Item 9: The nature of products or services offered.

In responding to this item, please describe the following:

1. Principal products or services, and their markets:

The issuer's services enable clients to place articles on consignment for sale by means of Internet-based auctions. In addition, the company makes volume purchases of products at wholesale prices for resale and expects to develop proprietary products for sale in the future. The Orbit Drop process is as follows:

a. The client brings an item to Orbit Drop for potential sale. If the item is worth $50 or more, weighs less than 150 pounds, and is deemed suitable for sale on eBay, the item is accepted and a receipt issued to the client.

b. Orbit Drop takes photos of the item, creates a professional eBay ad, and uploads the ad to eBay.

c. During the eBay auction, Orbit Drop monitors the process and answers all telephone and mail inquiries. If the item does not sell during the first auction, it will be listed free of charge for a second auction. If the item does not sell during the second auction, the client is notified to come and pick up the item for no additional cost.

d. When the item sells, Orbit Drop secures the funds from the successful bidder, packages the items securely, and sends it to the buyer.

e. When the buyer is satisfied with the item, Orbit Drop deducts its fee from the sales proceeds and sends a check for the balance to the client.

Orbit Drop provides franchisees with the following:

- a. Assistance with site selection.
- b. Design and layout of store.
- c. An Operations Manual and listing of equipment and specifications for business operations.
- d. Training on all aspects of store operations.
- e. Artwork and design of all collateral material including signs and brochures.
- f. Software allowing for efficient listing of items on eBay as well as keeping track of customers and customer payments.
- g. Ongoing support in all aspects of the operations.

2. Distribution methods of the products or services:

The Company currently distributes its services through its two company-owned stores and through franchisees.

3. Status of any publicly announced new product or service:

Not applicable.

4. Competitive business conditions, the issuer's competitive position in the industry, and methods of competition:

OBDP has designed and developed a method of building and operating stores which provide consignment services for Internet-based auctions. The Orbit Drop stores have distinctive formats, methods, procedures, designs, layouts, standards and specifications, all of which the company may improve, further develop and otherwise modify from time to time.

The market segments in which the company competes are rapidly evolving and can be competitive.

Many of Orbit Drop's current and potential competitors have longer operating histories, larger customer bases, greater brand recognition and significantly greater financial, marketing and other resources than we have. They may be able to secure merchandise from vendors on more favorable terms, may be able to operate with a lower cost structure, and may be able to adopt more aggressive pricing policies.

5. Sources and availability of raw materials and the names of principal suppliers:

At this time Orbit Drop depends on advertising and word-of-mouth referrals to obtain customers.

6. Dependence on one or a few major customers:

Orbit Drop is not dependent on one major customer for the survival of the company as it targets the mass market of individuals desiring to sell personal property and looks forward to the future business that is to be provided.

7. Patents, trademarks, licenses, franchises, concessions, royalty agreements or labor contracts, including their duration; and

Not applicable.

8. The need for any government approval of principal products or services. Discuss the status of any requested government approvals:

The company conducts the daily business under the guidelines of the State of Texas. The company, at this time does not need and has not requested government approval of the products and services provided by OBDP.

Item 10: The nature and extent of the issuer's facilities:

In responding to this item, please give the location of the principal plants and other property of the issuer and describe the condition of the properties. If the issuer does not have complete ownership of the property (for example, if others also own the property or if there is a mortgage on the property), describe the limitations on the ownership.

The issuer currently has executive offices in Dallas, Texas, and owns two operating stores in Dallas and Houston, Texas where it has a three year rental agreement on a 1,500 square foot retail space for all locations. The issuer presently has plans to open an additional company-owned store in Newport Beach, California. Each Company store is between 1,000 to 2,000 square feet, employs an average of four employees, and is expected to have an average volume of $50,000 per month.

