

Alternative Reporting Standard:
Disclosure Guidelines for the OTCID Basic Market

Federal and state securities laws require issuers to provide current information to the public markets. With a view to facilitating compliance with these laws, OTC Markets Group has created these OTCID Disclosure Guidelines (“Guidelines”)¹ that set forth the disclosure obligations that make up the “Alternative Reporting Standard” for companies on the OTCID™ Basic Market and Pink Limited Market. Companies that do not make disclosure directly to the SEC (via EDGAR), a banking regulator, or a non-U.S. regulatory authority may provide disclosure under our “Alternative Reporting Standard.” We use information provided by companies under these Guidelines and in accordance with the OTCID Rules to determine eligibility for the OTCID Market or Pink Limited Market as applicable.²

¹ These Guidelines have been designed to encompass the “current information” requirements under state and federal securities laws, such as Rules 10b-5 and 15c2-11 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (“Exchange Act”) as well as Rule 144 of the Securities Act of 1933 (“Securities Act”), and state Blue Sky laws. However, these Guidelines have not been reviewed by the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission or any state securities regulator. These Guidelines do not constitute legal advice, and OTC Markets Group makes no assurance that compliance with our disclosure requirements will satisfy any legal requirements. These Guidelines may be amended from time to time, in the sole and absolute discretion of OTC Markets Group, with or without notice.

4) Issuer's Business, Products and Services

The purpose of this section is to provide a clear description of the issuer's current operations. Ensure that these descriptions are updated on the Company's Profile on www.OTCMarkets.com.

A. Summarize the issuer's business operations (If the issuer does not have current operations, state "no operations")

According to Netnames, 22% of all internet traffic is used for peer-to-peer filesharing, the great majority of which infringes on copyrights, while according to Sandvine, 27% of all US internet upload traffic is peer-to-peer filesharing, the majority of which infringes on copyrights. We believe that this means that every creator of music, movies, TV shows, books and software is faced with the reality that their work, their property and their content may end up being distributed on the internet against their wishes, to their economic detriment and without receiving compensation. We protect copyright holders' rights by seeking to assure they get paid for their copyrighted IP. We offer and sell a service to copyright owners under which copyright owners retain us to identify infringements and collect settlement payments from Internet users who have infringed on their copyrights. With our service, content creators have the opportunity to get compensated for copyright infringement and enforce their rights.

B. List any subsidiaries, parent company, or affiliated companies.

None.

C. Describe the issuers' principal products or services.

After we receive an order from a client, our software monitors the global P2P file sharing networks to detect illegally distributed digital media. The technology sends automated notices of the infringing activity to ISPs and the ISP forwards these notices, which contain settlement offers, to their infringing customers. The notice to ISPs and settlement offers identify the date, time, title of copyrighted intellectual property and other specific technology identifiers to confirm the infringement by the ISPs customer. Infringers who accept our settlement offers then remit payment to us for the copyright infringement and we share the payments with the copyright owners.

We generate revenues by retaining a portion of the settlement payments we receive from copyright infringers. Our customers, the copyright holders, benefit from our service as we share a portion of the settlement with them. This helps them recapture the revenues they lost when their copyrighted material was illegally copied and distributed. Current customers include, but are not limited to, BMG Rights Management, Round Hill Music, Shapiro/Bernstein and The Orchard. We previously successfully obtained settlement payments from more than 180,000 individual cases of copyright infringement. Previously, we closed infringements and received settlement payments from subscribers on more than 233 ISPs including five of the top 10 US ISPs: Comcast, Charter, CenturyLink, Mediacom and Suddenlink. We believe ISPs that participate with us and our clients by forwarding notices of infringement achieve compliance with their obligations under Digital Millennium Copyright Act (or DMCA).

Our second but more relevant business model is for data litigation services. This service allows us to present our traditional data analytics as evidence to be pressure tested throughout a legal process that ultimately results in a courtroom trial, in support of our client's ownership rights.

On July 22, 2020, Andrew Haag and Irth Communications, LLC ("Irth"), an entity in which Mr. Haag is the majority owner and managing partner, consented to the entry of an administrative order ("Settlement Order") of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission. Mr. Haag and Irth did so without admitting or denying the allegations or findings contained in the Settlement Order. The Settlement Order alleged that between December 2017 and February 2018, Irth tweeted or re-tweeted positive news articles describing the business, products, and securities of 9 of Irth's clients, for which Irth received $35,000 in compensation attributable to the tweets from these 9 clients. The Settlement Order further alleged that Irth failed to disclose the source or amount of the compensation it received from the 9 clients and that, as a result, Irth and Mr. Haag violated Section 17(b) of the Securities Act of 1933. Mr. Haag agreed to a civil penalty of $7,500, which he paid on July 28, 2020. Title: Title: American Films, LLC and American Films, Inc. v. Rightscorp, Inc.
Case No.: 2021-CA-000817-00001
Jurisdiction: Circuit Court of the Twentieth Judicial Circuit for Collier County, Florida
Status: On March 23, 2021, Plaintiffs American Films, LLC and American Films, Inc. ("Plaintiffs") filed a complaint against Rightscorp, Inc. (the "Company") alleging a breach of contract cause of action, seeking monetary damages. The complaint was subsequently amended to add an additional plaintiff and an individual defendant and various causes of action. After successful motions to dismiss filed by the Company, including obtaining a dismissal with prejudice against the individual defendant, Plaintiff's amended complaint alleged four causes of action against the Company. In response, the Company filed a motion to dismiss the amended complaint on various grounds. On June 7, 2024, the Court granted the Company's motion to dismiss Plaintiffs' second amended complaint with prejudice. The Court made the explicit ruling that the Company is the prevailing party, and reserved jurisdiction to consider the Company's claims to entitlement of attorneys' fees and costs. The Company subsequently filed a motion to determine entitlement to costs and fees, which was set for a hearing on November 4th, 2024. On November 8, 2024, the Court entered an Order granting, in part, the Company's motion. The Court held that the Company is entitled to recover its reasonable attorneys' fees from Plaintiff American Films, LLC for having to defend the cause of action on breach of a nondisclosure agreement. It also held that the Company is entitled to recover its reasonable litigation costs from both Plaintiffs. On March 20th, 2026, the court entered an additional order finding both Plaintiffs responsible for all costs incurred ($771.00) and finding Plaintiff American Films, LLC., responsible for all attorneys' fees ($161,354.30). The Plaintiffs were ordered to pay the costs and fees no later than April 20, 2026. As of the date of this disclosure, the amounts awarded by the Court remain unpaid. The Company is considering its available legal remedies for enforcement and collection of the judgment.
