5) Issuer's Business, Products and Services

The purpose of this section is to provide a clear description of the issuer's current operations. In answering this item, please include the following:

A. Summarize the issuer's business operations (If the issuer does not have current operations, state "no operations")

The Bokoo TV OTT platform will offer an affordable TV like experience with hundreds of live channels and On Demand available on the wed, mobile device apps, Roku, Amazon Fire, Samsung and other prominent smart TV platforms targeting and genres of content and focused not only on English language but content focused on the diaspora populations globally i.e. Indian, Russian, Filipino, Chinese, Vietnamese etc. in their native languages, first in North America and then globally.

[4] The financial statements requested pursuant to this item must be prepared in accordance with US GAAP or IFRS by persons with sufficient financial skills.

The total diaspora population in North America now approaches 60 Million people led by these countries & regions of origin - India, Mexico, Russian, China, Vietnam, Pakistan, Philippines followed by Central/South America rest of Africa, Asia and the Caribbean. Creating our own Bamboo channels both in English and in other native languages and partnering with both content creators, content owners and aggregators who will manage their own branded channels to upload and control the content, programming and look and feel of their the Bokoo TV platform will be able to get to scale across the ROKU, Amazon Fire Stick, Android, Chromecast, IOS and Apple TV platforms.

Becoming a leading OTT presence for the Diaspora communities on all platforms, for both linear, VOD, and live channels, with a hybrid, affordable monthly subscription model with a free first month and a limited advertising option to achieve scale and continuous ongoing monthly revenue and a premium based service to use without commercials.

Our target audience will be able to adjust the platform to their choice of native languages which will be supported included English, Spanish, Hindi, Tagalog, Russian, Chinese, Vietnamese, Arabic, and German, And the channel lineup will also adjust to start with their native language channels instead of scrolling through the channel list.

B. Please list any subsidiaries, parents, or affiliated companies.

Bokoo TV, Inc.

C. Describe the issuers' principal products or services.

Streaming media channels, content and services to the Diaspora communities within the United States

6) Issuer's Facilities

The goal of this section is to provide a potential investor with a clear understanding of all assets, properties or facilities owned, used or leased by the issuer and the extent in which the facilities are utilized.

In responding to this item, please clearly describe the assets, properties or facilities of the issuer, give the location of the principal plants and other property of the issuer and describe the condition of the properties. If the issuer does not have complete ownership or control of the property (for example, if others also own the property or if there is a mortgage on the property), describe the limitations on the ownership.

If the issuer leases any assets, properties or facilities, clearly describe them as above and the terms of their leases.

The Company leases shared office space in 26 S Rio Grande St #2072, Salt Lake City, UT 84101. Due to the recent pandemic, the Company determined it was not in its best interest to secure any long term lease right now but rather to have the ability/flexibility to scale up or down as needed.

TRANSNATIONAL GROUP, INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES
NOTES TO CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS - UNAUDITED
November 30, 2022

1. BASIS OF PRESENTATION

The accompanying unaudited Consolidated Financial Statements of Transnational Group, Inc. (“Transnational Group,” “we,” “us,” “our,” or the “Company”), have been prepared in accordance with the instructions to interim financial reporting as prescribed by the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”). The results for the interim periods are not necessarily indicative of results for the entire year. In the opinion of management, the unaudited Consolidated Financial Statements contained in this report include all known accruals and adjustments necessary for a fair presentation of the financial position, results of operations, and cash flows for the periods reported herein. Any such adjustments are of a normal recurring nature.

