agreement with certain creditors in respect of outstanding obligations arising from unpaid salary, consulting fees and other expenses totaling $425,000. In connection with this settlement, the Company has filed an action in the Circuit Court of the State of Florida seeking court approval of the issuance of shares of common stock in satisfaction of such obligations pursuant to Section 3(a)(10) of the U.S. Securities Act of 1933. The settlement contemplates the issuance of shares of common stock, subject to court approval following a fairness hearing, in full satisfaction of the relevant claims. At the date of this report, the court approval process was ongoing, and no shares had been issued under the settlement. Accordingly, the related liabilities remain recorded in the financial statements at their carrying amounts. Upon the completion of the court process and issuance of shares, the applicable liabilities will be extinguished, thereby strengthening the Company's working capital position and reducing overall indebtedness. While the issuance of shares will be dilutive to existing shareholders, management believes the transaction improves the Company's financial condition by converting outstanding obligations into equity and removing current and non-current liabilities. The Company believes the Settlement Agreement resolves outstanding obligations and will result in the conversion of such obligations into equity securities. The Company does not expect the outcome of this matter to have a material adverse effect on its liquidity or continuing operations.

SYNBIO INTERNATIONAL INC.
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
FOR THE QUARTER ENDED MARCH 31, 2026 AND THE YEAR ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2025

1. Nature of operations

Synbio International Inc. aims to clinically validate Artificial Intelligence-based medical technology to improve patient outcomes. Artificial Intelligence can analyze vast amounts of medical data and can identify patterns and insights that may escape human detection. This capability may lead to earlier and more accurate diagnoses and improved patient outcomes. The company also aims to market nutritional supplements known as nutraceuticals that may assist in the long-term management of health and wellness.

2. Summary of significant accounting policies

Basis of Presentation

The financial statements have been prepared in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (“GAAP”).

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. The most significant assumptions and estimates relate to the valuation of equity issued for services. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

Revenue Recognition

The Company is pre-revenue, however, the Company will recognize revenue when received in accordance with Accounting Standards Update (“ASU”) 2014-09, “Revenue from contracts with customers,” (Topic 606). Revenue is recognized when a customer obtains control of promised goods or services. In addition, the standard requires disclosure of the nature, amount, timing, and uncertainty of revenue and cash flows arising from contracts with customers. The amount of revenue that is recorded reflects the consideration that the Company expects to receive in exchange for those goods. The Company applies the following five-step model in order to determine this amount: (i) identification of the promised goods in the contract; (ii) determination of whether the promised goods are performance obligations, including whether they are distinct in the context of the contract; (iii) measurement of the transaction price, including the constraint on variable consideration; (iv) allocation of the transaction price to the performance obligations; and (v) recognition of revenue when (or as) the Company satisfies each performance obligation.

The Company only applies the five-step model to contracts when it is probable that the entity will collect the consideration it is entitled to in exchange for the goods or services it transfers to the customer. Once a contract is determined to be within the scope of Financial Accounting Standards Board (“FASB”) Accounting Standards Codification (“ASC”) 606 at contract inception, the Company reviews the contract to determine which performance obligations the Company must deliver and which of these performance obligations are distinct. The Company expects to recognize revenues as the amount of the transaction price that is allocated to the respective performance obligation when the performance obligation is satisfied or as it is satisfied.

Fair Value Measurements and Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The Company adopted ASC Topic 820, Fair Value Measurements. ASC Topic 820 clarifies the definition of fair value, prescribes methods for measuring fair value, and establishes a fair value hierarchy to classify the inputs used in measuring fair value as follows:

Level 1: Inputs are unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities available at the measurement date.

Level 2: Inputs are unadjusted quoted prices for similar assets and liabilities in active markets, quoted prices for identical or similar assets and liabilities in markets that are not active, inputs other than quoted prices that are observable, and inputs derived from or corroborated by observable market data.

Level 3: Inputs are unobservable inputs which reflect the reporting entity's own assumptions on what assumptions the market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability based on the best available information.

