The event ended with the closing ceremony presenting the certificates to the participants and closing speech. The representative from PIKOM suggested that “Bullvester is a unique platform, unlike other closed type events, this open type presentation is creative. I believe this will be a trend in the future, to help entrepreneurs to communicate and exchange ideas, contributing to a more orderly development of the market.

Mr. C.K. Lee said, there are many outstanding and high potential businesses but most of them are lacking a platform to showcase themselves. GreenPro Capital is glad to witness these excellent businesses are actively seeking for further developments internationally. He further emphasized the importance to be positive always and actively look for resources to grow their business.

The objectives of “BULLVESTOR” is to provide a platform for entrepreneurs to present their ideas and businesses hoping to source investments and strategic aids from the international associations and/or investors. We believe it is a win-win situation where entrepreneurs can present themselves while we can identify more potential emerging growth businesses.