Going Concern

The accompanying Consolidated Financial Statements have been prepared on a going concern basis of accounting, which contemplates continuity of operations, realization of assets and liabilities and commitments in the normal course of business. The accompanying Consolidated Financial Statements do not reflect any adjustments that might result if the Company is unable to continue as a going concern. The Company does not generate significant revenue, and has negative cash flows from operations, which raise substantial doubt about the Company’s ability to continue as a going concern. The ability of the Company to continue as a going concern and appropriateness of using the going concern basis is dependent upon, among other things, raising additional capital. Historically, the Company has obtained funds from investors since its inception through sales of our securities. The Company will also seek to generate additional working capital from increasing sales from its operations, and continue to pursue its business plan and purposes.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

This summary of significant accounting policies of Transnational Group is presented to assist in understanding the Company’s Consolidated Financial Statements. The Consolidated Financial Statements and notes are representations of the Company’s management, which is responsible for their integrity and objectivity. These accounting policies conform to accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America and have been consistently applied in the preparation of the Consolidated Financial Statements.

Accounts Receivable

The Company has not yet extended credit to its customers. Accounts receivable are customer obligations due under normal trade terms. Once the Company resumes offering credit to its customers, we will perform continuing credit evaluations of our customers’ financial condition. Management will review accounts receivable on a regular basis, based on contractual terms and how recently payments have been received to determine if any such amounts will potentially be uncollected. The Company will include any balances that are determined to be uncollectible in its allowance for doubtful accounts. After all attempts to collect a receivable have failed, the receivable would be written off. The balance of the allowance account at November 30, 2022 and February 28, 2022 were both zero.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires the use of estimates and assumptions by management in determining the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, disclosures of contingent liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates. Since the Company has limited operations, estimates are primarily used in measuring liabilities, fair value assumptions in accounting for business combinations and analyzing goodwill, intangible assets, and long-lived asset impairments and adjustments.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Company considers all highly liquid investments with an original maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents. As of November 30, 2022, the Company had a cash balance of $301.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are stated at cost, and are depreciated or amortized using the straight-line method over the following estimated useful lives:

Furniture, fixtures & equipment	7 Years
Computer equipment	5 Years
Commerce server	5 Years
Computer software	3 - 5 Years
Leasehold improvements	Length of the lease

Since the Company had no depreciable assets, depreciation expense was zero for the nine months ended November 30, 2022.

Revenue Recognition

During the period, the Company had no revenue. However, when we do record revenue, it will be in accordance with ASC 606. The deferred revenue and customer deposits as of November 30, 2022, and February 28, 2022 were both zero.

Research and Development

Research and development costs are expensed as incurred. Total research and development costs were zero for the nine months ended November 30, 2022.

Advertising Costs

The Company expenses the cost of advertising and promotional materials when incurred. Total advertising cost was zero for the nine months ended November 30, 2022.

Fair value of financial instruments

The Company's financial instruments, including cash and cash equivalents and notes payable, are carried at cost, which approximates their fair value, due to the relatively short maturity of these instruments. As of November 30, 2022 and February 28, 2022, the Company's notes payable have stated borrowing rates that are consistent with those currently available to the Company and, accordingly, the Company believes the carrying value of these debt instruments approximates their fair value.

Fair value is defined as the price to sell an asset or transfer a liability, between market participants at the measurement date. Fair value measurements assume that the asset or liability is (1) exchanged in an orderly manner, (2) the exchange is in the principal market for that asset or liability, and (3) the market participants are independent, knowledgeable, able and willing to transact an exchange. Fair value accounting and reporting establishes a framework for measuring fair value by creating a hierarchy for observable independent market inputs and unobservable market assumptions and expands disclosures about fair value measurements. Considerable judgment is required to interpret the market data used to develop fair value estimates. As such, the estimates presented herein are not necessarily indicative of the amounts that could be realized in a current exchange. The use of different market assumptions and/or estimation methods could have a material effect on the estimated fair value.

ASC Topic 820 established a nine-tier fair value hierarchy which prioritizes the inputs used in measuring fair value. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (level 1measurements) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (level 3 measurements). These tiers include:

- Level 1, defined as observable inputs such as quoted prices for identical instruments in active markets;
- Level 2, defined as inputs other than quoted prices in active markets that are either directly or indirectly observable such as quoted prices for similar instruments in active markets or quoted prices for identical or similar instruments in markets that are not active; and

- Level 3, defined as unobservable inputs in which little or no market data exists, therefore requiring an entity to develop its own assumptions, such as valuations derived from valuation techniques in which one or more significant inputs or significant value drivers are unobservable.

