

Life's Time Capsule Services, Inc. Becomes Current on OTC Markets and Settles Litigation

Life's Time Capsule Services, Inc. (OTC: LTCP) is pleased to announce that it has settled the lawsuits with Mintz Fraade (NY) and Bernard Findley Trust and Halitron (NV). The settlements include the unconditional release of all parties including previous officers of LTCP. The company will not be issuing any new shares, common or otherwise, as a result of the Settlement Agreements.

Additionally, LTCP is now current with all filings as is now reflected on OTC Markets. The Company's status is listed as "Pink Current Information" and the "Yield" sign has been removed from OTC Markets website.

"Now that the litigious period is behind us, we look forward to building our current business, as well as considering opportunities that have previously been presented while litigation was ongoing", commented Edward Gibstein, Interim CEO.

About Life's Time Capsule

Lifes Time Capsule Services, Inc. [d/b/a: LTCP Services, Inc.], is a technology holding company which provides services in the areas of social media, secure data storage and digital reminiscence therapy for Alzheimers patients. These services are unified under a single platform, designed in concert with Amazons S3 network infrastructure, with mobile apps available in both the iTunes and Google Play stores.

Forward Looking Statements

This press release contains forward-looking statements, including statements concerning the company's plans, objectives, goals, strategies, future events, future revenues or performance, capital expenditures, financing needs, plans or intentions relating to acquisitions, business trends and other information that is not historical information. All forward-looking statements involve risks, uncertainties, and contingencies, many of which are beyond the company's control, which may cause actual results, performance, or achievements to differ materially from anticipated results, performance, or achievements. Factors that may cause actual results to differ materially from those in the forward-looking statements include, among others, the company's ability to successfully develop and market its products and services, the company's ability to manage its growth, the effect of changing economic conditions, and other risks and uncertainties described in the company's periodic filings. The company is not obligated to update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.

