GREENGRO TECHNOLOGIES, INC.

Notes to Financial Statements

December 31, 2012 and 2011

(Unaudited)

NOTE 1- DESCRIPTION OF BUSINESS AND HISTORY

Greengro Technologies Inc. (formerly Authorizor, Inc.) (the "Company" or "GreenGro") was incorporated in 1996 under the laws of the State of Delaware. On September 1, 2009, the Company changed its name to GreenGro Technologies, Inc.

Greengro Technologies is a world class provider of eco-friendly green technologies with specific domain expertise in indoor and outdoor agricultural science systems serving both the consumer and commercial farming markets. Its customers include restaurants, community gardens, and small and large scale commercial clients.

The Company recently appointed a new board of directors and officers. The Company has moved locations to Anaheim, California.

NOTE 2- SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT POLICIES

Basis of Presentation- The Company's financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("U.S. GAAP").

Use of Estimates and Assumptions - The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates. Such estimates include management's assessments of the carrying value of certain assets, useful lives of assets, and related depreciation and amortization methods applied.

Cash and Cash Equivalents - For the purpose of the statements of cash flows, all highly liquid investments with an original maturity of three months or less are considered to be cash equivalents. The carrying value of these investments approximates fair value.

Accounts Receivable- Accounts receivable related to the products and services sold are recorded at the time revenue is recognized, and are presented on the balance sheet net of allowance for doubtful accounts. The ultimate collection of the receivable may not be known for several months after services have been provided and billed.

The Company has established an allowance for doubtful accounts based upon factors pertaining to the credit risk of specific customers, analyses of current and historical cash collections, and the aging of receivables. Delinquent accounts are written-off when the likelihood for collection is remote and/or when the Company believes collection efforts have been fully exhausted and the Company does not intend to devote any additional efforts in an attempt to collect the receivable. The Company adjusts their allowance for doubtful accounts balance on a quarterly basis.

Leasehold Improvements- Leasehold improvements are stated at cost less accumulated amortization. The Company records amortization using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the related assets, which is based on twenty years. Maintenance and repair costs are expensed as they are incurred while renewals and improvements which extend the useful life of an asset are capitalized. At the time of retirement or disposal of property and equipment, the cost and related accumulated amortization are removed from the accounts and any resulting gain or loss is reflected in the results of operations.

Income Taxes - The Company follows Section 740-10-30 of the FASB Accounting Standards Codification, which requires recognition of deferred tax assets and liabilities for the expected future tax consequences of events that have been included in the financial statements or tax returns. Under this method, deferred tax assets and liabilities are based on the differences between the financial statement and tax bases of assets and liabilities using enacted tax rates in effect for the fiscal year in which the temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled.Deferred tax assets are reduced by a valuation allowance to the extent management concludes it ismore likely than not that the assets will not be realized. The effect on deferred tax assets and liabilities of a change in tax rates is recognized in income in the period that includes the enactment date.

The Company adopted section 740-10-25 of the FASB Accounting Standards Codification ("Section 740-10-25") with regards to uncertainty in income taxes. Section 740-10-25 addresses the determination of whether tax benefits claimed or expected to be claimed on a tax return should be recorded in the financial statements. Under Section 740-10-25, the Company may recognize the tax benefit from an uncertain tax position only if it is more likely than not that the tax position will be sustained on examination by the taxing authorities, based on the technical merits of the position. The tax benefits recognized in the financial statements from such a position should be measured based on the largest benefit that has a greater than fifty percent (50%) likelihood of being realized upon ultimate settlement. Section 740-10-25 also provides guidance on de-recognition, classification, interest and penalties on income taxes, accounting in interim periods and requires increased disclosures. The Company had no material adjustments to its assets and/or liabilities for unrecognized income tax benefits according to the provisions of Section 740-10-25.