Indefinite Lived Intangibles and Goodwill Assets

The Company accounts for business combinations under the acquisition method of accounting in accordance with ASC 805, "Business Combinations," where the total purchase price is allocated to the tangible and identified intangible assets acquired and liabilities assumed based on their estimated fair values. Significant estimates in valuing certain intangible assets include, but are not limited to, future expected cash flows from acquired customer lists, acquired technology, and trade names from a market participant perspective, useful lives and discount rates. Management's estimates of fair value are based upon assumptions we believe to be reasonable, but which are inherently uncertain and unpredictable and, as a result, actual results may differ from estimates. The purchase price is allocated using the information currently available, and may be adjusted, up to one year from acquisition date, after obtaining more information regarding, among other things, asset valuations, liabilities assumed and revisions to preliminary estimates. The purchase price in excess of the fair value of the tangible and identified intangible assets acquired less liabilities assumed is recognized as goodwill.

The Company tests for indefinite lived intangibles and goodwill impairment in the fourth quarter of each year and whenever events or circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of the asset exceeds its fair value and may not be recoverable. In accordance with its policies, during the quarter ended February 28, 2022, the Company performed a qualitative assessment of indefinite lived intangibles and goodwill related to any acquisitions completed during the fiscal year.

The impairment test was conducted by the Company and included a three-step approach to determine whether it is more likely than not that impairment exists. It was determined that during the nine months ended February 28, 2022 that no triggering event had occurred that may have compromised the value of the goodwill and intangible assets recorded by the Company. Because it was determined, after step one, that it is not more likely than not, that impairment exists, no further analysis was conducted. The steps are as follows:

1. Based on the totality of qualitative factors, determine whether the carrying amount of the intangible asset may not be recoverable. Qualitative factors and key assumptions reviewed include the following:

   - Increases in costs, such as labor, materials or other costs that could negatively affect future cash flows. The Company assumed that costs associated with labor, materials, and other costs should be consistent with fair market levels. If the costs were materially higher than fair market levels, then such costs may adversely affect the future cash flows of the Company or reporting units.

   - Financial performance, such as negative or declining cash flows, or reductions in revenue may adversely affect recoverability of the recorded value of the intangible assets. During our analysis, the Company assumes that revenues should remain relatively consistent or show gradual growth month-to-month and quarter-to-quarter. If we report revenue declines, instead of increases or flat levels, then such condition may adversely affect the future cash flows of the Company or reporting units.

   - Legal, regulatory, contractual, political, business or other factors that could affect future cash flows. During our analysis, the Company assumes that the legal, regulatory, political or business conditions should remain consistent, without placing material pressure on the Company or any of its reporting units. If such conditions were to become materially different than what has been experienced historically, then such conditions may adversely affect the future cash flows of the Company or reporting units.

   - Entity-specific events such as losses of management, key personnel, or customers, may adversely affect future cash flows. During our analysis, the Company assumes that members of management, key personnel, and customers will remain consistent period-over-period. If not effectively replaced, the loss of members of management and key employees could adversely affect operations, culture, morale and overall success of the company. In addition, if material revenue from key customers is lost and not replaced, then future cash flows will be adversely affected.

- Industry or market considerations, such as competition, changes in the market, changes in customer dependence on our service offerings, or obsolescence could adversely affect the Company or its reporting units. We understand that the markets we serve are constantly changing, requiring us to change with them. During our analysis, we assume that we will address new opportunities in service offering and industries served. If we do not make such changes, then we may experience declines in revenue and cash flow, making it difficult to re-capture market share.

