NOTES TO UNAUDITED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
JUNE 30, 2026 AND JUNE 30, 2025

NOTE 1 – ORGANIZATION AND DESCRIPTION OF BUSINESS

Decentral Life Inc. is referred to in the following financial notes as the “Company.”

Organization

Decentral Life was launched in January of 2013 and became public through a reverse merger in June of 2016.

Decentral Life focuses on the accumulation of crypto assets such as Ethereum and Bitcoin for long-term investment. Decentral Life also provides Software-as-a-Service (SaaS), AI Data-as-a-Service (DaaS), and Blockchain-as-a-Service (BaaS), Energy as a Service (EaaS) to clients in need of its AI, Web3, and Energy solutions.

The Issuer's business operations include the licensing of Services, as noted above, and targeted acquisitions of companies, as well as Real-World Assets (RWAs) that can be tokenized as digital assets, to support the convergence of AI and Blockchain technology.

The tokenization of RWAs, such as corporate securities, real estate, commodities (E.g. gold, oil, and natural gas), are projected to be transformative to the capital markets and will be instrumental for Decentral Life's clients, assets, and companies to access their full liquidity potential. Tokenized AI compute infrastructure backed by real power and physical data centers is a way for companies and government agencies to plan, invest, and ensure their compute capacity requirements are met in the future. Decentral Life provides AI and Web3 solutions for its clients and affiliates by way of license service agreements to generate revenue, and consulting service agreements for equity.

Corporate Changes

On August 30, 1985, the Company was incorporated as a private corporation, CJ Industries, Inc., in California. On February 24, 2004, the Company merged with Calvert Corporation, a Nevada Corporation, changed its name to Sew Cal Logo, Inc., and moved its domicile from California to Nevada, at which time the Company's common stock became traded under the ticker symbol “SEWC”.

In June 2014, Sew Cal Logo, Inc. was placed into receivership in Nevada's 8th Judicial District (White Tiger Partners, LLC et al v. Sew Cal Logo, Inc.et al, Case No A-14-697251-C) (Dept. No.: XIII).

On January 29, 2016, the Company, as the Seller, completed a business combination/merger agreement (the “Agreement”) with the buyer, Life Marketing, Inc., a Colorado corporation (the “Buyer”), its subsidiaries and holdings, and all the Buyer's securities holders. The Company acted through the court-appointed receiver and White Tiger Partners, LLC, its judgment creditor. The Agreement provided that the then current owners of the private company, Life Marketing, Inc., become the majority shareholders, pursuant to which an aggregate of 119,473,334 common stock shares were issued to the Company's officers. On April 11th, 2016, the Company changed its name to Social Life Network, Inc. and changed its ticker symbol from SEWC to WDLF.

On March 4, 2020, the Company's Board of Directors (the “Board”) increased its number of authorized Common Stock shares from 500,000,000 to 2,500,000,000 pursuant to an amendment to its Articles of Incorporation with the state of Nevada, and also submitted to Nevada the Company's Certificate of Designation of Preferences, Rights and Limitations of its Class B Shares, providing that each Class B Share has one-hundred (100) votes on all matters presented to be voted by Common Stockholders. The Class B Shares only have voting power and have no equity, cash value, or any other value.

On May 8, 2020, the Company filed Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation in Nevada to increase its authorized shares from 2,500,000,000 to 10,000,000,000 Shares and its Preferred Shares from 100,000,000 to 300,000,000 Shares.

On December 31, 2020, the Company completed the subsidiary Spin-Off Agreement between MjLink.com, Inc. ("MjLink") and the Company whereby the Parties agreed that the Company would cease operating MjLink.

On June 30, 2021, our Board unanimously approved the adoption of the Certificate for Series A Cumulative Convertible Preferred Stock (the "Certificate"), which Certificate was filed in Nevada on June 30, 2021 and became effective on July 6, 2021. The Certificate provides that each Preferred A Share has the right to convert each Series A Preferred Share into 20 Common Stock Shares and has liquidation rights over all other series of Preferred Stock.

On February 2, 2023, FINRA approved the Company's name change from Social Life Network, Inc. to Decentral Life, Inc. in preparation of a planned up listing to a major U.S. stock exchange.

