SILVER SCOTT MINES, INC
NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
March 31, 2026

NOTE 1 - ORGANIZATION AND DESCRIPTION OF BUSINESS

Silver Scott Mines, Inc. (“the Company”) was incorporated in May 1966 under the laws of the State of Idaho. On December 22, 2004 the Company merged with its wholly-owned subsidiary, Silver Scott Mines, Inc., a Nevada corporation, for the sole purpose of effecting a change in domicile from the State of Idaho to the State of Nevada. Silver Scott Mines, Inc. (Nevada) was the continuing and surviving corporation; each outstanding share of Silver Scott Mines, Inc. (Idaho) was converted into one outstanding share of Silver Scott Mines, Inc. (Nevada). The company entered into an exploration stage on June 23, 2010.

The Company, along with its wholly owned subsidiary, Minera Mystery S.A. de C.V. (constituted on September 10, 2007 as a Mexican company) (“Minera Mystery”), were primarily engaged in the acquisition, exploration and development of mineral properties.

HMD Holdings LLC (“HMD Holdings”), a Nevada limited liability company and former wholly owned subsidiary of the Company was merged into the Company on September 23, 2011, and Minera Mystery thereby became a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company. Hibernia Ventures VI, Inc. (“Hibernia Ventures”), an Idaho Corporation and former wholly owned subsidiary of the Company, was merged into the Company on September 23, 2011.

In 2014 the Board of Directors of the Company felt Silver Scott Mines Inc. did not have the economic means of carrying out the exploration/development of the properties in accordance with the requirements of Mexico law.

The Company was essentially dormant from 2014 until October 2021. A director of the Company provided capital with which to settle debts during this period. In October 2021, the Company formed Cognitive Crypto, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (“Cognitive Crypto”) which is a wholly owned subsidiary of the issuer. Following the formation of Cognitive Crypto, the Company raised $1,200,000 in a private placement and through Cognitive Crypto launched a crypto currency education and research business. Cognitive Crypto ceased operations in October 2022.

In July 2024, the Company entered into a letter of intent to acquire substantially all of the assets of Add Brain, Inc., a British Columbia corporation which is developing a non-invasive brain mapping device which accurately maps brain activity and is designed to target specific regions of a brain while leaving healthy areas untouched. The letter of intent expired and a deal was not consummated.

On July 16, 2025, the Company launched Peachhim.com - a comprehensive digital platform dedicated to supporting the sexual health, intimacy, and overall wellness of women.

Stuart Fine resigned his positions as an officer and director of the Company on October 5, 2025 and certain assets consisting primarily of certain websites and domains established in connection with the Company's blockchain and health tech initiatives and a subsidiary company formed to pursue health tech opportunities were transferred to Mr. Fine in exchange for his transfer to the Company of 7,763,993 shares of the Company's common stock, representing 100% of Mr. Fine's ownership of the Company.

The Company's year-end is December 31.

NOTE 2 - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

This summary of significant accounting policies of Silver Scott Mines, Inc. is presented to assist in understanding the Company's financial statements. The financial statements and notes are representations of the Company's management, which is responsible for their integrity and objectivity. The principal accounting policies adopted in the preparation of the consolidated financial statements are set out below. These policies have been consistently applied to all the periods presented, unless otherwise stated.

Basis of preparation

The unaudited consolidated financial statements incorporate the accounts of Silver Scott Mines, Inc. The accounts have been prepared in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles ("U.S. GAAP").

Use of estimates

In preparing these financial statements, management makes estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities in the balance sheets and revenues and expenses during the year reported. Actual results may differ from these estimates. The Company bases its estimates and assumptions on current facts, historical experience and various other factors that it believes to be reasonable under the circumstances, the results of which form the basis for making judgments about the carrying values of assets and liabilities and the accrual of costs and expenses that are not readily apparent from other sources. The actual results experienced by the Company may differ materially and adversely from the Company's estimates. To the extent there are material differences between the estimates and the actual results, future results of operations will be affected.

Earnings per share

Basic net income/loss per share was computed by dividing the net income (loss) for the reporting period by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding during the reporting period. The weighted average number of shares was calculated by taking the number of shares outstanding and weighting them by the amount of time they were outstanding.

Warrants to purchase common stock totaling 60,000,000 and 0 shares were outstanding at March 31, 2026 and March 31, 2025, respectively, but were excluded from the calculation of diluted earnings per share as their effect would have been antidilutive.

Cash equivalents

Cash equivalents are comprised of certain highly liquid investments with maturities of three months or less when purchased. The Company maintains its cash in bank deposit accounts, which at times, may exceed federally insured limits. As of March 31, 2026, and March 31, 2025, the Company had no deposits in excess of federally-insured limits.

Fair value measurements

For certain financial instruments, including accounts receivable, accounts payable, accrued expenses, interest payable, advances payable and notes payable, the carrying amounts approximate fair value due to their relatively short maturities.

The Company has adopted FASB ASC 820-10, "Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures." FASB ASC 820-10 defines fair value, and establishes a three-level valuation hierarchy for disclosures of fair value measurement that enhances disclosure requirements for fair value measures. The carrying amounts reported in the consolidated balance sheets for receivables and current liabilities each qualify as financial instruments and are a reasonable estimate of their fair values because of the short period of time between the origination of such instruments and their expected realization and their current market rate of interest. The three levels of valuation hierarchy are defined as follows:

- Level 1 inputs to the valuation methodology are quoted prices for identical assets or liabilities in active markets.
- Level 2 inputs to the valuation methodology include quoted prices for similar assets and liabilities in active markets, and inputs that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly, for substantially the full term of the financial instrument.
- Level 3 inputs to the valuation methodology are unobservable and significant to the fair value measurement.

