Item 4 Management's Discussion and Analysis or Plan of Operation.

With an increasing growth in demand for sharing economy services, TidyCall™ is following the footsteps of other highly successful companies operating in the sharing economy sector, such as Uber Technologies, Inc. and DoorDash, Inc. Thanks to its visionary management team and proprietary technology, TidyCall's goal is to become a major player in the hundred-billiondollar global cleaning service industry.

TidyCall intends to position itself as a player in the blockchain, non-fungible token and gamefi industries, besides expanding its Cleaning Service App. To better reflect this new corporate strategy and future development plan, the management has proposed a new name for the company, "Infinittek Holdings, Inc.".

Business Overview

TidyCall[™] is an on-demand cleaning services App, and its innovative easy-touse interface helps CSUs and CSPs interact efficiently when requesting and/or providing cleaning services through TidyCall[™]. Its proprietary "Two-Way-Review/Rating System" allows TidyCall CSUs and CSPs to rate and review each other discreetly after each cleaning service, incentivizing users to act in accordance with TidyCall's[™] adopted Terms and Conditions, which has resulted in higher productivity and an overall higher-quality user experience. Furthermore, TidyCall[™] utilizes Geo-Fencing technology to collect the real time geographic information of its CSPs and CSUs when a service is ordered, which helps ensure the safety of all users of the TidyCall™ services.
