(1) The number of shares required to satisfy the requirements of our outstanding convertible instruments exceeds the number of unissued shares. We currently have 650,000,000 shares of common stock authorized, but that number is insufficient for us to meet our obligations to certain individuals, officers, corporations and related corporations under the terms of our convertible promissory notes payable. Due to existing restrictions limiting the holder of a convertible note to receive, upon conversion, shares of common stock which will not exceed 4.9% of our issued and outstanding common stock, there is no imminent requirement that the number of our authorized capital stock be increased. At an appropriate time, we envision seeking shareholder approval of an increase in our authorized capitalization to some greater number of authorized shares, but we cannot provide any assurance that we will be able to obtain the necessary shareholder approval. If we fail to obtain shareholder approval for the increase in authorized capitalization, we may be in default under the terms of the convertible promissory notes payable. At November 22, 2017, the total shares issuable upon conversion of convertible notes payable would be approximately 1,158,404,000 shares of our common stock which exceeded the number of unissued shares our common stock by approximately 523,894,000 shares after giving effect to for our 50-to-1 reverse stock split.

List any stock split, stock dividend, recapitalization, merger, acquisition, spin-off or reorganization, either currently anticipated or that occurred within the past 12 months.

Effective as of November 10, 2016, the Company received written consents executed by shareholders of record owning an aggregate of 51.85% of the Company's issued and outstanding shares of common stock and preferred stock which authorized and approved a 50-to-1 reverse stock split for its common stock and preferred stock. On November 10, 2016, Articles of Amendment to the Articles of Incorporation were filed with the Washington Secretary of State which authorized the 50-to-1 reverse stock split with a delayed effective date of November 25, 2016. After submitting additional responses to FINRA, the Company received notice from FINRA that the subject 50-to-1 reverse stock split would have a market effective date of February 1, 2017. Immediately after effecting the subject 50-to-1 reverse stock split, the Company had 16,786,042 shares of common stock issued and outstanding and 60,000 shares of preferred stock issued and outstanding.

Item 4. Issuance History.

The following provides a list, in chronological order, of events resulting in changes in the total shares outstanding by the Company during the past two fiscal years and any interim period: including debt convertible into equity securities and any other securities or options to acquire such securities:

On March 24, 2014, the Company executed and delivered a $3,500 Convertible Promissory Note to a corporation, the Convertible Note being funded on or about its respective issuance date. The Convertible Note were not registered under the Securities Act in reliance upon an exemption from registration provided by Section 4(a)(2) of the Securities Act, which exempts transaction by an issuer not involving any public offering.

The Convertible Note bears interest at 5% and has a maturity date of March 24, 2015 at which time all principal and accrued interest shall be due and payable in full. After maturity the interest rate increases to 15%. Prepayment is permitted without any penalty. The Convertible Note is convertible by the holder, at its election, into shares of the Company's common stock at an exercise price of $.001 per share. In accordance with the terms of each Convertible Note, the holder may not convert any amount of the Convertible Note if, after giving effect to such conversion, the investor would beneficially own greater than 4.99% of the outstanding shares of the Company's common stock. On October 13, 2016, the Company modified the promissory note to reduce the conversion rate per share from $.001 to $.00025 per share. During November 2016, the corporation converted $4,345 including accrued interest into 347,600 unregistered shares of the Company's common stock at $.0125 per share to partially settle the obligation. $500 of the principle balance remains unpaid. The lower conversion price will be adjusted for regular stock splits but not adjustable for reverse stock splits which would result in highly dilutive share issuance and would impact shareholders.

During the period from November 28, 2014 to January 30, 2015, the Company executed and delivered two (2) $1,500 convertible promissory note to two corporations, which Convertible Notes were each funded on or about its issuance date. Each Convertible Note bears interest at 5% and has a maturity date of 12 months from funding at which time all principal and accrued interest shall be due and payable in full. After maturity the interest rate increases to 15%. Prepayment is permitted without penalty. The Convertible Note is convertible by the holder, at his election, into shares of the Company's common stock at an exercise price of $.0015 per share. In accordance with the terms of each Convertible Note, the holder may not convert any amount of the Convertible Note if, after giving effect to such conversion, the investor would beneficially own greater than 4.99% of the outstanding shares of the Company's common stock.

