THIRD BENCH, INC.
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
FEBRUARY 29, 2024

NOTE 1 - BASIS OF PRESENTATION AND ORGANIZATION

The accompanying consolidated financial statements include the accounts of THIRD BENCH, INC. and its subsidiaries (together with its subsidiaries, "THBD" or the "Company" and also referred to as "we," "us," and "our"), all of which are wholly-owned. All significant intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation. The accompanying financial statements have been prepared in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP") and with the instructions to Form 10-K, Regulation S-X, and Regulation S-K. These consolidated financial statements do not include any adjustments to the recoverability and classification of recorded asset amounts and classification of liabilities that might be necessary should the Company be unable to continue as a going concern.

The Company was incorporated in Nevada on May 8, 2006. The Company has two wholly owned subsidiaries: a) Third Bench Holdings LLC ("TBH") and b) Title King LLC ("TK"). TBH is a holding company of three subsidiary companies that provide operational millwork as well as providers of cabinetry, kitchen and bath areas. TBH provides its products and services through its architectural millwork from California to Texas. At February 29, 2024, the TBH had five subsidiaries as follows:

- Las Cruces Cabinets, LLC doing business as Sher-wood Cabinets
- LL Industries, Inc. doing business as Davis Kitchens of Tucson
- Santa Fe Flooring LLC doing business as OGB Architectural Millwork
- MK Industries LTD doing business as Davis Kitchens of Albuquerque
- KMT Resources d/b/a More Window and Door

Additionally, the Company split off the countertop operations of Santa Fe Flooring LLC and created a separate entity called Third Bench Stone, LLC.

TK operates in the alternative financial services industry, providing automobile title loans to consumers who own their vehicle free and clear and need convenient and simple access to funds. Currently TK is non-operating at this time.

These consolidated financial statements were prepared on a going concern basis, which implies the Company will continue to realize its assets and discharge its liabilities in the normal course of business. The continuation of the Company as a going concern is dependent upon the Company obtaining necessary equity and debt financing until it can generate sustainable revenue. There is no guarantee the Company will be able to raise adequate equity or debt financing or generate profitable operations. For the three months ended February 29, 2024 and November 30, 2022, the Company incurred net income (loss) of ($569,177) and 372,398, respectively, and had cash outflows from operations of ($1,628) and $340,464, respectively. Cash flows from operating activities were positive in the current period principally due to borrowings from short-term lines of credit and collections on Employee Retention Credit receipts. Management intends to raise additional funds, if necessary, through equity or debt financing and to generate cash from the sale of the Company's products.

NOTE 2 – SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Accounting Method

The Company's consolidated financial statements are prepared using the accrual method of accounting. The Company has elected a fiscal year ending of August 31.

Principles of Consolidation

The accompanying consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its wholly-owned subsidiaries, TBH and TK, and have been prepared in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP"). All significant intercompany transactions and balances have been eliminated.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions. These estimates and assumptions affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates. It is possible that accounting estimates and assumptions may be material to the Company due to the levels of subjectivity and judgment involved.

Restatements

Where appropriate, financial data has been reclassified to more accurately reflect financial condition. There was no impact on net profitability due to these statements.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include cash on hand and cash in time deposits, certificates of deposit and all highly liquid debt instruments with original maturities of three months or less.

Accounts Receivable

Accounts receivable are reported at their outstanding principal balances. The Company grants credit to customers under credit terms that it believes are customary in the industry and requires collateral to support customer loan balances. Normal loan terms vary from 30-180 days. Collateral is repossessed for delinquent loans. The Company reviews its receivables quarterly and establishes a reserve when appropriate.

Long-lived Assets

Our long-lived assets include equipment and improvements, intangible assets, right-of-use assets, and goodwill. The Company continues to review its long-lived assets for possible impairment or loss of value at least annually or more frequently upon the occurrence of an event or when circumstances indicate that a reporting unit's carrying amount is greater than its fair value.

Equipment and improvements are stated at cost. Depreciation and amortization are provided using the straight-line method over the estimated useful asset lives (3 to 10 years) and the shorter of the initial lease term or estimated useful life for leasehold improvements. Intangible assets (other than goodwill) are originally recorded at fair value and are amortized on a straight-line basis over their estimated useful lives of 10 years. Maintenance and repair costs are expensed as incurred.

Right-of-use assets are measured at the present value of future minimum lease payments, including all probable renewals, plus lease payments made to the lessor before or at lease commencement and indirect costs paid, less incentives received. Our right-of-use assets include long-term leases for facilities and equipment and are amortized over their respective lease terms.

