Security Description:

The goal of this section is to provide a clear understanding of the material rights and privileges of the securities issued by the company. Please provide the below information for each class of the company's equity securities, as applicable:

1. For common equity, describe any dividend, voting and preemption rights.

The holders of our common stock are entitled to one vote per share on all matters submitted to a vote of the shareholders, including the election of directors. Generally, all matters to be voted on by shareholders must be approved by a majority (or, in the case of election of directors, by a plurality) of the votes entitled to be cast by all shares of our common stock that are present in person or represented by proxy. Except as otherwise provided by law, amendments to our Articles of Incorporation generally must be approved by a majority of the votes entitled to be cast by all outstanding shares of our common stock. Our Article of Incorporation does not provide for cumulative voting in the election of directors. Holders of our common stock will be entitled to such cash dividends as may be declared from time to time by the Board from funds available. Holders of our common stock have no preemptive rights to purchase shares of our common stock. The issued and outstanding shares of our common stock are not subject to any redemption provisions and are not convertible into any other shares of our capital stock. Upon our liquidation, dissolution or winding up, the holders of our common stock will be entitled to receive pro rata all assets available for distribution to such holders.

We have never declared or paid any cash dividends on our common stock.

2. For preferred stock, describe the dividend, voting, conversion, and liquidation rights as well as redemption or Sinking fund provisions.

Series A Preferred Stock. The Series A Preferred Stock has the following voting rights: each share of Series A Preferred Stock shall have voting rights equal to four times the sum of (a) all shares of our common stock issued and outstanding at the time of voting plus (b) the total number of votes of all other classes of preferred stock which are issued and outstanding at the time of voting, divided by the number of shares of Series A Preferred Stock issued and outstanding at the time of voting. Holders of Series A Preferred Stock shall not be entitled to receive dividends. In the event of liquidation, dissolution, or winding up of our company, either voluntary or involuntary, the holder(s) of the Series A Preferred Stock shall not be entitled to receive any assets of our company. The shares of Series A Preferred Stock are not convertible into shares of our common stock.

3. Describe any other material rights of common or preferred stockholders.

None.

4. Describe any material modifications to rights of holders of the company's securities that have occurred over The reporting period covered by this report.

There have been no material modifications to rights of holders of the company's securities that occurred over the reporting period covered by this report.

3) Issuance History

The goal of this section is to provide disclosure with respect to each event that resulted in any changes to the total shares outstanding of any class of the issuer's securities in the past two completed fiscal years and any subsequent interim period.

Disclosure under this item shall include, in chronological order, all offerings and issuances of securities, including debt convertible into equity securities, whether private or public, and all shares, or any other securities or options to acquire such securities, issued for services. Using the tabular format below, please describe these events.

4) Issuer's Business, Products and Services

The purpose of this section is to provide a clear description of the issuer's current operations. (Please ensure that these descriptions are updated on the Company's Profile on www.otcm Markets.com).

A. Summarize the issuer's business operations (If the issuer does not have current operations, state "no operations")

Recent Change in Control

In November 2022, the Company's controlling shareholder, Joseph Ladin, entered into a control securities purchase agreement (the "Sale Agreement") with Loyal Technologies, LLC, pursuant to which Mr. Ladin is to sell the single share of Series A Preferred Stock which share of Series A Preferred Stock provides voting control of the Company to its holder. The Sale Agreement closed in November 2022. As a condition precedent to the closing of the Sale Agreement, the Company was required to have divested of its operating subsidiary, SFLMaven of Florida, LLC, which occurred in November 2022.

Our Business Model

The Company's new business model focuses on acquisitions or technology licensing opportunities. The Company identifies companies and/or technologies that could be impactful in their respective industries. The Company's overarching objective is to add opportunities that it believes will be accretive to the Company and its Shareholders. For example, the Company is working with one credible university on some amazing technologies in the lithium mining industry that could prove to be important to the future of electric batteries. There is no assurance that this particular pursuit will be a success for the Company. Where it makes sense, the Company intends to focus on specific verticals.

B. List any subsidiaries, parent company, or affiliated companies.

Currently, we have no subsidiaries or affiliated companies.

C. Describe the issuer's principal products or services.

The Company's new business model focuses on acquisitions or technology licensing opportunities. The Company identifies companies and/or technologies that could be impactful in their respective industries.

5) Issuer's Facilities

The goal of this section is to provide a potential investor with a clear understanding of all assets, properties or facilities owned, used or leased by the issuer and the extent in which the facilities are utilized.

