Cirmaker Technology Increases Stake in Moralltach Global Plc Through Strategic Share Acquisition

Cirmaker Launches Share Offer Program with Significant Initial Purchase

Cirmaker Technology is pleased to announce that it has increased its majority stake in Moralltach Global Plc through the acquisition of an additional 1.16% or 6,333,200 shares, purchased from a private shareholder at $0.10 per share and implies a current valuation of approximately $54.6 million for Moralltach.

This purchase marks the official launch of Cirmaker's share offer program, a broader initiative to strengthen its position and align its capital deployment with long-term strategic holdings. It follows Cirmaker's acquisition of a controlling 50.2% stake in Moralltach in 2024, and represents a powerful reaffirmation of its confidence in the company's asset-backed business model.

While this transaction was privately negotiated and does not constitute a formal offer to other shareholders at the same price, it sets a clear tone for Cirmaker's approach to shareholder engagement and long-term value creation.

Confidence. Commitment. Momentum.

This strategic move delivers a positive message to both shareholder bases:

- Moralltach shareholders gain the assurance of continued support and investment from their majority stakeholder — reinforcing stability, credibility, and confidence in the company's future.
- Cirmaker shareholders benefit from the company's proactive investment strategy and growing exposure to high-potential, asset-backed holdings designed to generate scalable long-term returns.

“This acquisition is the first step in our newly launched share offer program and a clear demonstration of our continued belief in Moralltach's value,” said Tomas Brennan, CEO of Cirmaker Technology. “We are committed to unlocking value, driving growth, and ensuring that both Cirmaker and Moralltach shareholders benefit from the strength of this partnership.”

Cirmaker will continue to assess strategic opportunities under its share offer program, with a focus on deepening relationships with key holdings and maximizing portfolio value.