The Company did not identify any other non-recurring assets and liabilities that are required to be presented in the balance sheets at fair value in accordance with FASB ASC 815.

In February 2007, the FASB issued FAS No. 159, "The Fair Value Option for Financial Assets and Financial Liabilities," now known as ASC Topic 825-10 "Financial Instruments." ASC Topic 825-10 permits entities to choose to measure many financial assets and financial liabilities at fair value. Unrealized gains and losses on items for which the fair value option has been elected are reported in earnings. FASB ASC 825-10 is effective as of the beginning of an entity's first fiscal year that begins after November 15, 2007. The Company has adopted FASB ASC 825-10. The Company chose not to elect the option to measure the fair value of eligible financial assets and liabilities.

Income taxes

Deferred income taxes are provided using the liability method (in accordance with ASC 740) whereby deferred tax assets are recognized for deductible temporary differences and operating loss and tax credit carry forwards, and deferred tax liabilities are recognized for taxable temporary differences. Temporary differences are the differences between the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and their tax bases. Deferred tax assets are reduced by a valuation allowance when, in the opinion of management, it is more likely than not that some portion or all-of the deferred tax assets will not be realized. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are adjusted for the effects of the changes in tax laws and rates of the date of enactment.

When tax returns are filed, it is highly certain that some positions taken would be sustained upon examination by the taxing authorities, while others are subject to uncertainty about the merits of the position taken or the amount of the position that would be ultimately sustained. The benefit of a tax position is recognized in the financial statements in the period during which, based on all available evidence, management believes it is more likely than not that the position will be sustained upon examination, including the resolution of appeals or litigation processes, if any. Tax positions taken are not offset or aggregated with other positions. Tax positions that meet the more-likely-than-not recognition threshold are measured as the largest amount of tax benefit that is more than 50 percent likely of being realized upon settlement with the applicable taxing authority. The portion of the benefits associated with tax positions taken that exceeds the amount measured as described above is reflected as a liability for unrecognized tax benefits in the accompanying balance sheets along with any associated interest and penalties that would be payable to the taxing authorities upon examination. Applicable interest and penalties associated with unrecognized tax benefits are classified as additional income taxes in the statements of operations. The Company is not aware of uncertain tax positions.

Stock based compensation

The Company periodically issues common shares or options to purchase shares of the Company's common shares to its officers, directors or other parties. These issuances are valued at market, in the case of common shares issues, or at fair value in the case of options. The Company uses a Black Scholes valuation model for determining fair value of options, and compensation expense is recognized ratably over the vesting periods on a straight-line basis. Compensation expense for grants that vest upon issue is recognized in the period of the grant.

Financial instruments

The Company's financial instruments consist of cash and cash equivalents. The carrying values of these instruments approximate their fair value at December 31, 2025 and 2024.

Mineral exploration and development costs

All exploration expenditures are expensed as incurred. Significant property acquisition payments for active exploration properties are capitalized. If no minable ore body is discovered, previously capitalized costs are expensed in the period the property is abandoned. Expenditures to develop new mines, to define further mineralization in existing ore bodies, and to expand the capacity of operating mines, are capitalized and amortized on a unit of production basis over proven and probable reserves.

Should a property be abandoned, its capitalized costs are charged to operations. The Company charges to operations the allocable portion of capitalized costs attributable to properties sold. Capitalized costs are allocated to properties sold based on the proportion of claims sold to the claims remaining within the project area.

The fair value of the warrants was estimated on the date of grant at $0.25 per warrant for a total of $75,000 using the Black-Scholes model to value the warrants based on their terms and conditions. The following assumptions were used to estimate fair value: market price of common stock $0.28, exercise price of $0.25, risk-free interest rate of approximately 2.92%; volatility of 299.9%; and a life of 10 years. Warrants were exercised at $.05 per share.

During the twelve months ended December 31, 2022, the Company issued warrants to purchase a total of 60,000,000 shares of common stock with an exercise price of $0.05 per share to investors who purchased shares of common stock in the Company's private offering. The Company's board of directors approved the adoption of the 2010 Stock Option/Stock Issuance Plan (the "Plan") on December 31, 2010, pursuant to which the Company may grant incentive and non-qualified stock options or shares of common stock to employees and consultants, including directors and officers, from time to time. The Plan authorizes the issuance of 5,000,000 shares of the Company's common stock for grants of shares or the exercise of stock options granted under the Plan. The Plan may also be terminated in the event of certain corporate transactions such as a merger or consolidation or the sale, transfer or other disposition of all or substantially all of the Company's assets.

The exercise price of each option is established by the Board. Additionally, the Board will fix the terms of each option, but no option will be granted for a term in excess of ten years. Stock issued under the Plan may be granted for cash or other consideration determined by the Board. Options and stock granted under the Plan may vest immediately or upon terms established by the Board.

Under this approach, deferred income taxes are recorded to reflect the tax consequences in future years of differences between the tax basis of assets and liabilities and their financial reporting amounts at each year-end. A valuation allowance is recorded against deferred tax assets if management does not believe the Company has met the “more likely than not” standard required by ASC 740-10-25-5.

Deferred income tax amounts reflect the net tax effects of temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities for financial reporting purposes and the amounts used for income tax reporting purposes.
