5) Issuer's Business, Products and Services

The Issuer's business, is (i) educational systems focused on medicinal cannabis, in cities throughout the United States of America and six countries in Latin America and (ii) providing services in therapeutic areas of clinical trials in the United States. The Issuer was formerly in the business of providing concierge medicine at an affordable price through its membership-based model in the Houston, Texas, area through its wholly owned subsidiary, Hippocrates Direct Healthcare, LLC, a Texas limited liability company, the address of which was that of the Issuer, whose contact information appears above; during the quarter ended August 31, 2020, the Issuer terminated this business.

The president of the Issuer is Dante Picazo, whose contact information is that of the Issuer.

The COVID-19 pandemic has had a material adverse effect on the Issuer's educational business because governmental measures taken to control it resulted in the closing of classrooms and other educational venues, and also hindered the Issuer's franchising and consulting activities; however, over the six-month period ending November 30, 2021, the Issuer's clinical trials business improved. As the pandemic abates, the Issuer expects that some of these restrictions will be temporarily or permanently removed. Because of the persistence of the pandemic – and particularly the incidence of COVID-19 variants – the Issuer is unable to predict the course of the pandemic and the resulting restrictions or when the Issuer and its customers will be able to resume normal operations. Assuming that governmental vaccination and other programs are successful, this may occur in the near future. However, if they are not successful, these restrictions could continue indefinitely. The ultimate extent of the impact of the pandemic will depend on future developments, which are highly uncertain.

6) Issuer's Facilities

The Issuer leases premises approximately 4,500 square feet located at 6201 Bonhomme Road, Suites 460S and 466S, Houston, Texas. The lease currently provides for base rent of $3,382 per month, increasing to (i) $3,529 per month on July 1, 2020, (ii) $3,676 per month on July 1, 2021, and (iii) $3,823 per month on July 1, 2022, subject to CPI increase. The lease expires on June 30, 2023. The leased space is shared with the Issuer's subsidiaries.

In addition, two of the Company's officers lease 1,400 square feet in Houston, Texas, under a lease the term of which commenced on February 29, 2020, and will expire on February 27, 2021, at a rent of $3,449 per month; these officers have made a portion of these premises available to the Company for use as officer space, for which the Company pays them $2,817 per month.

Note 2 – Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Presentation

The interim consolidated financial statements and related disclosures have been prepared by management and are unaudited. The unaudited consolidated financial statements have been prepared using the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with Generally Accepted Accounting Principles of the United States (“GAAP”).

Consolidation Policy

The unaudited interim consolidated financial statements of the Company include the accounts of the Company, and all of its subsidiaries. All significant intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of the interim financial statements in accordance with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates. Significant estimates include assumptions about collection of accounts and notes receivable, the valuation and recognition of stock-based compensation expense, the valuation and recognition of derivative liability, valuation allowance for deferred tax assets and useful life of fixed assets.

Cash and cash equivalents

Cash equivalents are short-term highly liquid investments that are readily convertible to cash with original maturities of three months or less, at the date acquired.

Revenue recognition

The Company recognizes revenue in accordance with Accounting Standards Codification subtopic 605-10, “Revenue Recognition,” which requires that four basic criteria must be met before revenue can be recognized: (i) persuasive evidence of an arrangement exists; (ii) services have been rendered; (iii) the fee is fixed or is determinable; and (iv) collectability is reasonably assured. Determination of criteria (iii) and (iv) are based on management’s judgments regarding the fixed nature of the selling prices of the services delivered and the collectability of those amounts.

Revenues from the services rendered are recognized in proportion to the services delivered.

Any amount receivable or received, but unrecognized for revenue recognition purpose is recorded as deferred revenues.

