ENZOLYTICS, INC.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 1. Organization and Business

Enzolytics, Inc. (“Enzolytics” or the “Company”) is a Delaware corporation originally formed in the United Kingdom on July 28, 2004. On November 25, 2004, the Company changed its name to Falcon Media Services, Ltd. On November 12, 2008, the Company changed its name to Extreme Mobile Coatings Corp., Ltd. On March 2, 2009 and re-domiciled in Delaware and at the same time the Company changed its name to Extreme Mobile Coatings Worldwide Corp. On May 19, 2010, the Company changed its name to Structural Enhancement Technologies Corp. (“Structural”). On November 16, 2012, the Company changed its name to Eco-Petroleum Solutions, Inc. (“Eco-Petroleum”). On September 11, 2017, the Company changed its name to Immunotech Laboratories, Inc. On March 22, 2018, the Company changed its name to Enzolytics, Inc. (“Enzolytics”). On May 21, 2020, the Company re-domiciled in Wyoming but on November 4, 2020 the Company re-domiciled to Delaware.

Enzolytics is a biotechnology company, whose products consist of multiple distinct drug development proprietary technologies: Immunotherapy, immune modulators, fully human monoclonal antibodies and an artificial intelligence (AI) platform for health care developments. The Company has clinically tested anti-HIV therapeutics. Additionally, the Company has created a proprietary cell line that produces fully human monoclonal antibodies that target and neutralizes the HIV virus.

Merger Agreement

On November 16, 2020, the Company (having been renamed, immediately prior to this Holding Company Reorganization, from “Enzolytics, Inc.” to “ENZC SUB, Inc.”) completed a corporate reorganization (the “Holding Company Reorganization”) pursuant to which ENZC SUB, Inc., (the “Predecessor”) became a direct, wholly-owned subsidiary of a newly formed Delaware corporation, Enzolytics, Inc. (the “Holding Company”), which became the successor issuer. In other words, the Holding Company is now the public entity. The Holding Company Reorganization was effected by a merger conducted pursuant to Section 251(g) of the Delaware General Corporation Law (the “DGCL”), which provides for the formation of a holding company without a vote of the stockholders of the constituent corporations.

In accordance with Section 251(g) of the DGCL, Enzolytics Merger Corp. (“Merger Sub”), another newly formed Delaware corporation and, prior to the Holding Company Reorganization, was an indirect, wholly owned subsidiary of the Predecessor, merged with and into the Predecessor, with the Predecessor surviving the merger as a direct, wholly owned subsidiary of the Holding Company (the “Merger”). The Merger was completed pursuant to the terms of an Agreement and Plan of Merger among the Predecessor, the Holding Company and Merger Sub, dated November 16, 2020 (the “Merger Agreement”).

On November 30, 2020, the Company consummated the Merger Agreement which involved the formation of two wholly-owned operating subsidiaries, Biogenysis, Inc., (“Biogenysis”) and Virogenetics, Inc., (“Virogenetics”). Biogenysis was formed to acquire the intellectual property rights of a license owned by certain officers of BioClonetics Immunotherapeutics, Inc., (“BioClonetics”) and Virogenetics which was formed to acquire the intellectual property rights of a licensed owned by a controlling stockholder of Enzolytics. Both of the newly formed subsidiaries are Texas Corporations.

In connection with the Holding Company Reorganization, all outstanding shares of common stock and preferred stock of the Predecessor were automatically converted into identical shares of common stock or preferred stock, as applicable, of the Holding Company on a one-for-one basis, and the Predecessor’s existing stockholders and other holders of equity instruments, became stockholders and holders of equity instruments, as applicable, of the Holding Company in the same amounts and percentages as they were in the Predecessor prior to the Holding Company Reorganization.

The Holding Company adopted a certificate of incorporation (the “Certificate”) and bylaws (the “Bylaws”) that are, in all material respects, identical to the certificate of incorporation and bylaws of the Predecessor immediately prior to the Holding Company Reorganization, with the possible exception of certain amendments that are permissible under Section 251(g)(4) of the DGCL.