The estimated fair value of certain financial instruments, including all current liabilities are carried at historical cost basis, which approximates their fair values because of the short-term nature of these instruments.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

ASC subtopic 825-10, Financial Instruments ("ASC 825-10") requires disclosure of the fair value of certain financial instruments. The carrying value of cash, accounts payable and advances from related party when reflected in the balance sheets, approximate fair value because of the short-term maturity of these instruments. All other significant financial assets, financial liabilities and equity instruments of the Company are either recognized or disclosed in the financial statements together with other information relevant for making a reasonable assessment of future cash flows, interest rate risk and credit risk. Where practicable the fair values of financial assets and financial liabilities have been determined and disclosed; otherwise only available information pertinent to fair value has been disclosed. The Company follows ASC subtopic 820-10, Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures ("ASC 820-10") and ASC 825-10, which permits entities to choose to measure many financial instruments and certain other items at fair value.

Convertible Debentures

The Company adopted the guidance in Accounting Standards Updated ("ASU") 2020-06, Accounting for Convertible Instruments and Contracts in an Entity's Own Equity on July 1, 2022. ASU 2020-06 simplifies an issuer's accounting for convertible instruments and its application of the derivatives scope exception for contracts in its own equity. Additionally, ASU 2020-06 removes the requirements for accounting for beneficial conversion features. The Company adopted ASU 2020-06 utilizing the modified retrospective method, which resulted in an immaterial impact to the Company. Prior to adoption of ASU 2020-06, if the conversion features of conventional convertible debt provided for a rate of conversion that is below market value at issuance, this feature was characterized as a beneficial conversion feature ("BCF").

Derivative Liability

The Company evaluates convertible instruments, options, warrants or other contracts to determine if those contracts or embedded components of those contracts qualify as derivatives to be separately accounted for under ASC Topic 815, "Derivatives and Hedging". The result of this accounting treatment is that the fair value of the derivative is marked-to-market each balance sheet date and recorded as a liability. In the event that the fair value is recorded as a liability, the change in fair value is recorded in the statement of operations as other income (expense). Upon conversion or exercise of a derivative instrument, the instrument is marked to fair value at the conversion date and then that fair value is reclassified to equity. Equity instruments that are initially classified as equity that become subject to reclassification under ASC Topic 815, are reclassified to liabilities at the fair value of the instrument on the reclassification date.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

For the purposes of the Statements of Cash Flows, the Company considers highly liquid investments with an original maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Income Taxes

Income taxes are accounted for under the asset and liability method. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the future tax consequences attributable to differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases and operating loss, capital loss and tax credit carryforwards. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled.

The effect on deferred tax assets and liabilities of a change in tax rates is recognized in income in the period that includes the enactment date.

The Company recognizes the effect of income tax positions only if those positions are more likely than not of being sustained. Recognized income tax positions are measured at the largest amount that is greater than 50% likely of being realized. Changes in recognition or measurement are reflected in the period in which the change in judgment occurs. The Company records interest and penalties related to unrecognized tax benefits as a component of general and administrative expenses. Our federal tax return and any state tax returns are not currently under examination.

The Company has adopted FASB ASC 740-10, Accounting for Income Taxes, which requires an asset and liability approach to financial accounting and reporting for income taxes. Deferred income tax assets and liabilities are computed annually from differences between the financial statement and tax basis of assets and liabilities that will result in taxable or deductible amounts in the future based on enacted tax laws and rates applicable to the periods in which the differences are expected to affect taxable income. Valuation allowances are established when necessary to reduce deferred tax assets to the amount expected to be realized.