Share-Based Payments

ASC 718, “Compensation - Stock Compensation”, prescribes accounting and reporting standards for all share-based payment transactions. In June 2018, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (“FASB”) issued ASU No. 2018-07, Compensation - Stock Compensation (Topic 718): Improvements to Nonemployee Share-Based Payment Accounting, which aligns accounting for share-based payments issued to nonemployees to that of employees under the existing guidance of Topic 718, with certain exceptions. This update supersedes previous guidance for share-based payments to nonemployees under Subtopic 505-50, Equity - Equity-Based Payments to Non-Employees. This guidance became effective for the Company on January 1, 2019. Based on completed analysis, the Company has determined that the adoption of this guidance will not have a material impact on its financial statements. The Company follows FASB guidance related to equity-based payments, which requires that equity-based compensation be accounted for using a fair value method and recognized as expense in the accompanying consolidated statements of operations. Equity-based compensation expense has been recognized as compensation expense.

Income Taxes

The Company accounts for income taxes in accordance with Accounting Standards Codification No. 740, “Income Taxes.” (“ASC 740”). This codification prescribes the use of the asset and liability method whereby deferred tax asset and liability account balances are determined based on differences between financial reporting and tax bases of assets and liabilities and for carry-forward tax losses. Deferred taxes are measured using the enacted tax rates and laws that will be in effect when the differences are expected to reverse. The Company provides a valuation allowance, if necessary, to reduce deferred tax assets to their estimated realizable value if it is more likely than not that some portion or all of the deferred tax asset will not be realized.

Deferred tax liabilities and assets are classified as current or non-current based on the classification of the related asset or liability for financial reporting, or according to the expected reversal dates of the specific temporary differences, if not related to an asset or liability for financial reporting.

The Company accounts for uncertain tax positions in accordance with the provisions of ASC 740, which provides guidance as to the determination of whether tax benefits claimed or expected to be claimed on a tax return should be recorded in the unaudited consolidated financial statements, under which a company may recognize the tax benefit from an uncertain tax position only if it is more likely than not that the tax position will be sustained on examination by the taxing authorities, based on the technical merits of the position.

The tax benefits recognized in the unaudited consolidated financial statements from such a position are measured based on the largest benefit that has a greater than 50% likelihood of being realized upon ultimate settlement. Accordingly, the Company would report a liability for unrecognized tax benefits resulting from uncertain tax positions taken or expected to be taken in a tax return. The Company elects to recognize any interest and penalties, if any, related to unrecognized tax benefits in tax expense.

Earnings per Share

The Company computes basic and diluted earnings per share amounts in accordance with Accounting Standards Codification Topic 260, “Earnings per Share.” Basic earnings per share is computed by dividing net income (loss) available to common stockholders by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding during the reporting period. Diluted earnings per share reflects the potential dilution that could occur if stock options and other commitments to issue common stock were exercised or equity awards vest resulting in the issuance of common stock that could share in the earnings of the Company. As of May 31, 2020, the company has no dilutive securities.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The Company’s financial instruments consist primarily of cash, accounts payable and accrued liabilities, notes payable - related parties, and due to related party. The carrying amounts of such financial instruments approximate their respective estimated fair value due to the short-term maturities and approximate market interest rates of these instruments.

Recently Issued Accounting Standards

Management has considered all recent accounting pronouncements issued. The Company’s management believes that these recent pronouncements will not have a material effect on the Company’s financial statements.

Note 3 – Going Concern

The accompanying unaudited consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with GAAP, which contemplate the Company’s continuation as a going concern. The Company has not generated any profits since inception and its current cash balances will not meet its working capital needs. The Company has incurred consolidated accumulated deficits of $2,979,974 and $2,633,675, respectively, as of November 30, 2021, and May 31, 2021.

The ability of the Company to continue as a going concern is dependent on the successful execution of its operating plan which includes expanding its operations and raising either debt or equity financing. There is no assurance that the Company will be able to expand its operations or obtain such financing on satisfactory terms or at all. If the Company is unsuccessful in these endeavors, it may be required to curtail or cease its operations.

The accompanying unaudited consolidated financial statements do not include any adjustments related to the recoverability or classification of asset-carrying amounts or the amounts and classification of liabilities that may result should the Company be unable to continue as a going concern.