- Macroeconomic conditions such as deterioration in general economic conditions or limitations on accessing capital could adversely affect the Company. During our analysis, we acknowledge that macroeconomic factors, such as the economy, may affect our business plan because our customers may reduce budgets for our services. If there are material declines in the economy, which lead to reductions in revenue then such conditions may adversely affect the Company.

2. Compare the carrying amount of the intangible asset to the fair value.

3. If the carrying amount is greater than the fair value, then the carrying amount is reduced to reflect fair value.

Business Combinations

The acquisition of subsidiaries will be accounted for using the purchase method. The cost of the acquisition will be measured at the aggregate of the fair value, at the acquisition date, of assets received, liabilities incurred or assumed, and equity instruments issued by the Company in exchange for control of the acquiree. Any costs directly attributable to the business combination are expensed in the period incurred. The acquiree's identifiable assets and liabilities will be recognized at their fair values at the acquisition date.

Goodwill arising on acquisition will be recognized as an asset and initially measured at cost, being the excess of the cost of the business combination over the Company's interest in the net fair value of the identifiable assets, liabilities and contingent liabilities recognized.

Stock-Based Compensation

As of November 30, 2022, the Company had no stock-based compensation arrangements. However, if issued, the Company will address the accounting for share-based payment transactions in which an enterprise receives employee services in exchange for either equity instruments of the enterprise or liabilities that are based on the fair value of the enterprise's equity instruments or that may be settled by the issuance of such equity instruments. The transactions will be accounted for using a fair-value-based method and recognized as expenses in our statement of operations.

Stock-based compensation expense recognized during the period will be based on the value of the portion of stock-based payment awards that is ultimately expected to vest. The stock-based compensation expense recognized in the consolidated statements of operations during the nine months ended November 30, 2022 was $738,743.

Basic and Diluted Net Income (Loss) per Share Calculations

Income (Loss) per Share dictates the calculation of basic earnings per share and diluted earnings per share. Basic earnings per share are computed by dividing income available to common shareholders by the weighted-average number of common shares available. Diluted earnings per share is computed similar to basic earnings per share except that the denominator is increased to include the number of additional common shares that would have been outstanding if the potential common shares had been issued and if the additional common shares were dilutive.

Dilutive per share amounts are computed using the weighted-average number of common shares outstanding and potentially dilutive securities, using the treasury stock method if their effect would be dilutive.

Recently Adopted Accounting Pronouncements

The Company does not elect to delay complying with any new or revised accounting standards, but to apply all standards required of public companies, according to those required application dates. Management reviewed accounting pronouncements issued during the nine months ended November 30, 2022, and no pronouncements were adopted during the period.

Recently Issued Accounting Pronouncements Not Yet Adopted

In June 2016, the FASB issued Accounting Standards Update No. 2016-13 (ASU 2016-13) "Financial Instruments-Credit Losses (Topic 326): Measurement of Credit Losses on Financial Instruments" which requires the measurement and recognition of expected credit losses for financial assets held at amortized cost. ASU 2016-13 replaces the existing incurred loss impairment model with an expected loss methodology, which will result in more timely recognition of credit losses. ASU 2016-13 is effective for annual reporting periods, and interim periods within those years, beginning after December 15, 2022. We are currently in the process of evaluating the impact of the adoption of ASU 2016-13 on our consolidated financial statements.

In January 2017, the FASB issued 2017-04, Intangibles - Goodwill and Other (Topic 350): Simplifying the Test for Goodwill Impairment. The amendments in this ASU simplify the subsequent measurement of goodwill by eliminating Step 2 from the goodwill impairment test and eliminating the requirement for a reporting unit with a zero or negative carrying amount to perform a qualitative assessment. Instead, under this pronouncement, an entity would perform its annual, or interim, goodwill impairment test by comparing the fair value of a reporting unit with its carrying amount and would recognize an impairment change for the amount by which the carrying amount exceeds the reporting unit's fair value; however, the loss recognized is not to exceed the total amount of goodwill allocated to that reporting unit. In addition, income tax effects will be considered, if applicable. This ASU is effective for fiscal years, and interim periods within those fiscal years, beginning after December 15, 2022. Early adoption is permitted. The Company is currently evaluating the impact of this ASU on its consolidated financial statements and related disclosures.

