7. Definitions

The OTCQB® Venture Market is designed for entrepreneurial and development stage U.S. and international companies. To be eligible, companies must be current in filing obligations, have a minimum bid price of $0.05 and not be in Bankruptcy. OTCQB Companies maintain their corporate profile and publish an annual certification to demonstrate compliance with U.S. securities laws. These OTCQB Rules are intended to outline for companies and investors the standards that a company must meet to be eligible to be traded on the OTCQB Market and describe the initial and ongoing disclosure it must provide to the investing public.

Capitalized terms used herein are defined in Section 7 of these OTCQB Rules.

1. Requirements for Admission

1.1. Eligibility Criteria

To be considered for admission to the OTCQB Market, a Company and each class of securities for which it is applying to OTCQB is required to meet all of the following standards, as applicable:

- A. Registration and Reporting Status: The Company must meet one of the following reporting standards and be current in all reporting obligations:
 - 1. Be an SEC Reporting Company or a Regulation A Reporting Company.
 - 2. Be exempt from SEC registration under Exchange Act Rule 12g3-2(b) and listed on a Qualified Foreign Exchange.
 - 3. Be exempt from SEC registration, other than by Exchange Act Rule 12g3-2(b), and listed on a Qualified Foreign Exchange.
 - 4. Be exempt from SEC Registration and reporting under the Alternative Reporting Standard.
 - 5. Be a Bank filing reports with a Bank Regulator.

- B. Audit Requirement: The Company must meet the following conditions:
 - 1. Annual financial statements must be audited and include an audit opinion that is not adverse, disclaimed or qualified;
 - 2. Audits must be performed by an auditor registered with the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (PCAOB);
 - i. International Companies are exempt from Section 1.1(B)(2), unless the Company has an SEC reporting obligation.

- ii. Regulation A Reporting Companies are exempt from Section 1.1(B)(2) for initial eligibility only; all subsequent annual audits must be performed by an auditor registered with the PCAOB.
- 3. All periodic financial statements must be prepared in accordance with U.S GAAP, IFRS or IFRS equivalent, as applicable; and
- 4. Interim financial reports may be unaudited but must include:
 - i. A balance sheet as of the Company's most recent interim period;
 - ii. Income statement for the Company's most recent interim period; and
 - iii. Statement of cash flows for the Company's most recent interim period and the comparable period of the preceding 12 months.
- C. Bid Price. Each class of securities to be traded on OTCQB must have a minimum bid price of $0.05 per share as of the close of business on each of the 30 consecutive calendar days immediately preceding the Company's admission to OTCQB. If a Company's securities are traded on a Qualified Foreign Exchange and there has been no prior public market for the Company's securities in the U.S., the Company may satisfy this requirement using pricing on the Qualified Foreign Exchange. If a Company's securities are not traded on a Qualified Foreign Exchange and there has been no prior public market for the Company's securities in the U.S., OTC Markets Group may admit the class of securities to OTCQB on a conditional basis if the Company can demonstrate to OTC Markets Group's satisfaction that it will meet the minimum bid price. Any security admitted conditionally must meet the bid price requirement for 30 consecutive calendar days after admission;
- D. Public Float. Each class of securities to be traded on OTCQB must have a Public Float of at least 10% of the total class of securities outstanding;¹

Refer to the definition of "Public Float" in Section 7 of these OTCQB Rules for a description of how OTC Markets Group calculates Public Float.
- E. Shareholder Requirement. Each class of securities to be traded on OTCQB must have at least 50 Beneficial Shareholders, each owning at least 100 shares;¹
- F. No Bankruptcy. The Company must not be subject to Bankruptcy or reorganization proceedings (including but not limited to placement in conservatorship or receivership);

¹ A Company applying to OTCQB that has a separate class of securities traded on a U.S. national securities exchange, OTCQX or OTCQB, may apply in writing to OTC Markets Group for an exemption from Sections 1.1(D) or 1.1(E), which exemption may be granted by OTC Markets Group in its sole and absolute discretion. A Company relying on an exemption from either 1.1(D) or 1.1(E) is not eligible for an Initial Review conducted by OTC Markets.