During March 2015, three firms converted $8,396 including accrued interest due under the Amended and Restated $7,500 Convertible Notes issued during February 2015 into 335,852 unregistered shares of the Company’s common stock at $.025 per share. The fair market value of the stock was $48,680 or $.145 per share on the dates of conversion which resulted in the Company recording a $40,284 loss on conversion of debt. The subject shares were not registered under the Securities Act in reliance upon an exemption from registration provided by Section 4(a) (2) of the Securities Act, which exempts transactions by an issuer not involving any public offering.

During April 2015, the Company issued 80,000 unregistered shares of the Company’s common stock to each of two individuals for service to the Company, resulting in an aggregate of 160,000 unregistered shares. These shares were valued at $.25 per share or $40,000. Compensation was calculated at the fair market value of the shares on the date earned. The subject shares were not registered under the Securities Act in reliance upon an exemption from registration provided by Section 4(a) (2) of the Securities Act, which exempts transactions by an issuer not involving any public offering.

During April 2015, $3,879 including interest was converted into 77,583 shares of the Company’s common stock at $0.05 per share to fully satisfy a $3,500 convertible promissory note dated March 17, 2014.

During April 2015, the Company’s CEO was issued 57,102 unregistered shares of the Company’s common stock as earned under his July 2012 employment agreement. These shares were valued at $.175 per share or $9,993. Compensation was calculated at the fair market value of the shares at the date earned. The subject shares were not registered under the Securities Act in reliance upon an exemption from registration provided by Section 4(a) (2) of the Securities Act, which exempts transactions by an issuer not involving any public offering.

During May 2015, a firm was issued 120,000 restricted shares of the Company’s common stock for website development and hosting. These shares were valued at $.25 per share or $30,000. The subject shares were not registered under the Securities Act in reliance upon an exemption from registration provided by Section 4(a) (2) of the Securities Act, which exempts transactions by an issuer not involving any public offering.

During May 2015, a firm was issued 4,268 restricted shares of the Company’s common stock for accounting and accounting and finance services. These shares were valued at $.246 per share or $1,050. The subject shares were not registered under the Securities Act in reliance upon an exemption from registration provided by Section 4(a) (2) of the Securities Act, which exempts transactions by an issuer not involving any public offering.

During May 2015, the Company signed a debt settlement and release agreement with an individual. Under the agreement the individual partially converted $12,000 from a $20,000 promissory note dated September 7, 2007 and the Company issued 240,000 restricted shares of the Company’s common stock at $.05. The fair market value of the stock was $70,800 or $.295 per share on the date of conversion which resulted in the Company recording a $58,800 loss on conversion of debt. The shares were issued in July 2015. The subject shares were not registered under the Securities Act in reliance upon an exemption from registration provided by Section 4(a) (2) of the Securities Act, which exempts transactions by an issuer not involving any public offering.

Item 5. Financial Statements.

Financial information for the nine months ended September 30, 2017 and 2016, are attached hereto as Exhibit A, and such financial information is incorporated herein by this reference.

PART C BUSINESS INFORMATION

Item 6. Describe the Issuer's Business, Products and Services.

A. Description of the Issuer's Business Operations.

In 2014, ReelTime Rentals, Inc. ("ReelTime" or the "Company") shifted its focus and core business and formed strategic alliances and partnerships with various individuals in the media space. The primary objective of this business was to identify, leverage and monetize individuals and companies that have been suddenly thrust into, or had received, public attention and/or media exposure as a result of, amount other things, being featured on a TV show, an impactful event, viral social media or other types of media exposure. Most individuals and entities are not prepared to monetize such exposure and oftentimes find the exposure passes without having been used to their advantage. ReelTime believes that it is uniquely positioned to capitalize on, and assist, such individuals and companies to maximize the benefits of, and the use to their advantage, such media exposure with merchandising, leverage exposure into relationships, creating and marketing new revenue streams for exiting products or launching new products.

Among the strategic alliances established in furtherance of its business, ReelTime established the ReelTime Media Group which uses the collaborative efforts of various media experts ranging from Emmy award winning producers, media distribution companies, marketing, and social media influencers. Another similar collaborative arrangement is ReelTime Media Partners which has produced television pilots and shows which aired on WeTV, and CNBC. They also produced numerous television marketing spots and commercials which have aired nationally across many media distribution platforms.

ReelTime is in the business of developing, producing, and distribution of Virtual Reality contend as well as technologies. It has end to end production, editing, and distribution capabilities for internal and external projects. ReelTime remains engaged in the foregoing business activities as it pursues its more recent endeavor to develop state of the art Virtual Reality suite and Virtual Reality distribution platform as indicated below.

