REELTIME RENTALS, INC
(A Development Stage Company)
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
March 31, 2005

1. ORGANIZATION AND SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Nature of Business

Reeltime Rentals, Inc. headquartered in Bellevue, Washington was incorporated on June 24, 2004, under the laws of the State of Washington, to commercialize the renting movies in real-time to the living rooms of broadband customers nationwide. Reeltime's customers will have access to thousands of DVD-quality full screen movies without the hassles of going to the video store or mailbox, nor the inconvenience of late fees. Reeltime offers a unique, new and convenient approach to renting movies at home or elsewhere. Reeltime will utilize cutting edge technology by implementing a revolutionary new media rental delivery system that brings high quality video content direct-to-consumers, while taking unprecedented measures to combat the threat of piracy. The system adds convenience and simplicity to the entertainment experience.

Reeltime's vision in the marketplace is to create a technological revolution that allows customers to be able to point their remotes at televisions or computers and pull up a menu to select a movie, play games, or watch television content. Any movie you select would be available at your fingertips with a few button presses and at the most competitive prices available.

To date the Company has had no revenue from operations. Accordingly, the Company's activities have been accounted for as those of a "Development Stage Enterprise" as set forth in Financial Accounting Standards Board Statement No. 7 ("SFAS 7"). Among the disclosures required by SFAS 7 are that the Company's financial statements be identified as those of a development stage company, and that the financial statements disclose activity since the date of the Company's inception.

The year end of the Company is December 31.

Basis of Accounting

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared on the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Unaudited Interim Information

The information presented for the six-month period and year to date ended June 30, 2005, and for the cumulative period June 24, 2004 (Inception) to June 30, 2005 has not been audited. In the opinion of management, the unaudited interim financial statements include all adjustments, consisting only of normal recurring adjustments, necessary to present fairly the information set forth therein. The results of operations for the six-month period and year to date ended June 30, 2005, and for the cumulative period June 24, 2004 (Inception) to June 30, 2005 are not necessarily indicative of the results for the year ending December 31, 2004.

Certification Of Financial Statements

I, Alexander P. Stanczyk, President, Reeltime Rentals, Inc., hereby certify that the financial statements dated June 30, 2005 that are filed herewith and any notes thereto, present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position, results of operations and cash flows for the periods presented, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States, consistently applied.

Dated this September 12, 2005
