On March 31, 2012, the company issued 9,500,000 Series A Preferred Shares of the Issuer's stock to Mark B. Newbauer for consulting services rendered. These shares were issued pursuant to Section 4(2) of the Securities Act of 1933, as it was a transaction by an Issuer not involving a public offering. These shares were issued with a restrictive legend.

In December, 2012, a private note-holder converted a portion of his note payable to 310,000,000 shares of common stock according to the terms of said convertible note. The shares were issued at a discounted value according to the terms of the note and the Company did not receive any funds from the issuance. The shares did not bear a restrictive legend and were issued as free trading as the relevant holding period had been complied with.

In March, 2013, a private note-holder converted a portion of his note payable to 269,000,000 of common stock according to the terms of said convertible note. The shares did not bear a restrictive legend and were issued as free trading as the relevant holding period had been complied with. The note-holder loaned the proceeds from sale of said stock back to the Company in exchange for new debt.

On November 12, 2013, FINRA approved the Issuer's corporate actions by which the outstanding common and preferred shares were reversed by a ratio of 1000:1, the CUSIP number was changed and the trading symbol was changed from SBRH to NVOB.

On November 16, 2012 Paul Khan and Peter Matousek entered into a Consulting Agreement with Sebastian River Holdings Inc (Novacab International Inc) by which they received 100,000 preferred convertible shares. These shares were converted to 100,000,000 common shares which were transferred to nine shareholders.

In virtue of a Share Exchange Agreement dated September 26, 2013, Stephane Bilodeau was issued 300,000,000 common shares.
