

July 10 2021,

Universal Media Group Inc. (OTC: UMGP) Produces Documentaries on The Rolling Stones, Michael Jackson, The Stray Cats And The Who

Boca Raton Florida: July 9, 2021

Universal Media Group Inc. (OTC: UMGP) is pleased to announce that it will be producing four new sensational documentaries made for broadcast television on The Rolling Stones, Michael Jackson. The Stray Cats and The Who.

Universal Media Group Inc., the creator of the weekly documentary television series, Before The Fame with Mike Sherman, that airs on Viacom networks will produce episodes on the aforementioned biggest legends in both rock and roll and pop music.

Mike Sherman, the show creator and host, was privileged to interview Slim Jim Phantom, the illustrious drummer of the rockabilly pop group from the 80s, The Stray Cats. Jim discusses the bands ascent from a New York City club rockabilly band to reaching the pinnacle of pop music stardom.

In addition, Mike interviews Chuck Leavell, the current keyboard player of one of the most famous rock and roll bands of all time, The Rolling Stones. He provides insight into the complexities of working with his other band mates, Bill, Charlie, Keith and Mick.

Another much anticipated episode is currently in preproduction on the King of Pop, Michael Jackson. Mike is privileged to interview keyboard player, Greg Phillinganes, a member of The Jackson Five through the 80s and 90s in addition to touring with Michael on the “Bad” tour. Never before seen live performances will also be showcased in this episode.

Finally, Mike interviews Shel Talmy the founder and producer of both The Who and The Kinks in the early 60s. Interestingly, Sheldon graduated from Fairfax High School in Los Angeles, the same high school where legends in rock music such as Red Hot Chilli Peppers and Phil Spector hailed and graduated from. Sheldon expands upon the early days of rock and roll with artists ranging from Roger Daltry to Ray Davies.

Universal Media Group Inc. will reveal some of the greatest footage of today’s and yesterday’s biggest superstars in sports, music and entertainment on their journey to the top on Before The Fame.

Updates will be forthcoming:

Updates will be forthcoming.

Sheldon Talmy (born August 11, 1937) is an American record producer, songwriter and arranger, best known for his work in the U.K. in the 1960s with the Who, the Kinks and many others.^[1]

Talmy arranged and produced hits such as "You Really Got Me" by the Kinks, "My Generation" by the Who, and "Friday on My Mind" by the Easybeats. He also played guitar or percussion on some of his productions.

James McDonnell (born March 21, 1961), known by the stage name Slim Jim Phantom, is the drummer for Stray Cats.^[2] Alongside band mates Brian Setzer and Lee Rocker, he spearheaded the neo-rockabilly movement of the early 1980s.

Phantom currently plays in the band Kat Men with Imelda May guitarist Darrel Higham and is the host of the weekly radio show "Rockabilly Rave-up" on the satellite radio station Underground Garage.

Charles Alfred Leavell (born April 28, 1952) is an American musician. A member of the Allman Brothers Band throughout their commercial zenith in the 1970s, he subsequently became a founding member of the jazz rock ensemble Sea Level. He has served as the principal touring keyboardist and de facto musical director of The Rolling Stones since 1982. As a session musician, Leavell has performed on every Rolling Stones studio album released since 1983 with the exception of Bridges to Babylon (1997). He has also toured and recorded with Eric Clapton, George Harrison, David Gilmour, Gov't Mule and John Mayer.^[1]

About Greg Phillinganes: Gregory Arthur Phillinganes (born May 12, 1956) is an American keyboardist, singer-songwriter, and musical director based in Los Angeles, California. A prolific session musician, Phillinganes has contributed the role of keyboards to numerous albums representing a broad array of artists and genres. He has toured with notable artists, such as Stevie Wonder, Eric Clapton, David Gilmour and Toto, served as musical director for Michael Jackson, and has released two solo studio albums

About Universal Media Group Inc.:

UMGP is a digital media company that focuses on user-generated music content and a sense of community through its brand "High School Icon" and television program "Before the Fame". It focuses on cutting-edge technology through music, sports and entertainment for engagement with the millennial generation. www.umedialogroupinc.com

Contact:

Universal Media Group Inc.
Michael Sherman
ms@umedialogroupinc.com
561-908-3333

