

The Now Corporation (OTC:NWPN) Signs Letter Of Intent to Acquire An Equity Stake In A Free Speech Social Media Company

The Now Corporation (OTC:NWPN), a bio-pharmaceutical research company focused on the research, education and production of Scientific-Grade Cannabidiol (CBD) from hemp and Tetrahydrocannabinol (THC), is pleased to announce that, in an effort to reach a broader base of investors, it is looking to acquire an equity stake in a social media company with dedicated servers and private data hosted in an United States data center. Its competitive advantage rests in its ability to support free speech by not flagging or manipulating posts.

The Now Corporation is currently performing technical due diligence, which will entail examination of financial data, software and hardware components, including the potential of future expansion for the end user experience.

"Free speech is the bedrock of a functioning democracy, and Twitter is the digital town square where matters vital to the future of humanity are debated" -- Elon Musk

"Elon was right. This acquisition will support free speech, while advancing the technology to become a leader in the industry," stated Ken Williams, CEO of The Now Corporation, continuing, "we are committed to increasing membership in order to bring value to our stakeholders."

Updates will be forthcoming

About

The Now Corporation is a publicly traded, bio-pharmaceutical research company focused on the research, education and production of Scientific-Grade Cannabidiol (CBD) from hemp and Tetrahydrocannabinol (THC) to be used for medicinal purpose, while focusing on pursuing business opportunities in the growing medical and recreational marijuana sector.