Debt Discount and Debt Issuance Costs

Debt discounts and debt issuance costs incurred in connection with the issuance of debt are capitalized and amortized to interest expense based on the related debt agreements using the straight-line method. Unamortized discounts are disclosed on the face of the financial statements and are netted against convertible notes.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

During the current fiscal year, the Company decided to adopt ASC 480- "Distinguishing Liabilities from Equity" when they enter into convertible notes, some of which contain, predominantly, fixed rate conversion features, whereby the outstanding principal and accrued interest may be converted by the holder, into common shares at a fixed discount to the market price of the common stock at the time of conversion. This results in a fair value of the convertible note being equal to a fixed monetary amount. The Company records the convertible note liability at its fixed monetary amount by measuring and recording a premium, as applicable, on the note date with a charge to interest expense.

Previously, The Company applied the provisions of ASC 820-10, "Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures." ASC 820-10 defines fair value, and establishes a three-level valuation hierarchy for disclosures of fair value measurement that enhances disclosure requirements for fair value measures. The three levels of valuation hierarchy are defined as follows:

- Level 1 inputs to the valuation methodology are quoted prices for identical assets or liabilities in active markets.
- Level 2 inputs to the valuation methodology include quoted prices for similar assets and liabilities in active markets, and inputs that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly, for substantially the full term of the financial instrument.
- Level 3 inputs to the valuation methodology are unobservable and significant to the fair value measurement.

For certain financial instruments, the carrying amounts reported in the balance sheets for cash and current liabilities, including convertible notes payable, each qualify as financial instruments and are a reasonable estimate of their fair values because of the short period of time between the origination of such instruments and their expected realization and their current market rate of interest.

The Company uses Level 2 inputs for its valuation methodology for derivative liabilities as their fair values were determined by using the Black-Scholes-Merton pricing model based on various assumptions. The Company's derivative liabilities are adjusted to reflect fair value at each period end, with any increase or decrease in the fair value being recorded in results of operations as adjustments to fair value of derivatives.

The Company analyzes all financial instruments with features of both liabilities and equity under FASB ASC Topic 480, Distinguishing Liabilities from Equity, and FASB ASC Topic 815, Derivatives and Hedging.

Derivative Financial Instruments

The Company evaluates all of its agreements to determine if such instruments have derivatives or contain features that qualify as embedded derivatives. For derivative financial instruments that are accounted for as liabilities, the derivative instrument is initially recorded at its fair value and is then re-valued at each reporting date, with changes in the fair value reported in the consolidated statements of operations. For stock-based derivative financial instruments, the Company uses a weighted average Black-Scholes-Merton option-pricing model to value the derivative instruments at inception and on subsequent valuation dates. The classification of derivative instruments, including whether such instruments should be recorded as liabilities or as equity, is evaluated at the end of each reporting period. Derivative instrument liabilities are classified in the balance sheet as current or non-current based on whether or not net-cash settlement of the derivative instrument could be required within 12 months of the balance sheet date.

Revenue Recognition

The Company recognizes revenue from interest income on consumer loans as the interest is earned. The Company's revenue recognition policies comply with FASB ASC Topic 605. Revenue is recorded when earned, which is generally over the period services are provided and no contingencies exist.

Income Taxes

The Company accounts for income taxes in accordance with ASC Topic 740, Income Taxes. ASC 740 requires a company to use the asset and liability method of accounting for income taxes, whereby deferred tax assets are recognized for deductible temporary differences, and deferred tax liabilities are recognized for taxable temporary differences. Temporary differences are the differences between the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and their tax bases. Deferred tax assets are reduced by a valuation allowance when, in the opinion of management, it is more likely than not that some portion, or all of, the deferred tax assets will not be realized. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are adjusted for the effects of changes in tax laws and rates on the date of enactment.

Under ASC 740, a tax position is recognized as a benefit only if it is "more likely than not" that the tax position would be sustained in a tax examination, with a tax examination being presumed to occur. The amount recognized is the largest amount of tax benefit that is greater than 50% likely of being realized on examination. For tax positions not meeting the "more likely than not" test, no tax benefit is recorded.