As part of the business combination of BioClonetics, Inc. and Enzolytics, Inc., the controlling shareholder of Enzolytics agreed to transfer 35,100,000 shares of its Series A Preferred Stock and 231,000,000 shares of its common stock, which represented Enzolytics control block, to three individuals of BioClonetics, who became officers of the Company. As a result, the three individuals obtained a majority voting interest in Enzolytics, resulting in change in the majority ownership control in Enzolytics. The business combination was accounted for as a business combination pursuant to Financial Accounting Standards Board (“FASB”) Accounting Standards Codification (“ASC”) Topic 805, Business Combinations. The Company has elected not to apply pushdown accounting for the change in control. As a result, Enzolytics capital structure will continue to be reported as it was prior to November 30, 2020.

Following the business combination, the Company issued 204,430,000 shares of its Series B Convertible Preferred Stock to officers of BioClonetics who owned the intellectual property rights to the U.S. Provisional Patent Application No. 63/078,482, filed September 15, 2020, relating to NOVEL HIV-BINDING PEPTIDES for treating, preventing and reducing the risks of HIV, including all patents issuing therefrom and any foreign counterparts thereof.

In addition, the Company issued 90,750,000 shares of its Series B Convertible Preferred Stock to the controlling stockholder of Enzolytics who owned the intellectual property rights to U.S. Patent No. 7,479,538, entitled Irreversibly- Inactivated pepsinogen fragment and Pharmaceutical composition the same for detecting preventing and treating HIV and U.S. Patent No. 8,066,982, Irreversibly - Inactivated pepsinogen fragment and Pharmaceutical composition compressing the same for detecting preventing and treating HIV, including all patents issuing therefrom and any foreign counterparts thereof.

Note 2. Basis of Presentation

Principles of Consolidation

The accompanying consolidated financial statements of Enzolytics and its subsidiaries and have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the U.S. (“U.S. GAAP”). All intercompany transactions and account balances have been eliminated in consolidation.

Liquidity

The accompanying consolidated financial statements have been prepared assuming that the Company will continue as a going concern. The Company has incurred an operating losses since inception and as of December 31, 2020, the Company has incurred accumulated deficit of $29,533,234. The Company has funded its operations through the issuances of notes payable to investors and sales of Series C Convertible Preferred Stock.

The Company evaluated whether there are any conditions and events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about its ability to continue as a going concern within one year beyond the filing of this

ENZOLYTICS, INC.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Annual Report. In 2021, the Company has raised $2,000,000 in sales of Series E Convertible Preferred Stock and additional $950,000 in sales of subscribed Series C Convertible Preferred Stock. On May 12, 2021, the Company entered into a distribution agreement with a company to distribute the Company's anti-HIV-1 therapeutic ITV-1 in the countries of India, Pakistan, UAE, Indonesia, Philippines, Nigeria, Benin and Togo, Kenya, Tanzania, Rwanda, Libya, Uganda, North Sudan, Egypt, Morocco, and Tunisia. The Company received $1,000,000 in cash from the distribution agreement. As a result, the Company believes there are sufficient funds to continue operations and research and development programs for at least 12 months from the date of this report.

Note 3. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Use of estimates

The preparation of consolidated financial statements in conformity with U.S. GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses at the date of the consolidated financial statements and during the reporting periods, and to disclose contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the consolidated financial statements. Actual results could differ from those estimates. The most significant estimates relate to the fair value of securities underlying stock-based compensation expense and other equity awards.

Significant risks and uncertainties

The Company's operations are subject to a number of factors that may affect its operating results and financial condition. Such factors include, but are not limited to: the clinical and regulatory development of its products, the Company's ability to preserve its cash resources, the Company's ability to add product candidates to its pipeline, the Company's intellectual property, competition from products manufactured and sold or being developed by other companies, the price of, and demand for, Company products if approved for sale, the Company's ability to negotiate favorable licensing or other manufacturing and marketing agreements for its products, and the Company's ability to raise capital.

The Company currently has no commercially approved products. As such, there can be no assurance that the Company's future research and development programs will be successfully commercialized. Developing and commercializing a product requires significant time and capital and is subject to regulatory review and approval as well as competition from other biotechnology and pharmaceutical companies. The Company operates in an environment of rapid change and is dependent upon the continued services of its employees and consultants and obtaining and protecting its intellectual property.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers all highly liquid investments with an original maturity of three months or less at the date of purchase to be cash equivalents.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are recorded at cost and depreciated using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets. Repairs and maintenance costs are charged to expense as incurred.