Net Income (Loss) Per Common Share

The Company computes loss per common share, in accordance with FASB ASC Topic 260, Earnings Per Share, which requires dual presentation of basic and diluted earnings per share. Basic income or loss per common share is computed by dividing net income or loss by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding during the period. Diluted income or loss per common share is computed by dividing net income or loss by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding, plus the issuance of common shares, if dilutive, that could result from the exercise of outstanding stock options and warrants.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

The Company has implemented all new accounting pronouncements that are in effect. These pronouncements did not have any material impact on the financial statements unless otherwise disclosed, and the Company does not believe that there are any other new accounting pronouncements that have been issued that might have a material impact on its financial position or results of operations.

Subsequent Events

In accordance with ASC 855, Subsequent Events, the Company evaluated subsequent events through the consolidated financial statements were available for issue.

3. Going concern

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis. For the three months ended March 31, 2026, the Company had a net loss of $107,041, had a $789,286 working capital deficit, accumulated deficit of $3,426,137 and stockholders' deficit of $789,286. These matters raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern for a period of one year from the date of this filing. The Company's ability to continue as a going concern is dependent upon its ability to obtain the necessary financing to meet its obligations and repay its liabilities arising from normal business operations when they come due, to fund possible future acquisitions, and to generate profitable operations in the future. Management plans to provide for the Company's capital requirements by continuing to issue additional equity and debt securities. The outcome of these matters cannot be predicted at this time and there are no assurances that, if achieved, the Company will have sufficient funds to execute its business plan or generate positive operating results. The financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from the outcome of this uncertainty.

On October 21, 2023, the Company entered into a Securities Purchase and Subscription Agreement with Global Corporate Finance Inc. (“GCF”), which provided the Company with the ability to raise up to $5,000,000 over 30 months through the issuance of common stock. As at March 31, 2026, the Company had not drawn down on this facility.

Also refer to Note 5 - Convertible Notes.

4. Prepayments

Prepayments represent prepaid corporate marketing and promotional services to be delivered over the next 12 months.

5 Convertible Notes

On April 22, 2024, Synbio executed the Purchase Agreement with Quick Capital, LLC (the “Investor”). Pursuant to the terms and conditions of the Purchase Agreement, the Investor agreed to purchase (the “Financing”) from us an unsecured convertible note in the aggregate principal amount of up to $555,555 (the “Note”). The Purchase Agreement contemplates funding of the investment across multiple tranches. At the first closing (the “Initial Closing”) a Note in the aggregate principal amount of $55,555 was issued upon the satisfaction of certain customary closing conditions in exchange for aggregate gross proceeds of $50,000, representing an original issue discount of 10%. On such date (the “Initial Closing Date”), Synbio also issued the Investor 7,000,000 shares of common stock as commitment shares (the “Commitment Shares”). The Notes matured on February 28th, 2025. The Notes remain outstanding at the date of this report and are secured by shares of our Series A Preferred stock held by our CEO. The Notes accrue interest at the rate of 12% per annum. The interest rate of the Notes will automatically increase to 24% per annum (the “Default Rate”) upon the occurrence and continuance of an event of default. Conversion at Option of Investor: The Investor may convert all, or any part, of the outstanding Notes, at any time at such holder’s option, into shares of our common stock at a “Conversion Price” of the lower of $0.002 per share, or 70% of the average of the two lowest trading prices for the Common Stock during the twenty (20) trading day period ending on the latest complete trading day before the conversion date.

On December 16, 2025, the Company also entered into a Promissory Note Agreement for amounts borrowed on June 30, 2025, September 21, 2025 and January 5, 2026 for a total of US$88,902. The notes bear interest at a rate of 15% per annum and have a term of twelve (12) months from inception. At maturity, the outstanding principal and accrued interest are mandatorily convertible into shares of the Company’s common stock at a fixed conversion price of $0.001 per share and $0.002 per share. The noteholder may elect to convert all or any portion of the outstanding principal and accrued interest into common stock prior to maturity at the same fixed conversion price. The notes provide that settlement shall occur solely in shares of the Company’s common stock, and no cash repayment is permitted. The maximum number of shares issuable upon conversion, including accrued interest, is contractually capped at a total of 102,236,070 shares. The conversion price is subject only to customary adjustments for stock splits or similar recapitalization events.

