D. Principal products or services, and their markets:

On August 11, 2014, the Company signed a letter of intent to acquire all of the assets of Rich Kids Club Inc. a US corporation. Thereafter, it was agreed that a merger may not be in the best interests of the companies.

On November 6, 2014, the Company signed a letter of intent to acquire all of the assets of WOGC. WOGC is a branded distributor of a leading international manufacturer of transportation fuels, and petrochemical products. WOGC currently owns and operates a retail and wholesale gasoline station, a convenience store, car washes, doggie washes, and coffee drive-thru located in Zelienople and Coraopolis, Pennsylvania.

On December 10, 2014 (the "Closing Date"), the Company closed on acquisition of WOGC. Under the terms of the Share Exchange Agreement, WOGC became a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company. Also on the Closing Date, under the terms of the Share Exchange Agreement, the Company's former controlling shareholder, Omega Energy, LLC ("Omega") transferred ownership of approximately 79% of the Company's common stock to WOGC, which is beneficially owned by Eric and Scott Wroblewski.

The Company announced on January 20, 2015 that its wholly owned subsidiary, WOGC, has completed the acquisition of a petroleum distribution center and convenience store located in the highly traveled area of Butler County, Pennsylvania. The acquisition is expected to increase gross sales for WOGC by $2.5 - $3.0 million dollars to approximately $10.5 million dollars annually. The petroleum center distributes the nationally recognized Sunoco brand devoted to providing its distributors with top-notch product and marketing resources. The purchase agreement includes all inventories of petroleum and consumable products including food, cigarettes and convenience store products.

On January 26, 2015, the Company announced that WOGC has a commitment letter to serve as a broker for the sale of approximately six (6) million tons of coal located in Jeannette, Pennsylvania. The commitment letter was received from Opal Industries Inc. in reference to the sale of six million tons of coal pre-mined and in piles. The coal has been tested by third parties. WOGC is entitled to the following tiered commission structure: For the sales price of $21 per ton or over $3 per ton commission, for the sales price of $20 or below, $2 commission per ton will be paid to WOGC; for sales price of $10 or below $1 commission per ton will be paid. The pay structure allows WOGC to benefit from its efforts even with fluctuation in coal prices.

On February 5, 2015, the Company announced WOGC is moving forward with development plans at a third location for a petroleum center, car wash, quick lube and convenience store. WOGC and Moon Flight LLC, a related entity owned by members of the Wroblewski family, jointly own two parcels of zoned highway commercial property located in Moon Township, Pennsylvania near Pittsburgh International Airport. The company has requested a gasoline supply proposal from Valero based on five gasoline dispensers and two diesel dispensers with a projection of 100,000 gallons based on traffic count, demographics, traffic speed competition and overall business climate. Development plans for the approximately 1.038 acres of prime space also include a 3,000 square foot 21st century convenience store, automatic car wash and quick lube center. This land development project and partnership with Moon Flight LLC will incorporate the WOGC business model similar to locations currently owned and operated.

On February 20, 2015, the Company reported that WOGC has received a proposal from Valero Marketing and Supply Company to supply petroleum and diesel for their proposed new location in Moon Township, Pennsylvania. The proposal approves the use of the Valero brand for this location. The branded conversion term is for 7 years with an aggressive incentive and a reload option at the end of year 7.

On July 21, 2015, the Company released its 2015 half year results. For the first six months, which encompassed restructuring and reorganizing costs, the Company made a net profit of $75,659 on a revenue base of $3.9 million. Since the same time period in 2014, the total assets have increased from $1.27 million to $1.44 million while the accounts payables have been reduced by $164,000, or 58%. The figures for 2014 represent WOCG, 2015 represent The Company.

Further, the Company is evaluating the purchase of Moon Flight Car and Dog Wash in Pennsylvania as well as upgrades to the current facilities which are expected to enhance the Company's profitability in the future. These are projected to be third quarter initiatives if the cost-benefit ratio is deemed favorable. Further information is available at www.moonflightcoffee.com. Finally, the Company is now exploring business opportunities in Cuba from Southern Florida in the airline, cargo, and ferry areas.

The restructuring and costs incurred therein since the purchase, is nearly complete. The Company is evaluating several new initiatives in the transportation environment including ground and aviation opportunities, as well as upgrades to its current facilities, and is working with potential investors to increase operating capital.

7) Describe the Issuer's Facilities

The Company operates out of 225 S. Main Street, Zelienople, PA 16063, one of the branded gasoline/petroleum distribution locations operated by WOGC, its wholly owned subsidiary.

8) Officers, Directors, and Control Persons

As of the closing date of the Share Exchange Agreement, Eric and Scott Wroblewski became directors of the Company, and Eric Wroblewski was appointed President. As of December 31, 2014, Eric Wroblewski assumed the duties of Chief Executive Officer and Charles Yawn, the Company's former CEO, was appointed Chief Operating Officer.
