

AURI presents a share reduction buy-back and uplisting program.

DALLAS, TX – May 8th, 2024., Auri Inc. (OTCPK: AURI) (the Company)

Today the company is revealing a new multifaceted program to benefit shareholders. The executives and the company's consultants assembled a share buyback program to reduce the outstanding shares and market float. The company has been assembling a combination of reducing the AS (authorized shares) and the issued and outstanding. The AS was reduced through the state filings, reducing 3 billion shares, and the Issued and Outstanding (OS) as well as the float, will be acquired through the open market through company and executives Buy-Back program.

AURI has been planning to apply for NASDAQ over several years. The strategic move today is a combination of opportunities. Currently very low PPS (price per share), provides an opportunity to acquire shares at a very low rate, retiring the shares and reducing the OS. The acquisition is determined from the daily sales volume of The Champ full line of products.

The company produces sales and revenues, and having AURI and all its publicly trading subsidiaries combined under one Holding company allows several qualifiers for NASDAQ achievable. AURI and each of its wholly owned subsidiaries recently received from the SEC their own EDGAR codes for the SEC filings. Share reduction and combined market cap brings the project closer to Qualifying for NADAQ.

“We are excited to take advantage of current PPS and trading volume for a Buy-Back and share retirement program. One part of our program is designed to have a 3rd party CPA and consultants use an authorized percentage from sales to automatically buy shares in the market. We believe that this move should help the PPS and attract more potential investors and shareholders building new confidence in the marketplace.” Stated E. Vakser/CEO.

The company will continue with more detailed updates as well as a progress report to the shareholders on a weekly basis. Building trust, confidence, and opportunity for Auri Inc shareholders is the company's ultimate goal.

Recently, the company shared exciting legal and market developments on Marijuana law in the US.

(WASHINGTON, D.C.) — The U.S. Drug Enforcement Administration will move to reclassify marijuana as a less dangerous drug, The Associated Press has learned, a historic shift to generations of American drug policy that could have wide ripple-effects across the country.

Once OMB signs off, the DEA will take public comment on the plan to move marijuana from its current classification as a Schedule I drug, alongside heroin and LSD. It moves pot to Schedule III, alongside ketamine and some anabolic steroids, following a recommendation from the federal Health and Human Services Department.

This will help fuel fast growth in the marijuana industry, with an estimated worth of nearly $30 billion. Easing federal regulations could reduce the tax burden that can be 70% or more for businesses, according to industry groups. It could also make it easier to research marijuana, since it's very difficult to conduct authorized clinical studies on Schedule I substances.

The agency's move, confirmed to the AP on Tuesday April 30th by people familiar with the matter to discuss the sensitive regulatory review, clears the last significant regulatory hurdle before the agency's biggest policy change in over 50 years can take effect.
