4. Buyer agrees after closing the Regulation A+ Tier 1 the Authorized shares will be reduced to 3 billion or less but can be raised again for an S-1 Registration.

About patent No.'s 9,795,097 and 10,004,188.

These patents were invented by Justin Williams and Alexander M. Woods-Leo and the venture started in 2013. The patents are in reference to A-Frame technology and are primarily designed as Outdoor/Indoor systems. The goal of this technology was to allow farmers to buy 1 row and scale up as the farmer made money from the system without having to buy an entire indoor facility. However the system was designed to be optimal in greenhouses.

Auri Inc. wishes to explain the patents at the time of closing are owned by Apex Farms Corp.

Recently, the company announced FINRA PR.

The company and its management are excited to welcome the long-awaited news from FINRA regarding trading digital assets such as crypto currencies, NFT's and other Digital Securities.

We see the future, and so do FINRA and OTC Markets. Allowing OTC Markets to trade digital securities and crypto currencies adds value and opportunities to any company that can deliver and trade their NFT's and Tokens as an added value to its shareholders.