The estimated useful lives for property and equipment are as follows:

Office and computer equipment

3-7 years

ENZOLYTICS, INC.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Machinery and equipment

5-10 years

For the years ended December 31, 2020 and 2019, depreciation expense was $16,964.

Impairment of Long-Lived Assets

The Company regularly reviews the carrying value and estimated lives of its long-lived assets, to determine whether indicators of impairment may exist which warrant adjustments to carrying values or estimated useful lives. Should an impairment exist, the impairment loss would be measured based on the excess over the carrying amount of the asset's fair value. For the years ended December 31, 2020 and 2019, the Company has not recognized any impairment losses.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The Company has no financial assets or liabilities that are measured at fair value on a recurring basis. FASB ASC Topic 820, Fair Value Measurement Disclosure, prioritizes inputs used in measuring fair value into a hierarchy of three levels: Level 1- unadjusted quoted prices for identical assets or liabilities traded in active markets; Level 2- inputs other than quoted prices included within Level 1 that are either directly or indirectly observable; and Level 3- unobservable inputs in which little or no market activity exists, therefore requiring an entity to develop its own assumptions that market participants would use in pricing. The carrying amounts of the Company's financial instruments, including cash, accounts payable, notes payable to investors and the Crowdfunding convertible notes approximate their fair values due to the short-term nature of these items.

Stock-Based Compensation

The Company accounts for its stock-based compensation expense in accordance with ASC Topic 718, Compensation—Stock Compensation ("ASC 718"). ASC 718 requires all stock-based payments to employees, directors and non-employees to be recognized as expense based on their grant date fair values. For equity-based payment awards, the Company recognizes compensation expense over the service period using the straight-line method.

On January 1, 2019, the Company adopted ASU No. 2018-07, Improvements to Non-employee Share-Based Payment Accounting, which expands the scope of ASC 718, Compensation—Stock Compensation to include share-based payments issued to non-employees for goods or services. Consequently, the accounting for share-based payments to non-employees and employees are substantially aligned.

Research and Development Costs

Research and development expenses primarily consist of costs associated with the preclinical and clinical development of the Company's product candidates. Research and development costs are expensed as incurred.

Convertible Instruments

The Company evaluates and accounts for conversion options embedded in its convertible instruments as follows:

Stock-settled debt under ASC Topic 480, Distinguishing Liabilities From Equity ("ASC 480"). The Company has issued certain convertible notes to investors which provides these investors to convert the notes into a variable number of shares with an aggregate fair value equal to the notes outstanding principal balance.

ENZOLYTICS, INC.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

All other convertible instruments, the Company evaluates embedded conversion features within convertible debt under ASC Topic 815, Derivatives and Hedging (“ASC 815”) to determine whether the embedded conversion feature(s) should be bifurcated from the host instrument and accounted for as a derivative at fair value with changes in fair value recorded in earnings. If the conversion feature does not require derivative treatment under ASC 815, the instrument is evaluated under ASC 470-20, Debt with Conversion and Other Options (“ASC 470-20”). As of December 31, 2020 and 2019, there were no conversion features that met the definition of a derivative.

Under the ASC 470-20, an entity must separately account for the liability and equity components of the convertible debt instruments that may be settled entirely or partially in cash upon conversion in a manner that reflects the issuer's economic interest cost. The effect of ASC 470-20 on the accounting for convertible debt instruments is that the equity component is required to be included in the additional paid-in capital in the consolidated balance sheets and the value of the equity component is treated as a debt discount which is then amortized over the term of the related debt to its earliest date of redemption.

The Company also records deemed dividends for the intrinsic value of conversion options embedded in its Series C Convertible Preferred Stock issuances based on the fair values of the Series C Convertible Preferred Stock and warrants and the differences between the Company's common stock price at the date of the transaction for the effective conversion price.

Warrants

The Company evaluates and accounts for warrants granted pursuant to ASC 480 and ASC 815 to determine whether the warrants are classified as a liability or equity.