In September, 2015, ReelTime launched a technically advanced Virtual Reality platform making Virtual Reality accessible worldwide at a quality never before achieved under the banner ReelTime VR. ReelTime has become actively engaged in developing and producing an end to end state of the art Virtual Reality suite and implementing a Virtual Reality distribution platform. ReelTime has continued producing Virtual Reality content which can be seen on its own proprietary mobile platform via the ReelTime VR app, the Samsung Gear VR, Oculas based distribution, Youtube and Facebook. ReelTime intends to launch its content and additional distribution portals as they emerge.

ReelTime anticipates distributing content made by third parties over its distribution network through licensing, acquisition and joint ventures.

ReelTime has developed and filed, on July 19, 2016, a patent application for a "Simultaneous Spherical Panorama Image and Video Capturing System" [Application no. 62364262]. It has been in continued development and ReelTime expects to be able to allow it to be used in consumer and commercial applications.

In August, 2016, ReelTime began production on three series shot in Virtual Reality for distribution currently via Oculas, Samsung Gear VR, and other VR distribution platforms. ReelTime also began producing resort showcases and event experiences, placing media purchases, and creating VR marketing strategies. As a result of these activities the company began receiving revenue and expanded its operations into an end to end production and distribution facility.

In the first quarter of 2017, the Company began providing media services, utilizing alternative currencies, using an on-line bartering website and a third-party provider. The Company achieved $162,000 in revenue during this period. In this third quarter of 2017, the Company achieved an additional $278,500 of revenue from these activities.

In the future, the Company anticipates that it will continue with its core media based business activities which will thereby generate sufficient revenues to expand and utilize emerging technologies and potential opportunities which may arise. The Company also anticipates that it may have the opportunity to acquire other similar media based businesses that can help and assist it to advance its core activities as summarized herein. To date, the Company has generated minimal revenue due to the lack of marketing, advertising and retention of quality staffing. As our finances permit, the Company will endeavor to hire and retain qualified engineers and developers to help protect our assets.

The Company understands that hiring industry-specific management will be required. These professionals are expected to be skilled in marketing, advertising, graphic design, multimedia production as well as audio/video internet and web based technology.

The Company experiences no existing government regulation outside of general corporation law for the states in which it operates (or will operate) and federal regulations pertinent to it as an Issuer and in the course of daily business. Management perceives no probable government regulation that would otherwise restrict the business or the plans of the Company. In that context, management believes the Company is not significantly impacted by federal, state and local environmental laws and does not have significant costs associated with compliance with such laws and regulations. The Company has two officers and makes use of consultants on an as needed basis.

There has been no delisting of the Company's securities by any securities exchange or deletion from the OTC Markets. There are no past, pending or threatened legal proceedings or administrative actions either by or against the Company that could have a material effect on the Company's business, financial condition or operations and any current, past or pending trading suspensions by a securities regulator.

The Company is currently conducting operations and has not been, at any time, a "shell company" as that term is defined in Rule 12b-2 of the Exchange Act. The Company is a non-SEC reporting company.

Material Contracts

On September 15, 2015, the Company entered into and consummated a Bill of Sales and Assignment and Assumption Agreement (the "Agreement") with Henthorn Enterprises Inc., a Washington corporation owned by Barry Henthorn. At the time of this transaction, Mr. Henthorn was not an officer, director or an affiliate of the Company. However, Mr. Henthorn is currently the Company's CEO. Pursuant to the Agreement, the Company acquired all assets and assumed all the contracts of a Virtual Reality Application known as ReelTime VR, in exchange, the Company issued a $125,000 Convertible Promissory Note. The Convertible Notes bears interest at 5% and has a maturity date of 12 months. The Convertible Note is convertible by the holder, at his election, into shares of the Company's common stock at an exercise price of $.002. On October 13, 2016, the Company modified the promissory note to reduce the conversion rate per share from $.002 to $.00025 per share. ReelTime VR, is a virtual reality distribution platform to mobile and other remote devises. The asset consists of code base and other developmental aspects along with derivative works development rights.

On October 31, 2016, the Company entered into a Services Contract and Purchase Agreement with NWBB, Inc. for ReelTime to produce and create Virtual Reality Content and certain other VR projects. The contract was valued at $80,000 in cash and cash equivalents in the form of hotel credits towards services performed by the Company. Any additional services beyond this amount will be billed separately. In November and December ReelTime produced VR content including resort showcases and other marketing materials. ReelTime continues to produce and develop content under this agreement although ongoing productions rely on continued mutual agreement.