6. Commitments and contingencies

During the normal course of business, the Company may be exposed to litigation. When the Company becomes aware of potential litigation, it evaluates the merits of the case in accordance with FASB ASC 450-20-50, Contingencies. The Company evaluates its exposure to the matter, possible legal or settlement strategies and the likelihood of an unfavourable outcome. If the Company determines that an unfavourable outcome is probable and can be reasonably estimated, it establishes the necessary accruals. As of December 31, 2025 and 2024, the Company is not aware of any contingent liabilities that should be reflected in the financial statements.

Investment Commitment – FacialDx, Inc.

On September 18, 2025, the Company entered into a Stock Purchase Agreement with FacialDx, Inc. pursuant to which the Company agreed to purchase up to 100,000 shares of Class A common stock at a price of $2.00 per share, for aggregate consideration of $200,000, payable in four tranches of $50,000 each. The first tranche of $50,000 was due within thirty (30) days of execution of the agreement but had not been paid as of December 31, 2025. Under the terms of the agreement, no shares are issued unless and until the applicable tranche payment is received by FacialDx Inc. Accordingly, as of December 31, 2025, the Company had not acquired any shares, and no investment asset has been recorded.

7. Related party transactions

The Company's operations are being funded in part by its CEO and Preferred Shareholder, Mr Solitario. As of December 2025, Mr Solitario has contributed $59,116 to cover the Company's operating expenses. Mr Solitario provides the funds on an interest-free basis and repayable as and when the Company has sufficient funds to do so. In addition, Mr Solitario earned $37,500 in compensation during the quarter ended March 31, 2026, which is included in non-current Accounts Payable on the accompanying balance sheet.

10. Equity

Preferred Stock

The Company has 10,000,000 Shares of Preferred Stock authorized, and 202 Shares of Preferred Stock issued and outstanding with a par value of $0.001.

2023 Series A — The Series A Preferred has the following designations:

- Each share of preferred stock is convertible into 10,000,000 shares of common stock.
- The holders are not entitled to receive dividends.
- Voting: The holder of this Series of Preferred shall vote with other classes on a converted share basis of 10,000,000 votes per share of preferred stock.

Series B — The Series B Preferred has the following designations:

- Each share of preferred stock is convertible into 4.99% shares of common stock.
- The holders are not entitled to receive dividends.
- The holders do not have voting rights.

11. Subsequent Events

In accordance with ASC 855-10, management has evaluated subsequent events through to April 2026, the date that the financial statements were available to be issued, and identified the following subsequent event requiring disclosure:

On February 2, 2026, the Company entered into a settlement agreement with certain creditors in respect of outstanding obligations arising from unpaid salary, consulting fees and other expenses totaling approximately $425,000. In connection with this settlement, the Company filed an action in the Circuit Court of the State of Florida seeking approval of the issuance of shares of common stock in satisfaction of such obligations pursuant to Section 3(a)(10) of the Securities Act of 1933. The settlement contemplates the issuance of shares of common stock, subject to court approval following a fairness hearing, in full satisfaction of the relevant claims.

As of April 30, 2026, the court approval process was ongoing, and no shares had been issued under the settlement. Accordingly, the related liabilities remain recorded in the Company's financial statements at their carrying amounts. Subsequent to the reporting period, the Company received an order from the Circuit Court of the Seventeenth Judicial Circuit in and for Broward County, Florida, granting approval of the settlement agreement and determining that the issuance of shares pursuant to the settlement qualifies for an exemption from registration under Section 3(a)(10) of the Securities Act of 1933.

The Company expects to complete the remaining steps required under the court process and any further required court actions before issuing shares pursuant to the settlement. Upon completion, the applicable liabilities are expected to be extinguished through the issuance of equity securities. The transaction is expected to result in a reduction of liabilities and a corresponding increase in stockholders' equity and may result in dilution to existing shareholders.