Income Taxes

The Company account for income taxes pursuant to ASC Topic 740, Income Taxes. Under ASC Topic 740, deferred tax assets and liabilities are determined based on temporary differences between the bases of certain assets and liabilities for income tax and financial reporting purposes. The deferred tax assets and liabilities are classified according to the financial statement classification of the assets and liabilities generating the differences.

Loss per Common Share

Basic and diluted net loss per share is presented in conformity with ASC Topic 260, Earnings per Share, (“ASC 260”) for all periods presented. In accordance with this guidance, basic and diluted net loss per common share was determined by dividing net loss applicable to common stockholders by the weighted-average common shares outstanding during the period.

Subsequent events

Subsequent events have been evaluated through the date these financial statements were issued. See Note 11.

all entities for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2021, including interim periods within those fiscal years. The Company is currently evaluating the impact of this new standard.

In August 2020, the FASB issued ASU No. 2020-06, Accounting for Convertible Instruments and Contracts in an Entity's Own Equity ("ASU 2020-06"), which simplifies the accounting for certain financial instruments with characteristics of liabilities and equity, including convertible instruments and contracts in an entity's own equity. The standard eliminates the liability and equity separation model for convertible instruments with a cash conversion feature. As a result, after adoption, entities will no longer separately present in equity an embedded conversion feature for such debt. Additionally, the embedded conversion feature will no longer be amortized into income as interest expense over the instrument's life. Instead, entities will account for a convertible debt instrument wholly as debt unless (1) a convertible instrument contains features that require bifurcation as a derivative under ASC Topic 815, Derivatives and Hedging, or (2) a convertible debt instrument was issued at a substantial premium. Additionally, the standard requires applying the if-converted method to calculate convertible instruments' impact on diluted earnings per share ("EPS"). The standard is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2021, with early adoption permitted for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2020. The Company is currently evaluating the impact of this new standard.

Note 4. Notes payable to investors

As of December 31, 2021 and 2020, the balance of the notes payable to investors were as follows

	As of December 31,
	2021	2020
Principal amount	$ 417,300	$ 417,300
Less debt discount	-
Carrying amount	$ 417,300	$ 417,300

The following is a description of the notes payable to investors:

Short-term notes payable as of December 31, 2021 and 2020, consisted, in part, of two separate notes given to the same holder, one for $100,000, dated November 3, 2009, and the other for $50,000, dated January 11, 2010. Both notes had six-month terms and accrued interest at 8% per annum. As of December 31, 2020, and December 31, 2019, both notes were in default and, as such, the holder has the right to convert the amounts to shares of restricted common stock at a 25% discount to the thirty-day average closing price prior to the date of conversion. Subsequent to December 31, 2010, the holder agreed not to convert the debt to shares and to settle these obligations for $150,000, plus accrued interest, in connection with the completion of a merger transaction with Landmark Consulting, Inc. The transaction with Landmark was not completed by the Company. Subsequently, on February 14, 2012, the Company issued 50,000 shares of registered common stock to the holder (post reverse stock split) in satisfaction of $50,000 in principal on the notes. The balance remaining is $140,000.00 and was subject to the 251G reorganization and is not convertible into ENZC shares but is now debt recognized as convertible debt of the private entity ENZC Sub, Inc. ("Predecessor"). In October of 2021 two investors contributed $125,000 each to fund Robustomed, Inc.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

On April 13, 2012, the Company issued a promissory note, due October 31, 2012, to a stockholder for $15,000. The note carries an interest rate of 10% per annum, and may be either repaid, at the election of the note holder in cash plus the issuance of shares of common stock of the Company in the amount of $30,000 in value, or by the conversion of the principal and interest due into a total of $45,000 in value of common stock of the Company, along with additional warrants to purchase common stock of the Company with an additional value of $10,000, with such warrants being exercisable within one year from the date of issuance, and shall have an exercise price equal to 50% of the average closing price of the common stock of the Company on the five trading days prior to exercise. As of December 31, 2020, and December 31, 2019, the promissory note was in default. The promissory note is guaranteed by shares of common stock of the Company owned by James W. Zimbler, a Director and stockholder of the Company and was subject to the 251G reorganization and is not convertible into ENZC shares but is now debt recognized as convertible debt of the private entity ENZC Sub, Inc. ("Predecessor").

