Any additional material details, including footnotes to the table are below :

The 3(a)(10) court-approved issuance is structured to ensure that the $6,000,000 annual allocation to Jake P. Noch Family Office LLC must be realized each year and accrues with no interest if not fully satisfied, together with the reimbursement of all external costs, commissions, custody fees, and related expenses through additional issuance of shares under Section 3(a)(10). This allocation reflects the lawful exchange of ASKE’s bona fide obligations — including compensation for custodianship, corporate expenses, and cost incurred by Jake P. Noch Family Office LLC. on behalf of the Company — for freely tradable equity and this structure adheres to SEC rules governing the issuance of securities, with a particular focus on fairness and transparency, ensuring that the issuance of securities complies with federal securities laws (Securities Act of 1933, § 3(a)(10)).
