March 25, 2024- Supplemental Information Disclosure for Humble Energy, Inc. (the “Company”):

On March 22, 2024, the Board of Directors of the Company nominated Mark H Morelli to the Board of Director.

Mark is a Managing Director with Waypoint Private Capital, providing a unique combination of skills, knowledge and achievement to businesses from 40+ years of a career journey working at an officer level in multiple fortune 500 corporations. He has bought and sold several small businesses and leading private equity investments through his current work with Waypoint. He has worked in the boardroom of fortune 500 companies, collaborated with operations to improve sales, profit margins and quality for customers and performed all functions in a small business ownership role from HR, financier, sales management, ownership decision, banking and funding operations for businesses. Mark also has served on several non-profit boards for numerous years. Mark’s experience as an Executive leading the investment process for the Tribally owned investment group for one of the largest Native American Tribes in the U.S. adds to his skill sets. Managing within a Small Disadvantaged Business category dealing in the private as well as government marketplace gives him a unique perspective and experience in M&A advisory.
