ZhongMin Mei-Hao Holding Co Ltd.

Notes to the Financial Statements

NOTE 1 NATURE OF BUSINESS ORGANIZATION

ZhongMin Mei-Hao Holding Co Ltd. (the Company) is a corporation duly organized under the laws of the state of Nevada which commenced operations on October 25, 2004. The Company is a public holding company, which had one subsidiary, Bullzi Security LLC. The Company operated in North Carolina.

The Company is a publicly traded company. The Company received its public stock symbol from NASDAQ on December 15, 2006. In addition, the Company received its Depository Trust Company (DTC) eligibility in January 2007.

In February 2019, all shares outstanding were acquired by one purchaser. Before the ownership change, the former shareholders assumed all assets and liabilities, and the subsidiary company Bullzi Security LLC was spun off.

NOTE 2 SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING PRINCIPLES

Accounts Receivable – Accounts receivable are customer obligations due under normal trade terms. The Company evaluates the collectability of its accounts receivable based on a combination of factors. In circumstances where it is aware of a specific customer’s inability to meet its financial obligations, it records a specific allowance to reduce the amounts recorded to what it believes will be collected. The Company may also record an additional reserve which is determined based on historical experience and its assessment of the general financial conditions affecting its customer base. After all attempts to collect a receivable have failed, the receivable is written off against the allowance. There were no accounts receivable as of March 31, 2026 and December 31, 2024.

Property and Equipment – Property and equipment are recorded at cost. Depreciation is computed using straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets. Major additions and improvements that extend the useful lives of the equipment are capitalized. Maintenance and repairs are charged to expense as incurred.

Revenue Recognition. The Company adopted Financial Accounting Standards Board (“FASB”) Accounting Standards Codification (“ASC”) 606, which requires the use of a new five-step model to recognize revenue from customer contracts. The five-step model requires that the Company (i) identify the contract with the customer, (ii) identify the performance obligations in the contract, (iii) determine the transaction price, including variable consideration to the extent that it is probable that a significant future reversal will not occur, (iv) allocate the transaction price to the respective performance obligations in the contract, and (v) recognize revenue when (or as) the Company satisfies the performance obligation.

Income Taxes – The Company accounts for income taxes under ASC 740, Income Taxes. Under the asset and liability method of ASC 740, deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the future tax consequences attributable to differences between the financial statements carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. The effect on deferred tax assets and liabilities of a change in tax rates is recognized in income in the period the enactment occurs. A valuation allowance is provided for certain deferred tax assets if it is more likely than not that the Company will not realize tax assets through future operations. Deferred tax assets or liabilities were off-set by a 100% valuation allowance; therefore there has been no recognized benefit as of March 31, 2026 and December 31, 2025.

Use of Estimates. The preparation of financial statements in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

RECENT ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENTS.

We have reviewed all the recently issued, but not yet effective, accounting pronouncements and we do not believe any of these pronouncements will have a material impact on the Company.

In January 2020, the FASB issued ASU 2020-01 to clarify the interaction of the accounting for equity securities under ASC 321 and investments accounted for under the equity method of accounting in ASC 323 and the accounting for certain forward contracts and purchased options accounted for under ASC 815. With respect to the interactions between ASC 321 and ASC 323, the amendments clarify that an entity should consider observable transactions that require it to either apply or discontinue the equity method of accounting when applying the measurement alternative in ASC 321, immediately before applying or upon discontinuing the equity method of accounting. With respect to forward contracts or purchased options to purchase securities, the amendments clarify that when applying the guidance in ASC 815-10-15-141(a), an entity should not consider whether upon the settlement of the forward contract or exercise of the purchased option, individually or with existing investments, the underlying securities would be accounted for under the equity method in ASC 323 or the fair value option in accordance with ASC 825. The ASU is effective for interim and Quarterly reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2020. Early adoption is permitted, including adoption in any interim period. The adoption of this standard did not have a material impact on the Company's financial statements.

Management believes that other recent accounting pronouncements issued by the FASB, including its Emerging Issues Task Force, the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, and the Securities and Exchange Commission do not have a material impact on the Company's present or near future financial statements.

We have reviewed all the recently issued, but not yet effective, accounting pronouncements and we do not believe any of these pronouncements will have a material impact on the Company.

NOTE 3 - INCOME TAXES

H.R. 1 (the “Tax Reform Law”) effective for tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2018, except for certain provisions, resulting in significant changes to existing United States tax law, including various provisions that are expected to impact the Company. The Tax Reform Law reduced the federal corporate tax rate from 34% to 21% effective January 1, 2018, for the Company.

At March 31, 2026, and December 31, 2025, the Company had net operating losses (“NOL”) for income tax purposes. The Company has NOL carry-forwards for Federal income tax purposes of $ 218,683 and $1.314 million at March 31, 2026 and December 31, 2025, respectively. No tax benefit was reported with respect to these NOL carry-forwards in the accompanying financial statements because the Company believes the realization of the Company’s deferred tax of approximately $277,852 as of March 31, 2026, was not considered more likely than not and accordingly, the potential tax benefits of the net loss carry-forwards are fully offset by a full valuation allowance.

NOTE 4 - COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

The Company follows ASC 450-20, “Loss Contingencies,” to report accounting for contingencies. Liabilities for loss contingencies arising from claims, assessments, litigation, fines and penalties and other sources are recorded when it is probable that a liability has been incurred and the amount of the assessment can be reasonably estimated.

Risks and Uncertainties

The Company’s operations are subject to significant risks and uncertainties including financial, operational and regulatory risks, including the potential risk of business failure.

The Company does not have employment contracts with its key employees, including the controlling shareholders who are officers of the Company.

Legal and other matters

In the normal course of business, the Company may become a party to litigation matters involving claims against the Company. The Company's management is unaware of any pending or threatened assertions and there are no current matters that would have a material effect on the Company’s financial position or results of operations.

NOTE 5 RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

For the periods prior and through the cessation of operations, the shareholder funded the expenses of the company’s operations. The shareholder has loaned a total of $73,628 as of March 31, 2026 and 2025, respectively. The amount due to the shareholder is increased on an ongoing basis as the shareholder has funded the Company’s operations. The loan from the shareholder is non-interest bearing and payable on demand.

NOTE 6 SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

Management has evaluated subsequent events through the date of filing the financial statements with the Securities and Exchange Commission, the date the financial statements were available to be issued. Management is not aware of any significant events that occurred subsequent to the balance sheet date that is reportable.