On September 25, 2013, the Company issued an $50,000 10% unsecured convertible note to an investor due December 24, 2013. Under the terms of the note agreement, the note may be repaid with appropriate interest to the investor by the Company on the earlier of the due date or the date the Company raises in excess of $500,000 from its current capital formation activities, or all or a portion of the principal and accrued and unpaid interest may be converted, at the election of the investor into shares of common stock of the Company at a price equal to 85% of the market price (meaning the average of the lowest two trading prices for the five-day trading period before the date of conversion) of the Company's common stock. As of December 31, 2020, and December 31, 2019, the promissory note was in default, and the Company obtained a written waiver from the investor dated March 26, 2014, and a subsequent verbal waiver, confirming that all terms and conditions contained in the promissory note would remain in effect as the Company was continuing with its capital formation activities. Further, on February 11, 2014, the Company issued 100,000 shares of common stock to the note holder, with a value of $5,000, as an incentive to continue working with the Company on its capital formation and other merger activities and was subject to the 251G reorganization and is not convertible into ENZC shares but is now debt recognized as convertible debt of the private entity ENZC Sub, Inc. ("Predecessor").

On October 18, 2013, the Company issued an $100,000 10% unsecured convertible note due January 16, 2014 to the same investor as the September 25, 2013 note. Under the terms of the note agreement, the note may be repaid with appropriate interest to the investor by the Company on the earlier of the due date or the date the Company raises in excess of $750,000 from its current capital formation activities, or all or a portion of the principal and accrued and unpaid interest may be converted, at the election of the investor into shares of common stock of the Company at a price equal to 85% of the market price (meaning the average of the lowest two trading prices for the five day trading period before the date of conversion) of the Company's common stock. As of December 31, 2020, and December 31, 2019, the promissory note was in default, and the Company obtained a written waiver from the investor dated March 26, 2014, and a subsequent verbal waiver, confirming that all terms and conditions contained in the promissory note would remain in effect as the Company was continuing with its capital formation and other merger activities. This loan was subject to the 251G reorganization and is not convertible into ENZC shares but is now debt recognized as convertible debt of the private entity ENZC Sub, Inc. ("Predecessor").

A debt purchase agreement was entered in on January 29, 2015. On February 10, 2015, the Company issued a total of 10,000,000 shares to Mr. Mergenthaler in settlement of $190,000 of the amount due him, reducing the total amount owed of the note payable from $283,500 to the amount of $71,500. On December 31, 2020 and 2019, the balance was $59,800 and was subject to the 251G reorganization and is not convertible into ENZC shares but is now debt recognized as convertible debt of the private entity ENZC Sub, Inc. ("Predecessor").

the investor in cash or converted into shares of the Company's common stock at the lower of (i) 50% of the lowest closing bid price for the 30 trading days immediately prior to a conversion date or (ii) at $0.0001 per share. The investor's right to convert the note will be triggered upon the occurrence of one of the following: (i) 6 months from the date of said note, (ii) changed in control of the Company, (iii) the filing of a registration statement or offering, or (iv) election by the investor. On November 16, 2020, in connection with the Company entering into a Securities Exchange Agreement, this note was converted into shares of its Series C Convertible Preferred stock.

Note 5. Crowdfunding convertible notes

On November 30, 2020, the Company assumed the responsibilities of the Crowdfunding convertible notes issued by BioClonetics to various investors as part of its business combination agreement. On November 30, 2020, the outstanding balance of the Crowdfunding convertible notes was $654,606 consisting various investor notes ("Investor Notes" or "Investor Note"). As a result, the Company recorded an expense of $654,606 to general and administrative expenses in its consolidated statements of operations for the year ended December 31, 2020, and corresponding amount to Crowdfunding convertible notes on its consolidated balance sheet for the Company's servicing responsibilities for these notes. The Crowdfunding convertible notes are stock-settled debt under ASC 480.

The Crowdfunding convertible notes consisted of the following: (1) the Convertible Crowdfunding Notes Financing Arrangement (the "Convertible Financing Arrangement") and (2) the Simple Agreement for Future Equity Financing arrangement (the "SAFE Financing Arrangement").