Income Taxes

The Company uses the asset and liability method of accounting for income taxes. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the future tax consequences attributable to financial statements carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases and operating loss and tax credit carry-forwards. The measurement of deferred tax assets and liabilities is based on provisions of applicable tax law. The measurement of deferred tax assets is reduced, if necessary, by a valuation allowance based on the amount of tax benefits that, based on available evidence, is not expected to be realized. For the nine months ended November 30, 2022, we used the federal tax rate of 21% in our determination of the deferred tax assets and liabilities balances.

	For the nine months ended November 30, 2022
Current tax provision:
Federal
Taxable income	$	-
Total current tax provision	$	-
Deferred tax provision:
Federal
Loss carryforwards	$	-
Change in valuation allowance	$	-
Total deferred tax provision	$	-

3. REVENUE RECOGNITION

Although the Company currently does not have any revenue, when revenue recognition resumes, the Company will record the transactions in accordance with ASU 2014-09 Revenue from Contracts with Customers and all subsequent amendments to the ASU (collectively, "ASC 606"). In accordance with ASC 606, revenues are recognized when control of the promised goods or services is transferred to our customers, in an amount that reflects the consideration we expect to be entitled to in exchange for those goods or services.

The core principles of revenue recognition under ASC 606 includes the following five criteria:

1. Identify the contract with the customer
Contract with our customers may be oral, written, or implied. A written and signed contract stating the terms and conditions is the preferred method and is consistent with most customers. The terms of a written contract may be contained within the body of an email, during which proposals are made and campaign plans are outlined, or it may be a stand-alone document signed by both parties. Contracts that are oral in nature are consummated in status and pitch meetings and may be later followed up with an email detailing the terms of the arrangement, along with a proposal document. No work is commenced without an understanding between the Company and our customers, that a valid contract exists.

2. Identify the performance obligations in the contract

Our sales and account management teams define the scope of services to be offered, to ensure all parties are in agreement and obligations are being delivered to the customer as promised. The performance obligation may not be fully identified in a mutually signed contract, but may be outlined in email correspondence, face-to-face meetings, additional proposals or scopes of work, or phone conversations.

3. Determine the transaction price

Pricing is discussed and identified by the operations team prior to submitting a proposal to the customer. Based on the obligation presented, third-party service pricing is established, and time and labor are estimated, to determine the most accurate transaction pricing for our customer. Price is subject to change upon agreed parties, and could be fixed or variable, milestone focused or time and materials.

4. Allocate the transaction price to the performance obligations in the contract

If a contract involves multiple obligations, the transaction pricing is allocated accordingly, during the performance obligation phase (criteria 2 above).

5. Recognize revenue when (or as) we satisfy a performance obligation
The Company will evaluate the performance obligations as revenue recognition materializes.

4. LIQUIDITY AND OPERATIONS

The Company had a net loss of $802,218 for the nine months ended November 30, 2022, and net cash used in operating activities of $62,972.

As of November 30, 2022, the Company did not have short-term borrowing relationship with any lenders.

While the Company hopes that its capital needs in the foreseeable future may be met by operations, there is no assurance that the Company will be able to generate enough positive cash flow to finance its growth and business operations in which event, the Company may need to seek outside sources of capital. There can be no assurance that such capital will be available on terms that are favorable to the Company or at all.

5. BUSINESS ACQUISITIONS

On July 18, 2021, the Company completed the acquisition of On OTT Now, Inc. ("On OTT Now"). As of that date, the Company's operating subsidiary, Bokoo TV, Inc. ("Bokoo TV"), merged with On OTT Now and the name of the combined subsidiary was Bokoo TV. The total purchase price of $7,500,000, was paid in the form of the issuance of ten thousand (75,000) shares of the Company's Series B Convertible Preferred Stock, at a liquidation preference of one hundred dollars ($100) per share.