On September 29, 2023, the Company completed a Binding Letter of Intent with MjLink, a company spun off from the Company on January 1, 2021, to be reacquired via a Share Exchange and merged with the DecentralizedFI Holdings, Inc. subsidiary of Decentral Life, prior to December 31, 2026. The share exchange will be conducted with the Company's Series B Preferred Share Class with voting, conversion, and liquidation rights defined on page #4 of this report.

The Company has 10,000,000,000 Series A Common Stock shares, 200,000,000 Series B Common Stock shares, 500,000,000 Series C Common shares, and 300,000,000 Preferred Stock shares.

The Company's Business

The Company focuses on the accumulation of crypto assets such as Ethereum and Bitcoin for long-term investment. The Company also provides Software-as-a-Service (SaaS), AI Data-as-a-Service (DaaS), and Blockchain-as-a-Service (BaaS), Energy as a Service (EaaS) to clients in need of its AI, Web3, and Energy solutions.

Through revenue generating license agreements with its clients, some of which participate in the Issuer's Business Incubator, program that operates as a wholly owned subsidiary - Space Innovation Unit, Inc. (Space IU). The Space IU focuses on providing Emerging Growth Companies in the U.S. aerospace industry that support the Golden Dome project. Space IU provides support with executive leadership and C-suite Consulting Services to make it easier for their founders to focus on expanding their business growth by utilizing AI and Web3 technology solutions provided by other Decentral Life subsidiaries.

The Company's mission is to educate and guide companies through the convergence of AI and Blockchain technology in a meaningful way that supports the Golden Dome project in the United States. AI processes vast amounts of data, identifies patterns, and makes predictions, while blockchain offers transparency, security, and decentralized transaction verification. When combined, AI can optimize blockchain operations by improving decision-making and automating tasks, while blockchain can enhance the security and integrity of data used for AI training. This creates a foundation for building trustworthy and transparent systems capable of managing complex tasks more smoothly.

The additional integration of AI and Web3 leads to accelerating the digitization and tokenization of real-world assets, enabling autonomous and intelligent asset management, improved decision-making, greater efficiency, increased accessibility to financial services, enhanced regulatory compliance, and innovative financial products, all of which the Company mission supports.

AI and Blockchain have much greater power requirements than traditional cloud-based software applications, and for companies to achieve their business goals they must factor in the increased energy cost and secure access to the power requirements for operate AI and Blockchain technologies at large scale. This can be accomplished by repurposing commercial land to include microgrid power generation, of which the energy assets can be tokenized.

The Company's business operations include the licensing of Services, as noted above, and targeted acquisitions of companies, as well as Real-World Assets (RWAs) that can be tokenized as digital assets, to support the convergence of AI and Blockchain technology.

The tokenization of RWAs, such as corporate securities, real estate, commodities (E.g. gold, oil, and natural gas), are projected to be transformative to the capital markets and will be instrumental for companies to access their full liquidity potential.

Tokenized AI compute infrastructure backed by real power and physical data centers is a way for companies and government agencies to plan, invest, and ensure their compute capacity requirements are met in the future. The Company provides AI and Web3 solutions for its clients and affiliates by way of license service agreements to generate revenue, and consulting service agreements for equity.

Revenue Generation

The Company's services are Software-as-a-Service (SaaS), AI Data-as-a-Service (DaaS), and Blockchain-as-a-Service (BaaS), Energy as a Service (EaaS) to clients in need of its AI, Web3, and Energy solutions.

Global Operations

The Company provides cloud-based solutions to its clients, that in turn provide access to those cloud-based solutions globally.

Intellectual Property

The Company's intellectual property and know-how are of key importance to its business plan.

Better Practices

The Company spends a significant amount of time each year with its client companies, their founders, and their management teams, to help develop and implement better business practices in its effort to increase the probability of their success and eventual liquidity events.

Sources and Availability of Products and Names of Principal Suppliers

The Company currently rely on certain key suppliers and vendors in the support and maintenance of its business model. Management mitigates the associated risks of these single-source vendor relationships by ensuring that the Company has access to additional qualified vendors and suppliers to provide like or complementary services.