On September 15, 2017, the Company entered into an Agreement with NWBB, Inc. to provide $2,000,000 in pre-paid media placement opportunities and services in exchange for a $2,000,000 convertible note with a conversion price of $1 per share of the Company's common stock. NWBB, Inc. may only convert shares consistent with the amount of media utilized by the Company as a direct result of signed insertion orders. The media assignments may be used on television, radio, out of home, digital display and print publications including airline magazines subject to normal placement terms excluding current contracted buys and existing agency specific or media property relationships previously entered into by the Company.

On October 19, 2017, the Company entered into 4 (four) "Work for Hire Performance Agreements" with actors to co-host the Virtual Reality travel show "In Front of View" and the Virtual Reality show "Really Twins". The contracts cover two seasons of the Virtual Reality shows defined as 6 (six) episodes per season. All work must be completed by December 31, 2018. The actors are compensated with the aggregate of 2,500,000 for the Company's unregistered common stock valued at the time at $.01 per share or $25,000. The first seasons of both VR series have been completed and shooting has begun on season two. The agreement may be terminated without cause by either party with a 30-day notice.

Safe Harbor For Forward-Looking Statements

When used in this Report, the words "may," "will," "except,"' anticipate," "continue," "estimate," "project," "intend" and similar expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27(a) of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 21(e) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 regarding events, condition, and financial trends that may affect the Company's future plans of operations, business strategy, operating results, and financial position. Management's Discussion and Analysis or Plan of Operation.

A. Plan of Operation. We generated modest revenues of $360,400 during the nine months ended September 30, 2017 from bartering transactions. For the nine months ended September 30, 2017, we incurred net loss of $102 compared to a net loss of $461,749 for the nine months ended September 30, 2016. We have an accumulated deficit since inception of $6,475,862.

For the foreseeable future, our operating plan is dependent upon both the ability to conserve existing cash resources and the ability to obtain additional capital through equity financing and/or debt financing in an effort to provide the necessary funds and cash flow to meet our obligations on a timely basis and to operate our business in an efficient and economical manner. In the event that we are unable to conserve existing cash resources and/or obtain the additional and necessary capital, the Company may have to cease or significantly curtail our operations. This could materially impact the Company's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis, which contemplates the realization of assets and satisfaction of liabilities in the normal course of business. At September 30, 2017, we have an accumulated deficit since inception of $6,475,862. We did generate $360,400 revenues during the nine months ended September 30, 2017 from bartering transactions and no revenues in the nine months ended September 30, 2016. These factors, among others, indicate that the Company might be unable to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

As of September 30, 2017, we had cash and marketable securities of $16,280 and working capital deficit of $1,716,486. This compares to cash and marketable securities of $29,353 and a working capital deficit of $1,773,621 at December 31, 2016.

Based on anticipated operating and administrative expenses, the Company will not have sufficient cash resources to finance its operations except for several months unless we are able to raise additional equity financing and/or debt financing in the immediate future. We have commenced, and will continue to pursue, efforts to raise additional equity financing and/or debt financing from a variety of sources and means. There are no assurances that we will be able to obtain any additional financing and, even if obtained, that such financing will be in a sufficient amount to be able to continue operations for a sufficient period until the Company is able to generate sufficient revenues and become profitable.

B. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations.

Results of Operations for the three months ended September 30, 2017 compared to the three months ended September 30, 2016:

Overview. We had $190,400 revenues for the three months ended September 30, 2017, and -0- revenues for the three months ended September 30, 2016. There was net income of $83,080 for the three months ended September 30, 2017 and net losses of $158,246 for the three months ended September 30, 2016. The decrease in net losses of $241,324 is attributable to the factors discussed below.

Revenues. We had $190,400 of revenues from operations for the three months ended September 30, 2017 from bartering transactions compared to -0- revenues for the three months ended September 30, 2016. Once cost of goods sold and other expenses to generate revenue are considered, we had gross margins of $160,370 and $-0- from our operations for the nine months ended September 30, 2017 and 2016, respectively. Our 2017 revenues consisted of various bartering transactions for VR and media services which the Company will exchange for travel and other goods and services. The extent to which, and the amount of revenues which may be generated from our future business operations and activities is unknown.

