

Great Success of Goodlife Meetup in China Market-leading Nouveau Height by DRGV

On October 23rd, 2023, Dragon Capital Group Corp has successfully held Goodlife Meetup(China) in Mandarin Oriental Hotel of Shenzhen. Goodlife Chief Executive Officers in Greater China, in Taiwan, and in Japan together with representatives from numerous global distributors have attended this grand event.

Jack Guan, Executive Chairman of Dragon Capital Group Corp and Global Founder and President of GOODLIFE, has made an inspiring opening statement during the event. He also expressed heartfelt thanks to the arrival of global distributors and illustrated a better outlook for future business in Chinese market. Jack Guan pointed out that the combination of consumer market and capital market has always been an original objective of our development and improving GOODLIFE performance in Chinese market has been company's top priority.

GOODLIFE Chief Executive Officer in Greater China Albert has first extended a warm welcome to all participants present. Then he has introduced the development and progress of Dragon Capital Group Corp as well as its core competitiveness and advantages. Having shared the latest developments in life science and current status of GOODLIFE, Albert has presented a crystal clear picture of future planning to global distributors.

The event is aimed to extend company's Chinese market and improve competitiveness. Dragon Capital Group Corp is deeply committed to widening business in Greater China and bringing new dynamism to capital market. As Executive Chairman of Dragon Capital Group Corp, Jack Guan has deeply felt great potential and enormous energy hidden in Chinese market. Being in high spirits, participants present have also shared their stories and origin relations with GOODLIFE.

The event was attended by a glittering line-up of celebrities and was immersed in the tinkling of crystal glasses of champagne. Executive Chairman Jack Guan has invited many global distributors for celebrating GOODLIFE first birthday in China. Albert, Kazuhiko Takahashi, ICan, joined together, have singed the birthday song, blew out the candles and cut the cake, wishing and blessing a bright future for GOODLIFE.

Gathering strength and advancing with times, Dragon Capital Group Corp has made a successful start in China. Looking at the way ahead, we are ready to embrace a new era, step on a new journey and create a new future.