Basic and Diluted Earnings (Loss) Per Share

Earnings per share is calculated in accordance with ASC Topic 260, Earnings Per Share. Basic earnings per share ("EPS") is based on the weighted average number of common shares outstanding. Diluted EPS is based on the assumption that all dilutive convertible shares and stock warrants were converted or exercised. Dilution is computed by applying the treasury stock method. Under this method, options and warrants are assumed to be exercised at the beginning of the period (or at the time of issuance, if later), and as if funds obtained thereby were used to purchase common stock at the average market price during the period. The common shares have been adjusted for the 1:500 reverse split effective October 2, 2023.

Paycheck Protection Program Loan

The Company's policy is to account for forgivable loans received through the Small Business Administration (SBA) under the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security Act (CARES Act) Paycheck Protection Program (PPP) as a contingent liability in accordance with Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) 450-30, Contingencies, and other related accounting pronouncements. The forgiveness of debt, in whole or in part, is recognized once the forgiveness is realized or realizable, which occurs when the Company believes all uncertainties regarding the final forgiveness of the loan are resolved. Any portion of debt forgiven, adjusted for accrued interest forgiven and unamortized debt issuance costs, is recorded as a gain on extinguishment of debt, and presented in the other income section of the statement of income. See Note 11 for forgiveness of these loans.

Presentation of Gross Receipts Tax

The State of New Mexico imposes gross receipts tax (GRT) to all non-exempt customers. The majority of the Company's customers are exempt from GRT under resale or out-of-state exemptions. When an event arises which requires the Company to collect the tax from the customer, the entire tax amounts are remitted to the state's taxation authority. The Company's policy is to exclude the tax collected for the state from revenue and cost of sales.

Leases

In February 2016, the FASB updated the accounting guidance related to leases. The most significant change in the updated accounting guidance requires lessees to recognize lease assets and liabilities on the balance sheet for all operating leases with the exception of short-term leases. The standard also expands the disclosures regarding the amount, timing, and uncertainty of cash flows arising from leases. For a lessee, the recognition, measurement, and presentation of expenses and cash flows arising from a lease did not significantly change from previous guidance. We adopted the updated guidance on December 1, 2020 on a prospective basis and as a result, prior period amounts were not adjusted to reflect the impacts of the updated guidance.

Segment Information

In accordance with the provisions of ASC 280-10, "Disclosures about Segments of an Enterprise and Related Information", the Company is required to report financial and descriptive information about its reportable operating segments. The Company at one time had two operating segments, Home Furnishings and car loans. The car loan portion of the business is now dormant. Segment reporting shows Home Furnishings and the parent company.

Restatements

All financial statements for prior periods have been restated to more accurately present Financial condition. There has been no profit and loss impact on any prior period statements. These financial statements include the impact of the common stock reverse split which became effective on October 2, 2023.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

Recent Accounting Pronouncements In August 2018, the FASB issued ASU 2018-13, "Fair Value Measurement (Topic 820): Disclosure Framework—Changes to the Disclosure Requirements for Fair Value Measurement" ("ASU 2018-13"). ASU 2018-13 removes, modifies and adds certain disclosure requirements in Topic 820 "Fair Value Measurement". ASU 2018-13 eliminates certain disclosures related to transfers and the valuations process, modifies disclosures for investments that are valued based on net asset value, clarifies the measurement uncertainty disclosure, and requires additional disclosures for Level 3 fair value measurements. ASU 2018-13 is effective for the Company for annual and interim reporting periods beginning January 1, 2020. The adoption of this standard did not have a material impact on the Company's consolidated financial statements and related disclosures. In December 2019, the FASB issued authoritative guidance intended to simplify the accounting for income taxes (ASU 2019-12, "Income Taxes (Topic 740): Simplifying the Accounting for Income Taxes"). This guidance eliminates certain exceptions to the general approach to the income tax accounting model and adds new guidance to reduce the complexity in accounting for income taxes. This guidance is effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2020, including interim periods within those annual periods. The Company is currently evaluating the potential impact of this guidance on its consolidated financial statements. In January 2020, the FASB issued

ASU 2020-01, Investments - Equity Securities (Topic 321), Investments - Equity Method and Joint Ventures (Topic 323), and Derivative and Hedging (Topic 815), which clarifies the interaction of rules for equity securities, the equity method of accounting, and forward contracts and purchase options on certain types of securities. The guidance clarifies how to account for the transition into and out of the equity method of accounting when considering observable transactions under the measurement alternative. The ASU is effective for annual reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2020, including interim reporting periods within those annual periods, with early adoption permitted. The Company is currently evaluating the impact of the new guidance on our consolidated financial statements.