NOTE 2 – SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of presentation

The Company's financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("U.S. GAAP").

Use of estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Significant estimates include the estimated calculation of the fair market value of investments held. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Basis of presentation

The Company's financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("U.S. GAAP").

Concentrations of Credit Risk

The Company maintains its cash in bank deposit accounts, the balances of which at times may exceed federally insured limits. The Company continually monitors its banking relationships and consequently have not experienced any losses in its accounts. The Company is not exposed to any significant credit risk on cash.

Cash and cash equivalents

The Company considers all highly liquid temporary cash investments with an original maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents. On June 30, 2026 and December 31, 2025, the Company's cash equivalents totaled $5 and $0 respectively.

Accounts Receivable

Revenues that have been recognized but not yet received are recorded as accounts receivable. Losses on receivables will be recognized when it is more likely than not that a receivable will not be collected. An allowance for estimated uncollectible amounts will be recognized to reduce the amount of receivables to its net realizable value when considered necessary. Any allowance for uncollectible amounts is evaluated quarterly.

Fair value of financial instruments

The Company follows paragraph 825-10-50-10 of the FASB Accounting Standards Codification for disclosures about fair value of its financial instruments and paragraph 820-10-35-37 of the FASB Accounting Standards Codification ("Paragraph 820-10-35-37") to measure the fair value of its financial instruments. Paragraph 820-10-35-37 establishes a framework for measuring fair value in accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (U.S. GAAP) and expands disclosures about fair value measurements. To increase consistency and comparability in fair value measurements and related disclosures, Paragraph 820-10-35-37 establishes a fair value hierarchy which prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value into three (3) broad levels. The fair value hierarchy gives the highest priority to quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs. The three (3) levels of fair value hierarchy defined by Paragraph 820-10-35-37 are described below:

Level 1: Quoted market prices available in active markets for identical assets or liabilities as of the reporting date.

Level 2: Pricing inputs other than quoted prices in active markets included in Level 1, which are either directly or indirectly observable as of the reporting date.

Level 3: Pricing inputs that are generally observable inputs and not corroborated by market data.

The carrying amount of our financial assets and liabilities, such as cash, prepaid expenses and accrued expenses approximate their fair value because of the short maturity of those instruments. Our notes payable approximates the fair value of such instruments based upon management's best estimate of interest rates that would be available to us for similar financial arrangements.

The Company does not have any assets or liabilities measured at fair value on a recurring or a non-recurring basis as of June 30, 2026 and December 31, 2025.

Revenue recognition

The Company follows paragraph 605-15-25 of the FASB Accounting Standards Codification for revenue recognition when the right of return exists. The Company will recognize revenue when it is realized or realizable and earned. The Company considers revenue realized or realizable and earned when all of the following criteria are met: (i) The seller's price to the buyer is substantially fixed or determinable at the date of sale, (ii) The buyer has paid the seller, or the buyer is obligated to pay the seller and the obligation is not contingent on resale of the product. If the buyer does not pay at time of sale and the buyer's obligation to pay is contractually or implicitly excused until the buyer resells the product, then this condition is not met., (iii) The buyer's obligation to the seller would not be changed in the event of theft or physical destruction or damage of the product, (iv) The buyer acquiring the product for resale has economic substance apart from that provided by the seller. This condition relates primarily to buyers that exist on paper, that is, buyers that have little or no physical facilities or employees. It prevents entities from recognizing sales revenue on transactions with parties that the sellers have established primarily for the purpose of recognizing such sales revenue, (v) The seller does not have significant obligations for future performance to directly bring about resale of the product by the buyer, and (vi) The amount of future returns can be reasonably estimated.

Income taxes

The Company follows Section 740-10-30 of the FASB Accounting Standards Codification, which requires recognition of deferred tax assets and liabilities for the expected future tax consequences of events that have been included in the financial statements or tax returns. Under this method, deferred tax assets and liabilities are based on the differences between the financial statement and tax bases of assets and liabilities using enacted tax rates in effect for the fiscal year in which the differences are expected to reverse. Deferred tax assets are reduced by a valuation allowance to the extent management concludes it is more likely than not that the assets will not be realized. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the fiscal years in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. The effect on deferred tax assets and liabilities of a change in tax rates is recognized in the Statements of Income in the period that includes the enactment date.

