

NNRF, Inc. Welcomes Taylor Pech as Director of Communications, Merging Academic Excellence with Cultural Understanding and Language Expertise

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

[Reno, NV, July 2023] OTCPink: NNRI - NNRF, Inc., a holding company in the green circular economy, is pleased to announce the appointment of Taylor Pech as the new Director of Communications. With a distinguished academic background, including Graduating with Latin Honors and Phi Beta Kappa Honors from UCLA, one of the world's top universities, Pech exemplifies a commitment to academic excellence. Her profound understanding of Classical Civilization, combined with her linguistic expertise, allows her to navigate diverse communication landscapes with precision and cultural sensitivity which gives her unique expertise to drive NNRF's strategic messaging and communication initiatives.

As the Director of Communications, Pech will play a pivotal role in developing and implementing comprehensive communication strategies aligned with NNRF's vision and mission. Collaborating closely with NNRF's leadership team, she will leverage her academic background and language proficiency to shape compelling narratives, enhance brand presence, and ensure effective communication across various channels.

"We are thrilled to welcome Taylor Pech as our new Director of Communications," said Tomi Holden, CEO of NNRF, Inc. "Her outstanding academic achievements from the University of California, Los Angeles, which is renowned for its academic rigor and commitment to excellence, make her a perfect fit for NNRF. We are confident that Taylor's expertise and passion will play a vital role in expanding our market reach and effectively communicating our commitment to a greener future."

Pech's academic background enable her to connect with diverse audiences, craft compelling narratives, and convey messages with cultural nuance. Pech's ability to blend academic rigor, linguistic fluency, and strategic communication expertise will drive NNRF's communication initiatives, fostering connections with key stakeholders, investors, partners, and the general public.

"I am honored to join NNRF, a company at the forefront of driving sustainable solutions," said Taylor Pech, Director of Communications at NNRF, Inc. "My academic journey has instilled in me a deep appreciation for intellectual rigor and effective communication. I am excited to leverage my expertise to effectively communicate NNRF's mission, innovations, and dedication to a renewable future. Together, we will make a positive impact on the green circular economy."

Cautionary Note Regarding Forward-Looking Information

Certain statements in this press release are forward-looking statements and are prospective in nature. Forward-looking statements are not based on historical facts, but rather on current expectations and projections about future events, many of which, by their nature, are inherently uncertain and outside of the Company's control and are therefore subject to risks and uncertainties which could cause actual results to differ materially from the future results expressed or implied by the forward-looking statements. These statements generally can be identified by the use of forward-looking words such as may, should, will, could, intend, estimate, plan, anticipate, expect, believe or continue, or the negative thereof or similar variations. These statements include forward-looking statements regarding new revenue sources and growth plans for the Company. Those assumptions and factors are based on information currently available to the Company. Although management of the Company has attempted to identify important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those contained in forward-looking statements or forward-looking information, there may be other factors that cause results not to be as anticipated, estimated or intended. Among the key factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those projected in the forward-looking information and statements are the following: changes in general economic, business, and political conditions, including changes in the financial markets; changes in applicable laws; and the diversion of management time. Should one or more of these risks, uncertainties or other factors materialize, or should assumptions underlying the forward-looking information or statements prove incorrect, actual results may vary materially from those described herein as intended, planned, anticipated, believed, estimated, or expected. There can be no assurance that such statements will prove to be accurate, as actual results and future events could differ materially from those anticipated in such statements. Readers should not place undue reliance on forward-looking statements and forward-looking information. The forward-looking information contained in this release is made as of the date hereof and the Company assumes no obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statements or forward-looking information that are incorporated by reference herein, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise, except as required by applicable securities laws. The foregoing statements expressly qualify any forward-looking information contained herein. All subsequent written and oral forward-looking information and statements attributable to the Company or persons acting on its behalf is expressly qualified in its entirety by this notice.