Earnings (loss) Per Share - The Company computes basic and diluted earnings per share amounts pursuant to section 260-10-45 of the FASB Accounting Standards Codification. Basic earnings per share is computed by dividing net income (loss) available to common shareholders, by the weighted average number of shares of common stock outstanding during the period, excluding the effects of any potentially dilutive securities. Diluted earnings per share is computed by dividing net income (loss) available to common shareholders by the diluted weighted average number of shares of common stock during the period. The diluted weighted average number of common shares outstanding is the basic weighted number of shares adjusted as of the first day of the year for any potentially diluted debt or equity.

There were no potentially dilutive shares outstanding as of December 31, 2012 and December 31, 2011, respectively.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments - The Company adopted the provisions of FASB ASC 820 (the "Fair Value Topic") which defines fair value, establishes a framework for measuring fair value under GAAP, and expands disclosures about fair value measurements.

The Fair Value Topic defines fair value as the exchange price that would be received for an asset or paid to transfer a liability (an exit price) in the principal or most advantageous market for the asset or liability in an orderly transaction between market participants on the measurement date. It requires that valuation techniques maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs. It also establishes a fair value hierarchy, which prioritizes the valuation inputs into three broad levels.

The following fair value hierarchy is used to classify assets and liabilities based on the observable inputs and unobservable inputs used in order to value the assets and liabilities:

A) Market approach—Uses prices and other relevant information generated by market transactions involving identical or comparable assets or liabilities. Prices may be indicated by pricing guides, sale transactions, market trades, or other sources;

B) Cost approach—Based on the amount that currently would be required to replace the service capacity of an asset (replacement cost); and

C) Income approach—Uses valuation techniques to convert future amounts to a single present amount based on current market expectations about the future amounts (includes present value techniques, and option-pricing models). Net present value is an income approach where a stream of expected cash flows is discounted at an appropriate market interest rate.

Level 1: Quoted market prices available in active markets for identical assets or liabilities as of the reporting date. An active market for an asset or liability is a market in which transactions for the asset or liability occur with significant frequency and volume to provide pricing information on an ongoing basis.

Level 2: Observable inputs other than Level 1 inputs. Example of Level 2 inputs include quoted prices in active markets for similar assets or liabilities and quoted prices for identical assets or liabilities in markets that are not active.

Level 3: Unobservable inputs based on the Company's assessment of the assumptions that are market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability.

The carrying amount of the Company's financial assets and liabilities, such as cash, prepaid expenses, accounts payable, accrued expenses, and deferred revenue approximate their fair value because of the short maturity of those instruments. The Company's note payable approximate the fair value of such instruments based upon management's best estimate of interest rates that would be available to the Company for similar financial arrangements at December 31, 2012 and December 31, 2011.

The Company had no assets and/or liabilities measured at fair value on a recurring basis for the year ended December 31, 2012 and 2011, respectively, using the market and income approaches.

Impairment of Intangible Assets- The Company follows paragraph 360-10-05-4 of the FASB Accounting Standards Codification for its long-lived assets. The Company's long-lived assets, such as intellectual property are required to be reviewed for impairment annually, or whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of the asset may not be recoverable.

The Company assesses the recoverability of its long-lived assets by comparing the projected undiscounted net cash flows associated with the related long-lived asset or group of long-lived assets over their remaining estimated useful lives against their respective carrying amounts. Impairment, if any, is based on the excess of the carrying amount over the fair value of those assets. Fair value is generally determined using the asset's expected future discounted cash flows or market value, if readily determinable. If long-lived assets are determined to be recoverable, but the newly determined remaining estimated useful lives are shorter than originally estimated, the net book values of the long-lived assets are depreciated over the newly determined remaining estimated useful lives.

The Company determined that there were no impairments of long-lived assets as of December 31, 2012 and December 31, 2011.

Commitments & Contingencies

The Company follows subtopic 450-20 of the FASB Accounting Standards Codification to report accounting for contingencies. Liabilities for loss contingencies arising from claims, assessments, litigation, fines and penalties and other sources are recorded when it is probable that a liability has been incurred and the amount of the assessment can be reasonably estimated.