Summary of the Convertible Financing Arrangement of BioClonetics

As of November 30, 2020, the outstanding balance of the Convertible Financing Arrangement was $265,738. Each of the Investor Notes has a maturity date of November 30, 2020 and provides for an interest rate of 2%. However, BioClonetics may not prepay the Investor Notes prior to the maturity date without the written consent of 51% of the investors.

In the event that the BioClonetics issues and sells shares of its stock to investors (the "Equity Investors") on or before the date of the repayment in full of the Investor Notes in a transaction or series of transactions pursuant to which BioClonetics issues and sells shares of its stock resulting in gross proceeds to the BioClonetics of at least $1,500,000 (excluding the conversion of the notes and any other debt) (a "Qualified Financing"), then it converts into common stock at conversion price equal to the lesser of (i) 70% of the per share price paid by the investors or (ii) the price equal to the quotient of $15,000,000 divided by the aggregate number of outstanding common shares of BioClonetics as of immediately prior to the initial closing of the Qualified Financing (assuming full conversion or exercise of all convertible and exercisable securities then outstanding other than the notes.)

If BioClonetics consummates a sale (as defined in each Investor's Note Agreements) prior to the conversion or repayment in full of the Investor Notes then at the closing of such sale in full satisfaction of BioClonetics obligations under the Investor Notes, BioClonetics will pay to the investor an aggregate amount equal to the greater of (a) the aggregate amount of interest then outstanding under the Investor Notes plus (one multiplied by the outstanding principal amount of the Investor Notes) or (b) the amount the investor would have been entitled to receive in connection with such sale if the aggregate amount of principal and interest then outstanding under the Investor Notes had been converted into shares of common stock of BioClonetics immediately prior to the closing of such sale.

The Investor Notes provide for certain event of default provisions as defined in the agreement that provide for acceleration of the outstanding principal amounts and all unpaid accrued interest. However 51% of the interest of the investors may waive the event of default. In addition, any term of the Investor Notes may be amended or waived with the written consent of BioClonetics and 51% interest of the investors.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Summary of the SAFE Financing Arrangement of BioClonetics

As of November 30, 2020, the outstanding balance of the SAFE Financing Arrangement was $388,328 having a maturity date of November 30, 2020.

If there is an equity financing as defined in the SAFE Financing Arrangement in each Investors Note Agreements before the expiration or termination of this instrument, BioClonetics will automatically issue to each investor a number of shares of SAFE preferred stock, which is defined as the shares of a series of preferred stock issued to the investor in an equity financing, having the identical rights, privileges, preferences and restrictions as the shares of standard preferred stock, except that such series will have (i) no voting rights, other than required by law; (ii) a per share liquidation preference and conversion price for purposes of price-based anti-dilution protection equal to the conversion price; and (iii) dividend rights based on the conversion price equal to the purchase amount divided by the conversion price which is defined as either: (1) the SAFE price which means the price per share equal to the Valuation Cap divided by the BioClonetics Capitalization or (2) the discount price, which means the price per share of the standard preferred stock sold in the equity financing multiplied by 70% whichever calculation results in a greater number of shares of SAFE preferred stock.

If there is a liquidity event before the expiration or termination of this instrument, the investor will, at its option, either (i) receive a cash payment equal to the purchase amount as defined in the Note Agreement or (ii) automatically receive from BioClonetics number of shares of common stock equal to the purchase amount divided by the liquidity price, which means the price per share equal to $10,000,000 divided by the liquidity capitalization as defined in the Note Agreement if the investor fails to select the cash option.

Company's obligations to the investors of both the Convertible Financing Arrangement and SAFE Financing Arrangement of BioClonetics

Since the underlying obligation to the investors is a BioClonetic obligation as it relates to a sale of the company and capital raises at the Company believes that neither of these scenarios will ever happen, the Company offered the following three options to the investors to settle the Crowdfunding convertible notes:

Option 1: The investor may elect to hold its note until a conversion event occurs such as a future Series A financing round or when the Company is acquired.

Option 2: The investor may elect to have the Company repay the notes along with the 2% interest.

Option 3: The investor may elect to exchange its notes for each $5.00 note investment into 1 share of Series D Preferred Stock.

Note 10. Stockholders' Deficit

Preferred Stock

The Company's certificate of designation authorizes the following classes of Preferred Stock: Series A, Series B and Series C.

Series A

Shares Authorized. Up to 60,000,000 shares at par value of $0.0001 per share.