Under the purchase method of accounting, the transactions were valued for accounting purposes at $7,500,000, which was the fair value of WebTegrity at the time of acquisition. The acquisition date estimated fair value of the consideration transferred and purchase price allocation consisted of the following:

Current assets	$	-
Fixed assets		-
Liabilities		-
Net assets		-
Brand name		-
Trade Secrets		4,500,000
Goodwill		3,000,000
Total purchase price	$	7,500,000
Issuance of Series B Convertible Preferred Stock	$	7,500,000

The On OTT Now acquisition is based on a preliminary purchase price allocation, and include identifiable intangible assets, which were based on their estimated fair values as of the acquisition date. The excess of purchase price over the estimated fair value of the net tangible and identifiable intangible assets acquired was recorded as goodwill. The allocation of the purchase price required management to make significant estimates in determining the fair values of assets acquired and liabilities assumed, especially with respect to identifiable intangible assets. These estimated fair values were based on information obtained from management of the acquired companies and historical experience and, with respect to the long-lived tangible and intangible assets, and have not been evaluated by an independent valuation firm.

5. INTANGIBLE ASSETS

Trade Secrets

On July 18, 2021, the Company acquired On OTT Now, and has calculated the value of the trade secrets as $4,500,000, which is included in other assets on the balance sheet. The Company has determined that the trade secrets have an indefinite useful life and are therefore not amortized. The Company will evaluate this intangible asset for impairment annually.

Goodwill

On July 18, 2021, the Company acquired On OTT Now, and has calculated the value of the goodwill as $3,000,000, which is included in other assets on the balance sheet.

6. NOTES PAYABLE

On April 25, 2009, the Company issued a promissory note (the “April 2009 Note”) in the amount of $150,000, at which time the entire balance of $150,000 was received to cover operational expenses. The April 2009 Note bore interest at a rate of 10% per year and was payable upon demand. On May 11, 2021, the April 2009 Note was exchanged for common stock. At the time of the exchange, the balance due was $329,971, which included $179,971 of accrued interest. As of November 30, 2022, the balance due on the April 2009 Note was zero.

On September 23, 2014, the Company issued a promissory note (the “September 2014 Note”) in the amount of $135,000, at which time the entire balance of $135,000 was received to cover operational expenses. The September 2014 Note bore interest at a rate of 12% per year and was payable upon demand. On May 11, 2021, the September 2014 Note was exchanged for common stock. At the time of the exchange, the balance due was $242,227, which included $107,227 of accrued interest. As of November 30, 2022, the balance due on the September 2014 Note was zero.

On September 16, 2015, the Company issued a promissory note (the "September 2015 Note") in the amount of $159,174, at which time the entire balance of $159,174 was received to cover operational expenses. The September 2014 Note bore interest at a rate of 10% per year and was payable upon demand. On May 11, 2021, the September 2015 Note was exchanged for common stock. At the time of the exchange, the balance due was $249,184, which included $90,010 of accrued interest. As of November 30, 2022, the balance due on the September 2015 Note was zero.

On January 1, 2019, the Company issued a promissory note (the "January 2019 Note") in the amount of $127,900, at which time the entire balance of $127,900 was received to cover operational expenses. The January 2019 Note bore interest at a rate of 5% per year and was payable upon demand. On May 11, 2021, the January 2019 Note was exchanged for common stock. At the time of the exchange, the balance due was $142,985, which included $15,085 of accrued interest. As of November 30, 2022, the balance due on the January 2019 Note was zero.

On October 19, 2022, the Company issued an unsecured promissory note (the "October 2022 Note") in the amount of $825, at which time the entire balance of $825 was received to cover operational expenses. The October 2022 Note bore interest at a rate of 5% per year and was payable upon demand, but in no case later than October 19, 2023. As of November 30, 2022, the balance due on the October 2022 Note was $828, which include $3 of accrued interest.

