

AUTRIS PROPOSES STRATEGIC ACQUISITIONS

JANUARY 18TH, 2023

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Panama City, Republic of Panama - Autris, Inc. (OTC: AUTR), (“Autris” or “the Company”), a pioneering company dedicated to promoting freedom and sustainability, announces its proposal to acquire two key entities: EcoVillages, a community design and development company, and Vida Verde Agroforestry, a leading agroforestry company. These strategic acquisitions align with Autris' commitment to fostering freedom conscious and self-sufficient communities.

EcoVillages, known for its innovative approach to community building, focuses on creating sustainable living spaces in Latin America. Their communities are founded on the principles of their own F.I.R.S.T. Certification, emphasizing Freedom, Independence, Resilience, Sustainability, and Transparency. These core values form the bedrock of EcoVillages' community design, ensuring a harmonious balance between a freedom-oriented lifestyle and self-sustainable living.

In addition to the proposed acquisition of EcoVillages, Autris aims to enhance its sustainable portfolio by acquiring Vida Verde Agroforestry. Specializing in agroforestry projects in Central America, Vida Verde Agroforestry owns and sells parcels in teak and avocado agroforests. This strategic move underscores Autris' commitment to promoting sustainable agriculture and responsible land management practices while providing a “Plan B” second residency investment option for their clients.

Autris, as the parent company, envisions a future where our freedom and sustainability-oriented communities can be found throughout Latin America and beyond. By bringing EcoVillages and Vida Verde Agroforestry into its fold, Autris aims to create synergies that propel its mission forward. The combined expertise of these entities will contribute to the development of intentional communities that prioritize liberty, eco-sensibility, self-sufficiency, and transparency.