Designation and Rank. The Series A Preferred Stock shall rank: (i) senior to any other class or series of outstanding preferred shares or series of capital stock of the Company; (ii) prior to all of the Company's common stock, no par value per share; (iii) prior to any class or series of capital stock of the Company hereafter created not specifically ranking by its terms senior to or on parity with any Series A Preferred Stock of whatever subdivision (collectively, with the common stock and the existing preferred stock, "Junior Securities"); and (iv) on parity with any class or series of capital stock of the Company hereafter created specifically ranking by its terms on parity with the Series A Preferred Stock ("Parity Securities") in each case as to distributions of assets upon liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Company, whether voluntary or involuntary (all such distributions being referred to collectively as "Distributions").

Dividends. The holders of the Series A Preferred Stock are not entitled to receive dividends.

Super Majority Voting Rights. The record holders of the Series A Preferred Shares shall have the right to vote on any matter with holders of common stock voting together as one (1) class. The record holders of the Series A Preferred Shares shall have that number of votes (identical in every other respect to the voting rights of the holders of other series of voting preferred shares and the holders of common stock entitled to vote at any regular or special meeting of the shareholders) equal to that number of common shares which is not less than 51% of the vote required to approve any action, which Delaware law provides may or must be approved by vote or consent of the holders of other series of voting preferred shares and the holders of common shares or the holders of other securities entitled to vote, if any. For purposes of determining the number of votes, each one (1) share of the Series A Preferred shall have voting rights equal to (x) 0.019607 multiplied by the total issued and outstanding common stock eligible to vote at the time of the respective vote (the "Numerator"), divided by (y) 0.49, minus (z) the Numerator.

Redemption Rights. There are no redemption rights.

Liquidation Preference. In the event of any liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Company, either voluntary or involuntary, the holders of shares of Series A Preferred Stock shall be entitled to receive, immediately after any distributions to senior securities required by the Company's Certificate of Incorporation or any certificate of designation, and prior in preference to any distribution to Junior Securities but in parity with any distribution to Parity Securities, an amount per share equal to $.01 per share. If upon the occurrence of such event, and after payment in full of the preferential amounts with respect to the Senior Securities, the assets and funds available to be distributed among the holders of the Series A Preferred Stock and Parity Securities shall be insufficient to permit the payment to such holders of the full preferential amounts due to the holders of the Series A Preferred Stock and the Parity Securities, respectively, then the entire assets and funds of the Company legally available for distribution shall be distributed among the holders of the Series A Preferred Stock and the Parity Securities, pro rata, based on the respective liquidation amounts to which each such series of stock is entitled by the Company's Certificate of Incorporation and any certificate(s) of designation relating thereto.

Series B

Shares Authorized. Up to 465,000,000 shares at par value of $0.0001 per share.

Designation and Rank. The Series B Preferred Stock shall be subordinate to and rank junior to all indebtedness of the Company as well as the Series A Preferred Stock to the extent provided in the Certificate of Designation for the Series A Preferred Stock with the Series B Preferred Stock on the same footing as the Common Stock and Series A Preferred Stock.

Dividends. The holders of the Series B Preferred Stock are not entitled to receive dividends.

Voting Rights. The holders of Series B Preferred Stock shall have the right to cast 10 votes for each share held of record on all matters submitted to a vote of holders of the Corporation's common stock, including the election of directors, and all other matters as required by law. There is no right to cumulative voting in the election of directors. The holders of Series B Preferred Stock shall vote together with all other classes and series of common stock of the Company as a single class on all actions to be taken by the common stockholders of the Company except to the extent that voting as a separate class or series is required by law.

Liquidation Preference. In the event of any dissolution, liquidation or winding up of the Company whether voluntary or involuntary, the holders of Series B Preferred Stock shall be entitled to participate in any distribution out of the assets of the Company on an equal basis per share with the holders of the Common Stock and Series A Preferred Stock.