On December 22, 2018, the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act (TCJA) was signed into law by the President of the United States. TCJA is a tax reform act that among other things, reduced corporate tax rates to 21 percent effective January 1, 2018. FASB ASC 740, Income Taxes, requires deferred tax assets and liabilities to be adjusted for the effect of a change in tax laws or rates in the year of enactment, which is the year in which the change was signed into law. Accordingly, we adjusted its deferred tax assets and liabilities at June 30, 2020, using the new corporate tax rate of 21 percent.

The Company adopted section 740-10-25 of the FASB Accounting Standards Codification ("Section 740-10-25") with regards to uncertainty income taxes. Section 740-10-25 addresses the determination of whether tax benefits claimed or expected to be claimed on a tax return should be recorded in the financial statements. Under Section 740-10-25, the Company may recognize the tax benefit from an uncertain tax position only if it is more likely than not that the tax position will be sustained on examination by the taxing authorities, based on the technical merits of the position. The tax benefits recognized in the financial statements from such a position should be measured based on the largest benefit that has a greater than fifty percent (50%) likelihood of being realized upon ultimate settlement. Section 740-10-25 also provides guidance on de-recognition, classification, interest and penalties on income taxes, accounting in interim periods and requires increased disclosures. The Company had no material adjustments to its liabilities for unrecognized income tax benefits according to the provisions of Section 740-10-25.

Stock-based Compensation

The Company accounts for equity-based transactions with nonemployees under the provisions of ASC Topic No. 505-50, Equity-Based Payments to Non-Employees ("ASC 505-50"). ASC 505-50 establishes that equity-based payment transactions with nonemployees shall be measured at the fair value of the consideration received or the fair value of the equity instruments issued, whichever is more reliably measurable. The fair value of common stock issued for payments to nonemployees is measured at the market price on the date of grant. The fair value of equity instruments, other than common stock, is estimated using the Black-Scholes option valuation model. In general, the Company recognizes the fair value of the equity instruments issued as deferred stock compensation and amortize the cost over the term of the contract.

The Company accounts for employee stock-based compensation in accordance with the guidance of FASB ASC Topic 718, Compensation—Stock Compensation, which requires all share-based payments to employees, including grants of employee stock options, to be recognized in the financial statements based on their fair values. The fair value of the equity instrument is charged directly to compensation expense and credited to additional paid-in capital over the period during which services are rendered.

Basic and Diluted Earnings Per Share

Net income (loss) per common share is computed pursuant to section 260-10-45 of the FASB Accounting Standards Codification. Basic net income (loss) per common share is computed by dividing net income (loss) by the weighted average number of shares of common stock outstanding during the period. Diluted net income (loss) per common share is computed by dividing net income (loss) by the weighted average number of shares of common stock and potentially outstanding shares of common stock during the period.

Recently issued accounting pronouncements

The Company has implemented all new accounting pronouncements that are in effect and that may impact its financial statements and does not believe that there are any other new pronouncements that have been issued that might have a material impact on its financial position or results of operations.

NOTE 3 – GOING CONCERN

The Company's financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis, which assumes that it will be able to realize its assets and discharge its liabilities and commitments in the normal course of business for the foreseeable future. As of June 30, 2026, the Company had an accumulated deficit of $6,320,117. This factor raises substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. The Company's ability to continue as a going concern is dependent upon it generating profitable operations in the future and/or to obtain the necessary financing to meet obligations and repay liabilities arising from normal business operations when they come due. The Company's management intends to finance operating costs over the next year with the public issuance of common stock and related party loans. While the Company believes that it will be successful in obtaining the necessary financing and generating revenue to fund its operations, meet regulatory requirements and achieve commercial goals, there are no assurances that such additional funding will be achieved or that it will succeed in its future operations. The Company's financial statements do not include any adjustments that may result from the outcome of these uncertainties.