- G. Good Standing. The Company must be duly organized and in good standing under the laws of each jurisdiction where it is organized or does business.

1.2. Corporate Governance

- A. Alternative Reporting Companies, or any other Company notified by OTC Markets Group at the time of its application to OTCQB, are required to meet the following corporate governance standards:
1. Independent Directors: A board of directors that includes at least two Independent Directors; and
 2. Audit Committee. An Audit Committee comprised of at least two members, with a majority of Independent Directors.
- B. Upon application to OTCQB, a Company subject to Section 1.2(A) may submit a request, which OTC Markets Group may grant or deny in its sole and absolute discretion, to phase in its compliance with Section 1.2(A), provided that the Company becomes fully compliant thereunder within one year of its admission to OTCQB, as follows:
1. At least one member of the board of directors and the Audit Committee must be an Independent Director at the time of admission; and
 2. At least two members of the board of directors and a majority of the members of the Audit Committee must be Independent Directors within the later of (i) 90 calendar days after the Company's admission to OTCQB or (ii) the time of the Company's next shareholder meeting.

Trusts, funds, and other similarly structured Companies may be exempted from these corporate governance requirements. The Company must apply in writing to OTC Markets Group for an exemption under Section 1.2, which exemption may be granted by OTC Markets Group in its sole and absolute discretion.

1.3. Transfer Agent Criteria

A Company incorporated in the U.S. or Canada, or a Company whose primary trading market is the U.S., must retain a transfer agent that participates in the Transfer Agent Verified Shares Program and authorize its transfer agent to provide OTC Markets Group, upon its request, information related to the Company's securities, including total shares authorized, total shares issued and outstanding, and share issuance history.

1.4. Initial Disclosure Obligations

The Company must make the following disclosure available to the public prior to admission to OTCQB:

- H. Insurance Company. An insurance company that is relying on section 12(g)(2)(G)(i) of the Exchange Act must also publish, through OTCIQ.com, its most recent "Insurance Company Annual Regulatory Statement" required to be filed with the Commissioner of Insurance (or other officer or agency performing a similar function) of its domiciliary state.
- I. Bank Reporting. A Bank Reporting company must publish, through OTCIQ.com, annual reports for the prior three years (or such shorter time as the Company has been in existence) as well as any interim reports and other material disclosure subsequent to the most recent annual report.

2. Requirements for Continued Qualification

The Company must maintain compliance with the applicable eligibility criteria set forth in Section 1 of these OTCQB Rules, in addition to the following continuing eligibility and ongoing disclosure obligations:

2.1. Continued Eligibility Criteria

- A. Bid Price. Maintain proprietary priced quotations published by a Market Maker in OTC Link ATS with a minimum bid price of $0.01 per share as of the close of business of at least one of every 30 consecutive calendar days;
- B. Corporate Governance Standards. If an Alternative Reporting Company, or any other Company notified by OTC Markets Group, fails to comply with the corporate governance requirements set forth in Section 1.2 of these OTCQB Rules, the Company must:
 - 1. Notify OTC Markets Group immediately upon learning of the event or circumstance that caused the noncompliance; and
 - 2. Regain compliance with the requirement by the earlier of its next annual shareholders meeting or the date that is one year from the occurrence of the event that caused the noncompliance.
- C. Payment of Fees. The Company must pay an Annual Fee each year;
- D. Responding to OTC Markets Group's Requests. 3. Fees

All OTCQB fees are published in the Corporate Services Fee Schedule, available on www.otcmarkets.com.

All fees are non-refundable. OTC Markets Group may modify the fees from time to time.

- A. Application Fee. The Application Fee is due upon submission of the Application.
- B. Annual Fee. The Company must annually pay OTC Markets Group the non-refundable Annual Fee. The Annual Fee is due prior to the first day of the Company's securities trading on the OTCQB Market.
- C. Requalification Fee. If the Company requalifies for OTCQB under Section 5, it must pay a Requalification Fee.

