The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Estimates include, among other things, determining the depreciable lives of property and equipment and intangible assets. Actual results may differ from those estimates, and the differences may be material to the financial statements.

Advertising Expenses

Advertising costs are expensed as incurred are included in the SG&A expenses in the accompanying statement of operations.

Cost of Revenue

Income Tax Expense

The Company pays federal corporate income taxes on its taxable income and incurs a liability for state income taxes when appropriate.

There is no income tax provision for the twelve months ended December 31, 2020 and 2021 due to net operating losses for which there is no benefit currently available. The Company had net operating losses of $1,684,657 as of 5/31/16.

The Company has never experienced any losses related to these balances.

Improvements and replacements of property and new equipment purchases are capitalized over $2,500 per item. Expenditures for maintenance and repairs are charged against operations in the year incurred. Upon retirement or other disposition of property, applicable cost and accumulated depreciation are removed from the accounts and any gains and losses are included in the reporting of operations. The estimated useful life of the office condominium is 27.5 years and the furniture is 7 years.

Allowance for Doubtful Accounts

In order to assess the collectability of our trade accounts receivable, the Company monitors the current creditworthiness of each customer and analyzes the balances aged beyond the customer's credit terms. These evaluations may indicate a situation in which a certain customer cannot meet its financial obligations due to deterioration of its financial viability, credit ratings, or bankruptcy. The allowance requirements are based on current facts and are reevaluated and adjusted as additional information is received. Trade accounts receivable are subject to an allowance for doubtful accounts when it is probable that the balance will not be collected. Accounts receivable are ultimately written off when collection efforts have been exhausted and there is no likelihood of collection. For the period ended December 31, 2020 and December 31, 2021, the Company did not have an outstanding balance for accounts receivable.

Club 28 is a new hospitality development that the Company invested, which requires ongoing investment from the Company prior to its grand opening.

Claims and Litigation

In the ordinary course of business, the Company has been and will become involved in certain legal claims and litigation. As of December 31, 2021, the company did not have any pending legal claims and litigation.

5. Related Party Transactions

Loans from Shareholders

From time to time, Hugo M. Cancio, the issuer's CEO, has advanced funds to the Company for a variety of general administrative expenses and various other costs. As of December 31, 2021, Mr. Cancio advanced $115,537 as a short-term, unsecured loan with one year maturity and a one percent (1%) annual interest rate that may be prepaid at any time. The Company has the option to renew these advances upon mutual agreement with Mr. Cancio.

Sale of Katapulk Marketplace, LLC

As a result of the COVID-19 Outbreak, the Company experienced significant liquidity concerns in March 2020 and the Company's CEO (Hugo Cancio) provided cash liquidity to the Company by purchasing Katapulk Marketplace, LLC ("Katapulk") from the Company on April 1, 2020 for the full value reported on the Company's balance sheet of $69,257 and a 5% perpetual royalty to Fuego based on gross profit through Katapulk. Katapulk began operations in December 2020 and through December 31, 2021, the Company received $401,222 in royalty payments from Katapulk.

6. Stockholders' Equity

Common Stock and Preferred Series 'A' Stock

The Company has 60,000,000 shares of Common Stock authorized with a par value of $0.001 per share ("Common Stock"), and 15,000,000 shares of Preferred Series 'A' Stock authorized with a par value of $0.001 per share ("Preferred Stock"). All Common Stock have equal voting rights, are non-assessable, and have one vote per share. Voting rights are not cumulative, and therefore, the holders of more than 50% of the Common Stock could elect all directors of the Company. There are currently 24,326,827 shares of the Company's Common Stock issued and outstanding. All 10,000,000 shares of Preferred Stock have been designated as Preferred Series "A" Stock and are issued and outstanding.

7. Subsequent Events

The Company evaluated subsequent events from December 31, 2021 through the time of issuance of this financial report on April 15, 2022, and a few factors continue to contribute negatively to the Company's operations since 2019.

U.S.-Cuban Political Relations

On June 4, 2019, the U.S. Department of State issued a notice that prohibits U.S. travelers from going to Cuba via cruise ships, among other restrictions (https://www.state.gov/united-states-restricts-travel-and-vessels-to-cuba/). As a result, the Company's revenue in 2019 and 2020 significantly declined because the majority of its revenue was sourced through a strategic agreement with an international cruise ship operator for Cuban ports of call. While the Company is working to rebalance its efforts in other international markets, it is unknown if or when this travel ban will be removed and this activity can resume.

COVID-19 Pandemic

On January 30, 2020, the World Health Organization ("WHO") announced a global health emergency because of a new strain of coronavirus ("COVID-19 Outbreak") and the risks to the international community as the virus spreads globally beyond its point of origin. In March 2020, the WHO classified the COVID-19 Outbreak as a pandemic, based on the rapid increase in exposure globally.

On March 27, 2020, President Trump signed into law the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act ("CARES Act"). The CARES Act, among other things, includes provisions relating to refundable payroll tax credits, deferment of employer side social security payments, net operating loss carryback periods, alternative minimum tax credit refunds, modifications to the net interest deduction limitations, increased limitations on qualified charitable contributions, and technical corrections to tax depreciation methods for qualified improvement property. It also appropriated funds for the Small Business Administration ("SBA") Paycheck Protection Program ("PPP") loans that are forgivable in certain situations to promote continued employment, as well as Economic Injury Disaster Loans to provide liquidity to small businesses harmed by COVID-19. The Company received certain SBA loans totaling $273,580 and SBA EIDL advances totaling $14,000, which were personally guaranteed by the Company's CEO (Hugo Cancio). As of May 31, 2021, the Company received full forgiveness of its PPP loan of $64,180.

As of today, given the continued evolution of the COVID-19 outbreak and the ongoing political straining of the U.S.-Cuba relationship, the Company continues to see a significant decrease in demand for its services.

8. Going Concern

Certain accounting standards require management to assess whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the entity's ability to continue as a going concern within one year after these financial statements are issued.

Our primary need for liquidity is to fund working capital requirements of our businesses, capital expenditures, and for general corporate purposes, including debt repayment. We have incurred significant losses and experienced negative operating cash flows for the past three years, and accordingly, the Company has taken a number of actions to continue to support of operations and meet its obligations.

During 2021, we undertook actions to monetize the value of certain projects that were inactive and had limited expectations for successful launch or ultimate profitability.

We acknowledge that we continue to face a challenging political environment and while we continue to experience the ongoing effects of the COVID-19 Pandemic, we are focused on new opportunities across all international markets that increase our liquidity and business operations. We continue to explore ways to unlock value across our range of assets and knowhow. We continue to right-size and redeploy our assets. Nevertheless, if we continue to experience operating losses, and we are not able to generate additional liquidity or secure additional sources of funds, substantial doubt exists related to the Company's ability to continue as a going concern.