In August 2020, the FASB issued ASU 2020-06, Debt—Debt with Conversion and Other Options (Subtopic 470-20) and Derivatives and Hedging—Contracts in Entity's Own Equity (Subtopic 815-40): Accounting for Convertible Instruments and Contracts in an Entity's Own Equity. This ASU amends the guidance on convertible instruments and the derivatives scope exception for contracts in an entity's own equity, and also improves and amends the related EPS guidance for both Subtopics. The ASU will be effective for annual reporting periods after December 15, 2021 and interim periods within those annual periods and early adoption is permitted. The Company is currently evaluating the impact of the new guidance on our consolidated financial statements. Management does not believe that any recently issued, but not yet effective accounting pronouncements, when adopted, will have a material effect on the accompanying consolidated financial statements.

In April 2020, the FASB issued a Staff Q&A, Topic 842 and 840: Accounting For Lease Concessions Related to the Effects of the COVID-19 Pandemic in order to provide clarity regarding the accounting treatment for lease concessions provided as a result of COVID-19. Under existing lease guidance, changes to certain lease terms not specified in the original lease agreement require modification accounting treatment. To provide relief, the FASB Staff Q&A permits alternatives to modification accounting under Topic 842. For concessions related to the effects of the COVID-19 pandemic that do not result in a substantial increase in the rights of the lessor or our obligations as the lessee, we are not required to analyze each contract to determine whether enforceable rights and obligations for concessions exist in the lease agreement and can elect to apply or not apply the lease modification guidance in Topic 842. In fiscal year 2020 and 2021, no financial concessions had been taken by the Company or any of its subsidiaries.

In August 2020, the FASB issued ASU 2020-06, which amends the measurement and disclosure of convertible instruments, contracts in an entity's own equity, and EPS guidance. The guidance can be adopted using a modified retrospective method or a fully retrospective method. The amendments are effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2021 for public entities, excluding those that are smaller reporting companies. For all other entities the amendments are effective for fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2023. The Company does not expect the update to have a material impact on its consolidated financial statements and related disclosures.

In June, 2020 the FASB issued ASU No. 2020-05, Revenue from Contracts with Customers (Topic 606). Topic 606 outlines a single comprehensive model for entities to use in accounting for revenue arising from contracts with customers. The Company adopted Topic 606 in September 2019, and recognizes revenue when control of goods and services is transferred to customers. The Company recognizes revenue in accordance with ASC Topic 606. The Company recognizes revenue upon transfer of control of goods to customers.

In November, 2021, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued ASU 2021-10 Government Assistance (Topic 832) Disclosures by Business Entities about Government Assistance is effective for fiscal periods after December 15, 2021, for both public and private companies. The Company has not yet adopted this standard and has disclosed its financial assistance received in the form of Payroll Protection Program (PPP) and SBA Economic Injury Disaster (EIDL) Loans in accordance with Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) 470, Debt until the point of forgiveness and then as a government grant by analogy to International Accounting Standard (IAS) 20, Accounting for Government Grants and Disclosure of Government Assistance.

NOTE 20- INTERCOMPANY TRANSACTIONS

The Subsidiary Companies have very little activity among one another. Each Subsidiary pays or accrues a management fee to Third Bench Holdings LLC and settles those obligations as working capital permits. The Seller loan from the acquisition of Sher-wood Fine Wood Design is recorded on the books of Las Cruces Cabinets and is reimbursed by Third Bench Holdings LLC. On occasion either Third Bench Holdings LLC or one of the Equity holders may advance the Subsidiaries monies for short-term working capital. Such amounts paid by members that are not included in the consolidated financial statements are reflected in the member notes in the Current Liabilities of the Consolidated Balance Sheet. All other related party activity between the Consolidated Entities has been eliminated from the financial statements in the Consolidating of the financial statements.

NOTE 21- COVID-19

The Company, like all enterprises, is currently dealing with the impact of COVID-19 on future prospects. Recent events such as the vaccinations mitigate, but do not eliminate, the possible adverse consequences to the domestic and international economies. However, several new variants have been identified and their impact has yet to be determined.

NOTE 22- IMPACT OF CLIMATE CHANGE

The Financial Stability Board created the Task Force on Climate-related Financial Disclosures (TCFD) to improve and increase reporting of climate-related financial information. The TCFD requires that the impact of climate change upon risk assessment, capital allocation and strategic planning be discussed. Recently, Exxon Mobil has stated that the worldwide climate targets established by the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change will not be met. At this time, the impact of the world not meeting its worldwide goals cannot be quantified.