Conversion Rights. The holders of Series B Preferred Stock shall have conversion rights as follows: Each share of Series B Preferred Stock shall be convertible at the option of the holder thereof and without the payment of additional consideration by the holder thereof, at any time, into shares of Common Stock in accordance with the stock designations filed with the office of the Delaware Secretary of State

Issuances of Series B Convertible Preferred Stock

During the year ended December 31, 2020, the Company issued 50,000,000 shares of Series B Preferred Stock relating to consulting services recognized in 2019. Refer to Note 9 Stock-Based Compensation Expense for all other Series B Convertible Preferred Stock issuances.

Series C

Shares Authorized. Up to 10,000,000 shares at par value of $0.0001 per share.

Securities Exchange Agreements

On November 16, 2020, the Company entered into Securities Exchange Agreements with two investors. Under the terms of the Securities Exchange Agreements, the Company issued 941,078 shares of its Series C Convertible Preferred Stock and 188,215,600 warrants to purchase 188,215,600 shares of its common stock in exchange for payment of various notes and accrued interest totaling $470,539 to these investors. Each share of the Series C Convertible Preferred Stock is convertible at price of $0.005 anytime at the option of the investors. The warrants have an exercise price of $0.00750 per share and expire on November 16, 2023. The Company valued the Series C Convertible Preferred Stock at a price $0.50 per share which was based on subsequent subscription agreements entered in December 2020 (discussed below).

Both the Series C Convertible Preferred Stock and the warrants are equity instruments under ASC 480 and ASC 815-40. On November 16, 2020, the Company initially recorded a beneficial conversion feature of $470,445 based on the fair values of the Series C Convertible Preferred Stock and warrants and the difference between the Company's common stock price. The Company estimated the fair value of the warrants using the Black-Scholes option pricing model based on the following assumptions: (1) expected volatility of 398%, (2) risk-free rate of 0.24% and (3) 3 year contractual term.

The Company recorded the beneficial conversion feature of $470,445 in its consolidated statement of changes in stockholders' deficit for the year ended December 31, 2020. On November 16, 2020, since the Series C Convertible Preferred Stock does not have a stated maturity date and is convertible anytime at the option of the investors, the beneficial conversion feature is fully amortized at issuance and recorded as a deemed dividend. Since the Company has an accumulated deficit, the deemed dividend was charged against additional paid-in capital.

Subscription Agreements

In December 2020, the Company entered into subscription agreements to issue Series C Convertible Preferred Stock to the same two investors who were investors in the Securities Exchange Agreements on November 16, 2020. Under the terms of the subscription agreements, the investors purchased 1,763,324 shares of Series C Convertible Preferred Stock and warrants to purchase 1,763,324 shares of the Series C Convertible Preferred Stock at a price of $0.50 per share resulting in a carrying value of $881,662.

ENZOLYTICS, INC.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Each share of the Series C Convertible Preferred Stock is convertible at price of $0.005 into shares of common stock anytime at the option of the investors. The warrants have an exercise price of $0.00750 per share and a term of three years and are exercisable anytime.

As of December 31, 2020, the Company has not issued the 1,763,324 shares of the Series C Convertible Preferred Stock. As a result, the Company has recorded $176 to Preferred Stock Subscribed based on the par value of $0.0001 and the remaining balance of $881,486 was record to Additional Paid-in Capital Subscribed in its consolidated balance sheet as of December 31, 2020.

The subscription agreements consisted of the Company receiving cash proceeds of $805,000 from the investors and the investors exchanging various notes and accrued interest totaling $76,662 for Series Convertible Preferred Stock.

Both the Series C Convertible Preferred Stock and the warrants are equity instruments under ASC 480 and ASC 815-40. In December 2020, the Company initially recorded a beneficial conversion feature of $881,662 based on the fair values of the Series C Convertible Preferred Stock and warrants and the difference between the Company's common stock prices on the dates of the subscription agreements. The Company estimated the fair value of the warrants using the Black-Scholes option pricing model based on the following assumptions: (1) expected volatility of 392%, (2) risk-free rate of 0.17% and (3) 3 year contractual term.

The Company recorded the beneficial conversion feature of $881,662 in its consolidated statement of changes in stockholders' deficit for the year ended December 31, 2020. Since the Series C Convertible Preferred Stock does not have a stated maturity date and is convertible anytime at the option of the investors, the beneficial conversion feature is fully amortized at the issuance dates and recorded as a deemed dividend. Since the Company has an accumulated deficit, the deemed dividend was charged against additional paid-in capital.
