

Auri Inc (“AURI”) announces a new cash dividend for its shareholders.

DALLAS, TEXAS – October 28, 2025 - Auri Inc, a cutting-edge driven incubating holding company releases current update report:

Today, the company is happy to announce a new cash dividend program payable to its shareholders.

Auri, Inc is in the process of entering into L.O.I with several companies that complement Auri Inc and its subsidiaries’ business plans and directions.

Adding additional inground assets with a roughly $50m Silica mining possible valuation both in the US and overseas.

Upon the completion of our Due Diligence,

Auri, Inc will be offering its shareholders a "Cash Dividend" of $0.10 a share of 25% of the company's net revenue once the stock has reached $0.10 and maintains $0.10 or greater. Shareholders will receive a distribution every quarter via their brokerage firms once

FINRA approves this corporate action, and SEC has accepted the "Cash Dividend" filings.

“The company will release the most recent reports on all inground assets for proper evaluations. We believe that the most recent economic battle cry: “Drill, baby, drill” will finally allow Auri Inc., to utilize its investments in oil and gas related products and services, bringing new life to a new and very motivated Oil and Gas industry!” Explain Edward Vakser, CEO.

Recently the company announced:

Auri Inc., and one of its subsidiary companies, are in the process of filing documents to the SEC in preparation of acquiring a Digital Asset

Treasury Company "DATCO" is also known as a "DAT" Corporation. In addition to the DATCO, we will be adding a Digital Asset Management

Platform known as a "DAM".

A digital asset treasury is the corporate practice of holding and managing cryptocurrencies, stablecoins, and other digital assets as a core component of a company's financial strategy.

While most companies hold only cash and traditional short-term securities, a digital asset treasury company (often called a DAT or DATCO) deliberately and strategically accumulates and manages digital assets.

The company is updating its shareholders with recent developments. Management continues to focus on bringing revenue producing companies to complement the full AURI Inc investments portfolio.

“Several public companies involved with Crypto currencies and “in-ground” precious assets, minerals and cash flowing properties have made significant strides with negotiations with Auri Inc. We are Lazer focused to add these projects and acquisitions to our portfolio, as can be seen with our other public companies and investments.” Stated Edward Vakser, CEO.

Recently Auri Inc entered an acquisition negotiation with a company that fits our mining and extraction plan for precious inground reserves.

“Drill baby drill! It is the latest battle cry in oil and gas industries. Auri has been developing technologies such as EVAP and other fracking and extraction supplementary equipment. We are committed to enhancing these services while keeping environmental clean. We are now entertaining offers to acquiring companies as well as Auri being acquired by a NASDAQ trading oil and gas company. Our recent negotiations with revenue producing companies are yielding great results as seen in our recent developments. We will announce these contracts as we are positioning these in all Auri Inc related wholly owned companies and subsidiaries!” explained Edward Vakser, CEO

The company announced several milestones that were recently completed.

“Our team is excited to create value for our shareholders. We have 3 more companies scheduled for a tier upgrade. Mergers and Acquisitions has been a staple of our developments concept, however, by adding digital assets and “in-ground” assets. However, acquiring revenue producing companies to the portfolio and our Crypto Currencies adds additional value to our companies.” Explained Edward Vakser/CEO

Recently The company shared several new developments:

1. Auri is preparing a launch for the new Super Token. The new Super AG Token will be trading under symbol AUSI. 2 billion tokens have been created under the AUSI on the Polygon Network and will be listed on XT.com Exchange.
2. XT.com has 148 million subscribers Under the “Gold” Package being considered by AURI.

3. BDGR was recently upgraded to PINK.
4. Several other subsidiaries' filing for OTCID