Note 4 – Debt

Short-Term Loans

On October 8, 2019, the Company and an unrelated party entered into a line of credit agreement, under which the Company may borrow up to $15,000 in one or more advances (“Loan 1”). Each advance bears interest at the rate of 53.7% per annum and is subject to a fee of 2% of the amount advanced. The aggregate amount outstanding after each advance is paid in equal installments over a period, not to exceed 24 months. On November 30, 2021, there were advances totaling $12,376 outstanding.

On December 23, 2020, the Company and an unrelated party entered into a line of credit agreement, under which the Company may borrow up to $12,500 in one or more advances (“Loan 2”). Each advance bears interest at the rate of 25.51% per annum. On November 30, 2021, there was $12,789 due, of which $12,500 was advances and the balance interest and fees.

On July 9, 2021, the Company and an unrelated party entered into an agreement, under which that party purchased certain accounts, receipts, contract rights, and other rights of the Company in the amount of $94,875 for a net purchase price of $73,125 (“Loan 3”). Under this agreement, the Company is required to deliver 7.7% of its receipts to such party until the purchase price is delivered, against which the Company is required to make weekly payments of $1,826. This transaction is presented as a loan in the principal amount of $75,000 at the rate of interest of 26.5% per annum. Assuming that the Company makes the prescribed weekly payments, the loan will have a term of one year. On November 30, 2021, the outstanding principal amount of the loan was $80,598.

On September 30, 2021, the Company and an unrelated party entered into an agreement, under which that party purchased certain future accounts, contract rights and obligations of the Company in the amount of $32,500 for net funds of $24,260 (“Loan 4”). Under this agreement, the Company is required to make weekly payments of 25% of such accounts, contract rights and obligations, but not more than $650 per week, to such party until the purchase price is delivered. This transaction is presented as a loan in the principal amount of $32,500 at the rate of interest of 34% per annum. Assuming that the Company makes the prescribed weekly payments, the loan will have a term of 50 weeks.

On October 26, 2021, the Company and an unrelated party entered into an agreement, under which that party purchased certain future receipts for the sale of goods and services in the amount of $32,500 for net funds of $25,000. ("Loan 5"). Under this agreement, the Company is required to make weekly payments of 5% of such accounts, contract rights and obligations, with initial instalments of $1,490 per week, to such party until the purchase price is delivered. This transaction is presented as a loan in the principal amount of $32,500 at the rate of interest of 30% per annum. Assuming that the Company makes said weekly payments, the loan will have a term of 22 weeks.

Note 5 – Income Taxes

The Company provides for income taxes under ASC 740. Under the asset and liability method of ASC 740, deferred tax assets and liabilities are recorded based on the differences between the financial statement and tax basis of assets and liabilities and the tax rates in effect when these differences are expected to reverse. A valuation allowance is provided for certain deferred tax assets if it is more likely than not that the Company will not realize tax assets through future operations.

On December 22, 2017, the 2017 Tax Cuts and Jobs Act ("Tax Act") was enacted into law making significant changes to the Internal Revenue Code. Changes include, but are not limited to, a federal corporate tax rate decrease from 35% to 21% for tax years beginning after December 31, 2017, the transition of U.S. international taxation from a worldwide tax system to a territorial system and a one-time transition tax on the mandatory deemed repatriation of foreign earnings. We are required to recognize the effect of the tax law changes in the period of enactment, such as re-measuring our U.S. deferred tax assets and liabilities as well as reassessing the net realizability of our deferred tax assets and liabilities. The Tax Act did not give rise to any material impact on the consolidated balance sheets and consolidated statements of operations due to our historical worldwide loss position and the full valuation allowance on our net U.S. deferred tax assets.

Due to changes in ownership provisions of the income tax laws of United States of America, net operating loss carry forwards of approximately $2,383,979 at November 30, 2021, and $2,531,950 at May 31, 2021, for federal income tax reporting purposes are subject to annual limitations. When a change in ownership occurs, net operating loss carry forwards may be limited as to use in future years. They typically expire 20 years from when incurred.

Note 6 – Stockholders' Deficit