Revenue Recognition

The Company follows paragraph 605-10-S99-1 of the FASB Accounting Standards Codification for revenue recognition. The Company will recognize revenue when it is realized or realizable and earned. The Company considers revenue realized or realizable and earned when all of the following criteria are met: (i) persuasive evidence of an arrangement exists, (ii) the product has been shipped or the services have been rendered to the customer, (iii) the sales price is fixed or determinable, and (iv) collectability is reasonably assured. In addition, the Company records allowances for accounts receivable that are estimated to not be collected.

Revenues from multi-month training contracts are recognized over the length of the contract term rather than when the contract begins. Because a significant amount of the Company's contract sales are greater than three months in length, the Company apportions that revenue over the duration of the contract term even though either the full amount or a significant portion is collected when the contract begins. The difference between the gross cash receipts collected and the recognized revenue from those sales during the respective reporting period will appear as deferred revenue.

Subsequent Events

The Company follows the guidance in Section 855-10-50 of the FASB Accounting Standards Codification for the disclosure of subsequent events. The Company will evaluate subsequent events through the date when the financial statements were issued.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

Company management does not believe that any other recently issued, but not yet effective accounting pronouncements, if adopted, would have a material effect on the accompanying financial statements.

NOTE 3- GOING CONCERN

As reflected in the accompanying consolidated financial statements, the Company had an accumulated deficit of ($2,265,529) at December 31, 2012 and had a net loss of $429,368 and net cash used in operating activities of $2,789 for the year ended December 31, 2012.

While the Company is attempting to commence operations and generate revenues, the Company's cash position may not be significant enough to support the Company's daily operations. Management intends to raise additional funds by way of a public or private offering. Management believes that the actions presently being taken to further implement its business plan and generate revenues provide the opportunity for the Company to continue as a going concern. While the Company believes in the viability of its strategy to generate revenues and in its ability to raise additional funds, there can be no assurances to that effect. The ability of the Company to continue as a going concern is dependent upon the Company's ability to further implement its business plan and generate revenues.

The consolidated financial statements do not include any adjustments that might be necessary if the Company is unable to continue as a going concern.

NOTE 4 – LEASEHOLD IMPROVEMENTS

Leasehold improvements at December 21, 2012 and 2011 consisted of the following:

		2012		2011
Leasehold Improvements	$	25,000	$	-
Less: Amortization		(6,250)		-
Leasehold Improvements, net	$	18,750	$	-

The Company's chief financial officer David Rudat owns the warehouse where the Company currently leases space. Mr. Rudat loaned money to the Company to build a state of the art climate control room in the warehouse to store and house the Company's inventory and products. The Company signed a one year lease starting October 1, 2012. The leasehold improvements are being amortized over the life of the lease. The Company recorded amortization expense of $6,250 and $0 for the years ended December 31, 2012 and 2011, respectively.

NOTE 5– ACCOUNTS RECEIVABLE

Accounts receivable at December 21, 2012 and 2011 consisted of the following:

		2012		2011
Accounts receivable	$	12,200	$	5,000
Less: Allowance for doubtful accounts		(5,000)		-
	$	7,200	$	5,000

The Company recorded bad debt expense of $5,000 and $0 for the years ended December 31, 2012 and 2011, respectively.

NOTE 6- RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

The management of the Company has made non-interest bearing, unsecured, due on demand cash advances to the Company. As of December 31, 2012 and 2011, the related party payable balance was $44,053 and $0.

The chief financial officer of the Company owns the warehouse where the Company currently occupies space. The Company signed a one year lease described in note 10.

NOTE 7- STOCKHOLDERS' EQUITY (DEFICIT)

Preferred Stock:

The Company has authorized 10,000,000 shares of preferred stock with a par value of $0.001. The preferred shares have (10) ten for (1) one voting and conversion rights.

