ABOUT EPT

Environmental Packaging Technologies (EPT) (www.eptpac.com) is a publicly traded USA based global logistics company (OTC: EPTI). It is the only US manufacturer of flexitanks, and one of the first in the field. A flexitank is a soft sided single use container for the bulk shipment of non-hazardous liquids within a 20' intermodal shipping container. Flexitanks are generally considered the least expensive and most environmentally conscious way to ship bulk non-hazardous liquids over long distances. One flexitanks can hold up to 24,000 liters of liquids.

With the introduction of its patent-pending LiquiRide product in 2016, EPT opened the market for flexitanks to be utilized in 40' and 53' containers and trailers in both dry and refrigerated configurations allowing for the first time shipments of liquid requiring temperature controls. EPT's customers have utilized the Company's state-of-the-art Flexitanks to ship a wide variety of liquids including liquid latex and other chemicals, fruit juices and concentrates, edible oils, milk, wine, petroleum based products and many others. EPT provides its products to shippers, logistics companies and end users in more than 50 countries around the world. It has offices in the US, South Korea, the Netherlands and Argentina.