Expenses. Our operating expenses were $38,078 and $85,569 for the three months ended September 30, 2017 and 2016, respectively. The decrease of $47,491 was primarily attributable an approximate decrease of $75,000 for our executives compensation as we reported -0- compensation expense for the three months ended September 30, 2017 due to a revision in their compensation plans, an approximate 19,000 decrease in attorney fees related to our new virtual reality business during the three month ended September 30, 2016 and an approximate $3,000 decrease in other general and administrative expenses, offset by an approximate $9,000 increase in consulting fees and supplies for internal VR development and an approximate increase of $41,000 for a reversal of an estimated liability which was no longer necessary during the three months ended September 30, 2016.

Other Income (Expense). Our total other income (expense) was $(39,212) and $(72,677) for the three months ended September 30, 2017 and 2016, respectively. The decrease of $33,465 in expenses was attributable to a $3,840 increase in other income related to the change in market value of our marketable securities and a $29,625 decrease in net interest expense related to our notes payable and notes receivable related to lower debt discount interest expense on convertible debt compared to the three months ended September 30, 2016.

Results of Operations for the nine months ended September 30, 2017 compared to the nine months ended September 30, 2016:

Overview. We had moderate revenues of $360,400 for the nine months ended September 30, 2017 and -0- for the nine months ended September 30, 2016. There was a net loss of $102 for the nine months ended September 30, 2017 which compares with a net loss of $461,749 for the nine months ended September 30, 2016. The decrease in net losses of $461,647 is attributable to the factors discussed below.

Revenues. We had revenues from operations of $360,400 and $-0- for the nine months ended September 30, 2017 and 2016, respectively. Once cost of goods sold and other expenses to generate revenue are considered, we had gross margins of $272,530 and $-0- from our operations for the nine months ended September 30, 2017 and 2016, respectively. Our 2017 revenues consisted of various bartering transactions for VR and media services which the Company will exchange for travel and other goods and services. The extent to which, and the amount of revenues which may be generated from our future business operations and activities is unknown.

Expenses. Our operating expenses were $103,196 and $252,185 for the nine months ended September 30, 2017 and 2016, respectively. The decrease of $148,989 was primarily attributable an approximate decrease of $124,000 for our executives compensation as we reported -0- compensation expense for the nine months ended September 30, 2017 due to a revision in their compensation plans, an approximate $40,000 decrease in attorney fees related to our new virtual reality business during the nine month ended September 30, 2016 and a decrease related to a purchase agreement settlement of approximately $42,000 during the three months ended March 31, 2016, offset by an approximate $7,000 increase in travel and other expenses for our new virtual reality business, an approximate $9,000 rent expense increase for our administrative offices and an approximate increase of $41,000 for a reversal of an estimated liability which was no longer necessary during the three months ended September 30, 2016.

Other Income (Expense). Our total other income (expense) was $(169,436) and $(209,564) for the nine months ended September 30, 2017 and 2016, respectively. The decrease of $40,128 in expenses was attributable to a $2,320 increase in other income related to the change in market value of our marketable securities and a $37,808 decrease in net interest expense for our notes payable and notes receivable related to lower debt discount interest expense on convertible debt compared to the nine months ended September 30, 2016.

ReelTime's corporate offices were located at 22117 9th Avenue W, Edmonds, Washington 98020, as provided at no charge by the Company's CEO, Barry Henthorn. On January 15, 2017, ReelTime moved into offices and production facilities located at 19930 68th Avenue N.E., Kenmore, Washington 98028. The space contains a 600 square foot production space used for filming, Virtual Set development, and other production activities. There are also two recording studios being utilized in video and audio production, and post production. One of which broadcasts radio feeds for terrestrial and internet based programming. ReelTime's facility also contains administrative office space and 3 additional developer stations. The Company's CEO is paid $750 rent per month for use of the facility.

We believe that our current facilities are adequate for our operations as currently conducted and if additional facilities are required, that we could obtain them at commercially reasonable prices.

NOTE 1 – ORGANIZATION AND BASIS OF PRESENTATION BASIS

Nature of organization & business

i) Organization

ReelTime headquartered in Tacoma, Washington was incorporated on June 24, 2004, under the laws of the State of Washington.

ii) Business

The mission is to develop media specific technologies and entertainment based products. The Company is also focused on identifying existing opportunities within the media and entertainment space in order to acquire and incorporate them into its suite of offerings. ReelTime takes a broad view of current advertising, marketing and public relations trends, video and broadcast media. The increasing use of mobile devices; multi-media digital marketing and brand support and advocacy; evolving internet technology, and high-need, new-trend products and services, in an effort to increase available resources, extend services, and encourage growth. ReelTime uses multiple related marketing communications methods, channels and businesses into a profitable aggregation of cutting-edge enterprises. Those businesses assembled by ReelTime will benefit from their inter-relatedness. The Company has spent considerable efforts recently to shore up its accounting, debt structure, and compliance adherence, in order to allow it to fund its ongoing operations.