In February of 2012, the Company issued 10,000,000 preferred shares to its founder and Director James Haas for services rendered to the Company. The founder shares were valued at par $0.001.

Common Stock:

The Company has authorized 200,000,000 shares of common stock with a par value of $0.001.

The shareholders approved a 1 to 100 reverse stock split effective August 31, 2009. The financial statements give effect to the reverse stock split for all periods presented in this report

During 2011, the Company issued 21,000,000 shares of stock in connection with the acquisition of Vertical Hydrogarden, Inc. The Company issued 2,200,000 shares of common stock for $10,000. The Company also issued 2,500,000 shares of stock for services rendered to the Company which resulted in an expense of $42,500. This expense was calculated using the closing price of the stock at $.017/share on the date of issuance.

During 2012, the Company issued 4,300,000 shares of common stock for $27,000 cash. The Company also issued 5,000,000 shares to its chief financial officer for services rendered. The shares were valued at the fair market value on the date of issuance, January 18, 2012 at $0.0195/share, which resulted in an expense of $97,500 being recorded.

NOTE 8- ACQUISITION OF GREENGRO, INC AND VERTICAL HYDROGARDENS, INC.

During 2010, the Company acquired Greengro Technologies, Inc. for 60,000,000 shares of common stock. While the acquisition allowed the Company to enter into a new industry, it was determined that the acquisition price of $1,350,154 was not represented by assets that could be capitalized and the goodwill acquired was fully impaired.

During 2011, the Company acquired Vertical Hydrogarden for stock valued at $766,500 and a note payable for $100,000. The Company determined that the goodwill acquired, predominately patentable technology, had a fair value of $250,000. At December 31, 2012, management performed an impairment analysis on the goodwill asset. Management determined that impairment was necessary due to the estimated market value of the patented technology. An impairment loss of $250,000 was recognized for the year. The remaining book value is $0 as of December 31, 2012.

NOTE 9- NOTE PAYABLE

In connection with the acquisition of Vertical Hydrogarden, Inc the Company issued a note payable for $100,000 with an annual interest rate of 15%. The note became due in November of 2012 and is in default as of December 31, 2012. The Company has recently executed an amendment to the note payable agreement which will extend the note 12 months (see note 12 for further details).

At December 31, 2012 and 2011 the Company had a notes payable balance of $100,000. At December 31, 2012 and 2011 the Company had accrued interest on the note payable of $30,000 and $15,000.

NOTE 10- CONTINGENCIES

The Company currently occupies office space at 1100 East Orange Fair Lane, Suite I, Anaheim, California. The Company signed a 1 year lease agreement starting October 1, 2012 to September 30, 2013 for $1,000 per month. Rent expense was $3,000 for the year ended December 31, 2012.

Minimum future rental payments under the agreement are as follows:

2013-$9,000

NOTE 11- INCOME TAXES

Deferred taxes are provided on a liability method whereby deferred tax assets are recognized for deductible temporary differences and operating loss and tax credit carryforwards and deferred tax liabilities are recognized for taxable temporary differences. Temporary differences are the differences between the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and their tax bases. Deferred tax assets are reduced by a valuation allowance when, in the opinion of management, it is more likely than not that some portion or all of the deferred tax assets will not be realized. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are adjusted for the effects of changes in tax laws and rates on the date of enactment.

	2012	2011
Deferred tax liability:	$ -	$ -
Deferred tax asset
Net Operating Loss Carryforward	13,642,000	13,600,000

At December 31, 2012, the Company had net operating loss carryforwards of approximately $13,642,000 that may be offset against future taxable income from the year 2012 to 2032. No tax benefit has been reported in December 31, 2012 financial statements since the potential tab benefit is offset by a valuation allowance of the same amount.

Due to the change in ownership provisions of the Tax Reform Act of 1986, net operating loss carryforwards for Federal Income tax reporting purposes are subject to annual limitations. Should a change in ownership occur, net operating loss carryforwards may be limited as to use in future years.