Item 11: The name of the chief executive officer, members of the board of directors, as well as counsel, accountant and public relations consultant:

In responding to this item, please provide the full names, business addresses, employment histories, board memberships, other affiliations, and number of securities (and of which class) beneficially owned by each such person, which information must be no older than the end of the most recent fiscal year, for the issuer's:

A. Executive Officers:

The following list sets forth the name, address and position of each executive officer and director of the Issuer as of the date hereof:

Name and Address Position

Marisa Wolfcale Chief Executive Officer and Director
3521 Oak Lawn – Suite 304
Dallas, TX 75219

Kilay Reinfeld President and Director
19800 Macarthur Blvd. - Suite 300
Irvine, California 92614

Dain Turner Vice President of Franchising
19800 Macarthur Blvd., Suite 300
Irvine, California 92614

The principal occupation and business experience during the last five years for each of the present directors and executive officers of the Issuer are as follows:

Marisa Wolfcale was the first employee to be hired by the founder of Orbit Drop Inc. Having known Ms. Wolfcale, he was familiar with her business acumen and her integrity. She deftly handled every detail in setting up the Dallas OrbitDrop Store. Inspired, after seeing the undeniable success of the first store, she proceeded with the concept of franchising OrbitDrop. Ms. Wolfcale did extensive research which revealed the “glut” of Drop off stores on the west coast and virtually none throughout the Southwest, Midwest, and East Coast. Thus, the process was put into play. Originally, she and her assistant spoke with hundreds of potential Franchisee’s. This was a consuming task due to the number of calls from investors and interested Franchisee’s. With ever increasing duties on the formation of the corporate side of Orbit Drop Inc., Ms. Wolfcale knew it was time to delegate the day to day duties to a qualified and trustworthy Manager. Ms. Wolfcale closed the original two franchise sales. These franchisees were trained in Dallas directly by or under the supervision of Ms. Wolfcale. During this time she kept a “Hands On” approach with the Dallas Store. Meanwhile she came in contact with individuals owning extensive and successful Franchising Background, and experience with a successful eBay Drop Off Store Franchise, on the west coast. These men were retained and are currently officers of Orbit Drop Inc. With this accomplished, Ms. Wolfcale was asked to oversee the Dallas based corporation plus the Dallas Orbit Drop store while remaining active in the California based operations. To maintain this level of responsibility she relied upon her trusted assistant and surrounded herself with an extremely qualified and loyal staff. Ms. Wolfcale has preferred “staying in the background” but it is time for her to be publicly recognized for her leadership of Orbit Drop Inc. That is what she has been, from day one.

Ms. Wolfcale has worked for the JECOR (Joint Economic Coalition of Riyadh) in finance and management while living in Saudi Arabia following the Gulf War. When sought out and asked to duplicate the concept of FAO Schwartz, Ms. Wolfcale oversaw the entire project from the design of the store to hiring managers, buyers, bookkeepers etc. As a result KIDS KINGDOM was the first and only children’s department store in Saudi Arabia.

After returning to the states, she became COO of an international acquisitions and mergers corporation. This position took Ms. Wolfcale literally all over the world dealing with many unique people and businesses. This cemented her management and people skills.

Ms. Wolfcale holds a Bachelors Degree in Fine Arts and Humanities. She began her career in New York City in the fashion industry as a designer; she is a published and awarded illustrator. Although her forte turned out to be in the corporate world, she still takes time to pick up a brush now and again.

Kilay Reinfeld, President and Director - Mr. Reinfeld began working on computers at an early age and owned and operated a profitable Internet Web hosting Corp. and was providing freelance design services by age 17. He was involved in successfully turning a simple telephony company, LD Telecom, into a full-fledged automated Internet communications portal whose sales increased over 400% during his tenure there.

Previous 5 years professional experience of Mr. Reinfeld is as follows:

In 2001, he joined Quik International, Inc. as Creative Director, where he redesigned every one of the company's web sites and proposed and created a new franchise concept--eBay drop-off stores. He created the web sites, marketing material, training and software and assembled vendors, wrote press releases, and he interacted with franchise candidates and franchisees. He was promoted to Chief Operating Officer and drove sales from startup to over $400,000 per month within one year. Mr. Reinfeld has extensive knowledge and broad experience in the areas of technology, online auctions, eBay, franchising, marketing and public relations, training and customer support, and management.

Dain Turner, Vice President of Franchising -- Mr. Turner has a degree in business studies and has worked for organizations including Trammell Crowe, the United Nations in Vienna, Austria, and most recently as the Franchise Director for Quik Internet Global, Inc.