Basis of Presentation

The Company generated its first revenue in September 2006. The revenues to date are minimal, and the Company has accumulated a significant deficit. The financial statements of the Company have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America.

Use of Estimates

In preparing financial statements, management makes estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities in the balance sheet and revenue and expenses in the statement of expenses. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

For purposes of the statement of cash flows, the Company considers all highly liquid investments purchased with an original maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Marketable Securities

Marketable securities with determinable fair value are stated at fair value. Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. Equity securities are valued at closing price at the end of the current period. The Company reported a gain (loss) on marketable securities of $5,120 and $1,280 for the three months ended September 30, 2017 and 2016, respectively and $4,160 and $1,840 for the nine months ended September 30, 2017 and 2016, respectively.

Concentrations of Risk

Cash and cash equivalents deposited with financial institutions are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (“FDIC”). The Company did not hold cash in excess of FDIC insurance coverage at a financial institution as of September 30, 2017.

Property and equipment

Property and equipment is recorded at cost and depreciated on the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives. Expenditures for normal repairs and maintenance are charged to expense as incurred. The cost and related accumulated depreciation of assets sold or otherwise disposed of are removed from the accounts, and any gain or loss is included in operations.

Valuation of Long-Lived and Intangible Assets

We assess the impairment of long-lived and intangible assets periodically, or at least annually, and whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying value may not be recoverable. Factors considered important, which could trigger an impairment review, include the following: significant underperformance relative to historical or projected future cash flows; significant changes in the manner of use of the assets or the strategy of the overall business; and significant negative industry trends. When management determines that the carrying value of long-lived and intangible assets may not be recoverable, impairment is measured as the excess of the assets' carrying value over the estimated fair value. Management is not aware of any impairment changes that may currently be required; however, we cannot predict the occurrence of events that might adversely affect the reported values in the future.

Derivative Financial Instruments

The Company does not use derivative instruments to hedge exposures to cash flow, market, or foreign currency risks. The Company evaluates all of its financial instruments to determine if such instruments are derivatives or contain features that qualify as embedded derivatives. For derivative financial instruments that are accounted for as liabilities, the derivative instrument is initially recorded at its fair value and is then re-valued at each reporting date, with changes in the fair value reported as charges or credits to income. For option-based derivative financial instruments, the Company uses the Binomial option-pricing model to value the derivative instruments at inception and subsequent valuation dates. The classification of derivative instruments, including whether such instruments should be recorded as liabilities or as equity, is re-assessed at the end of each reporting period. Derivative instrument liabilities are classified in the balance sheet as current or non-current based on whether or not net-cash settlement of the derivative instrument could be required within 12 months of the balance sheet date.

Fair Value Measurements

In September 2006, the FASB issued ASC 820 (previously SFAS 157) which defines fair value, establishes a framework for measuring fair value, and expands disclosures about fair value measurements. The provisions of ASC 820 were effective January 1, 2008.

As defined in ASC 820, fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date (exit price). The Company utilizes market data or assumptions that market participants would use in pricing the asset or liability, including assumptions about risk and the risks inherent in the inputs to the valuation technique. These inputs can be readily observable, market corroborated, or generally unobservable. The Company classifies fair value balances based on the observations of those inputs. ASC 820 establishes a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs used to measure fair value. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (level 1 measurement) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (level 3 measurement).

The three levels of the fair value hierarchy defined by ASC 820 are as follows:

Level 1 – Quoted prices are available in active markets for identical assets or liabilities as of the reporting date. Active markets are those in which transactions for the asset or liability occur in sufficient frequency and volume to provide pricing information on an ongoing basis. Level 1 primarily consists of financial instruments such as exchange-traded derivatives, marketable securities and listed equities.

Level 2 – Pricing inputs are other than quoted prices in active markets included in level 1, which are either directly or indirectly observable as of the reported date. Level 2 includes those financial instruments that are valued using models or other valuation methodologies. These models are primarily industry-standard models that consider various assumptions, including quoted forward prices for commodities, time value, volatility factors, and current market and contractual prices for the underlying instruments, as well as other relevant economic measures. Substantially all of these assumptions are observable in the marketplace throughout the full term of the instrument, can be derived from observable data or are supported by observable levels at which transactions are executed in the marketplace. Instruments in this category generally include non-exchange-traded derivatives such as commodity swaps, interest rate swaps, options and collars.

