NOTE 1 - NATURE OF OPERATIONS

Historical Information

The Company was incorporated on December 8, 1999, under the name Kilis Inc. On June 22, 2005, the Company changed its name to Jin Pin Inc. On September 14, 2005, pursuant to a merger with Exobox Technologies Corp. the Company changed its name to Exobox Technologies Corp. (“Exobox or the Company”)

Exobox was an enterprise and home user network and data security development company formed to capitalize upon the growing need for a modern, reliable, efficient, effective and proactive network and data security solutions. Exobox was the parent company to a wholly-owned subsidiary, Exbx Energy, Inc., a Texas corporation (“Exbx Energy”). Since its formation in October, 2009. Exbx Energy, Inc. never commenced business nor obtained a federal tax id number and the company has ceased to exist in Texas.

On September 4, 2009, the Board of Directors Special Committee that was appointed to analyze any and all financing and business combinations opportunities reported that there were no new developments. Each board member was empowered, directed and authorized to pursue financing. On or about September 30, 2009, Exobox fired or laid off all of its employees and consultants, and subsequently the Company ceased to carry on business.

The Company filed a Form 15 with the Securities and Exchange Commission on July 2, 2013, which form was amended on August 19, 2013. Subsequently, on February 10, 2014, the Company’s then CEO, Shaun Irvine, filed a withdrawal of the originally filed Form 15, as amended.

Subsequent to this filing, the Company failed to file its annual return with the State of Nevada and the Company’s business charter was revoked by the State of Nevada.

The Company is currently reviewing potential acquisitions.

NOTE 2 – GOING CONCERN

As at January 31, 2022, the Company has no cash on hand, no assets and $5,106 in accounts payable. Presently the Company has no operations and is in the process of reviewing possible acquisitions. In order to continue as a going concern the Company will need to identify and acquire a suitable operating project. To date, the Company has relied on financing provided by former shareholders, officers and third parties to fund its revival and ongoing expenses. There can be no assurance that the Company will be able to locate a suitable operating project or raise any funding from either new equity financings, loans or advances to meet its future obligations. As a result, there is substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue.

COVID-19

While the Company has not had any substantive operations in the most recent two fiscal years, the recent COVID-19 pandemic could have an adverse impact on the Company going forward. COVID-19 has caused significant disruptions to the global financial markets, which may severely impact the Company's ability to raise capital and to fund acquisitions. The Company may be required to cease operations if it is unable to finance its' operations. The full impact of the COVID-19 outbreak continues to evolve as of the date of this report and is highly uncertain and subject to change. Management is actively monitoring the situation but given the daily evolution of the COVID-19 outbreak, the Company is not able to estimate the effects of the COVID-19 outbreak on its financial condition in the next 12 months. There are no assurances that the Company will be able to meet its obligations, raise funds or conclude the acquisition of any identified businesses. Further upon acquisition of any target businesses there is no guarantee these operations will be profitable.

NOTE 3 - USE OF ESTIMATES IN THE PREPARATION OF FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP) requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities, at the date of these financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

NOTE 4 – SUMMARY OF ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Fiscal Year End

The Company has selected July 31 as its fiscal year end.

Basis of Presentation

The accompanying unaudited financial statements have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles (US GAAP). In the opinion of management, all adjustments considered necessary for a fair presentation have been included. All such adjustments are of a normal recurring nature.

NOTE 4 – SUMMARY OF ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers all highly liquid investments with an original maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Basic and Diluted Loss Per Share

The Company computed basic and diluted loss per share amounts pursuant to the ASC 260 “Earnings per Share.” There are no potentially dilutive shares outstanding and, accordingly, dilutive per share amounts have not been presented in the accompanying statements of operations.

Income Taxes

Income taxes are recognized in accordance with ASC 740, “Income Taxes”, whereby deferred income tax liabilities or assets at the end of each period are determined using the tax rate expected to be in effect when the taxes are actually paid or recovered. A valuation allowance is recognized on deferred tax assets when it is more likely than not that some or all of these deferred tax assets will not be realized.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

The Company has implemented all new accounting pronouncements that are in effect and that may impact its financial statements and does not believe that there are any other new accounting pronouncements that have been issued that might have a material impact on its financial position or results of operations.