4. Removal, Withdrawal or Suspension

4.1. Removal for Failure to Meet Requirements

OTC Markets Group may remove the Company's securities from OTCQB for the Company's failure to meet any Requirement for Continued Qualification as set forth in Section 2 herein, for nonpayment of any outstanding fees to OTC Markets Group, or for failure to comply with any other obligation under these OTCQB Rules. Such determination will be made by OTC Markets Group in its sole and absolute discretion. Failure to meet a Requirement for Continued Qualification may be cured within the period provided by OTC Markets Group which will be 30 calendar days, except in the following circumstances:

- A. If the Company is delinquent in its periodic reporting obligations, the cure period will be 45 calendar days.

If the Company is a Regulation A Reporting Company, the cure period will be 15 calendar days in accordance with Exchange Act Rule 15c2-11.

- B. In the event that the Company's bid price falls below the minimum criteria established in Section 2.1 (A), the Company will receive a cure period of 90 calendar days, during which time the Company's securities must maintain a minimum closing bid price of $0.01 per share for 10 consecutive trading days.
- C. If the closing bid price falls below $0.001 at any time for five (5) consecutive trading days, the Company's security will be removed from OTCQB effective immediately.
- D. In the event that the Public Float falls below the minimum criteria established in Section 1.1(D), the Company will receive a cure period of 90 calendar days.
- E. If there are no proprietary priced quotes for four (4) consecutive trading days, the Company's security will be removed from OTCQB effective immediately.
- F. If the Company is subject to Bankruptcy or reorganization proceedings, including but not limited to placement in conservatorship or receivership, the Company's security will be removed from OTCQB effective immediately.
- G. If the Company fails to satisfy any eligibility criteria set forth in Sections 1 and 2 within the first 30 calendar days of joining OTCQB, OTC Markets Group may, in its sole and absolute discretion, remove the Company from OTCQB without providing a cure period.

OTC Markets Group may, in its sole and absolute discretion, allow additional time to cure, provided, however, that to remain on OTCQB a Company's published audited financial reports must at all times be dated within the prior 18 months, or such longer period permitted by the Company's Qualified Foreign Exchange or home country regulator. An Alternative Reporting Company must at all times publish audited annual financials dated within the prior 16 months in accordance with Exchange Act Rule 15c2-11.

4.2. Removal for Public Interest Concern

OTC Markets Group may remove the Company's securities from OTCQB immediately and at any time, without notice, if OTC Markets Group, in its sole and absolute discretion, believes the continued inclusion of the Company's securities would impair the reputation or integrity of OTC Markets Group or be detrimental to the interests of investors.

4.3. Voluntary Withdrawal

The Company may voluntarily withdraw from OTCQB by providing a minimum of three (3) business days written notice delivered to OTC Markets Group at issuers@otcmarekts.com, with a copy to legal@otcmarekts.com. Such notice must include the effective date of the Company's withdrawal.

4.4. Temporary Suspension

OTC Markets Group may, at any time, in its sole and absolute discretion, temporarily suspend a Company's securities from inclusion on OTCQB pending the completion of additional review.

4.5. Continued Use of Certain Services

Subsequent to the Company's removal, withdrawal or suspension from OTCQB, OTC Markets Group may allow the Company to continue to use any service for which it is subscribed for the remainder of the calendar year and for any subsequent period for which it has paid, except services reserved for the use of Companies with securities traded on OTCQB.

5. Requalification

A Company removed from OTCQB in the past 180 calendar days may send a written request to OTC Markets Group to be considered for readmission if it meets the below criteria:

- A. Company meets all Requirements for Admission set forth under Section 1 of these OTCQB Rules;
- B. Company has not undergone a Change in Control, loss of proprietary quote eligibility or any other event that resulted in a material change at the Company since its removal from the OTCQB Market; and
- C. Company was not removed for nonpayment of fees.

OTC Markets Group in its sole and absolute discretion may request additional materials for review. A Company that has been removed from the OTCQB Market for more than 180 calendar days or does not meet criteria set forth in this Section 5 must submit a new Application, Application Fee and Annual Fee.

6. Amendment of OTCQB Rules

OTC Markets Group may, in its sole and absolute discretion, amend these OTCQB Rules whenever it determines that an amendment is necessary or desirable to enhance the quality of the market, to improve the disclosure of OTCQB Companies for the benefit of public investors, or for any other reason. Each amendment will be effective 30 days subsequent to its publication in an OTCQB Rules Release.