Level 3 – Pricing inputs include significant inputs that are generally less observable from objective sources. These inputs may be used with internally developed methodologies that result in management's best estimate of fair value.

Revenue Recognition

The Company recognizes revenues from the sales of our products or services using the following criteria for recognition:

1) Persuasive evidence of an arrangement exists;
2) delivery has occurred or services have been rendered;
3) the seller's price to the buyer is fixed or determinable, and
4) collectable is reasonably assured.

Barter transactions represent the exchange of Company services for other services. These transactions are recorded at the estimated fair market value of the services provided or the fair value of the services received, whichever is most readily determinable. Revenue is recognized on barter and trade transactions when the services are provided. Expenses are recorded ratably over a period that estimates when the service received is utilized, or when the event occurs. Barter and trade revenues and expenses from continuing operations are included in revenue and cost of revenues, respectively.

Income taxes

Deferred income taxes are determined using the liability method for the temporary differences between the financial reporting basis and income tax basis of the Company's assets and liabilities. Deferred income taxes are measured based on the tax rates expected to be in effect when the temporary differences are included in the Company's tax return. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized based on anticipated future tax consequences attributable to differences between financial statement carrying amounts of assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases.

The income tax provision (benefit) consists of the following:

		September 30, 2017		December 31, 2016
Current	$	–	$	–
Deferred		(2,201,793)		(2,201,758)
State and local
Current		–		–
Deferred		–		–
Total		(2,201,793)		(2,201,758)
Change in valuation allowance		(2,201,793)		(2,201,758)
Income tax provision (benefit)	$	–	$	–

At September 30, 2017, the Company had a net operating loss ("NOL's") carry forward in the amount of $6,475,862 available to offset future taxable income. The Company established valuation allowances equal to the full amount of the deferred tax assets due to the uncertainty of the utilization of the operating losses in future periods. The Company has not filed its federal tax returns since inception and therefore, the NOL's will not be available to offset future taxable income until the tax returns are filed with the respective federal tax authorities.

A reconciliation of the Company's effective tax rate as a percentage of income before taxes and federal statutory rate for the periods ended September 30, 2017 and December 31, 2016 is summarized below.

		September 30, 2017		December 31, 2016
Federal statutory rate	$	(34.0)%	$	(34.0)%
State income taxes, net of federal benefits		0.0%		0.0%
Valuation allowance		34.0%		34.0%

Basic and diluted net income per share

Basic net loss per common share is computed using the weighted average number of common shares outstanding. Diluted earnings per share (EPS) include additional dilution from common stock equivalents, such as stock issuable pursuant to the exercise of stock options warrants and convertible notes. Common stock equivalents are not included in the computation of diluted earnings per share when the Company reports a loss because to do so would be anti-dilutive for periods presented. As of September 30, 2017, the Company has no options or warrants outstanding. At September 30, 2017, the total shares issuable upon conversion of convertible notes payable and other items would be approximately 1,160,062,000 shares of the Company's common stock.

The number of shares required to satisfy the requirements of the Company outstanding convertible instruments exceeds the number of unissued shares of the Company. The Company currently has 650,000,000 shares of common stock authorized, but that number is insufficient to meet the Company's obligations to certain individuals, officers, corporations and related corporations under the terms of our convertible promissory notes payable. Due to existing restrictions limiting the holder of a convertible note to receive, upon conversion, shares of common stock which will not exceed 4.9% of our issued and outstanding common stock, there is no imminent requirement that the number of our authorized capital stock be increases, At an appropriate time, the Company envisions seeking shareholder approval of an increase in the Company's authorized capitalization to some greater number of authorized shares, but the Company cannot provide any assurance that the Company will be able to obtain the necessary shareholder approval. If the Company fails to obtain shareholder approval for the increase in authorized capitalization, the Company may be in default under the terms of the convertible promissory notes payable. At September 30, 2017, the total shares issuable upon conversion of convertible notes payable would be approximately 1,160,062,000 shares of the Company's common stock which exceeded the number of unissued shares of the Company's common stock by approximately 523,048,000 shares.

Stock Compensation

The Company follows Financial Accounting Standard No. 123R (ASC 718), "Share-Based Payment" as interpreted by SEC Staff Accounting Bulletin No. 107 for financial accounting and reporting standards for stock-based employee compensation plans. It defines a fair value based method of accounting for an employee stock option or similar equity instrument.