In responding to this item, please clearly describe the assets, properties or facilities of the issuer, give the location of the principal plants and other property of the issuer and describe the condition of the properties. If the issuer does not have complete ownership or control of the property (for example, if others also own the property or if there is a mortgage on the property), describe the limitations on the ownership.

If the issuer leases any assets, properties or facilities, clearly describe them as above and the terms of their leases.

The Company conducts all of its corporate functions from a premises leased by it. It owns no real property.

SFLMAVEN CORP
Notes to the Financial Statements
(Unaudited)
December 31, 2022

Note 1- Organization and Description of Business

On October 5, 2020, Sun Kissed Industries, Inc. (SKI) entered into an Acquisition Agreement whereby the stock of SFL Maven, Inc. (SFLM) was exchanged for 300,000 of SKI. SFLM became a wholly owned subsidiary of SKI and Joseph Ladin became the Chief Executive Officer, President and sole Director of SKI. Mr. Ladin also received 10,000,000 shares of Company's Series A Preferred Shares representing voting control of the company. In November 2022, Mr. Ladin sold control of the Company to Chad MacKay, the Company's new Chief Executive Officer and Sole Director.

The Company's new business model focuses on acquisitions or technology licensing opportunities. The Company identifies companies and/or technologies that could be impactful in their respective industries. The Company's overarching objective is to add opportunities that it believes will be accretive to the Company and its Shareholders. For example, the Company is working with one credible university on some amazing technologies in the lithium mining industry that could prove to be important to the future of electric batteries. There is no assurance that this particular pursuit will be a success for the Company. Where it makes sense, the Company intends to focus on specific verticals.

Note 2- Significant Accounting Policies

This summary of significant accounting policies of the Company is presented to assist in understanding of the Company's financial statements. The financial statements and notes are representations of the Company's management who are responsible for the integrity and objectivity. The following policies are considered to be significant.

Accounting method

The Company recognizes income and expense on the cash method of accounting. The Company has elected a calendar year-end.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States requires management to make estimated and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, and the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenues and expense during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents consists of one bank account.

Revenue Recognition

Product sales are solely derived from sales on E-Bay and are recorded as the cash is received. There are no accounts receivable.

Note 3- Going Concern

As shown on the accompanying financial statements, the Company has incurred continuous losses from operations, has an accumulated deficit and has no cash on hand as of December 31, 2022. These factors raise substantial doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. Management is currently seeking additional sources of capital to fund short term operations through debt or equity investments. The Company however, is dependent upon its ability to secure equity and/or debt financing and there are no assurances that the Company will be successful. Therefore, without sufficient financing it would be unlikely for the Company to continue as a going concern. The financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from the outcome of any uncertainty as to the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. The financial statements also do not include any adjustments relating to the recoverability and classification of recorded asset amounts, or amounts and classifications of liabilities that might be necessary should the Company be unable to continue as a going concern.

Note 4 – Other Liabilities

In conjunction with the divestiture of the Company's operating subsidiaries, Other Loans Payable were satisfied.

Note 5 – Change in Control; Divestiture of Operating Subsidiary

On November 11, 2022, the Company's controlling shareholder, Joseph Ladin, entered into a control securities purchase agreement (the "Sale Agreement") with Loyal Technologies, LLC, pursuant to which Mr. Ladin is to sell the single share of Series A Preferred Stock which share of Series A Preferred Stock provides voting control of the Company to its holder. The Sale Agreement is expected to close prior to the close of business on November 21, 2022. As a condition precedent to the closing of the Sale Agreement, the Company was required to divest of its operating subsidiary, SFLMaven of Florida, LLC, which occurred in November 2022.

Note 6 – Note Receivable

In connection with the divestiture of the Company's operating subsidiary, the purchaser delivered a promissory note in payment of the $50,000 purchase price, which note is unsecured and is due an payable in November 2024.

Note 7 – New Business Plan

The Company's new business model focuses on acquisitions or technology licensing opportunities. The Company identifies companies and/or technologies that could be impactful in their respective industries. The Company's overarching objective is to add opportunities that it believes will be accretive to the Company and its Shareholders. For example, the Company is working with one credible university on some amazing technologies in the lithium mining industry that could prove to be important to the future of electric batteries. There is no assurance that this particular pursuit will be a success for the Company. Where it makes sense, the Company intends to focus on specific verticals.
