The goal of this disclosure is to provide information with respect to a company's Court Appointed Custodian.¹ Please address each of the below items to the best of the company's ability and to the extent they are applicable to the company's custodianship proceedings.

Disclosure of Court Appointed Custodian and Other Material Events:

1. Date of court order, name of court, case number, and name of custodian (if a corporate entity, include name of controlling individual).

Date of Order: October 18, 2024. Name of Court: District Court. Clark County, Nevada. Case No. A-24-892621-C.
Custodian: Leonard Amabile

2. Number of securities held by custodian, voting power of the securities, and description as to how the securities were acquired (e.g., open market purchases, compensation, loan settlement).

20,000,000 Common Stock shares. Each share controls one vote. The company issued the shares to the custodian in exchange for services rendered.

3. A description of officer/director appointments, resignations or terminations made in connection with the custodianship proceedings, including names and relevant titles.

None.

4. A description of any opposition by former management or shareholders (if there was no opposition, this should be stated).

None.

5. A description of any other material transactions since grant of custody identified in item 1 above.

None.

¹ "Court Appointed Custodian" means a custodian, receiver, agent or other person appointed for the Company or its parent in a proceeding under federal or state law in which the court or government authority has assumed control over substantially all of the assets or business of the company or its parent.
