

Star8 Corp. Announces Merger with TOMAHAWK SRL

MIAMI, Florida, December 23, 2024 – Star8 Corp. (OTC: STRH), ("Star8" or the "Company"), today announced that it is merging with Italian Motorcycle EV company, TOMAHAWK SRL.

TOMAHAWK SRL, based in Abruzzo, Italy was founded in 2019 by the Scarponi brothers - Gianluca and Denis Scarponi.

Under the brand, Scarponi Motorcycles, 3 models were developed during 2020. In 2021 they established a manufacturing and R & D facility in Teramo, Abruzzo. Homologation of all 3 models for all EU countries was achieved in May 2023.

In June 2023 production commenced on all 3 models.

"Our success to date is just the catalyst for further growth. The merger with Star8 Corp. will allow us with not only access to the capital markets for funding, but also for new distribution channels into the America's and beyond."

The company plans to expand productions levels and begin marketing of its EV Motorcycles to the rest of Europe, America's and Asia.

Pursuant to the Agreement and Plan of Merger, the company is going to issue 10,000 shares of a newly created series of preferred shares. Each share of this new series has voting and conversion rights equal to 0.1% of the issued and outstanding shares of the company at time of voting or conversion. Additionally, Pino Impagliazzo will resign as an officer and director of the Company and Gianluca and Denis Scarponi will become officers and directors.
