Announcement Regarding the Partnership and Share Acquisition Between VVWT and Xinyuan Industrial

Following extensive discussions and negotiations across multiple dimensions, Viva World Trade Inc (VVWT) and Xinyuan Industrial Co., Ltd. have now formally reached a consensus on cooperation. The two parties commenced the implementation of the partnership on 3 August 2026 and formally signed the share purchase agreement.

Xinyuan Industrial Co., Ltd. is a large-scale trading company and a comprehensive chemical raw materials service provider with full accreditation. Its principal business involves the sale of hazardous chemicals, chemical raw materials, coal, metal components and building materials. The company holds the core qualification of a Hazardous Chemicals Operating Licence and provides end-to-end integrated services: raw materials sales, transport, equipment leasing and standardised, compliant labour services.

The successful completion of this share acquisition makes Xinyuan Industrial a core asset of VVWT. It represents a key strategic move in VVWT's capital market upgrade, laying a solid foundation for the company's subsequent advancement to higher-tier capital markets and a potential listing transfer. VVWT will also complete the relevant asset transfer procedures within the next two months.

Key representatives from both parties attending the signing ceremony included Ms Zhou Changyue, Secretary-General of VVWT, and Mr Shen Chuanshan, the actual controlling shareholder of Xinyuan Industrial Co., Ltd.

At the signing ceremony, Ms Zhou Changyue, Secretary-General of VVWT, spoke highly of Xinyuan Industrial's product range, corporate culture and development prospects. Mr Shen Chuanshan, the actual controlling shareholder of Xinyuan Industrial, also expressed his approval of VVWT's development strategy and plans for future upgrading and listing on a higher-tier market. Through this acquisition, Xinyuan Industrial has also embarked on a path towards global trade.