Below is a summary of the debt-for-equity exchange on May 11, 2021:

Note Date	Principal	Accrued Interest	Total Due	Gain on Exchange	Common Shares Issued
April 25, 2009	$ 150,000	$ 179,971	$ 329,971
September 23, 2014	135,000	107,227	242,227
September 16, 2015	159,174	90,010	249,184
January 1, 2019	127,900	15,085	142,985
Total	$ 572,074	$ 392,293	$ 964,367	$ 665,927	3,600,000

The gain of $665,927 was calculated as the total amount due ($964,367) minus the value of the stock issued (3,600,000 x $0.0829 = $298,440).

7. CAPITAL STOCK

At November 30, 2022 and February 28, 2022, the Company's authorized stock consists of 500,000,000 shares of common stock, par value $0.001 per share, and 100,000,000 shares of preferred stock, par value of $0.001 per share. The rights, preferences and privileges of the holders of the preferred stock will be determined by the Board of Directors prior to issuance of such shares. The conversion of certain outstanding preferred stock could have a significant impact on our common stockholders. As of the date of this report, the Board has designated 10,000,000 shares of preferred stock, as Series A, 75,000 shares as Series B and 6,000 shares as Series C.

Series A Preferred

The Company designated 10,000,000 shares of preferred stock as Series A Preferred. The shares of Series A are not convertible to common stock, but each share of Series A preferred may cast the equivalent of 1,000 shares of common stock. Therefore, 10,000,000 shares of Series A preferred have the voting rights of 10,000,000,000 shares of common stock. As of November 30, 2022, the Company had 10,000,000 shares of Series A Preferred stock outstanding

Series B Preferred

The Company designated 75,000 shares of preferred stock as Series B Preferred stock. Each shares of Series B Preferred is convertible into 1,667 shares of common stock and values at $100. The Series B Preferred Stock does not have voting rights except as required by law and with respect to certain protective provisions set forth in the Certificate of Designation of Series B Preferred Stock. The Company issued 75,000 shares of Series B Preferred stock to the owners of On OTT Now, Inc. from the merger with Bokoo TV. As of November 30, 2022, the Company had 75,000 shares of Series B Preferred stock outstanding.

Series C Preferred

The Company designated 6,000 shares of preferred stock as Series C Preferred stock. Each share of Series C preferred stock converts into 13,334 shares of common stock and is valued at $100. The Series C Preferred Stock does not have voting rights except as required by law and with respect to certain protective provisions set forth in the Certificate of Designation of Series C Preferred Stock. The Company issued 1,000 shares of Series C Preferred stock to investors for $100,000. As of November 30, 2022, the Company had 1,000 shares of Series C Preferred stock outstanding.

Leases

In February 2016, the FASB issued ASU 2016-02, "Leases" Topic 842, which amends the guidance in former ASC Topic 840, Leases ("ASC 840"). The new standard increases transparency and comparability most significantly by requiring the recognition by lessees of right-of-use ("ROU") assets and lease liabilities on the balance sheet for all leases longer than 12 months. Under the standard, disclosures are required to meet the objective of enabling users of financial statements to assess the amount, timing, and uncertainty of cash flows arising from leases. For lessees, leases will be classified as finance or operating, with classification affecting the pattern and classification of expense recognition in the income statement, over the expected term on a straight-line basis. Operating leases are recognized on the balance sheet as right-of-use assets, current operating lease liabilities and non-current operating lease liabilities. We determine if an arrangement is a lease at inception. Operating leases are included in operating lease right-of-use ("ROU") assets and operating lease liabilities on our consolidated balance sheets. Finance leases are included in property and equipment, current liabilities, and long-term liabilities on our consolidated balance sheets.

When the Company initiates a lease, we will record the transaction in accordance with ASC 840.

Legal Matters

The Company may be involved in legal actions and claims arising in the ordinary course of business, from time to time, none of which at this time the Company considers to be material to the Company's business or financial condition.