The Company uses the Black-Scholes option valuation model for estimating the fair value of traded options. This option valuation model requires the input of highly subjective assumptions including the expected stock price volatility. There were no options outstanding for the nine months ended September 30, 2017 and 2016.

The Company recorded stock-based compensation of $-0- for the nine months ended September 30, 2017 and 2016.

Recent Issued Accounting Standards

In May 2014, the FASB issued ASU 2014-09, Revenue from Contracts with Customers (Topic 606), which supersedes the revenue recognition requirements in ASC 605, Revenue Recognition. This guidance is based on the principle that revenue is recognized to depict the transfer of goods or services to customers in an amount that reflects the consideration to which the entity expects to be entitled in exchange for those goods or services. This guidance also requires additional disclosure about the nature, amount, timing and uncertainty of revenue and cash flows arising from customer contracts, including significant judgments and changes in judgments and assets recognized from costs incurred to obtain or fulfill a contract. This guidance can be adopted either retrospectively to each prior reporting period presented, or retrospectively with a cumulative-effect adjustment recognized as of the date of adoption. The original effective date of this guidance for public entities was for annual reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2016. In August 2015, the FASB issued ASU 2015-14, Revenue from Contracts with Customers (Topic 606), to defer the effective date of this guidance by one year, to the annual reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2017, including interim periods within that reporting period. A reporting entity may choose to early adopt the guidance as of the original effective date. We do not anticipate early adoption, and are currently evaluating the impact on our financial statements upon the adoption of this guidance.

NOTE 2 – ACQUISITION

On September 15, 2015, the Company entered into and consummated a Bill of Sales and Assignment and Assumption Agreement (the "Agreement") with Henthorn Enterprises Inc., a Washington corporation owned by Barry Henthorn. At the time of this transaction, Mr. Henthorn was not an officer, director or an affiliate of the Company. However, Mr. Henthorn is currently the Company's CEO and a director.

Pursuant to the Agreement, the Company acquired all assets and assumed all the contracts of a Virtual Reality Application known as ReelTime VR. ReelTime VR, is a virtual reality distribution platform to mobile and other remote devises. The asset consists of code base and other developmental aspects along with derivative works development rights, in exchange, the Company issued a $125,000 Convertible Promissory Note. The Convertible Notes bears interest at 5% and has a maturity date of 12 months. The Convertible Note is convertible by the holder, at his election, into shares of the Company's common stock at an exercise price of $.002. On October 13, 2016, the Company modified the promissory note to reduce the conversion rate per share from $.002 to $.00025 per share.

The purchase price has been allocated to the net assets acquired upon their estimated fair values as follows:

Intangible asset – intellectual property and derivative works:	$125,000
Assumed contracts	0
Other assets	0
Total	$125,000

NOTE 3 - INTANGIBLES

Intangibles consist of intellectual property and derivative works of $125,000 acquired in the purchase of the assets of ReelTime VR from Henthorn Enterprises Inc. on September 15, 2015. The fair value of the intellectual property derivative works was calculated using the net present value of the projected gross profit to be generated over 84 months beginning in September 2015 with annual amortization of $17,857. The Company recorded amortization of intangible assets of $4,464 for the three months ended September 30, 2017 and 2016 and of $13,392 for the nine months ended September 30, 2017 and 2016.

NOTE 4 - GOING CONCERN

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis, which contemplates the realization of assets and satisfaction of liabilities in the normal course of business. The Company has incurred material recurring losses from operations. The Company has generated minimal revenues since inception and has generated losses totaling $6,475,862 since inception. In addition, the Company is experiencing a continuing operating cash flow deficiency. These factors, among others, raise substantial doubt about The Company's ability to continue as a going concern.

The Company is relying on investor funding to maintain operations. The Company will continue to pursue additional equity financing and/or debt financing while managing cash flow in an effort to provide funds and cash flow to meet its obligations on a timely basis.

The financial statements do not contain any adjustments to reflect the possible future effects on the classification of assets or the amounts and classification of liability that may result should the Company be unable to continue as a going concern.

NOTE 5 – RELATED PARTY NOTES RECEIVABLE

On April 11, 2016, the Company received an $8,000 promissory note from a related corporation. The loan bears interest at 5% and has a maturity date of April 10, 2017. After maturity the interest rate increases to 15%. In addition, at any time, the Company may convert the note into shares of the related corporation's common stock at an exercise price of $.005 per share. The unpaid balance including accrued interest was $8,950 and $8,283 at September 30, 2017 and December 31, 2016, respectively.
